DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | PRODUCTS LIABILITY

Summary Judgments Denied in Products Liability Action Concerning Car Systems

Plaintiff—individually and on behalf of her deceased husband—commenced a products liability action against the manufacturer of the 2009 Dodge Ram, the manufacturer of the vehicle’s “Electronic Stability Control System” and “Traction Control System” and the manufacturer of the 2016 GMC Acadia. Plaintiff, her husband, and their son were driving in their Acadia when the driver of the Dodge Ram lost control of his vehicle and struck their vehicle in a head-on collision. She alleged that the RAM’s ESC system and TCS systems did not intervene due to a malfunctioning right rear wheel sensor. All three defendants moved for summary judgment. The court denied each motion. FCA argued that subsequent third-party modifications to the sensor rendered it defective thus, severing any proximate causation. However, the court found the argument unavailing since plaintiff’s expert averred that the modifications themselves likely were the result of the way in which the wires were originally routed. As to the Acadia, the Court relied on plaintiff’s un rebutted expert testimony that the vehicle’s structure could have been designed to prevent the type of injury plaintiff suffered.

Justice Dakota D. Ramseur

Hoeben v. FCA US LLC, 153682/2018 (September 4)

KINGS | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Default Judgment Denied; Proof of Service Not Admitted

In an action commenced by plaintiff by filing a summons and verified complaint with the Kings County Clerk’s Office, plaintiff G & G Funding Group LLC sought an order pursuant to CPLR 3215 (a) for default judgment against the corporate defendant Rocco’s Landscaping and Concrete Service LLC and the individual defendant Anthony Papa-pietro. The court denied the motion finding that the plaintiff did not submit admissible proof of service of the commencement papers upon the defendants because the affirmation submitted in support lacked the statutory language prescribed in CPLR 2106, as amended.

Justice Francois A. Rivera

G and G Funding Group LLC v. Rocco’s Landscaping and Concrete Service LLC, 508607/2024 (August 25)

SECOND CIRCUIT | CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Injunction Vacated, Remanded; Strict Scrutiny Misapplied to Content Neutral UPL Statutes

Nonprofit Upsolve Inc. seeks to train “Justice Advocates” to advise pro se New Yorkers how to complete the state’s check-the-box form for answering debt collection claims. Such actions by the JAs would violate New York’s unauthorized practice of law (UPL) statutes. The JAs would be providing individualized legal advice without being licensed as, or supervised by, attorneys. District court preliminarily enjoined New York’s Attorney General from enforcing the UPL laws against Upsolve and coplaintiff Udo-Onkon, finding that plaintiffs made a strong showing that to do so would violate their First Amendment right to free speech. Second Circuit agreed with the district court that, as applied, the UPL statutes constitute a regulation of speech. However, such regulation was content neutral and subject only to intermediate scrutiny. Because district court incorrectly applied strict scrutiny Second Circuit vacated, and remanded, district court’s preliminary injunction order.

Circuit Judge Richard J. Sullivan

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL RIGHTS

Federal Claims Over Red Light Cameras Dismissed; County Administrative Arm Cannot Be Sued

Plaintiff’s putative class action alleged defendants violated the U.S. and New York State Constitutions by installing and operating red-light cameras in Nassau County. Plaintiff also asserted state law-based claims—including fraud, invasion of privacy, and racketeering. Nassau County and its Traffic and Parking Violations Agency (NCT-PVA) (collectively “Nassau defendants”) sought dismissal for lack of standing, failure to state a claim and because the NCTPVA is not a suable entity. Corporate defendants Verra Mobility Corp. and American Traffic Solutions sought dismissal for lack of standing and failure to state a claim. The court dismissed the federal claims, and declined supplemental jurisdiction over plaintiff’s state law claims. As an administrative arm of Nassau County the NCTPVA lacked a legal identity separate from the county and could not be sued. New York courts have found the red light camera program civil, not criminal, and the $150 fee for the program’s violation not a protected property interest.

Cymbler v. New York State, 24-CV-2792 (September 9)

NEW YORK | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Motion for Discovery Concerning Rent Overcharge Claims Granted

Petitioner brought a summary nonpayment proceeding against respondent. Respondent defaulted and the default was vacated after stipulation. Respondent moved to amend the answer and for discovery as to her rent overcharge claim. The motion was granted. The court found ample need present and granted discovery as to her overcharge claim. The court found respondent sufficiently raised an issue as to the reliability of the DHCR rent history after pointing out substantial increases in the rent after a registered temporary exemption from 2014 to 2018. Further, the court noted that in January 2014, the Rent Stabilization Code § 2526.1(a)(3)(iii) was amended and barred landlords from charging a first rent as the legal rent following more than four years of a temporary exemption.

QUEENS | HEALTH CARE LAW

Due Process Rights Not Violated for Care Of Patients in Hospital

Matter involving petitions for writs of habeas corpus were filed pursuant to CPLR Article 70 seeking release of two patients at the Queens Hospital Center. Petitioners argued that they were being unlawfully detained. Both cases involved the application of the due process clause to the layers of statutes which form the Mental Hygiene Law. The applications were denied. The court held petitioners alleged a violation of their due process rights, however nothing about their treatment or care shocked the conscience of the court. No challenge whatsoever was made relating to the quality of their care, which appeared to have been professional and attentive.

U.S. - SDNY | DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Court Explains Grant of Arbitration Under Agreement Rather Than EFAA

Montanus worked for defendant Columbia Managers Investment Advisers for more than 20 years, most recently as a portfolio manager. She sued CMIA under six claims alleging gender discrimination and retaliation violating Title VII of the Civil Rights Act and the New York State and City Human Rights Laws. Instantly, district court granted CMIS’s motion to compel arbitration of Montanus’s April 3, 2025, complaint., and stayed action pending its outcome. If not for the Ending Forced Arbitration of Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment Act of 2021 (EFAA) Montanus would be required to resolve her claims per the binding arbitration agreement she signed with CMIA. In granting CMIA arbitration under the parties’ agreement, the court found the EFAA inapplicable. The complaint plausibly alleged sexual harassment by CMIA before March 3, 2022, but not thereafter so as to permit the finding that her claims accrued or reacrued after the EFAA’s effective date. Montanus’s sexual harassment claims accrued before March 3, 2022, but her complaint alleges acts of a different nature after that date.

District Judge Paul A. Engelmayer
Southern District

U.S. - NDNY | CIVIL RIGHTS

Retiree Cannot Assert Right of Action Under LEOSA to Compel ID for Concealed Gun Permit

Hotaling’s pro se Oct. 3, 2024, complaint against the commissioner of New York’s prison agency (DOCCS) and DOCCS’s personnel director under 42 USC §1983 alleged they wrongfully withheld his “mandatory retirement package”—including identification needed to receive concealed firearms protections—in violation of the Law Enforcement Officers Safety Act (LEOSA) after he voluntarily retired from DOCCS’s employment amid an ongoing disciplinary investigation. Granting defendants’ Jan. 3, 2025, motion, the court dismissed Hotaling’s complaint, without prejudice. DOCCS is the New York State agency tasked with making plaintiff Hotaling’s retirement determinations. As a result, its decision not to grant Hotaling a LEOSA identification upon his retirement was within DOCCS’s discretion as outlined in relevant DOCCS Directives. Hotaling could not assert a private right of action under LEOSA to compel issuance of LEOSA identification. Thus his claim under 42 USC §1983 was dismissed.

District Judge Anne M. Nardacci

BRONX | CRIMINAL LAW

Motion to Dismiss Criminal Action For Violation of Speedy Trial Time Denied

Defendant was arrested and charged with driving while intoxicated, and related charges. Defendant’s arrest followed his alleged involvement in a collision with the complainant’s vehicle. Defendant moved for dismissal of the accusatory instrument arguing that the Bronx District Attorney’s Office’s certificate of compliance (“COC”) was invalid. The motion was denied. The court found that the People’s certificate of compliance was valid, noting that the prosecution began gathering discovery the day after defendant’s arraignment, made eight follow-up inquiries at regular intervals over the next seven weeks, and requested specific outstanding items. Moreover, at the time of the COC’s filing, the People notified the defense that multiple items had not yet been obtained from the NYPD. The majority of these items were turned over just four days after the COC was filed, and there was no indication that the belated disclosure prejudiced the defense or impeded investigation or trial preparation.

Rent Demand Not Defective, However Guarantor Dismissed From Action

In a commercial summary landlord tenant proceeding, petitioner alleged non-paymen pursuant to a commercial lease between petitioner and respondent. Respondent filed a motion for summary judgment seeking an order dismissing the proceeding based on the grounds that petitioner’s rent demand was defective and that “Michael Kareglis as Guarantor” was improperly named in the action. Petitioner opposed the motion for summary judgment. Respondent submitted a reply. The court found that the rent demand was not defective and did not warrant the dismissal of the petition. However, the court found that the judgment and petition must be dismissed against respondent Michael Kareglis, who was solely named as the guarantor on the lease.

Habeas Relief Denied Over Shooting After Funeral Killing Two, Wounding Three

Immediately after leaving an April 27, 2015 funeral, Celestine and his two brothers got into a fight with Clayton that devolved into gunfire by the three brothers killing Clayton and bystander Murphy, and wounding three other bystanders. Celestine in turn was wounded by gunfire from Julio. Apprehended in Tennessee in 2015, Celestine was extradited to New York in 2016 where he was indicted for multiple crimes including second-degree murder and attempted second-degree murder. On Oct. 11, 2018, a jury found Celestine guilty of two counts of second-degree murder and one count of criminal possession of a weapon in the second degree. He was given two concurrent sentences of 25 years to life on the murder convictions, and 15 years in prison followed by five years’ supervised release on the weapons conviction. District court denied Celestine’s March 18, 2024, petition for 28 USC §2254 habeas corpus relief. The court rejected his five arguments for habeas relief, including that the prosecution’s improper statements at summation deprived him of a fair trial, as well as his claim that sentence was excessive.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statute of limitations.
Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.
The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.
The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
