LLC's Pro Se Member Cannot Litigate on Company's Behalf, Motion Denied

Judge Wendy Changyong Li
Civil Court

Plaintiff Mantis Funding sued Boss Hawg Trucking Logistics LLC and S.T. Riles seeking $8,501 for alleged breach of a merchant cash advance agreement, personal guaranty and unjust enrichment. After earlier motions to dismiss were denied, defendants filed additional motions seeking default judgment, dismissal of the complaint, sanctions, removal of liens and other relief. The court denied both motions in their entirety. The court held that the LLC could not appear through Riles, a nonlawyer member, and was required to be represented by counsel. It further held that defendants' requests for dismissal were barred by CPLR 3211(e)'s single-motion rule because prior dismissal motions had already been decided. The court reasoned that CPLR 3215 did not support defendants' demand for default judgment because plaintiff had not abandoned the action. It also found that personal jurisdiction had already been established through the agreement's consent-to-jurisdiction clause and that no evidence supported sanctions. The case was set for a pretrial conference, and the LLC was ordered to appear by counsel.

Records Custodian Affidavit Insufficient to Prove Performance Under Funding Agreement

Justice Andrew S. Amer
Supreme Court

Plaintiff Cityline Funding Group Inc. sought summary judgment against JMC Home Delivery LLC and its owner, Jorge M. Contreas-Valenzu, arising from a merchant cash advance agreement and personal guaranty. Cityline alleged it paid JMC $38,755 in exchange for future receivables valued at $55,200 and claimed defendants breached the agreement, leaving an unpaid balance of approximately $46,000. Defendants opposed the motion, arguing among other things that the transaction constituted a usurious loan. The court denied summary judgment in its entirety. The court held that Cityline failed to establish a prima facie entitlement to judgment as a matter of law because it did not adequately prove its own performance under the agreement. The court reasoned that the affidavit submitted by Cityline's records custodian did not specify the amount actually funded or include admissible banking records showing transfer of funds to JMC. The submitted payment history also failed to demonstrate the amount advanced. Because Cityline failed to prove performance, its breach of contract, guaranty, and unjust enrichment claims could not be resolved on summary judgment.

Structured Settlement Sale Rejected Over Lack of Documentation and Fairness Concerns

Justice Aaron D. Maslow
Supreme Court

J.G. Wentworth Originations LLC petitioned under the Structured Settlement Protection Act (SSPA) for approval of a transfer of structured-settlement payment rights belonging to Kiyoshi Wilkinson. In exchange for assigning future payments totaling $605,649.60, including monthly payments and life-contingent benefits, Wilkinson would receive a lump sum of $25,000. The petition asserted that the proceeds would be used to address debt, license reinstatement costs, vehicle expenses and housing needs. Wilkinson had previously sought multiple transfers of her structured-settlement rights, several of which had been approved. The court denied the application and dismissed the proceeding. The court held that J.G. Wentworth failed to establish the findings required by General Obligations Law § 5-1706, including that the transfer was in the payee's best interest and fair and reasonable. The court reasoned that the petition lacked required details concerning prior transfer applications, provided insufficient documentation supporting Wilkinson's stated needs, and proposed an extreme discount, with $605,649.60 in payments exchanged for only $25,000.

J.G. Wentworth Originations, LLC v. Prudential, 502160/2026 (Sept. 8)

NASSAU | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Default Judgment Against Sign Company Vacated Despite Failure to Excuse Default

Justice Sarika Kapoor
Supreme Court

Ohio Security Insurance Company and The Ohio Casualty Insurance Company sued Nation Sign & Lighting Inc. and obtained a clerk's default judgment for $448,994.59 after the defendant failed to answer the complaint. The defendant moved under CPLR 5015 to vacate the judgment and sought additional time to answer, arguing that settlement discussions with plaintiff's counsel provided a reasonable excuse for its default and that it possessed a meritorious defense because it did not owe the claimed debt. The court granted the request to vacate the clerk's judgment but denied the request for an extension of time to answer. The court held that the defendant failed to establish a reasonable excuse for its default. However, the court reasoned that the clerk lacked authority to enter the judgment because the damages sought were not a "sum certain" within the meaning of CPLR 3215(a). As a result, the judgment could not stand even though the defendant failed to satisfy the requirements for relief from default. The court vacated the judgment, denied additional time to answer, and directed that the matter proceed to a damages inquest.

WESTCHESTER | CLASS ACTIONS

Acme Defeats Class Action Over 'Stone Ground Wheat Crackers' Labeling

Justice Charles D. Wood
Supreme Court

Plaintiff Britta Harbour filed a putative class action against Acme Markets Inc., alleging that the company's "stone ground wheat crackers" packaging misled consumers into believing the product's primary wheat ingredient was whole wheat or whole grain rather than unbleached wheat flour. She claimed she paid a premium price for the crackers and asserted causes of action under General Business Law §§ 349 and 350 for deceptive practices and false advertising. The court granted defendant's motion to dismiss. The court held that Harbour had standing because she adequately alleged an injury based on paying a premium price, but claims based on purchases before February 4, 2023 were time-barred and the complaint failed to state a viable cause of action. The court reasoned that "stone ground" describes a milling process and would not lead a reasonable consumer to conclude the crackers were predominantly whole grain. It found persuasive federal precedent involving similar labeling and determined that images of coarse-looking crackers did not materially alter the message. Any potential ambiguity was cured by the ingredient list and nutrition information.

Harbour v. ACME Markets, Inc., 56892/2026 (Sept. 9)

ROCKLAND | ZONING

Injunction Granted After Court Finds Enforcement Could Cut Off Sole Access to Property

Justice John P. Collins Jr.
Supreme Court

Ramapo Field LLC brought a hybrid Article 78 proceeding and declaratory judgment action challenging a Village of Sloatsburg Zoning Board of Appeals determination that treated commercial use of a 50-foot-wide access road serving its landlocked property as a separate, prohibited land use. The company alleged it owned the roadway and that neighboring businesses, including Sterling Carting, used it under easements. The court granted Ramapo Field's request for a preliminary injunction and CPLR 7805 stay, finding a likelihood of success, irreparable harm, and equities favoring preservation of the status quo. The court reasoned that enforcing the zoning determination would eliminate the property's only vehicular access and undermine a prior ruling recognizing ingress and egress rights. The court also granted in part Sterling's dismissal motion, holding Sterling remained a necessary party to the Article 78 and declaratory claims because its easement interests could be affected by any judgment. However, constitutional claims for taking, due process, and equal protection were dismissed against Sterling because no governmental conduct was alleged.

Ramapo Field, LLC v. Village of Sloatsburg, 032198/2026 (Sept. 22)

SECOND CIRCUIT | CRIMINAL APPEALS

Prior NY Sex Conviction Supports Mandatory Life Sentence for Federal Child Sex Offenses

Circuit Judge Reena Raggi
U.S. Court of Appeals

A prior New York conviction for first-degree criminal sexual act by forcible compulsion qualified as a prior sex conviction under 18 U.S.C. §3559(e), supporting mandatory life sentences for subsequent federal child sexual exploitation convictions. Although the New York forcible compulsion provision does not precisely track the elements of the federal aggravated sexual abuse statute, the categorical approach did not require a perfect match to a single federal offense. Instead, the relevant question was whether conduct criminalized by the New York statute necessarily constituted aggravated sexual abuse or sexual abuse under federal law. The court determined that there was no realistic way to violate the New York provision through forcible compulsion without engaging in conduct covered by at least one of those federal offenses. Differences between the state and federal statutes therefore did not make the New York offense categorically broader. Because defendant's prior conviction fell within §3559(e)'s definition of a prior sex conviction, it triggered the statute's mandatory life sentence provision for his later federal offenses.

Civil Conspiracy Claim Survives Based on Alleged Agreement to Retaliate

District Judge Jessica G.L. Clarke
Southern District

A civil conspiracy claim against attorneys for the Village of Elmsford survived dismissal in an action alleging retaliation against two longtime village residents after one plaintiff inadvertently began a Facebook livestream. The alleged retaliation campaign ultimately resulted in the other plaintiff losing his job as the village's director of information technology. The court dismissed plaintiffs' unlawful termination and retaliation claims against the attorney defendants because those causes of action were not asserted against them, and it also dismissed the official capacity claims against the attorneys. Claims for attorney misconduct under New York Judiciary Law §487(1) and tortious interference likewise failed. The civil conspiracy claim, however, was sufficiently pleaded to proceed against the attorney defendants, leaving them potentially liable on that theory despite dismissal of the other claims addressed in their motion. The court granted the motion to dismiss in part and denied it in part and declined to give plaintiffs leave to amend the dismissed claims because they had not identified additional allegations that could cure the pleading deficiencies.

Eannazzo v. The Vill. Of Elmsford, New York, 25-CV-9585 (Sept. 17)

U.S. - SDNY | LABOR LAW

IBM Executive Assistants' Duties Do Not Involve Discretion on Matters of Significance

District Judge Philip M. Halpern
Southern District

IBM executive administrative assistants were not subject to the administrative exemption from federal and state overtime requirements because their primary duties did not involve discretion and independent judgment on matters of significance. Their responsibilities principally involved calendars, travel, expenses, administrative tasks and communications support, and although they exercised some judgment in performing those duties, their work was essentially secretarial rather than managerial. IBM's own classification of the employees as non-exempt also supported that conclusion. The employees therefore obtained summary judgment dismissing IBM's administrative exemption defense. The named plaintiff's FLSA and NYLL overtime claims survived because evidence that she told her manager about unreported work, worked through lunch periods attended by managers and informed IBM that she routinely shortened her lunch break created a factual dispute over whether IBM knew about uncompensated overtime. Her remaining NYLL claims for failure to pay all wages, unlawful wage deductions and inaccurate wage statements were dismissed.

Burgard v. Int'l Bus. Machines Corp., 24-CV-02885 (Sept. 17)

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Data Breach Claims Dismissed Absent Concrete Harm From Exposure of Patient Information

District Judge Nelson S. Román
Southern District

Patients whose personal and health information was exposed through a vulnerability in a database supporting Johnson & Johnson's Janssen CarePath platform lacked Article III standing to pursue data breach claims against J&J and IBM because they failed to allege concrete harm resulting from the incident. Plaintiffs asserted negligence, contract, fiduciary duty, consumer protection and other claims based on unauthorized access to information including names, contact information, insurance information, medications and medical conditions. However, plaintiffs did not allege misuse or attempted misuse of their data, and claimed mitigation expenses, lost time, emotional distress and diminished value of their information did not establish an independent injury. A benefit of the bargain theory also failed because plaintiffs did not allege that they exchanged consideration for a particular level of data security. Because they had already been given an opportunity to amend their standing allegations and identified no additional facts that could cure the deficiencies, the complaint was dismissed without further leave to amend.

Malinowski v. Int'l Bus. Machines Corp., 23-CV-8421 (Sept. 17)

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Power of Attorney Does Not Give Doctor Standing to Sue for Patient's ERISA Benefits

District Judge Sanket J. Bulsara
Eastern District

A doctor lacked Article III standing to pursue an ERISA claim against Estée Lauder for more than $163,000 in allegedly unpaid benefits because a power of attorney from the patient did not give the doctor an ownership interest in the claim. The doctor sued as attorney-in-fact for a patient who underwent knee surgery performed by another physician at the medical practice where he worked, alleging that Estée Lauder paid only $497.62 of a $163,872.01 bill. Applying a recent Second Circuit decision involving a materially indistinguishable action by the same doctor, the court explained that a power of attorney merely authorizes an agent to act for another person and, unlike an assignment, does not transfer legal title or a proprietary interest in a claim. The complaint also showed that the doctor was suing in his own name and seeking payment for himself or the medical practice rather than asserting the patient's claim in the patient's name. Because he had not personally suffered an injury and held no ownership interest in the ERISA claim, he lacked Article III standing. The complaint was dismissed without prejudice for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

Calendar Control Part 1

Justice R. Bruce Cozzens
516-493-3172

CCP Part Rules

Cases appearing on the DCM and CCP Calendars in the Trial Assignment Part are ready for trial. Pursuant to 22 NYCRR §202.27, failure by counsel for a party plaintiff or a self-represented party plaintiff to appear will subject that case to dismissal. Failure by counsel for a party defendant or self-represented party defendant to appear will subject the case to an immediate inquest.

All cases appearing on the DCM Trial Calendar will be disposed pursuant to the time limits set forth in 22 NYCRR §202.19.

Attorney service may answer the Calendar and request an adjournment, within the 22 NYCRR §202.19 time frame, only on consent of all parties.

In all cases in which a party intends to present a motion in limine, that party shall so advise the Court prior to jury selection.

All stipulations of settlement recorded by the court on the report of settlement and entered into the clerk's computer record system are valid and enforceable pursuant to CPLR 2104.

The following calendars are subject to changes — including adjournments — which may occur prior to the court date. Please call the Court Clerk to verify.

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statue of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
