DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Motion to Renew Vacate Order Partially Granted

Plaintiff Samantha Arnett filed a proceeding alleging that defendants Sam Hsu and Madelyn Samson fraudulently induced her to move to New York to work as a live-in Home Care Aide. Plaintiff further alleged that she was severely mistreated by the individual defendants. During an attempt at self-help eviction by the individual defendants, plaintiff's legal counsel went to the building where he had an apparently unpleasant interaction with management staff for the building. One of the defendants moved to renew a vacate order. The motion was granted in part. The court held that it considered the defendant's excuse of a law office failure to be a reasonable excuse as to grant the motion partially.

KINGS | PERSONAL INJURY

Defect Not Apparent; Summary Judgment Denied

Plaintiff brought an action arising out of a slip and fall. Plaintiff alleged that she suffered personal injuries after falling down the stairs at her apartment building, owned by New York City Housing Authority located at 335 Sutter Avenue in Brooklyn. Plaintiff argued that she stepped onto a crack in a step, causing her to fall forward and slam her head and neck on the platform below. It was undisputed that plaintiff fell and was injured. Defendant moved to dismiss pursuant to summary judgment. The motion was denied. The court held the nature of the defect was not so apparent. Three months was not an excessive amount of time between the date of the incident and the first known picture of the defect, especially in consideration of plaintiff's testimony that the condition was substantially the same on the day of the accident.

U.S. - SDNY | SECURITIES LITIGATION

Questions Exist Over When Diligent Investor Would Have Discovered Statements Were False

Plaintiff investment entity brought an action against defendant sports investment company, alleging numerous direct and derivative federal securities and state law claims. Plaintiff contended that defendant made misrepresentations and false promises to induce its investment, including assurances about the use of investment proceeds, and a board seat promised to plaintiff. In a related case, defendant sued plaintiff and its representative, also asserting federal securities and state law claims. Among other things, defendant alleged that plaintiff's representative committed securities fraud in violation of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 by misrepresenting in substance that he was the sole owner of plaintiff. Plaintiff sought summary judgment on the ground that the claim is untimely. The court denied the motion, finding that a genuine dispute of material fact exists as to when a reasonably diligent investor in defendant's position would have discovered that the statements were false, including sufficient facts to satisfy the particularity requirements for pleading fraud under FRCP 9(b) and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act.

U.S. - NDNY | MOTOR VEHICLE TORTS

Issue of Fact Exists on Whether Defendant Ingested Xanax Before Deadly Car Crash

Plaintiff brought an action on behalf of the decedent pursuant to 42 USC §1983, alleging violations of the decedent's constitutional rights in connection with his death. Plaintiff also brought a state law automobile negligence claim arising out of the decedent's death. The decedent was a resident of a New York State Office for People with Developmental Disabilities (OPWDD) group home. Plaintiff contended that, at all relevant times, defendant was acted "pursuant to her job duties as an employee of OPWDD." In 2020, defendant was transporting the decedent from his group home to a medical appointment when her vehicle crashed, killing the decedent. At the time of the incident, defendant had Adderall and Xanax in her blood. The court granted summary judgment for defendant on plaintiff's medical indifference claim, citing the record's dearth of evidence as to defendant's alleged deliberate indifference in the aftermath of the decedent's death. However, the court denied defendant's summary judgment motion on plaintiff's right to bodily integrity claim, finding an issue of fact regarding whether defendant ingested Xanax on the morning of the crash.

Spiezio v. Martinez, 1:21-CV-1254 (September 30)

NEW YORK | REAL ESTATE

Summary Judgment for Default Granted In Foreclosure Action

Plaintiff brought an action to foreclose on a consolidated, amended and restated mortgage encumbering a parcel of real property located at 315-325 36th Street in Manhattan. The mortgage secured a loan in the original principal amount of $77,000,000.00 given by defendant Walsam 36 Delaware LLC to non-party Deutsche Bank AG, New York Branch. Plaintiff moved for summary judgment for default judgment. The motion was granted. The court held defendants failed to raise an issue of fact as to their tender of all arrears. Defendant's CEO's assertion that defendants made payment to plaintiff of $2,876,941, before the was action was commenced, was corroborated by the loan history annexed to plaintiffs moving papers. Defendants neglected to demonstrate that the amount constituted the full amount of all arrears on the loans.

Motion to Serve Through Insurance Company Denied; Extension Provided

Plaintiff commenced a personal injury lawsuit arising from a motor vehicle accident. While defendant owners were served with the summons and complaint, plaintiff claimed an inability to serve the driver. Plaintiff moved pursuant to CPLR 308(5) to serve the driver through the insurance company providing coverage. The court noted that plaintiff made only two service attempts, both within a two-day span and during similar hours, approximately between 2:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m. Plaintiff had not met the necessary threshold, as there was no showing that service under the other subdivisions of CPLR 308 was impracticable, a requirement imposed by case law. While that branch of plaintiff's motion seeking leave to serve the insurer was denied, the court did grant plaintiff a 120-day extension to serve the driver with the summons and complaint per CPLR 308-b.

U.S. - SDNY | SECURITIES LITIGATION

Jury to Decide Whether Defendants Acted in Tandem in Violation of Short-Swing Trading Bar

Plaintiff accused defendants of buying and selling securities as an insider group in violation of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Plaintiff contended that the defendants were corporate insiders who together owned more than 10% of the securities issued by a nominal defendant. He further asserted that the defendants acted in tandem, deciding to go in on the investment together and then sell together, in violation of the bar on short-swing trading. In particular, plaintiff theorized that defendants formed a group as evidenced by emails, memos, and various agreements spanning several months in 2020. Plaintiff argued that this evidence shows the existence of a common plan for defendants to purchase and then sell the subject securities in quick succession. The court concluded that there is a triable issue of fact on whether defendants agreed to act together. While the court found that there is currently enough evidence for a reasonable trier of fact to find that defendants acted as a group, it held that a jury should weigh the evidence and make credibility determinations over the parties' differing versions of the events.

U.S. - WDNY | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Discrimination Claim Fails to Negate Knowing, Voluntary Execution of Separation Agreement

Pro se plaintiff, a Black man who said he was subjected to severe and pervasive racial harassment by his White colleagues, brought an action for alleged discrimination and retaliation against defendants, his former employer, M&T Bank Corporation, and several associated entities and individuals. Defendants moved to dismiss the complaint, arguing that plaintiff had "released all employment-related claims" when he signed a separation agreement. Plaintiff countered that his claims were not barred because he "was fraudulently induced into [signing] the separation agreement" and he pointed to M&T Bank Deputy Counsel's statement that his claims were all in his head. The court granted defendants' motion to dismiss the complaint, agreeing with defendants' argument that the complaint failed to identify a misrepresentation other than the Deputy Counsel's non-actionable expression of opinion, and stated no facts negating plaintiff's knowing and voluntary execution of the separation agreement. The court also agreed with defendants' assertion that plaintiff's complaint failed to plausibly allege duress and undue influence.

NEW YORK | CRIMINAL LAW

Dismissal of Criminal Case Denied By Court

Defendant was charged with violating VTL §§ 1192 (2), (3), and (1) for allegedly driving while intoxicated on April 13, 2025. Defendant moved find the Manhattan District Attorney's Office's certificate of compliance and statement of readiness invalid and to dismiss the case. Specifically, the defendant argued that the People failed to satisfy their discovery obligations under CPL § 245.20 in that they failed to timely provide gas chromatography records, police disciplinary records, and various other NYPD records. The motion to dismiss was denied. The court held the People's sole lapse in meeting their discovery obligations, while significant, did not outweigh their efforts to satisfy their discovery obligations, which were prompt and extensive. The court found that the People exercised due diligence and acted in good faith in making reasonable inquiries and efforts to obtain and provide the material required to be disclosed.

KINGS | FAMILY LAW

Court Gives Full Custody of Child To Mother

K.E. filed a petition for custody of his son, L.E. On that same day, A.E. filed a family offense petition against Mr. E., alleging that he had committed several crimes against her. On or about May 24, 2023, Ms. E. filed a cross-custody petition regarding L. On March 15, 2024, the family offense matter resolved on consent with a one-year Order of Protection which forbade Mr. E. from communicating with Ms. E. except through the Our Family Wizard platform with regard to parenting time and the wellbeing of the child. A.E. was awarded sole legal custody. The court held Mr. E.'s behavior as described by Ms. E. clearly demonstrated a pattern of coercive control. Mr. E.'s behavior not only had a detrimental impact on Ms. E. who is currently L.'s primary caregiver, it also directly placed L. at risk.

U.S. - EDNY | CONSUMER PROTECTION

Homeowners Who Fail to Allege a Concrete Injury Lack Standing to Bring FCRA Claim

Plaintiffs who own a home that is encumbered by two mortgages brought an action under the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) after their application for a loan modification was denied by defendant Selene Finance LP, and defendant DLJ Mortgage Capital Inc. commenced foreclosure proceedings. Among other things, plaintiffs argued that defendants violated the FCRA by failing to conduct any investigation following plaintiffs' notice of dispute, and by continuously and deliberately reporting inaccurate information to credit bureaus without providing notice that plaintiffs disputed such information. The court dismissed plaintiffs' FCRA claim against all defendants, with prejudice, holding that plaintiffs failed to allege a concrete injury resulting from DLJ Mortgage's purported FCRA violations, and therefore they lack Article III standing to pursue those claims against defendants. The court noted that the only harm alleged with respect to defendants' purported FCRA violations is "damage to plaintiffs' credit," which it added is insufficient to confer plaintiffs with standing to pursue their FCRA claims.

Calendar Control Part 1

Justice R. Bruce Cozzens
516-493-3172

CCP Part Rules

Cases appearing on the DCM and CCP Calendars in the Trial Assignment Part are ready for trial. Pursuant to 22 NYCRR §202.27, failure by counsel for a party plaintiff or a self-represented party plaintiff to appear will subject that party to dismissal. Failure by counsel for a party defendant or self-represented party defendant to appear will subject the case to an immediate inquiry.

All cases appearing on the DCM Trial Calendar will be disposed pursuant to the time limits set forth in 22 NYCRR §202.19.

Attorney service may answer the Calendar and request an adjournment, within the 22 NYCRR §202.19 time frame, only on consent of all parties.

In all cases in which a party intends to present a motion in limine, that party shall so advise the Court prior to jury selection.

All stipulations of settlement recorded by the court on the report of settlement and entered into the clerk's computer record system are valid and enforceable pursuant to CPLR 2104.

The following calendars are subject to changes — including adjournments — which may occur prior to the court date. Please call the Court Clerk to verify.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJL.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
