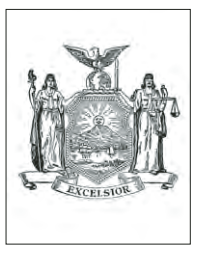
Freelance Driver Recovers Double Damages Under NYC Freelance Isn't Free Act



Judge Javier Ortiz
Civil Court

After a bench trial, the court considered claims by TLC driver Chong Yuet Li against Clean Air Car Service seeking $25,383.72 for unpaid compensation allegedly earned between 2018 and 2021 under driver agreements identifying him as an independent contractor. Li claimed unpaid 63% fare payments, unpaid 7% reserve payments contingent on insurance reimbursement, compensation for 157 cancelled "no pay" trips, and double damages under the Freelance Isn't Free Act. Clean Air argued an insurer's default excused payment and asserted counterclaims. The court held that Li was entitled to unpaid 63% fare amounts and compensation for cancelled trips, but not the disputed 7% reserve payments. The court reasoned that the contracts unambiguously conditioned the 7% payments on insurance approval and payment, which never occurred, while the 63% amounts were due regardless. Contract ambiguities regarding expiration were construed against Clean Air, and the parties' dealings created an implied contract for later trips. The court awarded $15,559.85 plus interest from May 15, 2021, dismissed the counterclaims, and granted double damages.

Contractor Secures Release of Funds Restrained to Enforce Vacated Judgment

Judge Eve Cho Guillergan
Civil Court

Caldas Corp. sued Golden Tiger Construction Inc. for $36,260 allegedly owed for trucking services, obtaining a $42,305.48 default judgment after serving the company through the secretary of state. Golden Tiger moved to vacate, asserting its owner misunderstood the deadline and that the parties had settled through a $10,780 check marked "All Bill Clear." The court granted vacatur under CPLR 5015(a)(1), although it denied relief under CPLR 317 because Golden Tiger acknowledged receiving the summons before default. Considering the circumstances, the court found a reasonable excuse based on the owner's limited English proficiency, lack of willfulness, prior efforts to dispute the debt, and prompt motion after learning Chase had restrained $84,610.96. The check, emails, alleged offsets, and claimed final accounting established potentially meritorious defenses involving payment, setoff, account stated, and accord and satisfaction. The court vacated the judgment and all enforcement restraints, ordered Chase to release the funds, rejected Caldas' request to maintain the restraint, and directed Golden Tiger to answer within 30 days after service with notice of entry thereafter.

Court Upholds Law Nullifying Adams Charter Revision Commission

Justice Ralph J. Porzio
Supreme Court

The New York City Charter Revision Commission and its members challenged a 2026 Municipal Home Rule Law amendment that nullified commissions appointed around a mayoral election unless confirmed by the incoming mayor within 180 days. Former Mayor Eric Adams created the commission on his final day in office; Mayor Zohran Mamdani later dissolved it, after which the commission advanced an open-primary ballot proposal. Petitioners sought declaratory and Article 78 relief requiring placement on the November election ballot. The court held the commission and members had capacity and standing, but three individual petitioners lacked a distinct injury. It upheld the amendment as a constitutional general law because it applies prospectively statewide, rationally regulates lame-duck appointments, and did not require a New York City home-rule message. Commissioners lacked a protected property interest supporting due process claims, and Mamdani acted within the statutory period. Finding no relevant privileged information, the court declined to disqualify petitioners' counsel. It denied petitioners' motion, granted respondents' dismissal motions, and dismissed the petition entirely.

No Service Efforts, Defective Pleadings Defeat CPLR 306-b Extension

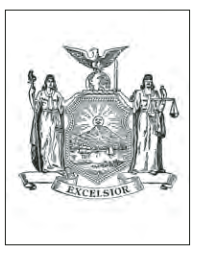
Justice James L. Hyer
Supreme Court

A self-represented plaintiff commenced a divorce action and sought execution of a letter rogatory, authorization to transmit documents for service on the defendant in Colombia, and a 120-day extension under CPLR 306-b. The court denied the motion, holding that neither good cause nor the interest of justice supported additional service time. Although the Inter-American Convention permits service through letters rogatory, it is not exclusive, and CPLR 313 also authorized service abroad. Plaintiff showed no attempt to use either method and miscalculated the deadline from the amended summons rather than the initial November 26, 2025 summons, making service due March 26, 2026. The court also found the application incomplete because no proposed letter rogatory or required convention forms were submitted. Additionally, both summonses omitted the basis for venue and plaintiff's address, prejudicing defendant's ability to challenge venue, while the complaint was undated, unsigned and unverified. Concluding that plaintiff lacked diligence and sought permission to serve defective pleadings, the court denied every requested form of relief.

M.W.O. v. M.F.T.M., (redacted) (Sept. 14)

WESTCHESTER | PREMISES LIABILITY

Housing Authority Not Liable for Baseball Bat Assault by Tenants



Justice Robert S. Ondrovic
Supreme Court

Two public-housing residents sued Green A.B. Housing Authority for negligence and premises liability after residents attacked them with a baseball bat at Glenville Gardens. Plaintiffs alleged the authority knew about prior harassment, threats, and an earlier altercation, and assumed a protective duty through lease provisions and its "one strike" policy. The court granted the authority summary judgment, holding it lacked the authority, ability, and opportunity to control the assailants and had no notice making the July 2022 attack foreseeable. The power to commence eviction proceedings did not provide an effective means to prevent one tenant from attacking another or create a special duty. Most prior harassments occurred at school or through social media, plaintiffs made no specific complaints establishing violent threats, and relevant officials denied prior knowledge. An employee's personal awareness could not be imputed to the authority because she learned of the dispute as a resident and parent, not through her employment. Finding plaintiffs raised no triable factual issue, the court dismissed the complaint and denied all remaining relief.

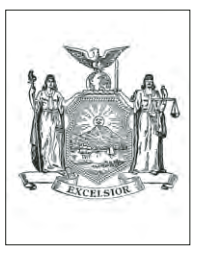
DSS Child Abuse Investigation File Remains Sealed After Unfounded Finding



Justice Thomas D. Buchanan
Supreme Court

Plaintiff Josephene Jones, on behalf of her child K.M., sought to compel the Saratoga County Department of Social Services (DSS), a nonparty, to produce an unredacted investigative file and related materials concerning allegations that daycare employee Aaron Charles sexually abused K.M. in 2022 or 2023. DSS and defendants opposed disclosure, arguing that the records were protected because the underlying child abuse report had been deemed unfounded. The court reviewed the submitted materials in camera and examined Social Services Law § 422 and related regulations. It held that DSS investigative records from an unfounded child abuse case are sealed and unavailable to the plaintiff. The court reasoned that § 422(5) broadly covers all information identifying persons named in an unfounded report and, when read with 18 NYCRR §432.9, extends to the entire investigative file, not merely the report itself. Because the records were sealed, further confidentiality analysis was unnecessary. The court denied the motion and noted plaintiff possessed alternative discovery sources for pursuing relevant information elsewhere independently.

SECOND CIRCUIT | CRIMINAL APPEALS

Appeal Waiver Bars Guidelines Challenge Despite Miscarriage-of-Justice Exception

Circuit Judge Debra Ann Livingston
U.S. Court of Appeals

The panel enforced defendant's appeal waiver and rejected his effort to challenge a 100-month drug trafficking sentence based on an allegedly inflated criminal history score. Defendant had agreed not to appeal any prison sentence of 135 months or less but argued the court should apply a miscarriage-of-justice exception after the Supreme Court's decision in U.S. v. Hunter. The panel recognized that an appeal waiver may be unenforceable in an extreme case where enforcing it would produce a miscarriage of justice but held ordinary Guidelines disputes do not meet that demanding standard. The court said defendant's challenge to the scoring of prior convictions was the kind of routine sentencing issue covered by a valid waiver, especially as his plea agreement warned that any Guidelines estimate was preliminary. The panel also upheld two supervised release conditions that had been incorporated by reference to a standing order, finding that any failure to make an individualized assessment was harmless as the reasons for financial disclosure and search conditions were self-evident from the forfeiture order, defendant's criminal history and his supervision violations.

Contract, IP Claims Survive in Part Over Manufacturer Breakup, Alleged Product Copying

District Judge Ronnie Abrams
Southern District

Smartphone maker iOttie may proceed with core contract, trademark and patent claims against its former Korean manufacturing partner HSM and HSM's owner, but many of its related business tort and trade secret claims were dismissed. The smartphone mount maker alleged HSM refused to deliver ordered products; withheld tooling and design materials during iOttie's transition to a new manufacturer; and marketed competing products using iOttie branding or similar designs. iOttie plausibly alleged a breach claim based on HSM's alleged withholding of goods, finding that course of dealing allegations could support iOttie's position on payment timing and that HSM's alleged failure to ship the products was unreasonable. However, it dismissed the contract theory tied to HSM's alleged agreement to cooperate in the manufacturing transition, along with iOttie's conversion, replevin, trade secret, trade dress, tortious interference, unjust enrichment, implied covenant and standalone declaratory judgment claims. The case will continue on surviving breach, common law and federal trademark, and patent infringement claims, including direct patent and trademark claims against HSM's owner.

iOttie Inc. v. HSM Co. Ltd., 25-CV-2642 (Sept. 8)

U.S. - SDNY | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Accommodation Request Sends Claims to Jury Despite Performance Problems

District Judge Margaret M. Garnett
Southern District

A former Kroll director may take his disability discrimination and retaliation claims to trial after the court found a jury could conclude his accommodation request played some role in his termination. The record showed significant performance problems, and the court acknowledged that plaintiff's case was not strong. However, under the liberal NYCHRL and NYSHRL standards, Kroll had to show discrimination or retaliation played no role in the firing. The court found enough factual dispute around a client secondment opportunity that arose after plaintiff returned from medical leave and had a full-time remote work accommodation. Kroll allegedly presented the secondment as a chance for him to prove himself, then withdrew it after he requested a modified accommodation allowing him to be onsite two days a week instead of three. The employee who ultimately received the secondment was permitted to work on the same two-day onsite schedule, and plaintiff was placed on a PIP shortly after his request. That timing allowed a jury to find that Kroll fired him not only because of performance issues, but also at least partly because of his disability-related accommodation request.

Dumas v. Kroll LLC, 23-CV-05013 (Sept. 8)

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL RIGHTS

Rooker-Feldman and Younger Bar Civil Rights Suit Challenging Custody Orders

District Judge Nelson S. Román
Southern District

A father's civil rights suit over state custody proceedings and an alleged marriage-coercion scheme was dismissed with prejudice after the court found plaintiff's claims either attacked state court custody orders or failed to plead a viable federal civil rights theory. The plaintiff alleged that state and private defendants conspired to deprive him of due process, equal protection and familial association rights by linking custody outcomes and professional privileges to an alleged coerced marriage. However, the court held his requests to void temporary orders of protection, restore an earlier custody arrangement and recover damages for loss of custody were barred by the Rooker-Feldman doctrine as they would require federal review and rejection of state court custody rulings. The court also found Younger abstention independently barred federal interference with ongoing custody matters. The remaining professional reputation claims failed because the complaint did not plausibly allege private defendants acted under color of state law for §1983 purposes or that any §1985 conspiracy was motivated by protected class animus.

Levitin v. Rottenberg, 25-cv-8524 (Sept. 1)

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Personal Jurisdiction Splits Bond Fraud Claims Against Alleged Conspirators

District Judge Sanket J. Bulsara
Eastern District

Investment fraud claims over a failed $1.5 million bond transaction may proceed against Energy Funding Solutions (EFS) and principal David Nepo after the court found personal jurisdiction over them, but the claims against attorney Roy Lustig were dismissed. Plaintiffs alleged they were induced to buy a medium-term note as the first step toward obtaining $20 million to $200 million in real estate financing, but the funds were instead redirected to facilitate a $2.4 million note for EFS and distributed to several parties. The Securities Exchange Act's nationwide service provision supported jurisdiction over Nepo and EFS on the Rule 10b-5 claim as both are U.S.-based, and NY's conspiracy jurisdiction doctrine supported jurisdiction over them on the remaining claims based on their alleged participation with NY-based defendants. However, the court found no jurisdiction over Lustig, who allegedly sent one email and routed funds via his attorney trust account at Nepo's direction, as those limited acts did not show awareness of NY-based conduct or purposeful NY business activity. The motion was granted as to Lustig and denied as to EFS and Nepo, allowing discovery to resume.

CCP Part Rules

Cases appearing on the DCM and CCP Calendars in the Trial Assignment Part are ready for trial. Pursuant to 22 NYCRR §202.27, failure by counsel for a party plaintiff or a self-represented party plaintiff to appear will subject that case to dismissal. Failure by counsel for a party defendant or self-represented party defendant to appear will subject the case to an immediate inquest.

All cases appearing on the DCM Trial Calendar will be disposed pursuant to the time limits set forth in 22 NYCRR §202.19.

Attorney service may answer the Calendar and request an adjournment, within the 22 NYCRR §202.19 time frame, only on consent of all parties.

In all cases in which a party intends to present a motion in limine, that party shall so advise the Court prior to jury selection.

All stipulations of settlement recorded by the court on the report of settlement and entered into the clerk's computer record system are valid and enforceable pursuant to CPLR 2104.

The following calendars are subject to changes — including adjournments — which may occur prior to the court date. Please call the Court Clerk to verify.

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statue of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE
When Models Are so Capable They Can't Be Released
By Katherine B. Forrest
June 30, 2026
After more than a year of a totally hands-off approach to federal regulation, on June 2, the White House issued an executive order outlining a voluntary 30-day process for pre-reviewing very high capability AI models.
If an AI model meets certain yet-to-be-developed and perhaps never-to-be-publicly-released benchmarks (because they will be classified), they would be designated "covered frontier models". Once designated, the developer would collaborate with the Federal Government and "select trusted partners" to "promote secure innovation and strengthen the cybersecurity of critical infrastructure."
Three days later, on June 5, the White House issued a National Security Presidential Memorandum (NSPM) 11, on the topic of "Artificial Intelligence and the National Security Enterprise." NSPM 11 states both that the federal government should not get in the way of innovation, while also stating that there are use cases that can "protect our warfighters during peacetime and on the battlefield, enable precise operations that minimize harm to civilians, and ensure the United States continues to maintain technical overmatch against our adversaries and strategic competitors."
Katherine B. Forrest
NSPM 11 states that it is the policy of the current administration to "accelerate the development and use of AI for national security applications."
So where did all this come from and does it signal increased federal regulation of AI generally?
Well the answer to the first question is easier than the answer to the second. There's a backstory to the Executive Order and NSPM 11 that starts with the reality that the capabilities of AI models has been increasing at a rapid pace. But a second part that has to do with increased
