NEW YORK | BANKING AND FINANCE LAWS

Motion to Amend Complaint For Inappropriate Wiring of $208,930.94 Denied

Plaintiff DB Protective, LLC commenced an action to compel defendant, JP Morgan Chase Bank, to return $208,930.94 that had been wired from a DB account at Chase to another account from an allegedly embezzling former employee, Dor Kenet. Chase brought a third-party action against Kenet and his principals Bar Tarnovski, Dennis Polonski, and Gali Wylar seeking entitlement to the fund. Plaintiff cross claimed against the principals alleging Polonski aided Kenet in his attempt to divert funds from the account. Plaintiff then moved to amend the complaint to assert causes of action against Kenet and Polonski. Plaintiff submitted a note of issue on December 15, 2025 and Polonski and Kenet moved to vacate the issue arguing there was still discovery needed. The motion to vacate the note of issue was denied but limited discovery was allowed despite a waiver by Kenet and Polonski. The court held plaintiff should have anticipated Kenet and Polonski would have wanted discovery for the amended pleadings. Plaintiff's amended complaint that contained new claims and facts raised questions as to whether Polonski and Kenet had sufficient opportunity to give their discovery request.

RICHMOND | FAMILY LAW

Defendant Found in Contempt; Failed to Pay Child Support and Spousal Maintenance

In a matrimonial action, plaintiff moved to have the defendant in civil contempt for alleged deliberate noncompliance with court orders. Defendant failed to comply with the order to pay the plaintiff $1,500 per month in child support and then failed to pay $3,081.75 per month after a later order. Defendant also failed to pay $1,896.91 per month in spousal maintenance. Defendant gave a $3,000 check for his arrears which were rejected. The order further required defendant to pay 72% of statutory add-on expenses, give $15,000 in counsel fees, contribute $10,800 toward a court-appointed forensic evaluator and be in compliance with mortgage and utilities. Defendant argued that he earned approximately $52,000 annually following the alleged loss of a business interest. Defendant alleged he was unemployed and was fired by his brother. Defendant provided no evidence for this claim. Plaintiff's motion was granted. The court held defendant's opposition lacked credibility. It was unsupported by evidence and not supported by the record. No triable issue of fact was raised. The court found that the defendant's violations were willful and deliberate.

SECOND CIRCUIT | EDUCATION LAW

Second Circuit Upholds 12:1:4 Special Education Placement for Student Under IDEA

The panel affirmed the district court's judgment in favor of the New York City Department of Education (DOE), holding that student O.F.'s June 2021 individualized education program (IEP) lawfully placed him in a 12:1:4 classroom and did not deny him a free appropriate public education under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). After previously certifying a question to the New York Court of Appeals, the panel relied on that court's answer that class size provisions in 8 N.Y.C.R.R. §200.6(h)(4) set out alternative placement options rather than cumulative requirements. As O.F. had both multiple severe disabilities and highly intensive management needs, he could properly be assigned either to a 12:1:4 class or a 6:1:1 class, and the DOE could choose the placement it found best suited his needs. The panel deferred to the School Review Officer's (SRO) conclusion that the 12:1:4 placement was appropriate in light of O.F.'s need for greater adult support from multiple professionals, as well as his poor attendance and lack of progress in the prior 6:1:1 setting. Finding the SRO's reasoning adequate, the panel left the district court's judgment intact.

U.S. - SDNY | DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Sexual Harassment Exception Is Inapplicable; Discrimination Claims to Be Arbitrated

Plaintiff, a former employee of Morgan Stanley, alleged that as one of only two Black women on her team, she was treated less favorably than her white, male colleagues. The court granted Morgan Stanley's motion to compel arbitration of plaintiff's discrimination and retaliation claims, holding that the allegations did not fall within the Ending Forced Arbitration of Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment Act (EFAA). Plaintiff contended that she was subjected to disparate treatment, microaggressions and retaliation by supervisors, but the court concluded that these allegations — while potentially supporting discrimination claims — did not plausibly constitute "sexual harassment" under the EFAA's standard. Because the conduct alleged amounted to differential treatment rather than qualifying harassment, the statutory exception to arbitration did not apply. The court rejected defendant's request to dismiss certain claims on the merits, noting that arbitrability must be resolved before merits issues and that all claims remain for the arbitrator to decide. Finding the arbitration agreement valid and applicable, the court stayed the action pending arbitration.

NEW YORK | PERSONAL INJURY

Court Finds Triable Issues of Parish And Archdiocese Liability in CVA Abuse Case

Plaintiff commenced a Child Victims Action (CVA) proceeding for the alleged sexual abuse perpetrated by Father Michael O'Herlihy while plaintiff was a student at the parish of St. Peter, St. Paul and Assumption Church. Plaintiff detailed many instances in which he was allegedly sexually abused by Father O'Herlihy such as when the Father attempted to kiss plaintiff's ear, being chased into the woods by the Father and being watched by the Father as plaintiff and other boys took showers while on a trip to Coney Island. The Parish and Archdiocese moved for summary judgment to dismiss the claims. The motions were denied. The court held there were issues of fact if the Parish "had a hand" in allowing Father O'Herlihy near plaintiff and may be liable for allowing plaintiff in a potentially hazardous environment. As for the Archdiocese, the court held if certain employees at the Parish were acting with the Archdiocese's consent when they learned of Father O'Herlihy's abusive conduct, the action would be imputed to the Archdiocese as to whether they had constructive or actual notice.

WESTCHESTER | MOTOR VEHICLE TORTS

Conflicting Accounts of Causation Preclude Summary Judgment in Multi-Vehicle Car Crash

In an action to recover damages for personal injuries sustained in a multi car accident, both plaintiff and defendant moved for summary judgment. Plaintiff alleged that defendant's motor vehicle—the first vehicle in a five-car collision—hit the vehicle behind hers, which then propelled into her car. Plaintiff moved for partial summary judgment on the issue of liability and to strike defendant's affirmative defenses. Plaintiff's motion to strike was granted, but the other relief requested was denied. The court held that defendant raised questions of fact as to whether his actions caused or contributed to the accident. Defendant affirmed that he was not the one who instigated the multi car collision. Although he hit the rear of the second vehicle, this did not cause the second vehicle to be pushed forward into plaintiff's car. Plaintiff did not actually see if defendant's impact caused the second vehicle to push into her. There were no affidavits submitted by any other parties involved in the accident, nor was there any deposition or expert witness testimony provided.

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Estate Dispute Dismissed for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction Over Out-of-State Defendants

Plaintiff, acting on behalf of his infant daughter K.W., alleged that defendants participated in a scheme to deprive K.W. of her inheritance and her share of the proceeds from her mother's wrongful death settlement. Defendants moved to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction. The court dismissed plaintiff's §1983 and related civil rights action, holding that it lacked personal jurisdiction over the Tennessee-based defendants. The court found no basis for jurisdiction under New York's long-arm statute as all alleged conduct, including probate proceedings, appointment of a guardian ad litem, and settlement of the wrongful death claim, occurred in Tennessee or North Carolina, and none of the defendants transacted business, committed tortious acts, or engaged in persistent conduct in New York. The court noted that the mere fact that the plaintiff and K.W. resided in New York was insufficient to establish jurisdiction. The court added that exercising jurisdiction would violate due process since defendants lacked minimum contacts with New York and had not purposefully availed themselves of the forum. Accordingly, the court granted defendants' motions to dismiss.

U.S. - EDNY | TRADE SECRETS

Court Partially Dismisses Trade Secret, Fiduciary Duty Suit Against Former Employee

Plaintiff E-Distributors, Inc. alleged that during defendant's tenure as marketing director, he breached his fiduciary duties and misappropriated the company's confidential business information. Among other things, the court rejected defendant's argument that additional parties were required under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 19, finding the issue conceded. It also held that plaintiff adequately pleaded fraud and fraudulent inducement with particularity, including allegations that defendant secretly owned a vendor to which he diverted business and confidential information. The court also sustained claims for breach of fiduciary duty and faithless servant liability, concluding defendant's alleged self-dealing, misuse of trade secrets, and retention of company property plausibly established misconduct and damages. Claims related to trade secret misappropriation likewise survived due to sufficiently detailed allegations. However, several contract-based claims were dismissed, while claims for implied contract, good faith and fair dealing, and tortious interference with contract were dismissed with prejudice as abandoned or duplicative.

Court Unseals Records of Third Parties In Burglary Case in Interest of Judicial Economy

Defendant Frandy Volmar was charged with burglary in the first degree. Defendant moved to unseal the records of third parties whose records were sealed pursuant to New York CPL 160.50. The third parties were involved in a motor vehicle accident that escalated into a fight. The third parties were arrested. Defendant was alleged to have entered the home of one of parties and hit one of the parties with a metal pipe. The defendant argued that the records were necessary to the defendant's constitutional right to present a defense. The Brooklyn District Attorney's Office consented to the unsealing since the records were likely subject to automatic discovery. The court ruled that if the People believed the records were automatically discoverable, then they should have sought to be designated as an agent of the third parties for purposes of unsealing the records. However, in the interest of judicial economy and because of the facts of the case, the court exercised its powers to unseal its own records for an in camera inspection.

RICHMOND | TRUSTS AND ESTATES

Accounting Petition Survives as Court Strikes Portions of Accountant's Affirmation

A proposed order to show cause was made seeking to dismiss the petition to compel an accounting of the decedent's testamentary trust. Lewis Werb, decedent, was survived by his spouse Florence Werb and his adult children. A petition for letters testamentary and letter of trusteeship was made by one of the children, Stanley Werb. A petition for compulsory accounting was filed by the trust beneficiary, Terry Martin. Petitioner filed a memorandum of law in opposition to respondent-trustee's motion to dismiss the petition for compulsory accounting. An affirmation in opposition was also filed which included the "Affirmation of James O'Brien." Thereafter, the motion to strike portions of the O'Brien affirmation was filed. The order to show cause seeking to strike portions of the affidavit by forensic accountant James O'Brien was granted in part and denied in part, with leave to renew in the appropriate proceeding. The court held the inquiry into prejudicial allegations against James O'Brien were not relevant. Therefore, it warranted striking paragraphs 4 through 31 of O'Brien's affirmation.

U.S. - SDNY | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Court Largely Upholds Jury Verdict Against Google, Cuts Punitive Damages

Plaintiff, a former technical director, brought an action against her former employer, Google LLC, asserting claims of sex discrimination and retaliation under §§194 and 215 of the New York Labor Law (NYLL), as well as gender discrimination and retaliation under the New York City Human Rights Law. The court largely upheld a jury verdict finding that Google unlawfully discriminated and retaliated against plaintiff. While the jury rejected plaintiff's equal pay claim under NYLL §194, it found that Google treated her less favorably, at least in part because of her gender and retaliated against her for complaining about leveling disparities. The court denied Google's renewed motion for judgment, concluding that sufficient evidence supported the jury's findings, including disparities in leveling between plaintiff and similarly situated male colleagues and temporal proximity between her complaints and adverse actions. However, the court granted in part Google's motion for remittitur, reducing the jury's $1 million punitive damages award to $250,000, while leaving intact $150,000 in compensatory damages.

Correction

A correction that ran on April 7 for a case summary from April 2, 2026, originally titled "Murder Charge Vacated for Ineffective Counsel; Defendant Would Have Accepted Earlier Plea," was incorrectly renamed "Defendant Resentenced on Attempted Murder Charge Due to Ineffective Counsel." The original summary incorrectly reported that Judge Adam D. Perlmutter vacated an attempted murder charge of defendant Liyao Chen, who had been sentenced to 32 years' incarceration. The court granted resentencing based on ineffective assistance of counsel and resentenced Chen after finding he would have accepted an earlier plea offer. Chen was resentenced to an aggregate sentence including five years' incarceration for assault in the first degree. The case has been renamed, "Defendant Resentenced to Assault in the First Degree Following Ineffective Assistance of Counsel."

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the court-houses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the filer.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statute of limitations.

Please take notice that no request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required presnt practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
