Evidentiary Hearing Ordered in Case Concerning Constructing of Campground

In an action arising from a project to construct a campground, the plaintiffs sought declaratory and monetary relief. Specifically, the plaintiffs sought a judgment declaring that defendant Twiggy Partners, LLC breached its obligations under the parties' operating agreement, the plaintiffs were justified in removing Twiggy as a managing member of plaintiff Blue Jay Way Hospitality LLC and the plaintiff SHR Ventures LLC was justified in withdrawing its capital contribution and plaintiff Crossroads ADK LLC was justified in effecting the withdrawal. The motion was granted to an extent. The court held the plaintiffs submitted sufficient proof to warrant an evidentiary hearing on the application to determine its actual damages resulting from a TRO, which may have exceeded $150,000 and even reach $1,000,000.

Justice Nancy M. Bannon
Supreme Court

Blue Jay Way Hospitality LLC v. Twiggy Partners LLC, 655233/2023 (June 30)

Motion to Dismiss Partially Denied As to Breach of Contract and Harassment Claims

Defendant, SOSH Architects, P.A. and plaintiff, Amtad LLC, entered into a fifth amendment of lease agreement that provided SOSHNY with occupancy of certain commercial office space on the eleventh and twelfth floors of the building located at 145 West 57th Street in Manhattan. SOSHNY entered into Rental Deferral Agreements with plaintiff. In December 2022, SOSHNY allegedly ceased paying rent. Plaintiff commenced a breach of contract action. Defendant brought counterclaims. Plaintiff then moved to dismiss the counterclaims. The motion was partially denied. The court held defendant appropriately pleaded the breach of lease and harassment claims.

Justice Arthur F. Engoron
Supreme Court

Amtad LLC v. SOSH Architects, P.A., 655247/2024 (July 1)

SECOND CIRCUIT | CRIMINAL LAW

Confidential Information Needs Commercial Value To Business To Qualify as Property

A jury convicted Chastain of wire fraud and money laundering based on trades made while employed at online non-fungible tokens (NFT) marketplace OpenSea. Second Circuit vacated judgment and remanded action for further proceedings. It agreed with Chastain that district court erred in instructing the jury that it could find Chastain guilty of defrauding OpenSea of its property if he misappropriated an intangible interest unconnected to traditional property rights. Although such error affected the jury's decision, Second Circuit rejected Chastain's argument that district court further erred by preventing him from introducing certain evidence at trial. Confidential information must have commercial value to a company to qualify as its property under the wire fraud statute. Neither the Supreme Court nor the Second Circuit have held that confidential information that lacks commercial value qualifies as property under the wire fraud statute. Confidential business information does not qualify as a traditional property interest if it lacks commercial value to the business.

Circuit Judge Steven J. Menashi
U.S. Court of Appeals

U.S. v. Chastain, 23-7038 (July 31)

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Denial of Intradistrict Venue Transfer Is Explained

Plaintiff's instant action against defendants sought to prevent further proceedings in Nassau County Supreme Court related to mortgage foreclosure proceedings and also asserted violation of civil rights. The State Defendants opposed plaintiff's latest motion seeking change of venue from the Central Islip Division to the Brooklyn Division of the Eastern Division of New York pursuant to 28 USC §404(a). District court denied plaintiff Powell's motion for intradistrict transfer. Reviewing the totality of circumstances, more factors weighed against transfer rather than for transfer. Among other things, plaintiff provided no support for the notion that his disabilities could be met, and accommodation provided, only at the Brooklyn, and not the Central Islip, courthouse. Also, relevant documents are likely accessible only on the New York State Courts Electronic Filing System. That the property that is the locus of operative fact is located in Baldwin, New York rather than in Brooklyn also weighed against transfer. Nor is the Brooklyn courthouse in a comparatively better position to address plaintiff's claims.

Magistrate Judge James M. Wicks
Eastern District

Powell v. Grajales, 25-CV-02178 (August 1)

Summary Judgment Granted for Plaintiff; Defendant Did Not Pay Notes or Guaranties

In an action arising out of alleged defaults on two promissory notes, plaintiff Popular Bank brought a motion for summary judgment in lieu of complaint against defendants B.Q.E. Ideas LLC and Yegish Poghosyan to collect on unpaid principal and interest owed by borrower to lender, which was personally guaranteed by guarantor. The motion was unopposed. The motion was granted. The court held plaintiff met its prima facie burden of establishing that notes and guaranties were for an unconditional promise to pay a sum certain due and that defendants failed to pay in accordance with the terms of those agreements.

Justice Margaret A. Chan
Supreme Court

Popular Bank v. B.Q.E. Ideas LLC, 655254/2024 (July 11)

NEW YORK | TRUSTS AND ESTATES

Court Appoints Petitioner as Temporary Administrator of Estate

Cross-petition to probate an instrument in the estate of Anne E. Schmelzer were brought. The dispute arose over which of the petitioners, each of whom was beneficiary under the propounded instrument, should serve as temporary administrator pending the outcome of the probate proceedings. Petitioner Elizabeth A. Shields Jenkins was appointed temporary administrator. The court held the record provided sufficient grounds to determine that it was in the best interest of the estate to appoint the petitioner for fiduciary duties.

Judge Rita Mella
Surrogate's Court

SECOND CIRCUIT | CRIMINAL LAW

De Novo Resentencing Denied on Eight Counts Surviving §2255 Vacatur of §924(c) Charge

Orena played a role in the "Colombo Family War" between two factions of an organized crime family. In 1992 a trial jury found him guilty on nine charges, including using and carrying a firearm in relation to a crime of violence in violation of 18 USC §924(c)(1). After successfully receiving §2255 vacatur of that charge, Orena sought de novo resentencing on the other eight charges. Denying his request, district court excised Orena's conviction and sentence on the §924(c) charge, but left the balance of his sentence on the remaining eight counts of conviction unchanged. Second Circuit affirmed judgment. It found the 2024 decision in Kaziu v. U.S., on which Orena relied, meaningfully distinguishable, and concluded that district court acted within its discretion in declining to conduct a full resentencing hearing where the habeas judge had just decided a motion for sentence reduction. The remaining "sentencing" arguments that Orena made to the district court sought only to undermine the validity of the remaining counts of conviction and were improper considerations as to his sentence on those counts.

Circuit Judge Beth Robinson
U.S. Court of Appeals

U.S. v. Orena, 24-835 (July 31)

U.S. - WDNY | CRIMINAL LAW

Guilty Plea's Withdrawal Denied; Plea Colloquy Statements Belie Innocence Claim

In March 2024 defendant Snyder pleaded guilty before a magistrate judge to a one-count information charging violation of 21 USC §846. After a July 11 plea colloquy he told the court that he wanted to proceed to trial instead of pleading guilty. In August 2024 the parties informed the court that a new plea agreement had been reached. After a thorough plea colloquy the court accepted Snyder's guilty plea. On April 3, 2025, Snyder moved to withdraw his guilty plea. Instantly, the court denied Snyder's plea withdrawal motion. Snyder did not show any fair and just reason to withdraw his guilty plea. Snyder's sworn statements at his two plea colloquies belied his current claim that he lacked an opportunity to review discovery provided to counsel, that he relied on counsel's representations as to the credibility of alleged evidence against him, and that later review of evidence with new counsel led him to believe that there was no credible evidence of his guilt and to assert his legal innocence. Further, in the plea colloquies Snyder admitted under oath the conduct he now denies.

District Judge Lawrence J. Vilardo
Western District

U.S. v. Snyder, 24-CR-12 (August 1)

NEW YORK | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Court Purges Defendant of Criminal Contempt; No Willful Disobedience of Court Orders

Defendant Sami Itshaik sought to purge himself of criminal contempt pursuant to the court's March 21, 2025 Decision and Order. The court found that defendant had purged himself of criminal contempt. The court held defendant's son provided sufficient evidence to show why defendant did not appear in response to court orders. The record provided evidence that defendant did not know about the contempt motions against him because he had relocated to Florida by the time service of the Orders to Show Cause for Contempt was effectuated at his former New York residential address, the two attorneys who received notice of the Orders to Show Cause did not inform him about them and he had been experiencing a cognitive decline in recent years. These facts did not support a finding of willful disobedience.

Justice Joel M. Cohen

Valley Natl. Bank v. Tarzan Cab Corp., 655249/2020 (July 1)

QUEENS | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Court Sets Down Hearing Date to Determine Issues in Commercial Landlord-Tenant Case

In a commercial landlord tenant proceeding, petitioner moved for an order amending the petition and granting petitioner use and occupancy. The motion was granted to the extent the court set the matter down for a hearing to determine a monetary judgment, use and occupancy, costs and disbursements, and attorney's fees. The court held prior decisions and orders of the court provided that petitioner may file a motion requesting for a separate hearing date to determine any applicable issues for example rent, use and occupancy, taxes, utilities, costs and disbursements, and/or reasonable attorneys' fees.

Union Funds Granted $117,560, Interest, Fees; Confession of Judgment Was Voluntary

Borkland owns, and is principal of, codefendant K&D Industries. A collective bargaining agreement required defendants to remit to plaintiff labor union and its various coplaintiff benefit funds—multiemployer benefit plans under ERISA—certain contributions and deductions based on hours worked by K&D's employees. Defendants' failure to remit monthly payment after July 1, 2025 pursuant to a Feb. 6 revised settlement agreement led to plaintiff Funds' and labor union's unopposed motion seeking judgment of $117,560.31 plus statutory interest, attorney's fees, costs, and disbursements. The court granted plaintiff's motion, but required specifics as to attorney's fees and costs, including contemporaneous billing records and an itemization of costs. The confession of judgment in the parties' original settlement agreement was voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently executed, and satisfied the requirements of CPLR §3218(a), and authorized entry of judgment in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

District Judge Cathy Seibel
