COURT NOTICES

Subject: WEEKLY EMERGENCY JUDGE ASSIGNMENT
Week of November 14, 2025, through November 21, 2025

Emergency Judge - HONORABLE Sierra Thomas-Street

The Emergency Judge handles all emergencies (Civil, Criminal, Orphans', Family Court matters) arising after Court hours.

FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA
COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF PHILADELPHIA COUNTY

No. 13 of 2025

President Judge Administrative Order

In re: ELECTION DAY JUDICIAL ASSIGNMENTS
General Election - Friday, November 14, 2025

ORDER

AND NOW, this 17th day of October, 2025, upon consideration of the November 4, 2025, General Election, the following Election Court assignments are made, which shall supersede other assignments during the scheduled Election Court hours only.

I. ELECTION COURT ASSIGNMENT

The Justice Juania Kidd Stout Center for Criminal Justice, Courtroom 1107 will be the central location for Election Court.

Election Court will convene at 7:00 AM and will remain open continuously until 10:00 PM. Parties shall present themselves to Courtroom 1107 for all election matters.

Judges assigned to the Election Court shall have jurisdiction over all election matters and as provided in 25 P.S. § 3046 below:

[S]hall act as a committing magistrate for any violation of the election laws; shall settle summarily controversies that may arise with respect to the conduct of the election; shall issue process, if necessary, to enforce and secure compliance with the election laws; and shall decide such other matters pertaining to the election as may be necessary to carry out the intent of this act. 25 P.S. § 3046.

When an individual is seeking a judicial order to vote, the court shall, inform the individual of the provisional ballot process set forth in 25 P.S. § 3050. Section 3050 provides, inter alia:

At all elections an individual who claims to be properly registered and eligible to vote at the election district but whose name does not appear on the district register and whose registration cannot be determined by the inspectors of election or the county election board shall be permitted to cast a provisional ballot. 25 P.S. § 3050(a.4)(1).

Prior to voting the provisional ballot, the elector shall be required to execute an affidavit which must be signed by the voter, the Judge of Elections and minority inspector. See 25 P.S. § 3050(a.4)(2).

After the provisional ballot has been cast, the individual shall place it in a secrecy envelope. The individual shall place the secrecy envelope in the provisional ballot envelope and shall place his signature on the front of the provisional ballot envelope. 25 P.S. § 3050(a.4)(3).

A judge who is not assigned to Election Court shall not take any action with respect to any election matter, unless prior approval is obtained from the President Judge.

The following Judges are assigned:

Judge

Courtroom

7 AM to 12:00 PM Judge Lillian Harris Ransom

1107 Stout Center

12:00 PM to 5 PM Judge Elvin Ross

1107 Stout Center

5 PM to 10:00 PM Judge Zachary Shaffer

1107 Stout Center

II. STANDBY ASSIGNMENTS

Should the designated Judge be unavailable, the President Judge will designate an alternative Judge to preside in Election Court.

III. SCHEDULING AND HEARING PROTOCOL

The following Protocol shall be followed when a hearing is requested:

- 1) The assigned Judges and other necessary personnel (Court Clerk, Court Crier, Court Reporter, Sheriff) shall be present in-person in the assigned Courtrooms between 7:00 AM and 10:00 PM.
- 2) Unless the assigned Judge directs otherwise, counsel must appear in-person. Witnesses are encouraged to testify through Zoom.
- 3) No cameras or recording devices are permitted in the Courtrooms.
- 4) All requests for hearings must be communicated to the Office of Judicial Records ("OJR"). OJR personnel shall be stationed in Courtroom of the Stout Center from 7:00 AM until 10:00 PM and shall direct the parties to the appropriate Courtroom upon confirming the availability of all parties in interest. Parties who are to participate through Zoom shall be provided the Zoom link by the Court.
- 5) The assigned Judge may proceed with the hearing by taking testimony and may require the filing of written pleadings, as necessary.
- 6) The public shall be permitted to attend election hearings in the courtroom where hearings are being held.
- 7) Judicial proceedings cannot be recorded, transmitted or broadcast by anyone. The parties are specifically informed that:

It is unlawful and a criminal offense to record, transmit or broadcast video, audio or photograph of any judicial proceeding and violators may be found to be in contempt of court and may be criminally charged with a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment of up to two years for a first offense. See Pa.R.J.A 1910, Pa.R.Crim.P. 112 and 18 Pa.C.S. § 5103.1.

IV. ELECTION BOARD PETITIONS

Petitions to Fill Vacancies in Election Boards (Judge of Election, Majority Inspector, Minority Inspector) must be electronically filed no later than 3:00 p.m. on October 21, 2025, through the Court's electronic filing website at: www.courts.phila.gov pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. No. 205.4 and Philadelphia Civil Rule *205.4. Assistance with electronic filing shall be provided through the Office of Judicial Records (formerly "Prothonotary"), which may be reached by calling (215) 686-6652, or by emailing ojrcivil@courts.phila.gov.

The Petitioner shall serve the City Commissioners and the Democratic and/or Republican City Committees, as applicable, as provided in the Order to Show Cause.

Hearings on the Petitions to Fill Vacancies in Election Boards shall be held at 9:00 am on October 27, 2025 in Courtroom 676 City Hall. Unless terminated earlier as provided by law, the term of office of any person appointed to fill a vacancy on the Election Board shall continue for the remainder of the vacancy.

DISTRICT COURT*NOTICE

1. Counsel shall promptly notify the deputy clerk to each judge before whom he/she has a case listed upon becoming attached for trial in another court. To be accorded recognition, a busy slip, using the designated form, MUST be filed in Room 2609 before 1 p.m. on the day after counsel becomes attached.
2. Cases in the trial pools do not necessarily appear in the order in which they will be called. Counsel should therefore be ready to begin trial upon receiving telephone call notice, subject to the following:
  - (a) Counsel whose cases are in the pools will be given 48 hours' notice, if feasible, but not less than 24 hours notice to ready for trial with witnesses.
  - (b) It is counsel's responsibility to check with each judge's deputy clerk on the status and movement of criminal and civil cases in that judge's pool.
  - (c) Counsel will not be required to commence trial less than 24 hours after completing trial of another case.

V. APPEALS FROM BOARD OF ELECTION DECISIONS ON CHALLENGES TO ABSENTEE AND MAIL-IN BALLOTS. POST-ELECTION MATTERS

Decisions of the Board of Elections on challenges to absentee and mail-in ballots and post-election matters shall be heard by Court of Common Pleas Judges specifically assigned by the President Judge, as necessary.

*This Election Schedule is available on the First Judicial District Website at: <http://www.courts.phila.gov>.

BY THE COURT:

/s/ Nina Wright Padilla

Nina Wright Padilla, President Judge
Court of Common Pleas

IN THE COURT COMMON PLEAS OF PHILADELPHIA COUNTY
FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA
TRIAL DIVISION - CIVIL

Administrative Docket No. 12 of 2025

Program

AND NOW, this 10th day of October, 2025, it is hereby ORDERED and DECREED that the following protocols shall apply to all civil cases within the Commerce Case Management Program on or after January 1, 2026:

Commerce Case Management Program:
Procedure for Disposition of Commerce Program Cases

A. Organization

1. Judges. The Administrative Judge may appoint as many as four judges to the Commerce Program, one of whom shall be designated to serve as “Supervising Judge” of the Commerce Program. The number of Commerce Program Judges may be adjusted from time to time by the Administrative Judge consistent with the caseload of the Program.

2. Filings & Listings. Upon consultation with the Administrative Judge, the Supervising Judge of the Commerce Program shall establish procedures for maintenance of filings and listings in actions assigned to the Commerce Program with the goal of ease of access by the Commerce Program Judges and their staff, the parties, and the public.

B. Assignment of Cases Subject to Commerce Program

1. Cases Subject to Commerce Program. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any General Court Regulation, and except as otherwise provided below in subsection 2, Jury, Non-Jury & Equity, and Class Action cases shall be assigned to the Commerce Program if they are among the following types of actions:

a. Actions relating to the internal affairs or governance, dissolution or liquidation, rights or obligations between or among owners (shareholders, partners, members), or liability or indemnity of managers (officers, directors, managers, trustees, or members or partners functioning as managers) of business corporations, partnerships, limited partnerships, limited liability companies or partnerships, professional associations, business trusts, joint ventures or other business enterprises, including but not limited to any actions involving interpretation of the rights or obligations under the organic law (e.g., Pa. Business Corporation Law), articles of incorporation, by-laws or agreements governing such enterprises;

b. Disputes between or among two or more business enterprises relating to transactions, business relationships or contracts between or among the business enterprises. Examples of such transactions, relationships and contracts include:

- (1) Uniform Commercial Code transactions;
- (2) Purchases or sales of businesses or the assets of businesses;
- (3) Sales of goods or services by or to business enterprises, including mechanic's lien actions;
- (4) Non-consumer bank or brokerage accounts, including loan, deposit cash management and investment accounts;
- (5) Surety bonds;
- (6) Purchases or sales or leases of, or security interests in, commercial real or personal property, including commercial leases and judgments confessed thereon;

- (7) Franchisor/franchisee relationships; and
- (8) Commercial loans and mortgages, including judgment confessed thereon;
- c. Actions relating to trade secret or non-compete agreements;
- d. “Business torts,” such as claims of unfair competition, or interference with contractual relations or prospective contractual relations, or claims of professional negligence or malpractice between or among two or more business enterprises (see 2(g), supra);
- e. Actions relating to intellectual property disputes;
- f. Actions relating to securities, or relating to or arising under the Pennsylvania Securities Act;
- g. Derivative actions and class actions based on claims otherwise falling within these ten types, such as shareholder class actions;
- h. Declaratory judgment actions brought by insurers, and coverage dispute and bad faith claims brought by insureds where the dispute arises from a business or commercial insurance policy, such as a Comprehensive General Liability policy, and;
- i. Third-party indemnification claims against insurance companies where the subject insurance policy is a business or commercial policy and where the underlying dispute would otherwise be assigned to the Commerce Program;
- j. Petition or summary actions involving dissolution, winding up of business affairs, appointment of a receiver, conservator, or sequestrator for a business or a commercial real property, or other corporate, partnership or company affairs; and
- k. Such other matters as the Court shall determine.

All of the above types of actions may involve individuals named as parties, so long as all other criteria are met and the essential nature of the litigation is a commercial dispute. For example, a dispute over a commercial loan may include individual guarantors as either plaintiffs or defendants but such a lawsuit would still be a commercial dispute.

2. Cases Not Subject to the Commerce Program. The following types of matters are not to be included in the Commerce Program:

- a. Matters subject to Compulsory Arbitration in this Court or to the jurisdiction of the Municipal Court, including any appeals.
- b. Personal injury, survival, or wrongful death matters.
- c. Individual consumer claims against businesses or insurers, including products liability and personal injury cases.
- d. Matters involving occupational health or safety.
- e. Environmental claims not involved in the sale or disposition of a business and other than those addressed in Commerce Program types 1(b)(2), (b)(6), (h) or (i) above.
- f. Matters in eminent domain.
- g. Malpractice claims, other than those brought by business enterprises against attorneys, accountants, architects or other professionals in connection with the rendering of professional services to the business enterprise (see 1(d), infra).
- h. Employment law cases, other than those referenced in Commerce Program type 1(c) above.
- i. Administrative agency, tax, zoning and other appeals.
- j. Petition Actions in the nature of Change of Name, Mental Health Act, Appointment of an Arbitrator (unless for a dispute between or among two or more business enterprises), Government Election Matters, Leave to Issue Subpoena (unless for a dispute between or among two or more business enterprises), or to Compel Medical Examination.
- k. Individual, residential real estate and non-commercial landlord-tenant disputes.
- l. Domestic relations matters, and actions relating to distribution of marital property, custody or support.
- m. Any matter required by statute, including 20 Pa. C.S. Chapter 7, §§ 711 & 713, to be heard in the Orphans' Court or Family Court Division of the

Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas, or other matter which has heretofore been within the jurisdiction of the Orphans' Court or Family Court Division of this Court.

n. Any criminal matter other than criminal contempt in connection with a Commerce Program action.

o. Such other matters as the Court shall determine.

3. Assignments to Commerce Program. When submitting the initial filing electronically, the party commencing an action that meets the criteria for the Commerce Program shall choose "Commerce" as the Program type. The court's electronic filing system will automatically generate a "Commerce Program Addendum" and the filing party must check the boxes adjacent to the applicable type or types of action which result in the matter being assigned to the Commerce Program. A copy of the Civil Cover Sheet generated by the electronic system, including any Commerce Program Addendum, shall be served with the original process served on all parties.

All actions designated into the Commerce Program pursuant to the Commerce Program Addendum are hereby assigned to the Commerce Program and to the individual calendar of one of the Commerce Program Judges, according to a random procedure established by the Administrative Judge or the designee of the Administrative Judge. This assignment shall be noted on the Docket. All further filings in the matter shall state prominently in the caption and on any cover sheets that the matter is assigned to the "COMMERCE PROGRAM."

4. Disputes Arising From the Civil Cover Sheet Designation. If any party disagrees with the designation or lack of designation of a case into the Commerce Program, that party shall file and serve on all parties a Notice of Management Program Dispute, not exceeding three pages in length, as soon as practical. A copy of the Complaint or other filing commencing the litigation shall be attached to the Notice of Management Program Dispute. Any party opposing the Notice of Management Program Dispute may, but need not, submit a response thereto not exceeding three pages in length within seven days of service of the Notice. The management program dispute will be resolved by the Supervising Judge of the Commerce Program.

If a Notice of Management Program Dispute is filed, a copy of that Notice shall be referenced in all motions and responses to motions filed by any party pending the resolution of the management program dispute.

The Court on its own initiative may transfer cases into and out of the Commerce Program and may coordinate related cases before the same Judge when the Court deems appropriate.

C. Commencement of Action

All subject actions shall be commenced as provided in Pa. R.C.P. No. 1007. Philadelphia Civil Rule *205.2(b) shall be followed. As noted above, in all cases, not just those designated into the Commerce Program, a copy of the Civil Cover Sheet, including any Commerce Program Addendum, shall be served with original process on all parties.

All jury demands shall be perfected in accordance with Pa. R.C.P. No. 1007.1 and Phila. Civ. R. *1007.1.

A party seeking emergency relief immediately upon commencing an action subject to the Commerce Program shall follow the procedure set forth in part D.6. below (Rules to Show Cause and Emergency Motions and Petitions).

D. Case Management Procedures

1. Authority Over Commerce Program Status: When there is a dispute as to whether the case is properly assigned to the Commerce Program, the decision will be made by the Supervising Judge of the Commerce Program. If the Commerce Staff Attorney conducting a case management conference or any party objects to the Commerce Program assignment, the Staff Attorney will forward the dispute to the Supervising Judge of the Commerce Program.

2. Alternative Procedures Available: The assigned Commerce Program Judge, in his/her discretion may, upon application of any party or upon his/her own initiative, modify these case management procedures. Requests for changes in these procedures will be made by filing a Motion for Extraordinary Relief (which Motion calls for a ten-day response time).

3. The Case Management Conference: Typically, notice of a Case Management Conference ("CMC") will be sent to counsel and unrepresented parties sixty days after the action is commenced and scheduling the CMC for approximately ninety days after commencement. In certain circumstances, the CMC may be scheduled by the assigned Commerce Program Judge.

a. Presiding Officer: Unless otherwise ordered, the CMC shall be conducted in-person by a Commerce Staff Attorney designated by the Court and acting on behalf of the assigned Commerce Program Judge.

b. Pre-Conference Submissions and Exchanges:

(1) Initial Disclosures: Unless stayed by order of Court, discovery should begin promptly upon commencement of an action. At least thirty days prior to the CMC, all parties must provide each other party (i) a list of persons likely to have discoverable information about the disputed issues in the pleadings, (ii) a copy of documents that each party may use to support its claims or defenses, and (iii) available dates for a pre-conference meet-and-confer, which shall be in-person or by on-camera video conference. In the case of voluminous records, a party may provide a description of the type and location of all such information.

(2) Joint Conference Memo: At least ten days prior to the conference, all parties must attend a meet-and-confer either in-person or by on-camera video conference. During the meet-and-confer, the parties shall complete a joint conference memorandum wherein each party shall provide a brief factual description of its claims or defenses, describe the discovery that has been completed as of that date, and include a proposed scheduling order that shall list proposed deadlines for discovery, expert reports, pretrial motions, and when a settlement conference including client representatives should be scheduled after the close of discovery. The proposed deadlines should be chosen to fit within an expedited, standard, or complex track as described in Paragraph D.4. below. The parties should list five or more judges pro tempore the parties jointly agree the assigned Commerce Program Judge may randomly assign to conduct a settlement conference; otherwise, the Commerce Program Judge may assign any judge pro tempore at random. Further, the parties should discuss any anticipated problems with the exchange of electronically stored information ("ESI") and attempt to agree on a protocol to address any anticipated difficulties. If the parties fail to reach agreement on any matter to be included in the Joint Conference Memo, the respective parties shall state their positions without argument.

c. Issues to be Addressed: The following subjects, along with other appropriate topics, such as service of process, jurisdiction, venue, pleadings, discovery, possible joinder of additional parties, theories of liability, damages claimed, and applicable defenses (see also Pa. R. Civ. P. No. 213.3), will be discussed.

(1) Means for Early Disposition

a. Timing and potential forms of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR).

b. Scheduling pre-discovery dispositive motions.

c. Scheduling limited-issue discovery in aid of any early settlement conference and/or any early dispositive motions. The Commerce Staff Attorney will advise counsel of the assigned Commerce Program Judge's day for hearing discovery disputes.

(2) Schedules and Deadlines

a. Assignment to a Case Management Track and issuance of a Case Management Order ("CMO"), which will set forth a target trial date, deemed the earliest trial date pursuant to Pa. R. Civ. P. No. 212.1.

b. A discovery plan and schedule based on the CMO date for the completion of discovery.

c. Anticipated areas of expert testimony, timing for identification of experts, responses to expert discovery, exchange of expert reports as set forth in the CMO.

(3) The Court encourages trial counsel to assign court presentations to less-experienced attorneys, particularly where the less-experienced attorney is more familiar with the matter at hand.

(4) Potential Use of a Commerce Program Judge Pro Tempore ("JPT")

a. On stipulation of all parties or if the court deems appropriate, for supervision of discovery.

b. For settlement or mediation at all stages of the case.

Note: Use of a JPT for purposes of discovery or mediation will not affect the deadlines set forth in the CMO and will not result in a stay, unless the assigned Commerce Program Judge grants a Motion to Stay or a Motion for Extraordinary Relief extending the deadlines in the CMO. The Commerce Program Judge may establish informal procedures to achieve expeditious resolution of discovery disputes and other non-dispositive issues. Prior to the CMC, it shall be the obligation of the parties to confer concerning all of the above matters, for the purposes of reaching agreements.

4. Case Management Order:

After the CMC, Commerce staff shall issue a Case Management Order ("CMO") setting forth projected dates for a Settlement Conference and for a Pretrial Conference (with Pretrial Statements typically to be filed in advance), and for Trial. The CMO will also address cut-off dates for completion of discovery, for the service of expert reports, and for the filing of motions.

Based upon the nature and complexity of the case, the Commerce Staff Attorney with input from the parties at the CMC shall assign the case to a track. The Commerce Program shall typically employ the following management tracks: Commerce Expedited (Target Trial Date within 13 months of filing) and Commerce Standard (Target Trial Date within 18 months of filing). Complicated cases should be designated Commerce Complex (Target Trial Date within two years of filing). In the latter instance, the Commerce Program Judge may schedule status conferences at appropriate intervals.

The Commerce Expedited Track shall apply to matters in which minimal discovery is needed and legal issues are anticipated to be routine. Examples of such actions, in the absence of complicating factors, are actions relating to commercial loans, and simple contract, UCC and commercial foreclosure matters. Other matters should presumptively be designated Commerce Standard. Actions in which preliminary injunctive relief is sought may be appropriate for any of the tracks, depending upon the circumstances. Commercial non-jury petition actions may be assigned to the Commerce Program and may be given a management track even shorter than Expedited by the Commerce Program Judge, if appropriate.

5. Commerce Court Motions.

a. Motion Practice and Discovery Motions.

The Commerce Program Judge to whom the action is assigned will hear all pretrial motions, including discovery motions, except that, to the extent scheduling or other concerns so require, a Commerce Program Judge may make arrangements for certain discovery and other pretrial motions to be heard by another Commerce Program Judge. All motions shall be electronically filed. Procedures of the Discovery Court should generally be followed. Prior to filing a Discovery Motion, the parties should meet and confer, in person or by on-camera video conference, to attempt to resolve the motion or narrow the issues involved. The Movant shall describe the conference, or the attempt to confer, in the Attorney Certification of Good Faith. "General Objections" or boilerplate objections incorporated into each discovery answer are not permissible and will not be given effect by the Court. In some instances, the Commerce Program Judge may direct further briefing of complex discovery motions. Any Notice of Management Program Dispute that is pending or is being filed contemporaneously with the motion filing, should be noted in the motion. Oral argument is at the discretion of the assigned Commerce Program Judge and may be in-person.

A Commerce Program Discovery List for each Commerce Program Judge shall be established so that discovery matters ordinarily will be heard by that Judge on a particular day of the week. Each Judge may also schedule argument or hearings on non-discovery motions on his/her discovery day, or at such other times as the Court deems appropriate.

b. Motions for Extraordinary Relief.

A Motion for Extraordinary Relief must be filed whenever a party seeks an extension, advancement, or other alteration of a deadline imposed by a Case Management Order. Any party may seek relief from the time requirements by filing the Motion for Extraordinary Relief. This Motion must be electronically filed prior to the deadline that the party is seeking to change. Any adverse party has ten days after the filing of the motion to file a response.

The Motion for Extraordinary Relief will be ruled on by the Commerce Program Judge assigned to the case. The party filing the Motion must include a proposed order that sets forth the extension requested in thirty day or monthly increments, as well as a copy of the current Case Management Order.

Counsel's agreement to extend deadlines within a Case Management Order is not a recognized basis for an extension. A movant must demonstrate extraordinary and unforeseeable circumstances justifying the deadline extension request. Requests for extensions of Court ordered deadlines should be utilized only as a last resort and with compelling reasons "for cause" offered in support thereof.

6. Rules to Show Cause and Emergency Motions and Petitions. Requests for rules to show cause in cases assigned to the Commerce Program shall be electronically filed. Upon acceptance of the filing, Civil Administration will forward it to the assigned Commerce Program Judge for consideration.

Unless there is a dispute as to Commerce Program applicability, emergency motions or petitions in a newly filed action presented in a matter appropriate for assignment to the Commerce Program shall be referred to a Commerce Program Judge for disposition. If there is any dispute regarding Commerce Program applicability, that dispute shall be referred to the Supervising Judge for the Commerce Program.

If the assigned Commerce Program Judge is unavailable, an emergency motion or petition in an action already assigned to the Commerce Program shall be heard by another Commerce Program Judge, if available, with any subsequent hearing referred back to the assigned Commerce Program Judge. If no Commerce Program Judge is available to hear an emergency motion or petition, such motion or petition shall be referred to a Judge assigned to Motion Court (or, if necessary, the Emergency Judge), with any subsequent hearing referred back to the appropriate Commerce Program Judge.

7. Settlement Conferences. An in-person settlement conference with a Commerce Program JPT will be scheduled in advance of trial, after discovery has concluded, and after pre-trial motions have been decided. However, a settlement conference may be scheduled at any time in any case in which counsel and the Court agree that such a conference may be productive. Such a request shall be made in writing by letter to the assigned Commerce Program Judge. Client representatives with settlement authority shall be physically present at the settlement conference unless excused by the JPT or Commerce Program Judge.

Except as otherwise provided in Phila. Civ. R. *212.3 (Settlement Conferences --Non Jury Cases), Commerce Program Judges may assist the parties in reaching a fair and reasonable settlement or other resolution of the matter. To that end, the assigned Commerce Program Judge, in his or her discretion, may schedule one or more formal settlement conferences. The Commerce Program Judge may also encourage the parties to engage in settlement discussions and in any form of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), including the assistance of a Commerce Program JPT, that may result in settlement, avoidance of trial, or expeditious resolution of the dispute. Except upon order of the Court, the pendency of any form of ADR shall not alter the date for commencement of trial.

8. Pretrial Conference. A Pretrial Conference shall be held in all Commerce Program actions. Typically, the Pre-Trial Scheduling Order will require the filing of Pretrial Statements (Pa. R.C.P. No. 212.2) in advance of the Pretrial Conference. Prior to the Pretrial Conference, principal trial counsel shall confer on the matters set forth in Pa. R.C.P. No. 212.3, and attempt to reach agreement on any such matters.

Following the Pretrial Conference, the Commerce Program Judge shall enter a Trial Scheduling Order, identifying the date by which the matter should be prepared for trial, and, if applicable, the date of any special listings. The Trial Scheduling Order may further provide specific dates, to the extent not already addressed in the Case Management Order, for such matters as:

- a. Exchange of proposed stipulations and filing of stipulations in writing to facts about which there can be no reasonable dispute;
- b. Pre-marking and exchanging copies of all documents or other exhibits to be offered in evidence at trial;
- c. Service and filing of written objections to any documents or other exhibits as to which a party intends to object at trial, together with the legal basis for such objections;
- d. Identification in writing of all deposition testimony, by page and line number, intended to be read into the record at trial, followed by counter-designations and objections to deposition designations;
- e. Exchange of trial briefs and proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law (non-jury) or requested points for jury charge (jury).

At such time prior to trial as may be fixed by the Court, it shall rule on all matters placed in issue under this procedure.

In addition, the Commerce Program Judge may establish procedures consistent with the requirements of each case in order to minimize trial time.

E. Commerce Program Judges Pro Tempore and Alternative Dispute Resolution

There shall be established in the Commerce Program, an Alternative Dispute Resolution program for Commerce Program actions, which may include, but is not limited to, mediation and the assistance of Commerce Program JPTs.

1. Panel of Commerce Program Judges Pro Tempore. The Supervising Judge of the Commerce Program shall designate a panel of Commerce Program JPTs from among volunteers nominated by the Philadelphia Bar Association Business Law Section, Business Litigation Committee ("Committee") and/or the Court, and recommended by the Committee. To qualify as a Commerce Program JPT, one must be a licensed Pennsylvania attorney with no less than five years of experience in litigation or alternate dispute resolution (ADR), including a practice focused on the types of disputes described in section B.1. above (Cases Subject to Commerce Program), and/or shall have participated in ADR training by a court-sponsored provider or certified CLE provider, and/or shall have participated as a neutral, JPT, or mediator in ADR proceedings, including but not limited to mediations, settlement conferences, and private arbitrations, involving the types of disputes described in section B.1. above, prior to approval as a Judge Pro Tempore. Persons may be added to or removed from the panel of JPTs as the Supervising Judge of the Commerce Program may determine consistent with the qualifications above.

Commerce Program JPTs shall serve without charge for up to three hours for each case, exclusive of preparation time before a settlement conference or initial mediation session. Such preparation time likewise will not be compensable. After the JPT has devoted three hours of service free of charge to the assigned case, and upon agreement of the participating parties to continue the mediation or settlement conference beyond those three hours, the JPT shall be compensated at the rate agreed to by the JPT and the participating parties for further work on the case. Unless otherwise agreed to by the participating parties, or upon further order of the Court, the obligation to compensate the JPT shall be borne equally among the parties. JPTs shall promptly invoice the parties for services and reasonable expenses for which they are entitled to be compensated.

2. The Court may order a Commerce Program case to be assigned for Settlement Conference with a Commerce Program JPT who shall, on a date certain, hold a Settlement Conference which must be attended by: 1) all represented parties, unless they are excused by the JPT or the Commerce Program Judge; 2) counsel knowledgeable about the case and with authority to settle; and 3) any unrepresented parties. If the JPT excuses represented parties from attending, they shall be available telephonically. All parties shall provide to the Commerce Program JPT prior to the Settlement Conference a fully completed Settlement Memorandum, in a form to be established by the Commerce Program Judges. The parties may also submit additional, confidential, materials to the JPT alone. The Commerce Program JPT on such a referral is not authorized to rule on any motions, but will attempt to facilitate a settlement between the parties. The JPT may report to the Commerce Program Judge assigned to the case the result of the settlement conference, i.e., whether or not the case settled.

F. Previously Issued Administrative Orders Regarding the Commerce Program.

Upon the effective date of the within Administrative Order, all Administrative Orders previously issued in connection with the Commerce Program (Administrative Docket Nos. 01 of 1999, 01 of 2000, 02 of 2003, 01 of 2014, and 01 of 2016) are supplanted and are no longer in effect.

As required by Pa.R.J.A. 103(d), this Administrative Order has been submitted to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania Civil Procedural Rules Committee for review and written notification has been received from the Rules Committee certifying that the Administrative Order is not inconsistent with any general rule of the Supreme Court. This Administrative Order shall be filed with the Office of Judicial Records (formerly the Prothonotary) in a docket maintained for Administrative Orders issued by the First Judicial District of Pennsylvania. As required by Pa.R.J.A. 103(d)(5)(ii), two certified copies of this Administrative Order, as well as one copy of the Administrative Order on a computer diskette, shall be distributed to the Legislative Reference Bureau for publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. As required by Pa.R.J.A. 103(d)(6) one certified copy of this Administrative Order shall be filed with the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts, published on the website of the First Judicial District at <http://courts.phila.gov>, and incorporated in the complete set of local rules no later than 30 days following publication in the Pennsylvania Bulletin. Copies of the Administrative Order shall also be published in The Legal Intelligencer and will be submitted to American Lawyer Media, Jenkins Memorial Law Library, and the Law Library for the First Judicial District.

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 1st day of October, 2025, IT IS ORDERED pursuant to Article V, Section 10(c) of the Constitution of Pennsylvania and Sections 1721 and 3502(a) of the Judicial Code, 42 Pa. C.S. §§ 1721, 3502(a), that the Court Administrator of Pennsylvania is authorized to obtain and publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for calendar year 2024 as required by Act 54 of 2024, 42 Pa. C.S. §§ 1725.1(f) and 3571(c)(4) (as amended) and to revise the Financial Regulations, 204 Pa. Code §§ 29.401-403, as provided in those statutory escalation provisions.

To the extent notice of proposed rulemaking may be required by Rule of Judicial Administration 103, the immediate promulgation of the regulations is hereby found to be in the interests of efficient administration.

TITLE 204. JUDICIAL SYSTEM GENERAL PROVISIONS PART II. GENERAL ADMINISTRATION CHAPTER 29. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS Subchapter K. COSTS, FINES AND FEES

§29.401. Scope.

The Pennsylvania Supreme Court, pursuant to Art. V, § 10 of the Pennsylvania Constitution, and 42 Pa. C.S. §1721, has authorized by Administrative Order, the Court Administrator of Pennsylvania to promulgate regulations relating to the accounting methods to be utilized in connection with the collection of fees and costs charged and collected by prothonotaries, and clerks of courts of all courts of common pleas, or by any officials designated to perform the functions thereof, as well as by the minor judiciary, including magisterial district judges, and judges and staff of all divisions of the Philadelphia Municipal Court.

Under authority of said Administrative Order and pursuant to the authority vested in the governing authority under 42 Pa. C.S. § 3502(a) of the Judicial Code, the following regulations are adopted to implement Act 54 of 2024, 42 Pa. C.S. §§ 1725.1(f) and 3571(c)(4) (as amended).

§ 29.401a. Consumer Price Index-costs and fines.

Pursuant to Article V, Section 10 of the Pennsylvania Constitution, and 42 Pa. C.S. § 1721, the Supreme Court has authorized the Court Administrator of Pennsylvania to obtain and publish in the Pennsylvania Bulletin on or before November 30 the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index for calendar year 2024 as required by Act 54 of 2024, 42 Pa. C.S. §§ 1725.1(f) and 3571(c)(4) (as amended). See, No. 644 Judicial Administration Docket.

The Court Administrator of Pennsylvania reports that the percentage increase in the Consumer Price Index, UrbanWage Earners and Clerical Workers, U.S. City Average, for calendar year 2024 was 2.8% percent. (See, U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Series CWUR0000SA0, January 20, 2025.)

§ 29.402.42 Pa.C.S. §1725.1. Costs.

(a) Civil cases. - In calendar year 2026, the costs to be charged by magisterial district judges in every civil case, except as otherwise provided in this section, shall be as follows:

(1) Actions involving $500 or less.....$68.50

| (2)  | Actions involving more than $500 but not more than $2,000.....                    | $91.00  | age of the OAG and the resulting inability to proceed with litigation, and as a result on August 13, 2025, the Court issued Administrative Order 9 of 2025, which stayed all matters for 30 days until September 12, 2025, in which an attorney from the OAG has entered an appearance and which provided that the Stay may be extended upon the filing of a motion to extend the Stay and following a hearing.

It is hereby ORDERED and DECREED that the Stay shall be extended for another 30 days for all cases in which an attorney from the OAG has entered an appearance.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED that the stay does not apply to any stipulations of dismissal of any Commonwealth of Pennsylvania related party that the OAG has entered its appearance.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED that as to any new cases to which this Stay applies to the entry of appearance by an OAG attorney on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, its agencies and employees, must be accompanied by a Praecept to Stay the Action, together with a copy of this Order.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED that this Stay shall remain in effect until October 14, 2025 unless the OAG notifies the Court before October 14, 2025 that its electronic data and network have been restored to allow its attorneys to access litigation data and proceed with litigation. It is further provided, however, that the Stay may be extended upon the filing of a motion to extend the Stay and following a hearing. Any motion to extend the Stay shall be filed at least five (5) days prior to the end of the Stay and docketed on Case No.: 250801412. Any objection to the motion to extend the Stay shall be filed before the hearing.

It is further ORDERED and DECREED that a hearing is scheduled for October 14, 2025 at 1 p.m. in Courtroom 513, City Hall.

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 11th day of August, 2025, upon the recommendation of the Domestic Relations Procedural Rules Committee, the proposal having been published for public comment at 54 Pa.B. 8395 (December 28, 2024):

It is Ordered pursuant to Article V, Section 10 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania that Rules 1910.1, 1910.11, 1910.12, 1910.16-1, 1910.16-2, 1910.16-3, 1910.16-3.1, 1910.16-4, 1910.16-5, 1910.16-6, 1910.16-7, 1910.19, 1910.21, 1910.27, and 1910.29 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure are amended in the attached form.

This Order shall be processed in accordance with Pa.R.J.A. 103(b), and shall be effective January 1, 2026.

Additions to the rule are shown in bold and are underlined.

Rule 1910.1. Scope. Definitions.

(a) Scope. Except as provided by subdivision (b), the rules of this chapter govern all civil actions or proceedings brought in the court of common pleas to enforce a duty of support, or an obligation to pay alimony pendente lite.

Long arm jurisdiction is available in support actions brought pursuant to these rules per 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4342(c).]

(b) Exception. The rules of this chapter shall not govern:

- (1) an action or proceeding for support based upon a contract or agreement which provides that it may not be enforced by an action in accordance with these rules;
- (2) an application for a temporary order of support and other relief pursuant to [the Protection from Abuse Act of December 19, 1990, P.L. 1240, No. 206,] 23 Pa.C.S.[A.] §§ 6101 et seq.; or
- (3) an action for support of an indigent brought pursuant to [to Chapter 46 of the Domestic Relations Code,] 23 Pa.C.S.[A.] §§ 4601 et seq.

[Note: Where a contract or agreement provides that it cannot be enforced in accordance with the rules, actions upon a contract or agreement for support are to be heard by the court and not a conference officer or hearing officer under Rules 1910.11 or 1910.12. However, such actions should be expedited and given preference in court listings.]

(c) Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context of a rule indicates otherwise, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) “Conference officer,” the person who conducts an office conference pursuant to Rule 1910.11.

- (2) “Default order,” a support order entered when a party fails to respond or appear after proper notice.
- (3) “Domestic Relations Section,” the office responsible for establishing paternity, and determining and enforcing child and spousal support orders. For the purpose of these rules, a County Child/Spousal Support Services shall be synonymous with a Domestic Relations Section.
- (4) “Hearing officer,” the person who conducts a hearing on the record and makes recommendations to the court pursuant to Rule 1910.12.
- (5) “Overdue support,” the amount of delinquent support equal to or greater than one month’s support obligation which accrues after entry or modification of a support order as the result of obligor’s nonpayment of that order.
- (6) “Past due support,” the amount of support which accrues prior to entry or modification of a support order as the result of retroactivity of that order. [When] If nonpayment of the order causes overdue support to accrue, any and all amounts of past due support owing under the order shall convert immediately to overdue support and remain as such until paid in full.
- (7) “Suspend,” eliminate the effect of a support order for a period of time.
- (8) “Terminate,” end not only the support order, but the support obligation as well.
- (9) “Trier-of-fact,” the judge, hearing officer, or conference officer who makes factual determinations.
- (10) “Vacate,” declare a particular support order null and void, as if it were never entered.

Comment: A duty of support is imposed by 23 Pa.C.S. § 4321 and 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 4601 et seq. The procedure under the rules of this chapter implements 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 4301 et seq., relating to support proceedings. The procedure under these rules provides an alternative to the intrastate and interstate procedures under 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 7101 et seq. and 8101 et seq., or alimony and alimony pendente lite, see 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 3701, 3702.

Long arm jurisdiction is available in support actions brought pursuant to these rules per 23 Pa.C.S. § 4342(c).

If a contract or agreement provides that it cannot be enforced in accordance with the rules, actions upon a contract or agreement for support are to be heard by the court and not a conference officer or hearing officer under Rules 1910.11 or 1910.12. However, such actions should be expedited and given preference in court listings.

Historical Commentary

Explanatory Comment—March 30, 1994

Nothing in this rule should be interpreted to eliminate the distinctions between spousal support and alimony pendente lite which are established by case law.

Alimony pendente lite must be distinguished from permanent alimony for purposes of this rule. The rule applies only to alimony pendente lite. The procedure for obtaining permanent alimony is governed by Section 3702 of the Divorce Code, 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 3702, and Rules of Civil Procedure 1920.1 et seq. Agreements for alimony approved by the court in connection with actions for divorce under Section 3701 of the Divorce Code are deemed to be court orders enforceable under Section 3703 of the Code.

Section 3105(a) of the Divorce Code provides that all agreements relating to matters under the code, whether or not merged or incorporated into the decree, are to be treated as orders for purposes of enforcement unless the agreement provides otherwise. Subdivision (b)(1) is amended to conform to the statute.

There is considerable diversity in the terminology used throughout the rules, and in the various counties, to describe the individuals who conduct conferences and hearings pursuant to the support rules. The addition of subdivision (c) to the rule standardizes terminology and eliminates the confusion which results from individual counties using inconsistent terms to refer to persons performing the same function. All references in the rules to conference or hearing officers have been amended to conform to the terminology set forth in subdivision (c).

Explanatory Comment—April 15, 1994

In an effort to further standardize the terminology used in support matters, the additional terms are defined.

Explanatory Comment—2000

Act 1998-127 technically amended Act 1997-58 to define and differentiate between past due and overdue support to clarify that only overdue support constitutes a lien by operation of law against the obligor’s real or personal property. 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4302 now defines overdue support as “support which is delinquent under a payment schedule established by the court.” Past due support is defined as “support included in an order of support which has not been paid.”

The definitions of past due and overdue support in this rule do not substantively change the legislative definitions. They merely elaborate on them in terms which are more familiar and helpful to the bench and bar. Specifically, past due support consists of the purely retroactive arrearages which accumulate between the date of the filing of the complaint or petition for modification and the date of the hearing and entry of the initial or modified support order. Overdue support refers to the delinquent arrearages which accrue after entry of the order due to the obligor’s failure to pay support pursuant to the order.

These definitions are important for determining the remedies available for collecting

support arrearages. Pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4352(d), only overdue support (delinquent arrearages) constitutes a lien by operation of law against the obligor's property. Conversely, past due support (retroactive arrears) does not operate as a lien against this property as long as the obligor remains current on the support order.

Rule 1910.20 extends this legislative distinction between overdue and past due support to the following remedies available to collect support: (1) consumer agency reporting under 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4303; (2) suspension of licenses under 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4355; and (3) the full range of new collection remedies under 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4305(b)(10). Accordingly, these remedies are available only to collect overdue support. They are not available to collect past due support as long as the obligor remains current on the order. If, however, the obligor subsequently defaults on the support order, Rule 1910.20(c) provides that any past due support still owing under the order immediately becomes overdue support subject to the full range of collection remedies. It remains overdue support until collected in full.

Pursuant to Rule 1910.20(c), all overdue support, including past due support which has converted to overdue support, remains subject to Act 58 remedies until paid in full. Any repayment plan subsequently agreed to by the parties, or ordered by the court pursuant to a contempt proceeding (including any arrearage component), does not preclude the use of these remedies for collecting overdue support more quickly, whenever feasible.

In cases involving past due support only, the obligee is not entirely without remedy in the event that additional income or assets of the obligor are discovered after the hearing which would enable collection of past due support more quickly. In these cases, identification of those income sources or assets provides a basis for modification pursuant to Rule 1910.19. Modification includes increasing the rate of repayment on past due support and, if appropriate, ordering that the past due support be paid in full. In these cases, the obligee may also petition the court for special relief pursuant to Rule 1910.26 to have the income or assets frozen and seized pending the petition for modification in order to secure payment of past due support.

Explanatory Comment—2007

Act 43-2005, July 7, 2005, P. L. 196, repealed the Act of June 24, 1937 (P. L. 2045, No. 397), known as The Support Law and added Chapter 46 to the Domestic Relations Code, 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4601 et seq. Section 4 of Act 43-2005 states that the addition of Chapter 46 is a continuation of the Act of June 24, 1937 (P. L. 2045, No. 397). Chapter 46 addresses the responsibility of certain family members to maintain indigent relatives, whether or not the indigent person is a public charge. New subdivision (b)(3) clarifies that the support rules and guidelines do not apply to actions brought under Chapter 46 of the Domestic Relations Code.

Rule 1910.11. Office Conference. Subsequent Proceedings. Order.

(a) Office Conference.

- (1) A conference officer shall conduct the office conference.
- (2) [A lawyer] An attorney serving as a conference officer employed by, or under contract with, a judicial district or appointed by the court shall not practice family law before a conference officer, hearing officer, or judge of the same judicial district.

[Note: Conference officers preside at office conferences under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.11. Hearing officers preside at hearings under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.12. The appointment of a hearing officer to hear actions in divorce or for annulment of marriage is authorized by Pa.R.C.P. No. 1920.51.]

(b) Failure to Appear. If a party fails to appear at the conference as directed by the court, the conference may proceed with a default order being entered against the non-appearing party.

(c) Documents. At the conference, the parties shall provide to the conference officer the following documents:

- the most recently filed individual federal income tax returns, including all schedules, W-2s, and 1099s;
- the partnership or business tax returns with all schedules, including K-1, if the party is self-employed or a principal in a partnership or business entity;
- pay stubs for the preceding six months;
- verification of child care expenses;
- child support, spousal support, alimony pendente lite, or alimony orders or agreements for other children or former spouses;
- proof of available medical coverage; and
- an Income Statement and, if necessary, an Expense Statement on the forms provided in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(c) and completed as set forth in subdivisions (c)(1) and (c)(2).

[Note: See Pa.R.C.P. No. 1930.1(b). To the extent this rule applies to actions not governed by other legal authority regarding confidentiality of information and documents in support actions or that attorneys or unrepresented parties file support-related confidential information and documents in non-support actions (e.g., divorce, custody), the Case Records Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania shall apply.]

- (1) The parties shall provide the conference officer with a completed:

- (i) Income Statement as set forth in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(c)(1) in all support cases, including high-income cases under [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3.1; and
- (ii) Expense Statement as set forth in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(c)(2)(A), if a party:

(iii) claims that unusual needs and unusual fixed expenses may warrant a deviation from the guideline support amount pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-5; or (iv) seeks expense [apportionment] allocation pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6.

- (2) For high-income support cases as set forth in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3.1, the parties shall provide to the conference officer the Expense Statement in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(c)(2)(B).

(d) Conference Officer Recommendation.

- (1) The conference officer shall calculate and recommend a guideline support amount to the parties.

- (2) If the parties agree on a support amount at the conference, the conference officer shall:

- (i) prepare a written order consistent with the parties' agreement and substantially in the form set forth in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(e), which the parties shall sign; and

- (ii) submit to the court the written order along with the conference officer's recommendation for approval or disapproval.

- (iii) The court may enter the order in accordance with the agreement without hearing from the parties.

- (3) In all cases in which one or both parties are unrepresented, the parties [must] shall provide income information to the domestic relations section so that a guidelines calculation can be performed.

- (4) In cases in which both parties are represented by counsel, the parties shall not be obligated to provide income information and the domestic relations section shall not be required to perform a guidelines calculation if the parties have reached an agreement about the amount of support and the amount of contribution to additional expenses.

- (e) Conference Summary. At the conclusion of the conference or not later than 10 days after the conference, the conference officer shall prepare a conference summary and furnish copies to the court and to both parties. The conference summary shall state:

- (1) the facts upon which the parties agree;

- (2) the contentions of the parties with respect to facts upon which they disagree; and

- (3) the conference officer's recommendation; if any, of

- (i) the amount of support and by and for whom the support shall be paid; and

- (ii) the effective date of any order.

- (f) No Agreement. If an agreement for support is not reached at the conference, the court, without hearing the parties, shall enter an interim order calculated in accordance with the guidelines and substantially in the form set forth in Rule 1910.27(e). Each party shall be provided, either in person at the time of the conference or by mail, with a copy of the interim order and written notice that any party may, within [twenty] 20 days after the date of receipt or the date of the mailing of the interim order, whichever occurs first, file a written demand with the domestic relations section for a hearing before the court.

- (g) No Automatic Stay. A demand for a hearing before the court shall not stay the interim order entered under subdivision (f) unless the court so directs.

- (h) No Hearing Demand. If no party demands a hearing before the court within the [twenty] 20-day period, the interim order shall constitute a final order.

- (i) Hearing Demand. If a demand is filed, there shall be a hearing de novo before the court. The domestic relations section shall schedule the hearing and give notice to the parties. The court shall hear the case and enter a final order substantially in the form set forth in Rule 1910.27(e) within [sixty] 60 days from the date of the written demand for hearing.

(j) Separate Listing.

- (1) Promptly after receipt of the notice of the scheduled hearing, a party may move the court for a separate listing [where] if:
  - (i) there are complex questions of law, fact or both; or
  - (ii) the hearing will be protracted; or
  - (iii) the orderly administration of justice requires that the hearing be listed separately.

- (2) If the motion for separate listing is granted, discovery shall be available in accordance with [Rule] Pa.R.Civ.P. 4001 et seq.

Concerning subdivision (j)(2), the rule relating to discovery in domestic relations matters generally is Rule 1930.5.

Historical Commentary

Explanatory Comment—1994

The domestic relations office conference provided by Rule 1910.11 constitutes the heart of the support procedure. There are two primary advantages to the inclusion of a conference. First, in many cases the parties will agree upon an amount of support and a final order will be prepared, to be entered by the court, thus dispensing with a judicial hearing. Second, those cases which do go to hearing can proceed more quickly because the necessary factual information has already been gathered by the conference officer.

Subdivision (a)(2) prohibits certain officers of the court from practicing family law before fellow officers of the same court. These officers are the conference officer who is an attorney (Rule 1910.11), the hearing officer (Rule 1910.12), and the standing or permanent master who is employed by the court (Rule 1920.51). The amendments are not intended to apply to the attorney who is appointed occasionally to act as a master in a divorce action.

Subdivision (e)(3) makes clear that even if the parties agree on an amount of support, the conference officer is still empowered to recommend to the court that the agreement be disapproved. This provision is intended to protect the destitute spouse who might out of desperation agree to an amount of support that is unreasonably low or which would in effect bargain away the rights of the children. The officer's disapproval of the agreement serves to prevent an inadequate order being entered unwittingly by the court.

The provision for an interim order in subdivision (f) serves two purposes. First, it ensures that the obligee will receive needed support for the period during which the judicial determination is sought. Second, it eliminates the motive of delay in seeking a judicial determination.

Because the guidelines are income driven, the trier of fact has little need for the expense information required in the Income and Expense Statement. Therefore in guideline cases, the rule no longer requires that expense information be provided. If a party feels that there are expenses so extraordinary that they merit consideration by the trier of fact, that party is free to provide the information. In cases decided according to Melzer v. Witsberger, 505 Pa. 462, 480 A.2d 991 (1984), living expenses are properly considered, and therefore must be presented on the Income and Expense Statement.

Explanatory Comment—1995

Rule 1910.11(e) is amended to eliminate the need for a party to request a copy of the conference summary.

Because the court is required to enter a guideline order on the basis of the conference officer's recommendation, there is no need for (g)(2), which provided for a hearing before the court where an order was not entered within five days of the conference. It is eliminated accordingly.

Pursuant to subdivision (g), support payments are due and owing under the interim order which continues in effect until the court enters a final order after the hearing de novo. The provision for an interim order serves two purposes. First, it ensures that the obligee will receive needed support for the period during which the judicial determination is sought. Second, it eliminates the motive of delay in seeking a judicial determination. Therefore, the plaintiff and the dependent children are not prejudiced by allowing the court sixty days, rather than the original forty-five, in which to enter its final order.

Explanatory Comment—2006

The time for filing a written demand for a hearing before the court has been expanded from ten to twenty days. The purpose of this amendment is to provide ample opportunity for litigants and counsel to receive notice of the entry of the order, to assure Commonwealth-wide consistency in calculation of time for filing and to conform to applicable general civil procedural rules.

The amendments reflect the separated Income Statement and Expense Statements in Rule 1910.27(c).

Explanatory Comment—2010

When the parties' combined net income exceeds $30,000 per month, calculation of child support, spousal support and alimony pendente lite shall be pursuant to Rule 1910.16-3.1. Rule 1910.16-2(e) has been amended to eliminate the application of Melzer v. Witsberger, 505 Pa. 462, 480 A.2d 991 (1984), in high income child support cases.

Explanatory Comment—2011

The rule has been amended to require that income information be provided in all cases, unless both parties are represented in reaching an agreement, so that a guidelines calculation can be performed. The guidelines create a rebuttable presumption that the amount calculated pursuant to them is the correct amount, so there should be a calculation in every case. If parties agree to receive or to pay an order other than the guideline amount, they should know what that amount is so that they can enter an agreement knowingly. If both parties are represented by counsel, it is assumed that their entry into the agreement for an amount other than a guidelines amount is knowing as it is counsels' responsibility to advise the parties. In addition, part of the mandatory quadrennial review of the support guidelines mandates a study of the number of cases in which the support amount ordered varies from the amount that would result from a guidelines calculation. Federal regulations presume that if a large percentage of cases vary from the guideline amount, then the guidelines are not uniform statewide.

Rule 1910.12. Office Conference. Hearing. Record. Exceptions. Order.

(a) Office Conference. There shall be an office conference as provided by [Pa.R.Civ.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11(a) [through] (d). The provisions of [Pa.R.Civ.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11(d)(3) and (d)(4) regarding income information apply in cases proceeding pursuant to [Pa.R.Civ.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.12.

Conference Conclusion.

(1) At the conclusion of a conference attended by both parties, if an agreement for support has not been reached, and the conference and hearing are not scheduled on the same day, the court, without hearing the parties, shall enter an interim order calculated in accordance with the guidelines and substantially in the form set forth in [Pa.R.Civ.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(e), and the parties shall be given notice of the date, time and place of a hearing. A record hearing shall be conducted by a hearing officer who [must be a lawyer] shall be an attorney.

(2) If either party, having been properly served, fails to attend the conference, the court may enter an interim default order calculated in accordance with the guidelines and substantially in the form set forth in [Pa.R.Civ.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(e). Within 20 days after the date of receipt or the date of mailing of the interim default order, whichever occurs first, either party may demand a hearing before a hearing officer. If no hearing is requested, the order shall become final.

(3) Any [lawyer] attorney serving as a hearing officer employed by, or under contract with, a judicial district or appointed by the court shall not practice family law before a conference officer, hearing officer, or judge of the same judicial district.

Separate Listing.

(1) Except as provided in subdivision (c)(2), promptly after the conference's conclusion, a party may move the court for a separate listing of the hearing if:

- (i) there are complex questions of law, fact or both;
- (ii) the hearing will be protracted; or
- (iii) the orderly administration of justice requires that the hearing be listed separately.

(2) When the conference and hearing are scheduled on the same day, all requests for separate listing shall be presented to the court at least seven days prior to the scheduled court date.

(3) If the motion for separate listing is granted, discovery shall be available in accordance with [Pa.R.Civ.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 4001 et seq.

[Note: The rule relating to discovery in domestic relations matters generally is Pa.R.Civ.P. No. 1930.5.]

(d)

Hearing Officer Report. The hearing officer shall receive evidence, hear argument and, not later than 20 days after the close of the record, file with the court a report containing a recommendation with respect to the entry of an order of support. The report may be in narrative form stating the reasons for the recommendation and shall include a proposed order substantially in the form set forth in Rule 1910.27(e) stating:

(1) the amount of support calculated in accordance with the guidelines;

(2) by and for whom it shall be paid; and

(3) the effective date of the order.

Interim Order. The court, without hearing the parties, shall enter an interim order consistent with the proposed order of the hearing officer. Each party shall be provided, either in person at the time of the hearing or by mail, with a copy of the interim order and written notice that any party may, within [twenty] 20 days after the date of receipt or the date of mailing of the order, whichever occurs first, file with the domestic relations section written exceptions to the report of the hearing officer and interim order.

[Note: Objections to the entry of an interim order consistent with the proposed order may be addressed pursuant to Rule 1910.26.]

(f)

Exceptions to Report. Within [twenty] 20 days after the date of receipt or the date of mailing of the report by the hearing officer, whichever occurs first, any party may file exceptions to the report or any part thereof, to rulings on objections to evidence, to statements or findings of facts, to conclusions of law, or to any other matters occurring during the hearing. Each exception shall set forth a separate objection precisely and without discussion. Matters not covered by exceptions are deemed waived unless, prior to entry of the final order, leave is granted to file exceptions raising those matters. If exceptions are filed, any other party may file exceptions within [twenty] 20 days of the date of service of the original exceptions.

(g)

No Exceptions Filed. If no exceptions are filed within the [twenty] 20-day period, the interim order shall constitute a final order.

Exceptions Filed. If exceptions are filed, the interim order shall continue in effect. The court shall hear argument on the exceptions and enter an appropriate final order substantially in the form set forth in Rule 1910.27(e) within [sixty] 60 days from the date of the filing of exceptions to the interim order. No motion for post-trial relief may be filed to the final order.

Historical Commentary

Explanatory Comment—1995

Language is added to subdivision (b) to acknowledge that the conference and hearing can be held on the same day, and to provide for the immediate entry of an interim order in judicial districts where the hearing occurs at a later date. New subdivision (b)(2) permits entry of a guideline order after a conference which the defendant, though properly served, fails to attend. New subdivision (c)(2) is intended to prevent delays in the hearing of complex cases by requiring that requests for separate listing be made at least seven days in advance where the conference and hearing are scheduled the same day.

In addition, the phrase “record hearing” in subdivision (a) replaces the reference to a “stenographic record” in recognition of the variety of means available to create a reliable record of support proceedings.

Amended subdivision (e) allows an interim order to be entered and served on the parties at the conclusion of the hearing, rather than after the expiration of the exceptions period as was true under the old rule. In addition, the amended subdivision requires that the interim order include language advising the parties of their right to file exceptions within ten days of the date of the order.

Support payments are due and owing under the interim order which continues in effect until the court enters a final order after considering the parties’ exceptions. Therefore, extension of the deadline for entering the final order by fifteen days does not prejudice the persons dependent upon payment of the support.

Explanatory Comment—2006

The time for filing exceptions has been expanded from ten to twenty days. The purpose of this amendment is to provide ample opportunity for litigants and counsel to receive notice of the entry of the order, to assure Commonwealth-wide consistency in calculation of time for filing and to conform to applicable general civil procedural rules.

Rule 1910.16-1. Support Obligation. Support Guidelines.

(a) Applicability of the Support Guidelines.

- (1) Except as provided in subdivision (a)(3), the support guidelines determine a spouse’s or parent’s support obligation based on the parties’ combined monthly net income, as defined in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2, and the number of persons being supported.
- (2) If a person caring for or having custody of a minor child, who does not have a duty of support to the minor child, initiates a child support action as provided in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.3:
  - (i) the complaint shall name the parents as defendants;
  - (ii) in determining the basic child support obligation, the monthly net income for the individual initiating the action shall not be considered in the support calculation by the trier-of-fact;
  - (iii) the parents’ monthly net incomes shall be combined to determine the basic child support obligation, which shall be apportioned based on the parents’ respective monthly net incomes consistent with [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4. The parents shall pay the obligee their proportionate share of the basic child support obligation as a separate obligor; and
  - (iv) as with other support actions, the trier-of-fact may adjust or deviate the basic child support, spousal support, or alimony pendente lite obligation consistent with the support guidelines based on the evidence presented by the parties.

[Example 1.] The parents have one child, who is in the custody of the maternal grandmother. Maternal grandmother initiates a support action against the parents. Mother’s monthly net income is $3,000 and Father’s monthly net income is $2,000 for a combined monthly net income of $5,000. For purposes of the child support calculation, maternal grandmother’s income is irrelevant and not part of the calculation. The basic child support obligation for one child at a combined monthly net income of $5,000 is $993 per month. Mother’s percentage share of the combined monthly net income is 60% ($3,000/$5,000) and Father’s percentage share of the combined monthly net income is 40% ($2,000/$5,000). Mother’s preliminary monthly share of the child support obligation is $596 ($993 x 60%) and Father’s preliminary monthly share of the child support obligation is $397 ($993 x 40%). Maternal grandmother is the obligee with Mother and Father as separate obligors owing $596 and $397, respectively, to the maternal grandmother.]

- (3) In an action in which the plaintiff is a public body or private agency pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.3, the basic child support obligation shall be calculated under the guidelines based upon the parent’s monthly net income with the public or private entity’s monthly net income as zero. In such cases, each parent shall be treated as a separate obligor, and the parent’s obligation will be based upon the parent’s monthly net income without regard to the other parent’s monthly net income.

- (i) The basic child support obligation owed to a child not in placement shall be deducted from each parent’s monthly net income before calculating support for the child in placement, including the direct support the support guidelines assume the custodial parent will provide.

[Example 2.] The parents have three children and do not live in the same household. Mother has primary custody of two children and monthly net income of $2,500 per month. Father’s monthly net income is $4,000. The parties’ third child is in foster care placement. Pursuant to the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3, the basic child support obligation for the two children with Mother is $1,733. As Father’s income is 62% of the parties’ combined monthly net income, Father’s basic child support obligation to Mother is $1,074 per month. The guidelines assume that Mother will provide $659 per month in direct expenditures to the two children. The agency/obligee brings an action against each parent for the support of the child in placement. Father/obligor’s monthly net income will be $2,926 for purposes of this calculation ($4,000 less $1,074 in support for the children with Mother). As the agency/obligee’s income is zero, Father’s support for the child in placement will be 100% of the basic child support obligation for one child at the $2,926 income level, or $674 per month. Mother/obligor’s net income will be $1,841 for purposes of this calculation ($2,500 less $659 in direct support to the children in Mother’s custody). Mother’s support obligation will be 100% of the basic child support obligation for one child at that income level, or $423 per month.

[Example 3.] The parents have two children in placement. Father owes child support of $500 per month for two children of a former marriage. At the same income levels as in Example 2, Father’s monthly net income for determining his obligation to the children in placement would be $3,500 ($4,000 less $500 support for two children of prior marriage). Father’s obligation to the agency would be $1,205 per month (100% of the basic child support obligation for two children at the $3,500 per month income level). Mother’s monthly net income would not be diminished as she owes no other child support. Mother would owe $877 for the children in placement (100% of the basic child support obligation for two children at the $2,500 income level).]

- (ii) If the parents reside in the same household, each parent’s respective basic child support obligation to a child that remains in the household and is not in placement shall be calculated according to the guidelines, with the parent having the higher income as the obligor, and the calculated basic child support obligation shall be deducted from the parents’ monthly net incomes for purposes of calculating support for a child in placement.

[Example 4.] The parents have four children, two of whom are in placement. Mother’s monthly net income is $4,000 and Father’s is $3,000. The basic child support obligation for the two children in the home is $1,841, according to the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3. As Mother’s monthly net income is 57% of the parties’ combined monthly net income, her share would be $1,049, and Father’s 43% share would be $792. Mother’s monthly net income for purposes of calculating support for the two children in placement would be $2,951 ($4,000 less $1,049). She would pay 100% of the basic child support obligation at that income level, or $1,026, for the children in placement. Father’s monthly net income would be $2,208 ($3,000 less $792), and his obligation to the children in placement would be $772.]

- (iii) If the basic child support obligation exceeds the placement’s cost, the trier-of-fact shall:

☛ deviate the basic child support obligation downward; and ☛ apply the parent’s percentage of the combined monthly net income to the reduced basic child support obligation.

- (4) The support of a spouse or child is a priority obligation so that a party is expected to meet this obligation by adjusting the party’s other expenditures.

Support Obligation. The support obligation (child support, spousal support, or alimony pendente lite) awarded pursuant to the [Pa.R.C.P. Nos.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11 and 1910.12 procedures shall be determined in accordance with the support guidelines, which consist of the guidelines expressed as the basic child support schedule in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3, the [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4 formulas, and the operation of the support guidelines as set forth in these rules.

(c) Spousal Support and Alimony Pendente Lite.

- (1) Spousal support and alimony pendente lite orders shall not be in effect simultaneously.
- (2) In determining a spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation’s duration, the trier-of-fact shall consider the marriage’s duration, i.e., the date of marriage to the date of final separation.
- (d) Rebuttable Presumption. If the trier-of-fact determines that a party has a duty to pay support, there is a rebuttable presumption that the guideline-

calculated support obligation is the correct support obligation.

 ① The presumption is rebutted if the trier-of-fact concludes in a written finding or states on the record that the guideline support obligation is unjust or inappropriate.

 ① The trier-of-fact shall consider the child's and parties' special needs and obligations, and apply the [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-5 deviation factors, as appropriate.

(e) Support Guidelines Review. The support guidelines shall be reviewed at least every four years to ensure that their application determines the appropriate support obligation.

Comment:

Subdivision (a)(2) Example: The parents have one child, who is in the custody of the maternal grandmother. Maternal grandmother initiates a support action against the parents. Mother's monthly net income is $3,000 and Father's monthly net income is $2,000 for a combined monthly net income of $5,000. For purposes of the child support calculation, maternal grandmother's income is irrelevant and not part of the calculation. The basic child support obligation for one child at a combined monthly net income of $5,000 is $1,080 per month. Mother's percentage share of the combined monthly net income is 60% ($3,000/$5,000) and Father's percentage share of the combined monthly net income is 40% ($2,000/$5,000). Mother's preliminary monthly share of the child support obligation is $648 ($1,080 x 60%) and Father's preliminary monthly share of the child support obligation is $432 ($1,080 x 40%). Maternal grandmother is the obligee with Mother and Father as separate obligors owing $648 and $432, respectively, to the maternal grandmother.

Subdivision (a)(3)(i) Example 1: The parents have three children and do not live in the same household. Mother has primary custody of two children and monthly net income of $2,500 per month. Father's monthly net income is $4,000. The parties' third child is in foster care placement. Pursuant to the schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3, the basic child support obligation for the two children with Mother is $1,855. As Father's income is 62% of the parties' combined monthly net income, Father's basic child support obligation to Mother is $1,150 per month. The guidelines assume that Mother will provide $705 per month in direct expenditures to the two children. The agency/obligee brings an action against each parent for the support of the child in placement. Father/obligor's monthly net income will be $2,850 for purposes of this calculation ($4,000 less $1,150 in support for the children with Mother). As the agency/obligee's income is zero, Father's support for the child in placement will be 100% of the basic child support obligation for one child at the $2,850 income level, or $657 per month. Mother/obligor's net income will be $1,795 for purposes of this calculation ($2,500 less $705 in direct support to the children in Mother's custody). Mother's support obligation will be 100% of the basic child support obligation for one child at that income level, or $415 per month.

Subdivision (a)(3)(i) Example 2: The parents have two children in placement. Father owes child support of $500 per month for two children of a former marriage. At the same income levels as in Subdivision (a)(3)(i) Example 1, Father's monthly net income for determining his obligation to the children in placement would be $3,500 ($4,000 less $500 support for two children of prior marriage). Father's obligation to the agency would be $1,217 per month (100% of the basic child support obligation for two children at the $3,500 per month income level). Mother's monthly net income would not be diminished as she owes no other child support. Mother would owe $877 for the children in placement (100% of the basic child support obligation for two children at the $2,500 income level).

Subdivision (a)(3)(ii) Example: The parents have four children, two of whom are in placement. Mother's monthly net income is $4,000 and Father's is $3,000. The basic child support obligation for the two children in the home is $1,913, according to the schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3. As Mother's monthly net income is 57% of the parties' combined monthly net income, her share would be $1,090, and Father's 43% share would be $823. Mother's monthly net income for purposes of calculating support for the two children in placement would be $2,910 ($4,000 less $1,090). She would pay 100% of the basic child support obligation at that income level, or $1,017, for the children in placement. Father's monthly net income would be $2,177 ($3,000 less $823), and his obligation to the children in placement would be $772.

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment—2003

New subdivision (2) is intended to clarify in particular the calculation of child support when a child is in a foster care or institutional placement and not in the custody of either parent.

Explanatory Comment—2010

Introduction. Pennsylvania law requires that child and spousal support be awarded pursuant to a statewide guideline. 23 Pa.C.S. § 4322(a). That statute further provides that the guideline shall be "established by general rule by the Supreme Court, so that persons similarly situated shall be treated similarly." Id.

Pursuant to federal law, The Family Support Act of 1988 (P. L. 100-485, 102 Stat. 2343 (1988)), all states are required to have statewide child support guidelines. Federal regulations, 45 CFR 302.56, further require that the guidelines be reviewed at least once every four years and that such reviews include an assessment of the most recent economic data on child-rearing costs and a review of data from case files to assure that deviations from the guidelines are limited. The Pennsylvania statute also requires a review of the support guidelines every four years. 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4322(a).

The Domestic Relations Procedural Rules Committee of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania began the mandated review process in early 2007. The committee was assisted in its work by Jane Venohr, Ph.D., an economist with the Center for Policy Research, under contract between the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare and Policy Studies, Inc. As a result of the review, the committee recommended to the Supreme Court several amendments to the statewide guidelines.

 Income Shares Model. Pennsylvania's child support guidelines are based upon the Income Shares Model. That model was developed under the Child Support Guidelines Project funded by the U.S. Office of Child Support Enforcement and administered by the National Center for State Courts. The Guidelines Project Advisory Group recommended the Income Shares Model for state guidelines. At present, 37 states use the Income Shares Model as a basis for their child support guidelines.

The Income Shares Model is based upon the concept that the child of separated, divorced or never-married parents should receive the same proportion of parental income that she or he would have received if the parents lived together. A number of authoritative economic studies provide estimates of the average amount of household expenditures for children in intact households. These studies show that the proportion of household spending devoted to children is directly related to the level of household income and to the number of the children. The basic support amounts reflected in the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 represent average marginal expenditures on children for food, housing, transportation, clothing and other miscellaneous items that are needed by children and provided by their parents, including the first $250 of unreimbursed medical expenses incurred annually per child.

1. Economic Measures. The support schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 is based upon child-rearing expenditures measured by David M. Betson, Ph.D., Professor of Economics, University of Notre Dame. Dr. Betson's measurements were developed for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services for the explicit purpose of assisting states with the development and revision of child support guidelines. Dr. Betson's research also was used in developing the prior schedule, effective in January 2006. Dr. Betson updates his estimates using data from the Consumer Expenditure Survey conducted by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. In the current schedule, those figures were converted to 2008 price levels using the Consumer Price Index.

2. Source of Data. The estimates used to develop the schedule are based upon national data. The specific sources of the data are the periodic Consumer Expenditure Surveys. Those national surveys are used because they are the most detailed available source of data on household expenditures. The depth and quality of this information is simply not available at the state level and would be prohibitively costly to gather.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Center for Nutrition Policy and Promotion ("CNPP") also develops economic estimates for the major categories of child-rearing expenditures. Although the committee reviewed these estimates, it is aware of only one state that relies upon the CNPP estimates as a basis for its child support schedule, and even that state makes certain adjustments.

B. Statutory Considerations. The Pennsylvania statute, 23 Pa.C.S.A. § 4322(a), provides:

Child and spousal support shall be awarded pursuant to a Statewide guideline as established by general rule by the Supreme Court, so that persons similarly situated shall be treated similarly. The guideline shall be based upon the reasonable needs of the child or spouse seeking support and the ability of the obligor to provide support. In determining the reasonable needs of the child or spouse seeking support and the ability of the obligor to provide support, the guideline shall place primary emphasis on the net incomes and earning capacities of the parties, with allowable deviations for unusual needs, extraordinary expenses and other factors, such as the parties' assets, as warrant special attention. The guideline so developed shall be reviewed at least once every four years.

1. Reasonable Needs and Reasonable Ability to Provide Support. The guidelines make financial support of a child a primary obligation and assume that parties with similar net incomes will have similar reasonable and necessary expenses. After the basic needs of the parents have been met, the child's needs shall receive priority. The guidelines assume that if the obligor's net income is at the poverty level, he or she is barely able to provide for his or her own basic needs. In those cases, therefore, the entry of a minimal order may be appropriate after considering the party's living expenses. In some cases, it may not be appropriate to enter a support order at all. In most cases, however, a party's living expenses are not relevant in determining his or her support obligation. Rather, as the statute requires, the obligation is based upon the reasonable needs of a dependent spouse or child and the reasonable ability of the obligor to pay.

2. Net Income. The guidelines use the net incomes of the parties. Each parent is required to contribute to a share of the child's reasonable needs in proportion to that parent's share of the combined net income. The custodial parent makes these contributions through direct expenditures for food, shelter, clothing, transportation and other reasonable needs. The non-custodial parent makes contributions through periodic support payments to the custodial parent. Rule 1910.16-2(d) has been amended to clarify the provisions relating to income and earning capacity.

3. Allowable Deviations. The guidelines are designed to treat similarly situated parents, spouses and children in the same manner. However, when there are unavoidable differences, deviations must be made from the guidelines. Failure to deviate from these guidelines by considering a party's actual expenditures where there are special needs and special circumstances constitutes a misapplication of the guidelines.

C. Child Support Schedule. The child support schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 has been amended to reflect updated economic data, as required by federal and state law, to ensure that children continue to receive adequate levels of support. The support amounts in the schedule have been expanded to apply to a combined net monthly income of $30,000 and remain statistically valid. The economic data support the revised schedule.

D. Self-Support Reserve ("SSR"). The amended schedule also incorporates an increase in the "Self-Support Reserve" or "SSR" from $748 per month to $867 per month, the 2008 federal poverty level for one person. Formerly designated as the "Computed Allowance Minimum" or "CAM," the Self-Support Reserve, as it is termed in most other states' guidelines, is intended to assure that low-income obligors retain sufficient income to meet their own basic needs, as well as to maintain the incentive to continue employment. The SSR is built into the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 and adjusts the basic support obligation to prevent the obligor's net income from falling below $867 per month. Because the schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 applies to child support only, Rule 1910.16-2(e)(1)(B) provides for a similar adjustment in spousal support and alimony pendente lite cases to assure that the obligor retains a minimum of $867 per month.

E. Shared Custody. In creating the new schedule, the amounts of basic child support were first increased to reflect updated economic data, including 2008 price levels. Next, the amounts of basic child support were adjusted to incorporate into the schedule the assumption that the children spend 30% of the time with the obligor and that the obligor makes direct expenditures on their behalf during that time. That does not mean that the entire schedule was reduced by 30%. Only those variable expenditures, such as food and entertainment, that fluctuate based upon parenting time were adjusted. The calculation in Rule 1910.16-4(c) reduces an obligor's support obligation further if the obligor spends significantly more time with the children. The revised schedule assumes that the obligor has 30% parenting time. The obligor will receive an additional 10% reduction in the amount of support owed at 40% parenting time, increasing incrementally to a 20% reduction at 50% parenting time. This method may still result in a support obligation even if custody of the children is equally shared. In those cases, the rule provides for a maximum obligation which may reduce the obligation so that the obligee does not receive a larger portion of the parties' combined income than the obligor.

F. Child Care Expenses. Rule 1910.16-6(a) was amended in 2006 to provide that child care expenses incurred by both parties shall be apportioned between the parties in recognition of the fact that a non-custodial parent also may incur such expenses during his or her custodial periods with the children.

G. Spousal Support and Alimony Pendente Lite. Subdivision (c) has been amended to require the court to consider the duration of the marriage in determining the duration of a spousal support or alimony pendente lite award. The language was moved from Rule 1910.16-5 which deals with deviation. The primary purpose of this provision is to prevent the unfairness that arises in a short-term marriage when the obligor is required to pay support over a substantially longer period of time than the parties were married and there is little or no opportunity for credit for these payments at the time of equitable distribution.

H. Other Amendments. All of the examples in the guidelines have been updated to reflect the changes to the basic child support schedule. Prior explanatory comments have been deleted or revised and incorporated into new comments.

Explanatory Comment—2013
The schedule of basic child support has been updated to reflect newer economic data. The schedule was prepared by Jane Venohr, Ph.D., the economist who assisted in the last guideline review using the same methodology. It includes an increase in the Self-Support Reserve to $931 per month, the 2012 federal poverty level for one person.

Explanatory Comment—2017
Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.3(a), a person having custody of a child or caring for a child may initiate a support action against the child's parent(s). Previously, this rule only addressed when a public body or private agency had custody of a child but was silent with regard to an individual third party, e.g., grandparent, seeking support. The rule has been amended by adding a new subdivision (a)(2) and renumbering the previous (a)(2) to (a)(3). In addition, an example illustrating the new (a)(2) calculation has been included.

Subdivision (a)(2) excludes the income of the third party/obligee, as that person does not have a duty of support to the child; instead, the rule uses the combined monthly net income of the parents to determine the basic child support amount, which is then apportioned between the parents consistent with their respective percentage of the combined monthly net income in the same manner as a parent vs. parent support action. However, under this rule, each parent would be a separate obligor, would pay the obligee their proportionate share under a separate support order, and would be subject to separate enforcement proceedings. Under (a)(2), the exclusion of the third party's income is consistent with Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-2(b)(2)(ii) as that rule relates to an action for support by a third party against a surviving parent in which the child receives a Social Security derivative benefit due to the death of the other parent.

In accordance with Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6(c), payment of the first $250 of unreimbursed medical expenses per year per child is applicable to third party/obligees in support actions governed by (a)(2). The first $250 of unreimbursed medical expenses is built into the Basic Child Support Schedule.

Rule 1910.16-2. Support Guidelines. Calculation of Monthly Net Income.
Generally, the basic child support, spousal support, or alimony pendente lite obligation is based on the parties' monthly net incomes.

(a) Monthly Gross Income. Monthly gross income is ordinarily based on at least a six-month average of a party's income. The support law, 23 Pa.C.S. § 4302, defines the term "income" and includes income from any source. The statute lists many types of income including, but not limited to:

(1) wages, salaries, bonuses, fees, and commissions;
(2) net income from business or dealings in property;
(3) interest, rents, royalties, and dividends;
(4) pensions and all forms of retirement;
(5) income from an interest in an estate or trust;
(6) Social Security disability benefits, Social Security retirement benefits, temporary and permanent disability benefits, workers' compensation, and unemployment compensation;
(7) alimony if, in the trier-of-fact's discretion, inclusion of part or all of it is appropriate; and
(8) other entitlements to money or lump sum awards, without regard to source, including:
(i) lottery winnings;
(ii) income tax refunds;
(iii) insurance compensation or settlements;
(iv) awards and verdicts; and
(v) payments due to and collectible by an individual regardless of source.

Treatment of Public Assistance, SSI Benefits, Social Security Payments to a Child Due to a Parent's Death, Disability or Retirement, and Foster Care Payments.

(1) Public Assistance and SSI Benefits. Neither public assistance nor Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits shall be included as income for determining support.

(2) Child's Social Security Derivative Benefits.

(i) If a child is receiving Social Security derivative benefits due to a parent's retirement or disability:
(A) The trier-of-fact shall determine the basic child support obligation as follows:
(I) add the child's benefit to the monthly net income of the party who receives the child's benefit;
(II) calculate the parties' combined monthly net income, including the child's benefit;
(III) determine the basic child support obligation set forth in the Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3 schedule; and
(IV) apportion the basic child support obligation between the parties based on the party's percentage of the combined monthly net income.

(B) If the obligee receives the child's benefit, the trier-of-fact shall deduct the child's benefit from the basic child support obligation of the party whose retirement or disability created the child's benefit.

(C) If the obligor receives the child's benefit, the trier-of-fact shall not deduct the child's benefit from the obligor's basic child support obligation, even if the obligor's retirement or disability created the child's benefit. To illustrate for the parties the impact of the obligor receiving the benefit instead of the obligee, the trier-of-fact shall provide the parties with two calculations theoretically assigning the benefit to each household.

(D) The trier-of-fact shall allocate the expenses in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6(a)–(e) based on the parties' monthly net incomes without considering the child's benefit.

(E) In equally shared custody cases, the party with the higher monthly net income, excluding the child's benefit, is the obligor.

(ii) If a child is receiving Social Security derivative benefits due to a parent's death, the trier-of-fact shall determine the surviving parent's basic child support obligation as follows:
(A) The non-parent obligee's monthly net income shall include only those funds the obligee is receiving on the child's behalf, including the Social Security derivative benefit.
(B) If the surviving-parent obligor receives the Social Security derivative benefit, the benefit shall be added to the parent's monthly net income to calculate child support.

Foster Care Payments. If a party to a support action is a foster parent or is receiving payments from a public or private agency for the care of a child who is not the party's biological or adoptive child, the trier-of-fact shall not include those payments in the party's monthly net income for purposes of calculating child support for the foster parent's or other caretaker's biological or adoptive child.

Monthly Net Income.

(1) Unless these rules provide otherwise, the trier-of-fact shall deduct only the following items from monthly gross income to arrive at monthly net income:
(i) federal, state, and local income taxes;
(ii) unemployment compensation taxes and Local Services Taxes (LST);

(2) (iii) F.I.C.A. payments (Social Security, Medicare and Self-Employment taxes) and non-voluntary retirement payments;
 (iv) mandatory union dues; and
 (v) alimony paid to the other party.

In computing a spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation, the trier-of-fact shall:

(i) deduct from the obligor's monthly net income child support, spousal support, alimony pendente lite, or alimony amounts paid to children and former spouses, who are not part of this action; and
 (ii) include in a party's monthly net income alimony pendente lite or alimony received from a former spouse that was not included in the party's gross income, as provided in subdivision (a)

(d) Reduced Income or Fluctuating Earnings.

(1) Voluntary Income Reduction — Existing Orders. [The trier-of-fact shall not downwardly adjust a party's net income from an existing order if the trier-of-fact finds that:

(i) the party's income reduction resulted from the party willfully attempting to favorably affect the party's basic support obligation; or
 (ii) the party voluntarily assumed a lower paying job, quit a job, left employment, changed occupations, changed employment status to pursue an education, or employment is terminated due to willful misconduct.]

The trier-of-fact shall not adjust a party's monthly net income for voluntary decreases in income due to a situation over which the party has control, including, but not limited to, assuming a lower paying job, quitting a job, leaving employment, changing occupations, changing employment status to pursue an education, or willful misconduct resulting in the termination of employment.

(2) Involuntary Income Reduction. [Incarceration.] and Earnings Fluctuations — Existing Orders.

(i) Involuntary Income Reduction. The trier-of-fact shall adjust a party's monthly net income from an existing order for substantial continuing involuntary decreases in income due to [an employment] a situation over which the party has no control, including, but not limited to, illness, lay-off, termination, incarceration, or job elimination.

(ii) [Incarceration.]

(A) Except as set forth in subdivision (d)(2)(ii) (B), the trier-of-fact shall:

(I) consider an incarcerated party's income reduction as an involuntary income reduction as set forth in subdivision (d)(2)(i); and
 (II) adjust the incarcerated party's monthly net income accordingly.

(B) Exception.

(I) A party's incarceration shall not constitute an involuntary income reduction when the incarceration is due to support enforcement purposes or a criminal offense in which the party's dependent child or the obligee was the victim; and
 (II) The trier-of-fact makes a written finding that downwardly adjusting the incarcerated party's monthly net income would be unjust or inappropriate and, in a child support action, takes into consideration the child's best interest.]

(3) Rescinded.

(iii) Earnings Fluctuations. The trier-of-fact shall not adjust a party's monthly net income from an existing order due to normal or temporary earnings fluctuations.

(4) Seasonal Employees. Generally, the trier-of-fact shall base a seasonal employee's monthly net income on a yearly average.

Earning Capacity — Initial Orders and Modifications.

(i) When calculating an initial order or modifying an existing order, if a party [willfully] fails to obtain or maintain appropriate employment, the trier-of-fact [may] shall impute to the party an income equal to the party's earning capacity.

(A) Earning Capacity Limitation. The trier-of-fact:

(I) shall not impute income to the party based on an earning capacity that exceeds the amount the party could earn from one full-time position; and
 (II) shall determine a reasonable work regimen based upon the party's relevant circumstances, including the jobs available within a particular occupation, working hours and conditions, and whether a party has exerted substantial good faith efforts to find employment.

(B) The trier-of-fact shall base the party's earning capacity on the subdivision (d)(4)(ii) factors.

(C) After assessing a party's earning capacity, the trier-of-fact shall state the reasons for the assessment in writing or on the record.

(D) When the trier-of-fact [imputes] determines an earning capacity [to] for a party who would incur [childcare] child care expenses if the party were employed, the trier-of-fact shall consider reasonable [childcare] child care responsibilities and expenses for the purpose of discretionary allocation pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6(a)(1)(ii).

Factors. In determining a party's earning capacity, the trier-of-fact shall consider the party's:

(A) child care responsibilities and expenses that would actually be incurred by the party if employed;
 (B) assets;
 (C) residence;
 (D) employment and earnings history;
 (E) job skills;
 (F) educational attainment;
 (G) literacy;
 (H) age;
 (I) health;
 (J) criminal record and other employment barriers;
 (K) record of seeking work;
 (L) local job market, including the availability of employers who are willing to hire the party;
 (M) local community prevailing earnings level; and
 (N) other relevant factors.

(e) Net Income Affecting Application of the Support Guidelines.

(1) Low-Income Cases.

(i) Self-Support Reserve (SSR).

(A) The SSR is the minimum monthly net income reserved to the obligor to meet the obligor's basic needs.

(B) The SSR amount is [$1,063] $1,255 per month.

Action for Child Support Only. [When] If the obligor's monthly net income and the number of children in the action intersect in the Basic Child Support Schedule's shaded area as set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3, the trier-of-fact shall determine the obligor's basic child support obligation utilizing the lesser of the two calculated amounts from the following methodologies.

(A) The initial calculation is determined by using the obligor's monthly net income only, the schedule set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3, and the number of children.

(B) The second calculation is determined by using the parties' combined monthly net income and the basic child support formula in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4(a).

(C) If the obligor's monthly net income is at or below the SSR, the trier-of-fact may award support only after consideration of the parties' actual financial resources and living expenses.

(ii) Action for Spousal Support/Alimony Pendente Lite Only.

(A) After calculating the spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation as provided in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4, the spousal support obligation shall not reduce the obligor's monthly net income below the SSR.

(B) If the obligor's monthly net income after subtracting the spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation is less than the SSR, the trier-of-fact shall adjust the spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation downward by an amount sufficient for the obligor to retain the SSR amount.

(iii) Action with Child Support and Spousal Support or Alimony Pendente Lite.

(A) The trier-of-fact shall calculate the spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation as provided in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4.

(B) The trier-of-fact shall subtract the calculated spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation from the obligor's monthly net income to determine the obligor's adjusted monthly net income.

(C) [When] If the obligor's adjusted monthly net income and the number of children in the action intersect in the Basic Child Support Schedule's shaded area as set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3, the trier-of-fact:

- (I) shall not award spousal support or alimony pendente lite; and
- (II) shall calculate child support as provided in subdivision (e)(1)(ii).

(D) [When] If the obligor's monthly net income and the number of children in the action do not intersect in the Basic Child Support Schedule's shaded area as set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3, the trier-of-fact shall calculate child support consistent with Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4.

- (I) The combined spousal support or alimony pendente lite and basic child support obligations shall not reduce the obligor's remaining monthly net income below the SSR.
- (II) If the obligor's monthly net income after subtracting the spousal support or alimony pendente lite and basic child support obligations is less than the SSR, the trier-of-fact shall adjust the support obligation downward by an amount sufficient for the obligor to retain the SSR amount.

(2) High-Income Cases. If the parties' combined monthly net income exceeds $30,000, the trier-of-fact shall calculate child support, spousal support, or alimony pendente lite pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3.1.

(f) Child Tax Credit. In order to maximize the total income available to the parties and children, the trier-of-fact may award, as appropriate, the federal child tax credit to the non-custodial parent, or to either parent in cases of equally shared custody, and require the other party to execute the waiver required by the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 152(e). The trier-of-fact shall consider the tax consequences associated with the federal child tax credit in calculating the party's monthly net income available for support.

Comment: Concerning subdivision (a)(7), in determining the appropriateness of including alimony in gross income, the trier-of-fact shall consider whether the party receiving the alimony must include the amount received as gross income when filing federal income taxes. If the alimony is not includable in the party's gross income for federal income tax purposes, the trier-of-fact may include in the party's monthly net income the alimony received, as appropriate. See Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(c)(2)(ii).

Since the reasons for ordering payment of alimony vary, the appropriateness of including it in the recipient's gross income [must] will also vary. For example, if the obligor is paying $1,000 per month in alimony for the express purpose of financing the obligee's college education, it would be inappropriate to consider that alimony as income from which the obligee could provide child support. However, if alimony is intended to finance the obligee's general living expenses, inclusion of the alimony as income is appropriate.

Concerning subdivision (a)(8), the trier-of-fact determines the most appropriate method for imputing lump-sum awards as income for purposes of establishing or modifying the party's support obligation. These awards may be annualized or averaged over a shorter or longer period depending on the case's circumstances. The trier-of-fact may require all or part of the lump sum award escrowed to secure the support obligation during that period.

The trier-of-fact shall not include income tax refunds in a party's income, if the trier-of-fact factored in the tax refund when calculating the party's actual tax obligation and monthly net income.

Concerning subdivision (b), care [must] should be taken to distinguish Social Security from Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits. Social Security benefits are income pursuant to subdivision (a).

Subdivision (b) Example 1. The obligor has monthly net income of $2,000. The obligee's monthly net income is $1,500 and the obligee, as primary custodial parent of the parties' two children, receives $700 per month in Social Security derivative benefits on behalf of the children as a result of the obligor's disability. Add the children's benefit to the obligee's income, which now is $2,200 per month. At the parties' combined monthly net income of $4,200, the basic child support obligation for two children is [$1,372] $1,445. As the obligor's income is 48% of the parties' combined monthly net income, the obligor's preliminary share of the basic child support obligation is [$659] $694. However, because the obligor's disability created the children's Social Security derivative benefits that the obligee is receiving, the obligor's obligation is reduced by the amount of the benefit, $700. As the support obligation cannot be less than zero, the obligor's basic child support obligation is $0 per month. If it were the obligee's disability that created the benefit, the obligor's basic child support obligation would remain [$659] $694. If the obligor were receiving the children's benefit as a result of the obligor's retirement or disability, the obligor's monthly net income would include the amount of the benefit and total $2,700, or 64% of the parties' combined monthly net income. The obligor's share of the basic child support obligation would then be [$878] $925 and would not be reduced by the amount of the children's benefit because the obligor, not the obligee, is receiving the benefit. Therefore, the obligor's basic child support obligation is less if the obligee is receiving the benefit created by the obligor.

Subdivision (b) Example 2. Two children live with Grandmother who receives $800 per month in Social Security death benefits for the children as a result of Father's death. Grandmother also receives $500 per month from a trust established by Father for the benefit of the children. Grandmother is employed and earns $2,000 net per month. Grandmother seeks support from the children's mother, who earns $2,000 net per month. For purposes of calculating Mother's basic child support obligation, Grandmother's income will be $1,300, the amount she receives on the children's behalf in Social Security derivative benefits and the trust income. (If Mother were receiving the benefit on the children's behalf, the benefit would be added to Mother's monthly net income and would be $2,800. Grandmother's monthly net income would be $500.) Therefore, Mother's and Grandmother's combined monthly net income totals $3,300. The basic child support obligation at the $3,300 monthly net income level for two children is [$1,137] $1,156. As Mother's monthly net income of $2,000 is 61% of the parties' combined monthly net income of $3,300, Mother's basic child support obligation is [$694] $705. Since Mother's retirement or disability did not generate the child's derivative benefit, the benefit amount is not subtracted from Mother's basic child support obligation, and Mother owes Grandmother [$694] $705. If Grandmother was not receiving the children's derivative benefits or trust income, Grandmother's monthly net income for purposes of calculating Mother's basic child support obligation would be zero, and Mother would pay 100% of the basic child support obligation because Grandmother has no duty to support the children.

Concerning subdivision (c)(1)(v), because the reasons for ordering payment of alimony vary, the appropriateness of including it in the recipient's monthly net income [must] will also vary. For example, if the obligor is paying $1,000 per month in alimony for the express purpose of financing the obligee's college education, it would be inappropriate to consider that alimony as income from which the obligee could provide child support. However, if alimony is intended to finance the obligee's general living expenses, inclusion of the alimony as income is appropriate.

Concerning subdivision (d)(2)(i) and the inclusion of "incarceration," see 45 C.F.R. § 302.56(c)(3) ("[I]ncarceration may not be treated as voluntary unemployment in establishing or modifying support orders.")

Concerning subdivision (d)(4), a party's earning capacity may be determined to be $0.00 in appropriate cases.

The consideration of child care expenses if the party were employed in subdivision (d)(4)(i)(D) is not for purposes of reducing imputed income when calculating the party's basic child support obligation. The child care expenses that would be payable if a party were employed are subject to discretionary allocation pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6(a)(1)(ii).

Concerning subdivision (d)(4)(ii), see 45 C.F.R. § 302.56(c)(1)(iii) regarding earning capacity factors.

Concerning subdivision (d)(4)(ii)(A), the trier-of-fact shall consider an unemployed or underemployed parent's child care responsibilities and expenses when determining that parent's earning capacity. The trier-of-fact should consider whether child care is available and appropriate considering the child's needs. Assuming child care is available and appropriate, the trier-of-fact should next consider the child care expenses that the parent would actually pay if employed. This excludes child care provided at no cost to the parent by a family member or other responsible person. Additionally, any portion of a child care expense that would be eligible for subsidization by a third party or through a government program should not be included. If the unallocated hypothetical child care expenses are equal to or exceed the parent's earning capacity, then no income should be imputed for that parent, e.g., earning capacity is $0.00. If the unallocated hypothetical child care expenses are less than the parent's earning capacity, then the hypothetical child care expenses that would be actually paid by the parent, if employed, may be allocated pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6(a)(1)(ii).

Subdivision (e)(1)(ii) Example: The parties have two children. The obligee has monthly net income of $2,500. The obligor has monthly net income of $1,500, which falls into the shaded area of the schedule for two children. The initial calculation is made using only the obligor's monthly net income. The basic child support obligation for two children would be [$397] $223. The second calculation uses the parties' combined monthly net income. The parties' combined monthly net income is $4,000. The basic child support obligation for two children is [$1,340] $1,377. The obligor's proportionate share of the parties' combined monthly net income is 38% with a basic child support obligation of [$509] $523. The obligor's basic child support obligation using only the obligor's monthly net income is less than the calculated amount using the parties' combined monthly net income. As a result, the trier-of-fact should award the lesser amount, and the obligor's basic child support obligation is [$397] $223.

Subdivision (e)(1)(iii) Example: The obligor has [$1,200] $1,500 monthly net income, and the obligee has $300 monthly net income. The formula in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4(a)(1)(Part B) would result in a monthly spousal support obligation of [$276] $375 (([$1,200] $1,500 x 33% = [$396] $495) minus ($300 x 40% = $120) for a total of [$276] $375). Since this amount leaves the obligor with only [$924] $1,125 per month, the trier-of-fact should adjust the support obligation so the obligor retains at least [$1,063] $1,255 per month. Therefore, the spousal support obligation is [$137] $245 per month (([$1,200] $1,500) - [$1,063] $1,255).

Subdivision (e)(1)(iv) Example: Obligor and obligee have monthly net incomes of $2,000 and $165, respectively, and have two children. Calculating spousal support under subdivision (e)(1)(iv)(A) results in a spousal support obligation of $450 ($2,000 x 25% minus $165 x 30%). Obligor's adjusted monthly net income ($2,000 minus $450) is $1,550. Obligor's adjusted monthly net income of $1,550 with two children is in the shaded area of the Basic Child Support Schedule, and as a result, the trier-of-fact shall not award spousal support. Instead, the trier-of-fact should award child support only as provided in subdivision (e)(1)(ii).

Concerning subdivision (e)(2), see Hanrahan v. Bakker, 186 A.3d 958 (Pa. 2018).

Historical Commentary

Explanatory Comment—2010

Subdivision (a) addresses gross income for purposes of calculating the support obligation by reference to the statutory definition at 23 Pa.C.S. § 4322. Subdivision (b) provides for the treatment of public assistance, SSI benefits, Social Security derivative benefits, and foster care payments.

Subdivision (c) sets forth the exclusive list of the deductions that may be taken from gross income in arriving at a party's net income. When the cost of health insurance premiums is treated as an additional expense subject to allocation between the parties under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6, it is not deductible from gross income. However, part or all of the cost of health insurance premiums may be deducted from the obligor's gross income pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6(b) in cases in which the obligor is paying the premiums and the obligee has no income or minimal income. Subdivision (c) relates to spousal support or alimony pendente lite awards when there are multiple families. In these cases, a party's monthly net income must be reduced to account for his or her child support obligations, as well as any pre-existing spousal support, alimony pendente lite or alimony obligations being paid to former spouses who are not the subject of the support action.

Subdivision (d) has been amended to clarify the distinction between voluntary and involuntary changes in income and the imputing of earning capacity. Statutory provisions at 23 Pa.C.S. § 4322, as well as case law, are clear that a support obligation is based upon the ability of a party to pay, and that the concept of an earning capacity is intended to reflect a realistic, rather than a theoretical, ability to pay support. Amendments to subdivision (d) are intended to clarify when imposition of an earning capacity is appropriate.

Subdivision (e) has been amended to reflect the updated schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 and the increase in the Self-Support Reserve (“SSR”). The schedule now applies to all cases in which the parties’ combined monthly net income is $30,000 or less. The upper income limit of the prior schedule was only $20,000. The support amount at each income level of the schedule also has changed, so the examples in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-2 were revised to be consistent with the new support amounts.

The SSR is intended to assure that obligors with low incomes retain sufficient income to meet their basic needs and to maintain the incentive to continue employment. When the obligor’s monthly net income or earning capacity falls into the shaded area of the schedule, the basic child support obligation can be derived directly from the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3. There is no need to use the formula in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-4 to calculate the obligor’s support obligation because the SSR keeps the amount of the obligation the same regardless of the obligee’s income. The obligee’s income may be a relevant factor, however, in determining whether to deviate from the basic guideline obligation pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-5 and in considering whether to require the obligor to contribute to any additional expenses under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6.

Since the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 sets forth basic child support only, subdivision (e)(1)(ii) is necessary to reflect the operation of the SSR in spousal support and alimony pendente lite cases. It adjusts the basic guideline obligation, which would otherwise be calculated under the formula in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-4, so that the obligor’s income does not fall below the SSR amount in these cases.

Previously, the SSR required that the obligor retain at least $748 per month. The SSR now requires that the obligor retain income of at least $867 per month, an amount equal to the 2008 federal poverty level for one person. When the obligor’s monthly net income is less than $867, subdivision (e)(1)(iii) provides that the trier-of-fact must consider the parties’ actual living expenses before awarding support. The guidelines assume that at this income level the obligor is barely able to meet basic personal needs. In these cases, therefore, entry of a minimal order may be appropriate. In some cases, it may not be appropriate to order support at all.

The schedule at Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 sets forth the presumptive amount of basic child support to be awarded. If the circumstances warrant, the trier-of-fact may deviate from that amount under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-5 and may also consider a party’s contribution to additional expenses, which are typically added to the basic amount of support under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6. If, for example, the obligor earns only $900 per month but is living with his or her parents, or has remarried and is living with a fully-employed spouse, the trier-of-fact may consider an upward deviation under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-5(b)(3) or may order the party to contribute to the additional expenses under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6. Consistent with the goals of the SSR, however, the trier-of-fact should ensure that the overall support obligation leaves the obligor with sufficient income to meet basic personal needs and to maintain the incentive to continue working so that support can be paid.

Subdivision (e) also has been amended to eliminate the application of Melzer v. Witsberger, 480 A.2d 991 (Pa. 1984), in high-income child support cases. In cases in which the parties’ combined net monthly income exceeds $30,000, child support will be calculated in accordance with the three-step process in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3(a).

Explanatory Comment—2013

The SSR has been increased to $931, the 2012 federal poverty level for one person. Subdivision (e) has been amended to require that when the obligor’s income falls into the shaded area of the basic child support schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3, two calculations must be performed. One calculation uses only the obligor’s income and the other is a regular calculation using both parties’ incomes, awarding the lower amount to the obligee. The two-step process is intended to address those cases in which the obligor has minimal income and the obligee’s income is substantially greater.

Explanatory Comment—2015

The rule has been amended to provide that a party’s support obligation will be reduced by the child’s Social Security derivative benefit amount if that party’s retirement or disability created the benefit and the benefit is being paid to the household in which the child primarily resides or the obligee in cases of equally shared custody. In most cases, payment of the benefit to the obligee’s household will increase the resources available to the child and the parties. The rule is intended to encourage parties to direct that the child’s benefits be paid to the obligee.

Explanatory Comment—2021

The Self-Support Reserve is determined by the Federal Poverty Guideline for one person converted to a monthly amount—currently $1,063—for the year the Basic Child Support Schedule was derived.

Subdivision (e)(1) addresses low-income cases and has been completely rewritten and identifies the current monthly Self-Support Reserve (SSR) amount as $1,063. The SSR is the amount of the obligor’s monthly net income that is reserved to meet the obligor’s basic needs. Subdivisions (e)(1)(ii)–(iv) adjust the methodology for calculating support when the obligor’s monthly net income is at or near the SSR amount.

Rule 1910.16-3. Support Guidelines. Basic Child Support Schedule.

The following schedule represents the amounts spent on children of intact families by combined monthly net income and number of children. Combined monthly net income is on the schedule’s vertical axis, and the number of children is on the schedule’s horizontal axis. This schedule determines the basic child support obligation. Unless these rules provide otherwise, the obligor’s basic child support obligation shall be computed using either the formula set forth in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4(a)(1)(Part C) or (a)(2)(Part I).

The schedule has been expanded to include all cases in which the parties' combined net monthly income is $30,000 or less. It also reflects an increase in the Self-Support Reserve to $867, the 2008 poverty level for one person. The schedule was further adjusted to incorporate an assumption that the children spend 30% of the time with the obligor.  |           |              |                |               |               |              | Explanatory Comment—2013  |  |

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment—2010

Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3.1 is intended to bring all child support cases under the guidelines and treat similarly situated parties similarly. Thus, high-income child support cases no longer will be decided pursuant to Melzer v. Witsberger, 480 A.2d 991 (Pa. 1984). Economic data support the basic child support schedule up to combined net incomes of $30,000 per month. Above that amount, economic data are not readily available. Thus, for cases in which the parties' combined monthly net income is above $30,000, the formula first applies a fixed percentage to calculate the support amount. The formula is an extrapolation of the available economic data to high-income cases. Spousal support and alimony pendente lite awards in high-income cases are preliminarily calculated pursuant to the formulas in either Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-4(a)(1)(Part B) or (2)(Part IV). However, in both high-income child support and spousal support and high-income child support and alimony pendente lite cases, the trier-of-fact is required to consider the factors in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-5 before entering a final order and to make findings of fact on the record or in writing. Pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.11(c)(2), in all high-income cases, the parties must submit an Income Statement and the Expense Statement at Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.27(c)(2)(B) to enable the trier-of-fact to consider the factors in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-5.

Explanatory Comment—2011

The rule has been amended to clarify that the provisions of Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-4(c), regarding support adjustments if the obligor has substantial or shared custody, apply in high-income cases. Previously, when high-income cases were decided pursuant to Melzer v. Witsberger, 480 A.2d 991 (Pa. 1984), case law held that because the time and resources each parent provided to a child were factored into the Melzer formula, the substantial or shared parenting time reductions did not apply to cases decided pursuant to Melzer. See, e.g., Sirio v. Sirio, 951 A.2d 1188 (Pa. Super. 2008); Bulgarelli v. Bulgarelli, 934 A.2d 107 (Pa. Super. 2007). As Melzer no longer applies to calculate support in high-income cases, the prohibition against substantial or shared parenting time reductions in such cases is no longer applicable.

(b) Order For More Than Six Children. [When] If there are more than six children who are the subject of a single support order, the trier-of-fact shall:

- (1) calculate the basic child support obligations for six children and five children;
- (2) subtract the basic child support obligation for five children from the basic child support obligation for six children;
- (3) multiply the difference from subdivision (b)(2) by the number of children in excess of six; and
- (4) add the amount from subdivision (b)(3) to the basic child support obligation for six children as determined in subdivision (b)(1).

(c) Substantial or Equally Shared Physical Custody.

- (1) Substantial Physical Custody. [When] If a child spends 40% or more of the annual overnights with the obligor, a rebuttable presumption arises that the obligor is entitled to a reduction in the basic child support obligation to reflect the obligor's increased direct spending on the child during the obligor's custodial time.
- (i) This rebuttable presumption also applies in high income

(2) cases decided pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3.1.

(ii) Except as provided in subdivision (c)(2), the trier-of-fact shall calculate the adjustment pursuant to the formula set forth in subdivision (a)(1)(Part D) or (a)(2)(Part II).

(2) Equally Shared Physical Custody. Without regard to which party initiated the support action, [when] if a child spends an equal number of annual overnights with the parties:

(i) The formula in subdivision (a)(1)(Part D) or (a)(2)(Part II) cannot be applied unless the obligor is the party with the higher monthly net income.

(ii) The trier-of-fact shall not require the party with the lower monthly net income to pay basic child support to the party with the higher monthly net income. However, this subdivision shall not preclude the entry of an order requiring the party with less monthly net income to contribute to additional expenses pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6.

(iii) Based upon the evidence presented, the trier-of-fact may enter a support order against either party.

(iv) If the support calculation results in the obligee receiving a larger share of the parties' combined monthly net income, the trier-of-fact:

(A) shall adjust the obligor's basic child support obligation so that the combined monthly net income is allocated equally between the two parties; and

(B) shall not award spousal support or alimony pendente lite.

Example 1. If the obligor and the obligee have monthly net incomes of $5,000 and $2,300, respectively, the basic child support obligation is $1,901 for two children. Using the income shares formula in Part I, the obligor's basic child support obligation is 68%, or $1,293. If the children spend 40% of the annual overnights with the obligor, the formula in Part D or Part II applies to reduce the obligor's basic child support obligation to 58%, or $1,103. If the children spend 45% of the annual overnights with the obligor, the obligor's basic child support obligation is reduced to 53%, or $1,008. If the children spend an equal number of the annual overnights with the obligor and obligee, the obligor's basic child support obligation is reduced to 48%, or $912.

Example 2. Mother and Father have monthly net incomes of $3,000 and $2,700, respectively. Mother has filed for support for the parties' two children with whom the parties share time equally. As the parties have equal custody and Mother has the higher monthly net income, Mother cannot be the obligee. Although Mother initiated the support action, she would be the obligor. Pursuant to the Basic Child Support Schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3, the basic child support obligation for two children at the parties' combined monthly net income is $1,585 per month. Mother's share is 53%, or $840. Application of the Part II or Part D formula results in a 20% reduction in support when the obligor has 50% custody of the children. Mother's adjusted percentage share of the basic support obligation is 33% (53% - 20% = 33%) and the preliminary adjusted basic child support obligation is $523 (33% of $1,585). However, as this amount would result in Father having a greater share of the parties' combined monthly net income ($3,223 vs. $2,477), Mother's basic child support obligation would be adjusted to $150 per month to allocate the parties' combined monthly net income equally between the two parties and would be the presumptive basic child support obligation payable to Father under these circumstances.

Example 3. If the obligor and the obligee have monthly net incomes of $3,000 and $2,500, respectively, the basic child support obligation for two children is $1,567. The obligor's share is 55%, or $862 ($1,567 x 55%). If the children spend equal time with the parties, the formula in Part II or Part D results in a basic child support obligation of $548 ($1,567 x 35%) payable to the obligee. Since this amount results in the obligee having monthly net income of $3,048 and the obligor having monthly net income of $2,452, the obligor's basic child support obligation would be adjusted to $250 to equalize the combined monthly net income between the parties and would be the presumptive basic child support obligation payable to the obligee under these circumstances.]

(d) Divided or Split Physical Custody. [When] If Each Party Owes Child Support to the Other Party. Varied Partial or Shared Custodial Schedules.

(1) Divided or Split Physical Custody. [When] If Each Party Owes Child Support to the Other Party. When calculating a basic child support obligation and each party owes child support to the other party as a result of the custodial arrangement, the trier-of-fact shall offset the parties' respective basic child support obligations and award the net difference to the obligee as child support.

Example 1. If the parties have three children, one child resides with Mother and two children reside with Father, and the parties' monthly net incomes are $4,000 and $2,000 respectively, Mother's basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 for two children at the parties' combined monthly net income of $6,000. The basic child support obligation is $1,628. As Mother's income is 67% of the parties' combined monthly net income, Mother's basic child support obligation for the two children living with Father is $1,091. Father's basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 for one child at the parties' combined monthly net income of $6,000. The basic child support obligation is $1,097. Father's basic child support obligation for the child living with Mother is $362. Subtracting $362 from $1,091 produces a basic child support obligation of $729 payable to Father as child support.

Example 2. If the parties have two children, one child resides with Mother and the parties equally share custody (50% - 50%) of the other child, and the parties' monthly net incomes are as set forth in Example 1. The basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 for the one child primarily residing with Mother at the parties' combined monthly net income of $6,000, the basic child support obligation is $1,097. Father's income is 33% of the parties' combined monthly net income, and the basic child support obligation for the child living with Mother is $362. For Mother's obligation for the child with the equally shared custody arrangement, using the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 for one child at the parties' combined monthly net income of $6,000, the basic child support obligation is $1,097. Mother's proportionate share of the combined monthly net incomes is 67%, but it is reduced to 47% after applying the shared parenting time adjustment for 50% custody under subdivision (c). Mother's basic child support obligation for the shared custody child is $516 ($1,097 x 47%). As Mother's obligation is greater than Father's obligation, Father is the obligee and receives the net of the two obligations by subtracting $362 from $516, or $154.

(2) Varied Partial or Shared Physical Custodial Schedule.

(i) The trier-of-fact may reduce a party's basic child support obligation [when] if the parties have more than one child and each child spends either different amounts of:

(A) partial or equally shared custodial time with the higher monthly net income party; or

(B) partial custodial time with the lower monthly net income party.

(ii) In determining whether a party is entitled to a reduction as provided in subdivision (d)(2)(i):

(A) the trier-of-fact shall:

(I) add the percentage of annual overnights each child spends with that party; and

(II) divide by the number of children to determine the party's average percentage of custodial time.

(B) If the average percentage of custodial time is 40% or more:

(I) subdivision (c) applies; and

(II) the trier-of-fact shall reduce the party's basic child support obligation accordingly.

Example 1. The parties have two children and one child spends 50% of the annual overnights with Mother, who has the higher monthly net income, and the other child spends 20% of the annual overnights with Mother. Add those percentages together and divide by the number of children (50% plus 20% = 70% divided by 2 children = 35% average time with Mother). Pursuant to subdivision (d)(2)(ii)(B), Mother is not entitled to a reduction in the support order for substantial parenting time.

Example 2. The parties have three children. Two children spend 50% of the annual overnights with Mother, who has the higher monthly net income, and the third child spends 30% of the annual overnights with Mother. Add the percentages of custodial time for all three children together and divide by the number of children (50% plus 50% plus 30% = 130% divided by three children = 43.33% average percentage of time with Mother). Pursuant to subdivision (d)(2)(ii)(B), Mother is entitled to a reduction in the support order for substantial parenting time.

Example 3. The parties have three children, Mother has primary custody (60% - 40%) of one child, Father has primary custody (60% - 40%) of one child, and the parties share custody (50% - 50%) of the third child. The parties' monthly net incomes are $2,500 (Mother) and $2,000 (Father). As a result of the custodial arrangement, Father owes support for the child in the primary custody of Mother and Mother owes support for the child in the primary custody of Father and for the child shared equally between the parties. Father's basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 for one child at the parties' combined monthly net income of $4,500. The basic child support obligation is $941. Father's proportionate share of the combined monthly net incomes is 44%, but is reduced to 34% after applying the shared parenting time adjustment for 40% custody under subdivision (c). Father's basic child support obligation for this child is $320 ($941 x 34%). Mother's basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 for two children at the parties' combined monthly net income of $4,500. The basic child support obligation is $1,414. Mother has varying partial or shared custody of the two children (40% and 50%). Under subdivision (d)(2), the custodial time is averaged or in this case 45%. Mother's proportionate share of the combined monthly net incomes is 56%, but it is reduced to 41% after applying the shared parenting time adjustment for 45% custody under subdivision (c). Mother's basic child support obligation for these children is $580 ( $$1,414 \times 41\%$ ). Offsetting the support obligations consistent with subdivision (d)(1), Mother's obligation is greater than Father's obligation, and Father is the obligee receiving the net of the two obligations by subtracting $320 from $580, or $260.

Note: In cases with more than one child and varied partial or shared custodial schedules, it is not appropriate to perform a separate calculation for each child and offset support amounts as that method does not consider the incremental increases in support for more than one child built into the schedule of basic child support.]

(3) Combined Child Support and Spousal Support or Alimony Pendente Lite. [When] If Each Party Owes Child Support to the Other Party.

- (i) [When] If one or more children reside with each party, the trier-of-fact shall offset the obligor's combined spousal support or alimony pendente lite and basic child support obligations with the obligee's basic child support obligation.
- (ii) The trier-of-fact shall award the net difference to the obligee as spousal support or alimony pendente lite and basic child support.

(e) Support Obligations [When] If Custodial Parent Owes Spousal Support. If a child is residing with the spouse (custodial parent) obligated to pay spousal support or alimony pendente lite and the other spouse (non-custodial parent) has a legal obligation to support the child, the guideline spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation is determined by offsetting the non-custodial parent's basic child support obligation and the custodial parent's spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation, and awarding the net difference either to the non-custodial parent as spousal support or alimony pendente lite or to the custodial parent as child support as the circumstances warrant. The calculation is a five-step process:

- (1) Calculate the custodial parent's spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation to the non-custodial parent based on the parties' monthly net incomes using the "without dependent children" formula in either [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4(a)(1)(Part B) or (a)(2)(Part IV), as appropriate.
- (2) Recalculate the parties' monthly net incomes by adjusting for the spousal support or alimony pendente lite payment paid or received in subdivision (e)(1).
- (3) Using the recomputed monthly net incomes from subdivision (e)(2), calculate the non-custodial parent's basic child support obligation to the custodial parent.
- (4) The final support amount is the difference calculated in subdivision (e)(1) and (e)(3).
  - (i) If the amount in subdivision (e)(1) is greater than the amount in subdivision (e)(3), the final amount is spousal support or alimony pendente lite payable to the non-custodial parent.
  - (ii) If the amount in subdivision (e)(1) is less than the amount in subdivision (e)(3), the final amount is basic child support payable to the custodial parent.
- (5) If the proceeding is a modification of an order entered before January 1, 2019 that has federal tax consequences associated with spousal support or alimony pendente lite payments and the final order is spousal support or alimony pendente lite as in subdivision (e)(4)(i), the offset spousal support or alimony pendente lite amount is federally taxable, and the trier-of-fact may deviate the final order due to the tax effect, as appropriate.

[Note: See Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.19(h).]

Comment: Section 11051 of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017, Pub. L. No. 115-97, amended the Internal Revenue Code by repealing the alimony deduction—the amount of spousal support, alimony pendente lite, and alimony paid or received—from the payor's gross income and the alimony inclusion into the payee's gross income. Subdivision (a)(1) governs an order entered on or after January 1, 2019, or for a modification of an order entered before January 1, 2019, that includes spousal support or alimony pendente lite in which the Act expressly applies to the modification. Subdivision (a)(2) governs a modification of an order entered before January 1, 2019 that includes spousal support or alimony pendente lite in which the Act does not apply to the modification.

Subdivision (c) Example 1. If the obligor and the obligee have monthly net incomes of $5,000 and $2,300, respectively, the basic child support obligation is $1,960 for two children. Using the income shares formula in Part I, the obligor's basic child support obligation is 68%, or $1,333. If the children spend 40% of the annual overnights with the obligor, the formula in Part D or Part II applies to reduce the obligor's basic child support obligation to 58%, or $1,137. If the children spend 45% of the annual overnights with the obligor, the obligor's basic child support obligation is reduced to 53%, or $1,039. If the children spend an equal number of the annual overnights with the obligor and obligee, the obligor's basic child support obligation is reduced to 48%, or $941.

Subdivision (c) Example 2. Mother and Father have monthly net incomes of $3,000 and $2,700, respectively. Mother has filed for support for the parties' two children with whom the parties share time equally. As the parties have equal custody and Mother has the higher monthly net income, Mother cannot be the obligee. Although Mother initiated the support action, she would be the obligor. Pursuant to the Basic Child Support Schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3, the basic child support obligation for two children at the parties' combined monthly net income is $1,715 per month. Mother's share is 53%, or $909. Application of the Part II or Part D formula results in a 20% reduction in support when the obligor has 50% custody of the children. Mother's adjusted percentage share of the basic support obligation is 33% ( $53\% - 20\% = 33\%$ ) and the preliminary adjusted basic child support obligation is $566 ( $33\% \text{ of } $1,715$ ). However, as this amount would result in Father having a greater share of the parties' combined monthly net income ($3,266 vs. $2,434), Mother's basic child support obligation would be adjusted to $150 per month to allocate the parties' combined monthly net income equally between the two parties and would be the presumptive basic child support obligation payable to Father under these circumstances.

Subdivision (c) Example 3. If the obligor and the obligee have monthly net incomes of $3,000 and $2,500, respectively, the basic child support obligation for two children is $1,694. The obligor's share is 55%, or $932 ( $$1,694 \times 55\%$ ). If the children spend equal time with the parties, the formula in Part II or Part D results in a basic child support obligation of $593 ( $$1,694 \times 35\%$ ) payable to the obligee. Since this amount results in the obligee having monthly net income of $3,093 and the obligor having monthly net income of $2,407, the obligor's basic child support obligation would be adjusted to $250 to equalize the combined monthly net income between the parties and would be the presumptive basic child support obligation payable to the obligee under these circumstances.

Subdivision (d)(1) Example 1: If the parties have three children, one child resides with Mother and two children reside with Father, and the parties' monthly net incomes are $4,000 and $2,000 respectively, Mother's basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3 for two children at the parties' combined monthly net income of $6,000. The basic child support obligation is $1,774. As Mother's income is 67% of the parties' combined monthly net income, Mother's basic child support obligation for the two children living with Father is $1,189. Father's basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3 for one child at the parties' combined monthly net income of $6,000. The basic child support obligation is $1,186. Father's basic child support obligation for the child living with Mother is $392. Subtracting $392 from $1,189 produces a basic child support obligation of $797 payable to Father as child support.

Subdivision (d)(1) Example 2: If the parties have two children, one child resides with Mother and the parties equally share custody (50% - 50%) of the other child, and the parties' monthly net incomes are as set forth in Subdivision (d)(1) Example 1. The basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3 for the one child primarily residing with Mother at the parties' combined monthly net income of $6,000, the basic child support obligation is $1,186. Father's income is 33% of the parties' combined monthly net income, and the basic child support obligation for the child living with Mother is $392. For Mother's obligation for the child with the equally shared custody arrangement, using the schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3 for one child at the parties' combined monthly net income of $6,000, the basic child support obligation is $1,186. Mother's proportionate share of the combined monthly net incomes is 67%, but it is reduced to 47% after applying the shared parenting time adjustment for 50% custody under subdivision (c). Mother's basic child support obligation for the shared custody child is $557 ( $$1,186 \times 47\%$ ). As Mother's obligation is greater than Father's obligation, Father is the obligee and receives the net of the two obligations by subtracting $392 from $557, or $165.

Subdivision (d)(2) Example 1: The parties have two children, and one child spends 50% of the annual overnights with Mother, who has the higher monthly net income, and the other child spends 20% of the annual overnights with Mother. Add those percentages together and divide by the number of children (50% plus 20% = 70% divided by 2 children = 35% average time with Mother). Pursuant to subdivision (d)(2)(i)(B), Mother is not entitled to a reduction in the support order for substantial parenting time.

Subdivision (d)(2) Example 2: The parties have three children. Two children spend 50% of the annual overnights with Mother, who has the higher monthly net income, and the third child spends 30% of the annual overnights with Mother. Add the percentages of custodial time for all three children together and divide by the number of children (50% plus 50% plus 30% = 130% divided by three children = 43.33% average percentage of time with Mother). Pursuant to subdivision (d)(2)(i)(B), Mother is entitled to a reduction in the support order for substantial parenting time.

Subdivision (d)(2) Example 3: The parties have three children, Mother has primary custody (60% - 40%) of one child, Father has primary custody (60% - 40%) of one child, and the parties share custody (50% - 50%) of the third child. The parties' monthly net incomes are $2,500 (Mother) and $2,000 (Father). As a result of the custodial arrangement, Father owes support for the child in the primary custody of Mother and Mother owes support for the child in the primary custody of Father and for the child shared equally between the parties. Father's basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3 for one child at the parties' combined monthly net income of $4,500. The basic child support obligation is $1,011. Father's proportionate share of the combined monthly net incomes is 44% but is reduced to 34% after applying the shared parenting time adjustment for 40% custody under subdivision (c). Father's basic child support obligation for this child is $344 ( $$1,011 \times 34\%$ ). Mother's basic child support obligation is calculated using the schedule in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3 for two children at the parties' combined monthly net income of $4,500. The basic child support obligation is $1,527. Mother has varying partial or shared custody of the two children (40% and 50%). Under subdivision (d)(2), the custodial time is averaged or in this case 45%. Mother's proportionate share of the combined monthly net incomes is 56%, but it is reduced to 41% after applying the shared parenting time adjustment for 45% custody under subdivision (c). Mother's basic child support obligation for these children is $626 ($1,527 x 41%). Offsetting the support obligations consistent with subdivision (d)(1), Mother's obligation is greater than Father's obligation, and Father is the obligee receiving the net of the two obligations by subtracting $344 from $626, or $282.

In cases with more than one child and varied partial or shared custodial schedules, it is not appropriate to perform a separate calculation for each child and offset support amounts as that method does not consider the incremental increases in support for more than one child built into the schedule of basic child support.

Concerning subdivision (e), see Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.19(h).

Historical Commentary

Explanatory Comment—2005

Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-4(a) sets forth the income shares formula used to establish the support obligation. Subdivision (b) provides the method for calculating support for seven or more children as the basic support schedule in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3 sets forth the presumptive amount of support for up to six children.

Subdivision (c) sets forth the method for calculating the presumptive amount of support in cases where the children spend 40% or more of their time during the year with the obligor. When there is equal time sharing, subdivision (2) reduces the support obligation further so that the obligor does not pay more than is necessary to equalize the parties' combined monthly net income between the two households. Subdivision (3) expressly excludes SSR cases from the application of this rule. Since the SSR already reduces support to a minimal level, a further reduction should not be given for the amount of time spent with the children.

Subdivision (d) relates to the calculation of support in divided or split custody cases. It retains the existing method for offsetting the parties' respective support obligations when one or more of the children resides with each party. Subdivision (e) governs spousal support obligations when the custodial parent owes spousal support. It has not been amended, other than to update the example to be consistent with the new schedule at Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-3.

Explanatory Comment—2010

The basic support schedule incorporates an assumption that the children spend 30% of the time with the obligor and that the obligor makes direct expenditures on their behalf during that time. Variable expenditures, such as food and entertainment, that fluctuate based upon parenting time were adjusted in the schedule to build in the assumption of 30% parenting time. Upward deviation should be considered in cases in which the obligor has little or no contact with the children. However, an upward deviation may not be appropriate if an obligor has infrequent overnight contact with the child, but provides meals and entertainment during daytime contact. Fluctuating expenditures should be considered rather than the extent of overnight time. A downward deviation may be appropriate when the obligor incurs substantial fluctuating expenditures during parenting time but has infrequent overnights with the children.

The calculation in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-4(c) reduces an obligor's support obligation further if the obligor spends significantly more time with the children. The obligor will receive an additional 10% reduction in the amount of support owed at 40% parenting time, increasing incrementally to a 20% reduction at 50% parenting time. This method still may result in a support obligation even if custody of the children is equally shared. In those cases, the rule provides for a maximum obligation so that the obligee does not receive a larger portion of the parties' combined monthly net income than the obligor.

Rule 1910.16-5. Support Guidelines. Deviation.

(a) Deviation.

- (1) The trier-of-fact may deviate from the basic child support, additional expenses, spousal support, or alimony pendente lite obligation.
- (2) If the trier-of-fact determines a deviation is appropriate based on the factors in subdivision (b), the trier-of-fact shall specify on the record or in writing:
  - (i) the calculated basic child support, additional expenses, spousal support, or alimony pendente lite obligation;
  - (ii) the reason for the deviation;
  - (iii) the findings of fact justifying the deviation;
  - (iv) the deviation amount; and
  - (v) in a spousal support or an alimony pendente lite action, the obligation's duration.

[Note: The deviation applies to the support obligation amount or duration, and not to the party's monthly net income.]

(b) Factors. In deciding whether to deviate from the basic child support, additional expenses, spousal support, or alimony pendente lite obligation, the trier-of-fact shall consider:

- (1) unusual needs and unusual fixed obligations;
- (2) a party's other support obligations;
- (3) other household income;
- (4) the child's age;
- (5) the parties' relative assets and liabilities;
- (6) medical expenses not covered by insurance;
- (7) the parties' and the child's standard of living;
- (8) in a spousal support or alimony pendente lite case, the duration of the marriage from the date of marriage to the date of final separation; and
- (9) other relevant and appropriate factors, including the child's best interest.

Comment: The deviation applies to the total support obligation amount or duration, and not to the party's monthly net income.

Concerning subdivision (b)(9), "other relevant and appropriate factors," may include, but are not limited to, maintaining a self-support reserve.

For the expense statement to be completed if a deviation is sought, see Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11(c)(1)(ii)(A).

Historical Commentary

Explanatory Comment—2005

Rule 1910.16-5 sets forth the factors for deviation from the presumptive amount of support. Subdivision (c) and subsection (b)(8) permit the court to consider the length of the marriage in determining the amount and duration of a spousal support or alimony pendente lite award. The primary purpose of these provisions is to prevent the unfairness that arises in a short-term marriage when the obligor is required to pay support over a substantially longer period of time than the parties were married and there is little or no opportunity for credit for these payments at the time of equitable distribution.

Explanatory Comment—2010

The provisions of subdivision (c), which provided that the court must consider the duration of the parties' marriage in determining the duration of an award of spousal support or alimony pendente lite, were moved to new Rule 1910.16-1(c)(2). The duration of the marriage, from the date of marriage to the date of final separation, remains a factor to consider in determining whether or not deviation from the amount of the award is warranted.

Rule 1910.16-6. Support Guidelines. Basic Support Obligation Adjustments. Additional Expenses Allocation.

[The trier-of-fact may allocate between the parties the additional expenses in subdivisions (a)—(e).] Even [when] if a basic support order is inappropriate under the facts of the case, the trier-of-fact [may] shall determine whether to allocate between the parties the additional expenses as provided below.

Except for the subdivisions (b)(4) and (e) expenses, the trier-of-fact shall calculate the parties' proportionate share of the additional expenses after adjusting the parties' monthly net income by the spousal support or alimony pendente lite obligation received or paid, and dividing each party's adjusted monthly net income by the parties' combined monthly net income. However, the trier-of-fact shall not adjust the parties' monthly net incomes when [apportioning] allocating the expenses in child support only cases.

(a) Child Care Expenses.

- (1) The trier-of-fact:
  - (i) shall allocate reasonable child care expenses paid by the parties, if necessary to maintain employment or appropriate education in pursuit of income;
  - (ii) may allocate reasonable child care expenses that would be paid by the parties when the trier-of-fact imputes an earning capacity to a party pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(d)(4)(i)(D);
- (2) The trier-of-fact may require that the obligor's share be added to the basic child support obligation, paid directly to the service provider, or paid directly to the obligee.
- (3) When a party is receiving a child care subsidy through the Department of Human Services, the expense allocated between the parties

is the amount actually paid by the party receiving the subsidy.

(4) The party seeking allocation of child care expenses shall provide to the other party the expense's documentation, such as a receipt or an invoice, promptly after receipt unless the service provider invoices the parties separately, or a written proposal or estimate from the service provider for the imputation of earning capacity, for the party's proportionate share of the expense.

(5) The trier-of-fact shall have the discretion to not allocate expenses if documentation is not timely provided to the other party.

(6) Except as provided in subdivision (a)(7), the total child care expenses shall be reduced to reflect the federal child care tax credit available to the eligible party, regardless of whether the credit is actually claimed by that party, up to the maximum annual cost allowable under the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) If the eligible party is not qualified to receive the credit, the federal child care tax credit shall not be used to reduce the child care expenses subject to allocation between the parties.

(b) Health Insurance Premium.

(1) The trier-of-fact shall allocate the health insurance premium paid by the parties, including the premium attributable to the party paying the premium, provided that a statutory duty of support is owed to the party or child covered by the health insurance.

(i) If the party paying the health insurance premium is the obligor, the obligee's share is deducted from the obligor's basic support obligation.

(ii) If the obligee is paying the health insurance premium, the obligor's share is added to the obligor's basic support obligation.

(iii) A health insurance premium allocated between the parties shall also include health insurance that is provided and paid by a third-party resident of a party's household (e.g., step-parent) for a child who is the subject of the support order.

(2) The trier-of-fact shall not allocate an employer-paid premium or a premium paid for a party, person, or child to whom no statutory duty of support is owed.

(i) If the parties present evidence of the excluded premium's actual amount—the amount attributed to a party, person, or child not owed a statutory duty of support—the trier-of-fact shall deduct the actual amount excluded from the total premium before allocating the health insurance premium between the parties.

(ii) If the parties do not present evidence of the excluded premium's actual amount, the trier-of-fact shall calculate the excluded amount as follows:

(A) determine the premium's cost per person by dividing the total premium by the number of persons covered under the policy;

(B) multiply the cost per person by the number of persons who are not owed a statutory duty of support, or are not parties to, or the subject of, the support action; and

(C) the resulting amount is excluded from allocation.

(3) Pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 4326(a), in every support proceeding, the trier-of-fact shall ascertain a parent's ability to provide medical support for the parties' child and the support "order shall include a requirement for medical support to be provided by either or both parents, provided that such medical support is accessible to the children."

(i) The obligor bears the initial responsibility of providing the child's health care coverage if it is available at a reasonable cost.

(A) "Reasonable cost" to an obligor shall be defined as an amount that does not exceed 5% of the obligor's monthly net income and, when added to the basic child support obligation plus additional expenses the obligor is ordered to pay, does not exceed 50% of the obligor's monthly net income.

(B) If the obligee is providing the coverage, the "reasonable cost" of the obligor's share shall be defined as an amount that does not exceed 5% of the obligor's monthly net income and, when added to the basic child support obligation plus additional expenses the obligor is ordered to pay, does not exceed 50% of the obligor's monthly net income.

(ii) Unless the child's health care coverage is provided by the obligee or a third party, the court shall issue the National Medical Support Notice required by 23 Pa.C.S. § 4326(d.1) to the obligor's employer in response to notification that the obligor is employed.

(A) The notice shall direct the employer to enroll the obligor's child who is the subject of the support proceeding if the coverage is available at a reasonable cost to the obligor.

(B) However, the notice shall direct that enrollment shall not occur earlier than 25 days from the date of the National Medical Support Notice to allow the obligor time to object.

(C) Concurrent with the issuance of the National Medical Support Notice, the court shall provide notice to the obligor setting forth the process to object to the enrollment based upon unreasonable cost, mistake of fact, or availability of alternative health care coverage for the child.

(D) If there is more than one employer-provided health care coverage option, the obligor shall select the coverage, subject to the obligee's right to seek a court order designating a different option.

(iii) Absent the availability of health care coverage to the obligor for the parties' child at a reasonable cost, the court shall order the obligee to provide health care coverage for the child if it is available at a reasonable cost. "Reasonable cost" to the obligee shall be defined as an amount not to exceed 5% of the obligee's monthly net income.

(iv) If health care coverage is not available to the parties at a reasonable cost, the court may order the party having primary custody to apply for government-sponsored coverage, such as the Children's Health Insurance Program ("CHIP"), with any co-premium or other cost [appropriated] allocated between the parties in proportion to the parties' respective monthly net incomes.

(v) Within 30 days after the entry of the support order, the party ordered to provide health care coverage shall provide written proof to the other party that medical insurance has been obtained, including insurance cards and all other materials set forth in the form order in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(e). There shall be a continuing obligation to provide the other party and the domestic relations section with proof of any changes in coverage.

(vi) The trier-of-fact shall give preference to health care coverage that is readily accessible to the child, as defined by geographic coverage area, access to local treatment providers, or other relevant factors.

(4) If the obligor is paying for the health insurance, the obligee has no income or minimal income, and the obligor will bear 90% or more of the health insurance premium:

(i) the trier-of-fact may, as fairness requires, deduct part or all of the premium actually paid by the obligor to provide coverage for the other party or the child from the obligor's gross income to determine monthly net income for support purposes.

(ii) If such a deduction is taken from the obligor's gross income, the premium allocation as set forth in subdivision

(b)(1) shall not be applied.

(c) Reasonable Unreimbursed Medical Expenses. The trier-of-fact shall allocate the obligee's or child's reasonable unreimbursed medical expenses. However, the trier-of-fact shall not allocate reasonable unreimbursed medical expenses incurred by a party who is not owed a statutory duty of support by the other party. The trier-of-fact may require that the obligor's expense share be included in the basic support obligation, paid directly to the health care provider, or paid directly to the obligee.

(1) Medical Expenses.

(i) For purposes of this subdivision, medical expenses are annual unreimbursed medical expenses in excess of $250 per person.

(ii) Medical expenses include insurance co-payments [and], deductibles, and all expenses reasonably incurred for necessary medical services and supplies, including but not limited to surgical, dental, and optical services, psychiatric and psychological services, and orthodontia.

(iii) Medical expenses do not include cosmetic, chiropractic, or other services unless specifically directed in the order of court.

(2) The trier-of-fact may impose an annual limitation when the burden on the obligor would otherwise be excessive.

(3) Annual expenses shall be calculated on a calendar year basis.

(i) In the year in which the initial support order is entered, or in any period in which support is being paid that is less than a full year, the $250 threshold shall be pro-rated.

(ii) The party seeking allocation for an unreimbursed medical expense shall provide to the other party the expense's documentation, such as a receipt or an invoice, promptly upon receipt, but not later than March 31st of the year following the calendar year in which the final bill was received by the party seeking allocation.

(iii) For purposes of subsequent enforcement, unreimbursed medical bills need not be submitted to the domestic relations section prior to March 31st.

(iv) The trier-of-fact shall have the discretion to not allocate an expense if documentation is not timely provided to the other party.

(4) If the trier-of-fact determines that out-of-network unreimbursed medical expenses were not obtained due to medical emergency or other compelling factors, the trier-of-fact may deem those expenses to be unreasonable and decline to assess the expenses against the other party.

(d) Private School Tuition or Summer Camp. Other Additional Expenses. Expenses outside the scope of typical child-rearing expenses, such as private school tuition, summer camp fees, and other additional expenses as set forth in subdivision (d)(2), have not been factored into the Basic Child Support Schedule.

(1) Private School Tuition or Summer Camp. If the trier-of-fact determines that private school or summer camp is reasonable under the parties' circumstances, the trier-of-fact shall [apportion] allocate the expense to the parties.

(2) Other Additional Expenses. The trier-of-fact shall [apportion] allocate an additional expense to the parties, if the trier-of-fact determines that the expense:

(i) is related to the child's educational, extra-curricular, or developmental activities; and

(ii) is reasonable under the parties' circumstances.

(3) The trier-of-fact may require that a party's proportionate share of a subdivision (d)(1) or (d)(2) expense is:

(i) included in or excluded from the basic child support obligation;

(ii) paid directly to the service provider; or

(iii) paid directly to the other party.

(4) Documentation.

(i) The party seeking allocation of an expense shall provide the other party with the expense's documentation, such as a receipt or an invoice, promptly upon receipt, but not later than March 31st of the year following the calendar year in which the party incurred the expense, unless the service provider invoices the parties separately.

(ii) For subsequent enforcement purposes, a party does not need to submit the expense's documentation to the domestic relations section before March 31.

(iii) The trier-of-fact shall have the discretion to not allocate an expense if documentation is not timely provided to the other party.

(e) Mortgage Payment. The support guidelines assume that the spouse occupying the marital residence will be solely responsible for the mortgage payment, real estate taxes, and homeowners' insurance. Similarly, the trier-of-fact shall assume that the party occupying the marital residence will be paying the items listed unless the recommendation specifically provides otherwise.

(1) If the obligee is living in the marital residence and the mortgage payment exceeds 25% of the obligee's monthly net income (including amounts of spousal support, alimony pendente lite, and child support), the trier-of-fact may require the obligor to assume up to 50% of the excess amount in the obligor's support obligation.

(2) If the obligor is occupying the marital residence and the mortgage payment exceeds 25% of the obligor's monthly net income (less any amount of spousal support, alimony pendente lite, and child support the obligor is paying), the trier-of-fact may downwardly adjust the obligor's support obligation.

(3) This rule shall not be applicable after a final resolution of the outstanding economic claims in the parties' divorce action.

(4) For purposes of this subdivision, "mortgage" shall include a first mortgage, real estate taxes, and homeowners' insurance and may include a subsequent mortgage, a home equity loan, and other marital obligations secured by the marital residence.

Comment: The allocation of additional expenses may be subject to a deviation analysis pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-5. For example, a deviation may be considered if the allocation of additional expenses would reduce a party's monthly net income below the self-support reserve.

Subdivision (a)(1)(i) Example: Mother has primary custody of the parties' two children and Father has partial custody. The parties' respective monthly net incomes are $2,000 and $3,500. At the combined monthly net income of $5,500 for two children, the basic child support obligation is [$1,567] $1,694. As Father's income represents 64% of the parties' combined monthly net income, Father's basic child support obligation is [$1,003] $1,084. Mother incurs monthly child care expenses of $400, and Father incurs $100 per month. The total child care expenses, $500, will be [apportioned] allocated between the parties, with Father paying 64%, or $320. As Father is paying $100 for the children's child care during his partial custody, he would pay the remaining $220 to Mother for a total child support obligation of [$1,223 ($1,003 + $220)] $1,304 ($1,084 + $220).

Concerning subdivision (a)(1)(ii), see Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(d)(4) for earning capacity determination. Hypothetical child care expenses that are less than a parent's earning capacity may be allocated pursuant to subdivision (a)(1)(ii). Only those hypothetical child care expenses that the parent would actually pay, if employed, should be allocated. See Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2, cmt.

Subdivision (b) does not apply to Medical Assistance. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 4326(l).

Subdivision (b)(1)-(b)(2) Example 1: If the parties are separated, but not divorced, and Husband pays $200 monthly for employer-provided health insurance for himself, Wife, the parties' child, and two additional children from a previous marriage, the premium attributable to the additional two children, if not otherwise verifiable or known with reasonable ease and certainty, is calculated by dividing $200 by five persons and then multiplying the resulting amount of $40 per person by the two additional children, for a total of $80 to be excluded from allocation. Deduct this amount from the total premium to arrive at the premium to be allocated between the parties—$120. Since Husband is paying the premium, and spouses have a statutory duty to support one another pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 4321, Wife's percentage share of the $120 is deducted from Husband's support obligation. If Wife had been providing the coverage, Husband's percentage share would be added to his basic support obligation.

Subdivision (b)(1)-(b)(2) Example 2: If the parties are divorced and Father pays $200 monthly for employer-provided health insurance for himself, the parties' child, and two additional children from a previous marriage, the premium attributable to Father and the two additional children will not be allocated between the parties. Thus, using the same calculations in Example 1, the premium attributable to Father and the two other children is $150 ($200 premium divided among four covered persons equals $50 per person multiplied by three) and that amount is deducted from the total premium, leaving $50 ($200 - $150 = $50) to be allocated between the parties.

Subdivision (b)(1)-(b)(2) Example 3: The parties are divorced, and Mother is the obligee of a child support order. Father, the obligor, pays $200 monthly for employer-provided health insurance for himself and the parties' child. Mother pays $400 per month for her employer-provided health insurance that covers only herself. The premium Father pays to cover the parties' child, $100 ($200 premium divided between two covered persons, Father and the child), will be allocated between the parties in proportion to their respective monthly net incomes. The premium that covers Father will not be allocated because the parties are no longer married, and he is not owed a duty of support by Mother. The premium Mother pays to provide her own coverage will not be allocated because the parties are no longer married and she is not owed a duty of support by Father.

Concerning subdivision (b)(3), the maximum amount of any attachment for child and medical support is set forth by the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1601 et seq.

Subdivision (c) is intended to implement 23 Pa.C.S. § 4326(e).

An unreimbursed medical expense may be unreasonable if it was an avoidable expense incurred solely by the party requesting reimbursement, e.g., expenses for missed office visits, excessive supplies, purchases of name brand medications when generic medications are suitable and available, denial of insurance coverage because of a failure to comply with plan requirements, or non-emergency out-of-network expenses pursuant to subdivision (c)(4).

The determination of medical necessity of a medical service or medical supplies can be made in a support proceeding or a custody proceeding. Even if challenged during a support proceeding (rather than a custody proceeding), the necessity of a medical service or medical supplies, which results in an unreimbursed medical expense for which a party seeks allocation subject to subdivision (c)(1)(ii), should be determined by the trier-of-fact, and subject to review by a judge if the trier-of-fact is not a judge.

If the trier-of-fact determines that a party acted reasonably in obtaining services that were not specifically set forth in the order of support, payment for such services may be ordered retroactively.

Pursuant to subdivision (c)(1)(iii), medical expenses for cosmetic, chiropractic, or other services may be, but are not required to be, allocated between the parties by the trier-of-fact if such expenses are reasonable and necessary.

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment—2004

Subdivision (a), relating to the federal child care tax credit, has been amended to reflect recent amendments to the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 21. By generally referencing the Tax Code, rather than incorporating current Code provisions in the rule, further amendments will be incorporated into the support calculation.

Explanatory Comment—2005

Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6 governs the treatment of additional expenses that warrant an adjustment to the basic support obligation.

Subdivision (a) relates to child care expenses. Subdivision (a) has been amended to require that child care expenses incurred by either party are to be allocated between the parties in proportion to their respective net incomes. Subsection (a)(1), relating to the federal child care tax credit, was amended in 2004 to reflect recent amendments to the Internal Revenue Code. 26 U.S.C. § 21. By referring to the Tax Code in general, rather than incorporating current Code provisions in the rule, any further amendments will be incorporated into the support calculation. Since the tax credit may be taken only against taxes owed, it cannot be used when the eligible parent does not incur sufficient tax liability to fully realize the credit. For this reason, subsection (2) provides that no adjustment to the total child care expenses may be made if the eligible parent does not qualify to receive the credit.

Subdivision (b) addresses health insurance premiums. The cost of the premiums is generally treated as an additional expense to be allocated between the parties in proportion to their net incomes. Subdivision (b)(1) of the rule permits allocation of the entire premium, including the portion of the premium covering the party carrying the insurance, when the insurance benefits the other party and/or the children. Subdivision (b)(2) clarifies that, in calculating the amount of the health care premium to be allocated between the parties, subdivision (b)(1) requires the inclusion of that portion of the health insurance premium covering the party who is paying the premium, so long as there is a statutory duty of support owed to that party, but not the portion of the premium attributable to non-parties and children who are not the subjects of the support order. Subdivision (b)(2) provides for proration of the premium when the health insurance covers other persons who are not subject to the support action or owed a statutory duty of support. Subdivision (b) also permits an alternative method for dealing with the cost of health insurance premiums in certain circumstances. While, in general, the cost of the premiums will be treated as an additional expense to be allocated between the parties in proportion to their net incomes, in cases in which the obligee has no income or minimal income, subsection (4) authorizes the trier-of-fact to reduce the obligor's gross income for support purposes by some or all of the amount of the health insurance premiums. This is to avoid the result under a prior rule in which the entire cost of health insurance would have been borne by the obligor, with no resulting reduction in the amount of support he or she would otherwise be required to pay under the support guidelines. The goal of this provision is to encourage and facilitate the maintenance of health insurance coverage for dependents by giving the obligor a financial incentive to maintain health insurance coverage.

Subdivision (c) deals with unreimbursed medical expenses. Since the first $250 of medical expenses per year per child is built into the basic guideline amount in the child support schedule, only medical expenses in excess of $250 per year per child are subject to allocation under this rule as an additional expense to be added to the basic support obligation. The same is true with respect to spousal support so that the obligee-spouse is expected to assume the first $250 per year of these expenses and may seek contribution under this rule only for unreimbursed expenses which exceed $250 per year. The definition of "medical expenses" includes insurance co-payments, deductibles and orthodontia and excludes chiropractic services.

Subdivision (d) governs apportionment of private school tuition, summer camp and other unusual needs not reflected in the basic guideline amounts of support. The rule presumes allocation in proportion to the parties' net incomes consistent with the treatment of the other additional expenses.

Subdivision (e) provides for the apportionment of mortgage expenses. It defines "mortgage" to include the real estate taxes and homeowners' insurance. While real estate taxes and homeowners' insurance must be included if the trier-of-fact applies the provisions of this subdivision, the inclusion of second mortgages, home equity loans and other obligations secured by the marital residence is within the trier-of-fact's discretion based upon the circumstances of the case.

Explanatory Comment—2006

A new introductory sentence in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6 clarifies that additional expenses contemplated in the rule may be allocated between the parties even if the parties' respective incomes do not warrant an award of basic support. Thus, even if application of either formula Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-4 results in a basic support obligation of zero, the trier-of-fact may enter a support order allocating between the parties any or all of the additional expenses addressed in this rule.

The amendment of subdivision (e) recognizes that the obligor may be occupying the marital residence and that, in particular circumstances, justice and fairness may warrant an adjustment in his or her support obligation.

Explanatory Comment—2008

Federal and state statutes require clarification to subdivision (b) to ensure that all court orders for support address the children's ongoing need for medical care. In those instances where the children's health care needs are paid by the state's medical assistance program, and eligibility for the Children's Health Insurance Program ("CHIP") is denied due to the minimal income of the custodial parent, the obligor remains required to enroll the parties' children in health insurance that is, or may become, available that is reasonable in cost.

Government-sponsored health care plans represent a viable alternative to the often prohibitive cost of health insurance obtainable by a parent. Except for very low income children, every child is eligible for CHIP, for which the parent with primary physical custody must apply and which is based on that parent's income. A custodial parent may apply for CHIP by telephone or on the Internet. While co-premiums or co-pays increase as the custodial parent's income increases, such costs are generally modest and should be apportioned between the parties. Moreover, health care coverage obtained by the custodial parent generally yields more practical results, as the custodial parent resides in the geographic coverage area, enrollment cards are issued directly to the custodial parent, and claims may be submitted directly by the custodial parent.

Explanatory Comment—2010

Subdivision (e), relating to mortgages on the marital residence, has been amended to clarify that the rule cannot be applied after a final order of equitable distribution has been entered. To the extent that Isralsky v. Isralsky, 824 A.2d 1178 (Pa. Super. 2003), holds otherwise, it is superseded. At the time of resolution of the parties' economic claims, the former marital residence will either have been awarded to one of the parties or otherwise addressed.

Explanatory Comment—2018

The amendments provide for an adjustment to the parties' monthly net incomes prior to determining the percentage each party pays toward the expenses set forth in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6. Previously, the Rules of Civil Procedure apportioned the enumerated expenses in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6(a)—(d), with the exception of subdivision (c)(5), between the parties based on the parties' respective monthly net incomes as calculated pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-2. This apportionment did not consider the amount of support paid by the obligor or received by the obligee.

The amended rule adjusts the parties' monthly net incomes, upward or downward, by the spousal support/APL amount paid or received by that party prior to apportioning the expenses. This methodology is not new to the Rules of Civil Procedure. In Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6(c)(5) (rescinded), the parties' monthly net incomes in spousal support/APL-only cases were similarly adjusted prior to the apportionment of unreimbursed medical expenses. Likewise, Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6(e) considers the parties' monthly net income after the receipt or payment of the support obligation for purposes of determining a mortgage deviation. As the new procedure adopts the methodology in former subdivision (c)(5), that subdivision has been rescinded as delineating the spousal support only circumstance is unnecessary.

Lastly, the amendment consolidates Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6(b)(1), (2), and (2.1).

Rule 1910.16-7. Support Guidelines. Multiple Family Child Support Obligations.

(a) Basic Child Support Obligations Total 50% or Less. [When] If an obligor's basic child support obligations total 50% or less of the obligor's monthly net income, there will be no deviation from the basic support obligation on the ground of the existence of a new family.

[Example: If the obligor requests a reduction of support for one child of the first marriage on the basis that there is a new child of the second intact marriage, and the relevant monthly net incomes are $2,500 for the obligor, $500 for the former spouse, and $1,300 for the current spouse, the request for a reduction will be denied because the obligor's basic support obligations total $1,138 ($576 for the first child and $562 for the second child) and are less than half of the obligor's monthly net income.]

- (b) Basic Child Support Obligations Total Exceeds 50%. [When the total of the] If an obligor's basic support obligations total exceeds 50% of the obligor's monthly net income, the trier-of-fact may proportionately reduce the basic support obligations.
  - (1) The goal of the guidelines is to treat each child equitably, and a first or later family shall not receive preference.
  - (2) The trier-of-fact shall not divide the basic child support obligations for all of the obligor's children among the households in which those children live.

[Example 1. The obligor is sued for support of an out-of-wedlock child. The obligor is already paying support for two children of the first marriage, and has an intact second marriage with one child. The relevant monthly net incomes are $3,800 for the obligor, $1,100 for the former spouse, $0 for the current spouse, and $1,500 for the parent of the new child. The obligor's basic child support obligations to each family are $1,140 for the two children of the first marriage, $854 for the one child of the second marriage, and $743 for the one child out of wedlock for a total of $2,737. Since the total of these obligations exceeds 50% of the obligor's monthly net income of $3,800, the trier-of-fact may consider a proportional reduction of the orders.

[Example 2. The obligor is sued for support of three children of a second marriage. There is already an order in effect for two children of the first marriage. The relevant monthly net incomes are $2,500 for the obligor, $0 for the first spouse, and $500 for the second spouse. The obligor's basic child support obligation to each family is $877 for the two children of the first marriage and $1,040 for the three children of the second marriage for a total support obligation of $1,917. Since the total obligation leaves the obligor with only $583 on which to live, the orders are too high as the obligor must be left with a Self-Support Reserve of $1,063. However, reducing the order for three children while leaving the existing order intact would give preference to the first family, contrary to the rule. Therefore, both orders shall be reduced proportionally.

[Example 3. The obligor is sued by three obligees to establish orders for three children. The monthly net income for the obligor and for each obligee is $1,500. The trier-of-fact would determine that the obligor's basic child support obligation for each child is $346 for a total of $1,038 for three children. It would be incorrect to determine the basic child support obligation for three children, in this case $1,253, and divide that amount among the three children. As the obligations exceed 50% of the obligor's monthly net income, the support orders should be reduced proportionately consistent with subdivision (b) and ensure the obligor retains the Self-Support Reserve of $1,063 consistent with Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-2(e).]

- (c) Presumptive Basic Support Obligation.
  - (1) For purposes of this rule, the obligor's presumptive basic support obligation:
    - (i) is calculated using only the formula in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4; and
    - (ii) does not include any additional expenses that may be added pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6.
  - (2) In calculating the obligor's presumptive basic support obligation, the trier-of-fact shall ensure that the obligor retains at least [$1,063] $1,255 per month consistent with [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(e).

[Example 1. Assume that the obligor is paying $553 per month support for one child of the first marriage, plus an additional $200 per month for child care expenses. The obligor requests a reduction in this support obligation on the basis that there is one new child of the second intact marriage. The relevant incomes are $2,400 for the obligor and $0 for the former and current spouses. The obligor's request for a reduction shall be denied because the total of the basic support obligations for both children is only $1,106 ($553 for each child) and are less than half of the obligor's monthly net income.]

child) and does not exceed 50% of the obligor's monthly net income. A reduction shall not be given on the basis that the obligor's contribution to child care expenses for the first child results in a total basic support child obligation of $1,306, which exceeds 50% of the obligor's monthly net income. The presumptive basic child support obligations for the two children still total $1,106 ($553 for each child). The trier-of-fact shall consider the deviation factors under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-5 and the parties' respective contributions to additional expenses under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6 in arriving at an appropriate total child support obligation for each child.

[Example 2. Assume that the obligor is paying $346 per month support for one child of the first marriage. The obligor has one new child of the second intact marriage. The relevant incomes are $1,500 for the obligor and $0 for the former and current spouses. A reduction shall not be given on the basis of the obligor's new child because the presumptive basic child support obligations total $692 ($346 for each child) and this amount does not exceed 50% of the obligor's monthly net income. Since, however, this amount leaves the obligor with only $808 per month, the trier-of-fact shall proportionately reduce the basic child support obligations so that the obligor retains $1,063 per month. The presumptive basic child support obligations total $437 ($218.50 for each child). The trier-of-fact shall consider the deviation factors under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-5 and the parties' respective contributions to additional expenses under Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-6 in arriving at an appropriate total child support obligation for each child.]

Comment: Subdivision (a) Example: If the obligor requests a reduction of support for one child of the first marriage on the basis that there is a new child of the second intact marriage, and the relevant monthly net incomes are $2,500 for the obligor, $500 for the former spouse, and $1,300 for the current spouse, the request for a reduction will be denied because the obligor's basic support obligations total $1,138 ($576 for the first child and $562 for the second child) and are less than half of the obligor's monthly net income.

Subdivision (b)(1) Example 1: The obligor is sued for support of an out-of-wedlock child. The obligor is already paying support for two children of the first marriage and has an intact second marriage with one child. The relevant monthly net incomes are $3,800 for the obligor, $1,100 for the former spouse, $0 for the current spouse, and $1,500 for the parent of the new child. The obligor's basic child support obligations to each family are $1,140 for the two children of the first marriage, $854 for the one child of the second marriage, and $743 for the one child out of wedlock for a total of $2,737. Since the total of these obligations exceeds 50% of the obligor's monthly net income of $3,800, the trier-of-fact may consider a proportional reduction of the orders.

Subdivision (b)(1) Example 2: The obligor is sued for support of three children of a second marriage. There is already an order in effect for two children of the first marriage. The relevant monthly net incomes are $2,500 for the obligor, $0 for the first spouse, and $500 for the second spouse. The obligor's basic child support obligation to each family is $877 for the two children of the first marriage and $1,056 for the three children of the second marriage for a total support obligation of $1,933. Because the total obligation leaves the obligor with only $567 on which to live, the orders are too high as the obligor must be left with a self-support reserve of $1,255. However, reducing the order for three children while leaving the existing order intact would give preference to the first family, contrary to the rule. Therefore, both orders shall be reduced proportionally.

Subdivision (b)(1) Example 3: The obligor is sued by three obligees to establish orders for three children. The monthly net income for the obligor and for each obligee is $1,500. The trier-of-fact would determine that the obligor's basic child support obligation for each child is $346 for a total of $1,038 for three children. It would be incorrect to determine the basic child support obligation for three children, in this case $1,272, and divide that amount among the three children. As the obligations exceed 50% of the obligor's monthly net income, the support orders should be reduced proportionately consistent with subdivision (b) and ensure the obligor retains the self-support reserve of $1,255 consistent with Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(e).

Subdivision (c) Example 1: Assume that the obligor is paying $553 per month support for one child of the first marriage, plus an additional $200 per month for child care expenses. The obligor requests a reduction in this support obligation on the basis that there is one new child of the second intact marriage. The relevant incomes are $2,400 for the obligor and $0 for the former and current spouses. The obligor's request for a reduction shall be denied because the total of the basic support obligations for both children is only $1,106 ($553 for each child) and does not exceed 50% of the obligor's monthly net income. A reduction shall not be given on the basis that the obligor's contribution to child care expenses for the first child results in a total basic support child obligation of $1,306, which exceeds 50% of the obligor's monthly net income. The presumptive basic child support obligations for the two children still total $1,106 ($553 for each child). The trier-of-fact shall consider the deviation factors under Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-5 and the parties' respective contributions to additional expenses under Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6 in arriving at an appropriate total child support obligation for each child.

Subdivision (c) Example 2: Assume that the obligor is paying $221 per month support for one child of the first marriage. The obligor has one new child of the second intact marriage. The relevant incomes are $1,500 for the obligor and $0 for the former and current spouses. A reduction shall not be given based on the obligor's new child because the presumptive basic child support obligations total $442 ($221 for each child) and this amount does not exceed 50% of the obligor's monthly net income. Because, however, this amount leaves the obligor with only $1,058 per month, the trier-of-fact shall proportionately reduce the basic child support obligations so that the obligor retains $1,255 per month. The presumptive basic child support obligations total $245 ($122.50 for each child). The trier-of-fact shall consider the deviation factors under Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-5 and the parties' respective contributions to additional expenses under Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6 in arriving at an appropriate total child support obligation for each child.

Historical Commentary

Explanatory Comment—2005

Rule 1910.16-7 has been amended to reflect the updated schedule at Rule 1910.16-3 and the increase in the Self-Support Reserve (“SSR”), formerly the CAM, to $748 per month. This rule sets forth the calculation of child support obligations in the context of multiple families. Awards of spousal support in this context are addressed in Rule 1910.16-2(c)(2).

In determining whether the total support obligations exceed 50% of the obligor’s net income to warrant a proportionate reduction of the child support orders, subdivision (c) clarifies that the total consists only of the basic amounts of child support, as derived from the income shares formula in Rule 1910.16-4, and does not include additional expenses that may be added to these basic amounts under Rule 1910.16-6. As the first example illustrates, no reduction should be given if the basic support obligations do not exceed 50% of the obligor’s net monthly income even though his or her contribution to additional expenses may result in an overall obligation exceeding this percentage of income. As the second example illustrates, however, in low income cases it may be necessary to adjust the child support obligations proportionally even though they do not exceed 50% of the obligor’s net income. This is consistent with the goals of the SSR to ensure that the obligor retains sufficient income to maintain the incentive to work so that he or she can support all of the children.

Subdivision (c) also emphasizes that the initial amounts which are calculated for purposes of determining whether a proportional reduction is warranted are only presumptive amounts of child support. They are subject to upward or downward adjustment under Rules 1910.16-5 and 1910.16-6 relating to deviation and additional child-related expenses which are typically added to the basic obligation. This is intended only to emphasize that the establishment of appropriate support obligations for children of different families involves the same considerations as the establishment of a support obligation for a child or children of a single family.

Explanatory Comment—2010

Rule 1910.16-7 has been amended to reflect the updated schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 and the increase in the Self-Support Reserve to $867 per month, the 2008 federal poverty level for one person. The distribution priorities formerly in subdivision (d) have been moved to Rule 1910.17(d) to clarify that these priorities apply to all support orders, not just those involving multiple families.

Explanatory Comment—2013

Rule 1910.16-7 has been amended to reflect the updated schedule in Rule 1910.16-3 and the increase in the Self-Support Reserve to $931 per month, the 2012 federal poverty level for one person.

Rule 1910.19. Support. Modification. Termination. Guidelines as Substantial Change in Circumstances. Overpayments.

- (a) Contents. A petition for modification or termination of an existing support order shall specifically aver the material and substantial change in circumstances upon which the petition is based. A new guideline amount resulting from new or revised support guidelines may constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances. The existence of additional income, income sources or assets identified through automated methods or otherwise may also constitute a material and substantial change in circumstances.
- (b) Withdrawal of Petition. The procedure upon the petition shall be in accordance with Rule 1910.10 et seq. After a party has filed a petition for modification of a child support order, the petition may not be withdrawn unless both parties consent or with leave of court. A petition for modification of spousal support or alimony pendente lite may be withdrawn without the consent of the other party or leave of court.
- (c) Basis for Modification or Termination. Pursuant to a petition for modification, the trier-of-fact may modify or terminate the existing support order in any appropriate manner based on the evidence presented without regard to which party filed the petition for modification. If the trier-of-fact finds that there has been a material and substantial change in circumstances, the order may be increased or decreased based on the parties’ respective monthly net incomes, consistent with the support guidelines, existing law, and [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.18(d), and the party’s custodial time with the child at the time the modification petition is heard.
- (d) Death of Payee Spouse. All charging orders for spousal support and alimony pendente lite shall terminate upon the death of the payee spouse.
- (e) Emancipation Inquiry and Notice. Within six months prior to the date a child who is the subject of a child support order reaches [eighteen (18)] 18 years of age, the domestic relations section shall issue an emancipation inquiry and notice to the obligee, with a copy to the obligor, seeking the following information:
  - (1) confirmation of the child’s date of birth, date of graduation or withdrawal from high school;
  - (2) whether the child has left the obligee’s household and, if so, the date of departure;
  - (3) the existence of any agreement between the parties requiring payments for the benefit of the child after the child has reached age [eighteen (18)] 18 or graduated from high school; and

- (4) any special needs of the child which may be a basis for continuing support for that child beyond the child’s [eighteenth] 18th birthday or graduation from high school, whichever is last to occur.

The notice shall advise the obligee that if the inquiry is not returned within [thirty (30)] 30 days of mailing or if there is no agreement or the child does not have any special needs, the charging order may be modified or terminated by the court. In order to avoid overpayment, [when] if no other children are subjects of the child support order and the obligee either does not return the emancipation inquiry within [thirty (30)] 30 days of its mailing or does not assert grounds for continuing support for the child, then the domestic relations section shall administratively terminate the child support charging order without further proceedings on the last to occur of the date the last child reaches age [eighteen (18)] 18 or graduates from high school. Termination of the charging order shall not affect any arrears accrued through the date of termination. The court shall have the authority to enter an order requiring the obligor to pay on arrears in an amount equal to the amount of the charging order until all arrears are paid.

If the order applies to another child or children [and/or] or the obligee asserts that there is an agreement between the parties or that a child has special needs requiring continued support, then the domestic relations section may schedule a conference prior to the child’s attaining age 18 or graduating from high school to determine if the charging order should be modified.

- (f) Court Action. Upon notice to the obligee, with a copy to the obligor, explaining the basis for the proposed modification or termination, the court may modify or terminate a charging order for support and remit any arrears, all without prejudice, [when] if it appears to the court that:
  - (1) the order is no longer able to be enforced under state law; or
  - (2) the obligor is unable to pay, has no known income or assets and there is no reasonable prospect that the obligor will be able to pay in the foreseeable future.

The notice shall advise the obligee to contact the domestic relations section within 60 days of the date of the mailing of the notice if the obligee wishes to contest the proposed modification or termination. If the obligee objects, the domestic relations section shall schedule a conference to provide the obligee the opportunity to contest the proposed action. If the obligee does not respond to the notice or object to the proposed action, the court shall have the authority to modify or terminate the order and remit any arrears, without prejudice.

Overpayments.

- (1) Order in Effect. If there is an overpayment in an amount in excess of two months of the monthly support obligation and a charging order remains in effect, after notice to the parties as set forth below, the domestic relations section shall reduce the charging order by 20% or an amount sufficient to retire the overpayment by the time the charging order is terminated. The notice shall advise the parties to contact the domestic relations section within 30 days of the date of the mailing of the notice if either or both of them wishes to contest the proposed reduction of the charging order. If either party objects, the domestic relations section shall schedule a conference to provide the objecting party the opportunity to contest the proposed action. If neither party responds to the notice or objects to the proposed action, the domestic relations section shall have the authority to reduce the charging order.

- (2) Order Terminated. If there is an overpayment in any amount and there is no charging order in effect, within one year of the termination of the charging order, the former obligor may file a petition with the domestic relations section seeking recovery of the overpayment. A copy shall be served upon the former obligee as original process. The domestic relations section shall schedule a conference on the petition, which shall be conducted consistent with the rules governing support actions. The domestic relations section shall have the authority to enter an order against the former obligee for the amount of the overpayment in a monthly amount to be determined by the trier of fact after consideration of the former obligee’s ability to pay.

Modification of a Support Order with Child Support and Spousal Support or Child Support and Alimony Pendente Lite Entered Before January 1, 2019.

- (1) In a subsequent modification proceeding of an order awarding child support and spousal support or child support and alimony pendente lite, as provided in [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.18(d), the trier-of-fact may on its own motion or upon the motion of a party:
  - (i) make an unallocated award in favor of the spouse and one or more children; or
  - (ii) state the support amount allocable to the spouse and to each child.
- (2) The trier-of-fact shall clearly state whether the order is allocated or unallocated even if the child support and spousal support or child support and alimony pendente lite amounts are delineated in the order.
  - (i) If the order is allocated, the [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910-16.4(a)(2) (Part IV) formula determines the spousal support amount.

- (A) As the formula assumes an unallocated order, if the order's allocation utilizing the formula is inequitable, the trier-of-fact may adjust the order, as appropriate.
- (B) In making an adjustment, the trier-of-fact shall consider the federal income tax consequences.
- (C) If the parties are in higher income brackets, the income tax considerations are likely to be a more significant factor in determining a support amount.
- (ii) If the order is unallocated or the order is for spousal support or alimony pendente lite only, the trier-of-fact shall not consider the federal income tax consequences.

[Note: See 23 Pa.C.S. § 4348(d) for additional matters that must be specified in a support order if arrearages exist when the order is entered.]

- (3) A support award for a spouse and children is taxable to the obligee while an award for the children only is not. Consequently, in certain situations, an award only for the children will be more favorable to the obligee than an award to the spouse and children. In this situation, the trier-of-fact should utilize the method that provides the greatest benefit to the obligee.
- (4) If the obligee's monthly net income is equal to or greater than the obligor's monthly net income, the guideline amount for spouse and children is identical to the guideline amount for children only. Therefore, in cases involving support for spouse and children, whenever the obligee's monthly net income is equal to or greater than the obligor's monthly net income, the guideline amount indicated shall be attributed to child support only.
- (5) Unallocated child support and spousal support or child support and alimony pendente lite orders shall terminate upon the obligee's death.
- (6) In the event that the obligor [defaults] is delinquent on an unallocated order, the trier-of-fact shall allocate the order for child support collection pursuant to the Internal Revenue Service income tax refund intercept program or for registration and enforcement of the order in another jurisdiction under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 7101–7903. The trier-of-fact shall provide the parties with notice of allocation.

[Note: This provision is necessary to comply with various state and federal laws relating to child support enforcement. It is not intended to affect an unallocated order's tax consequences.]

- (7) An unallocated child support and spousal support or child support and alimony pendente lite order is a final order as to the claims covered in the order.
- (8) Motions for post-trial relief cannot be filed to the final order.

[Note: The procedure relating to Motions for Reconsideration is set forth in Pa.R.C.P. No. 1930.2.]

Subdivision (h) incorporates Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16 (rescinded) and Pa.R.C.P. No. 1910.16-4(f) (rescinded) for subsequent modification proceedings due to the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (Pub.L. No. 115-97).]

Comment: Concerning subdivision (c), a party's monthly net income may be based upon an earning capacity determination pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(d)(4).

Subdivision (h) incorporates Pa.R.Civ.P 1910.16 (rescinded) and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-4(f) (rescinded) for subsequent modification proceedings due to the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (Pub.L. No. 115-97).

Concerning subdivision (h)(2), see 23 Pa.C.S. § 4348(d) for additional matters required to be specified in a support order if arrearages exist when the order is entered.

Concerning subdivision (h)(6), this provision is necessary to comply with various state and federal laws relating to child support enforcement. It is not intended to affect an unallocated order's tax consequences.

Concerning subdivision (h)(8), the procedure relating to motions for reconsideration is set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.2.

Historical Commentary

Explanatory Comment—1981

Subdivision (a) sets forth a rule of pleading. It requires the petition for modification or termination to aver "specifically" the reasons for the relief sought. Modification of a prior order requires a "material and substantial change in circumstances." This change in circumstances should be alleged specifically.

Subdivision (b) requires that a petition for modification or termination follow the same procedure as an original complaint. The Rule recognizes that the domestic relations office conference may serve the same beneficial purposes that it serves in an original proceeding. These benefits, settlement or, if there is no settlement, the assembly of all necessary information will aid the court in the prompt disposition of these petitions.

Explanatory Comment—1993

Existence of Guidelines as Substantial Change in Circumstances. In its opinion in Newman v. Newman, 409 Pa. Super. Ct. 108, 597 A.2d 684 (Pa. Super. 1991), the Superior Court held that enactment of the guidelines does not constitute a substantial change in circumstance which could serve as the basis for modification of a support order. The amended rule allows the trier of fact to consider new or revised rules as a change in circumstances where the change in the guidelines, either by itself or in combination with other factors, is material and substantial.

Explanatory Comment—2000

The Pennsylvania Child Support Enforcement System ("PACSES") is electronically linked to a variety of governmental and private agencies and institutions. This linkage enables PACSES to immediately locate and identify an obligor's income, income sources and assets. Rule 1910.19 is amended to provide that their identification through these automated methods provides a basis for modifying both the current support obligation and the rate of repayment on either past due or overdue support. Identification through means other than PACSES continues to provide the same basis for modification.

While identification of income sources or assets provides a basis for modification, this rule is not intended to prevent a court from ordering that the income or assets be frozen and seized under Rule 1910.26 pending the hearing on the petition for modification. Such relief remains available under Rule 1910.26 governing appropriate interim or special relief. See Rule 1910.1 Explanatory Comment. Nor is this rule intended to affect the court's ability to seize income or assets under Rule 1910.20 to secure an overdue support obligation.

Explanatory Comment—2002

Although support orders do not terminate automatically, many obligors are unaware of the necessity of filing a petition to terminate a child support order when the child becomes emancipated. As a result, old orders have continued to charge long after the subject child has become an adult. New subdivision (e) is intended to address this problem by giving the obligee notice of a proposed modification or termination of the order and the opportunity to object. If no objection is made, or if the obligee fails to respond with a reason to continue the order, the rule gives the court the authority to terminate or modify the charging order, depending upon whether or not other children are covered under the order.

Explanatory Comment—2006

New subdivision (f) addresses an increasing multiplicity of circumstances in which the continued existence of a court-ordered obligation of support is inconsistent with rules or law. An obligor with no known assets whose sole source of income is Supplemental Security Income or cash assistance cannot be ordered to pay support under Rule 1910.16-2. Likewise, an obligor with no verifiable income or assets whose institutionalization, incarceration or long-term disability precludes the payment of support renders the support order unenforceable and uncollectible, diminishing the perception of the court as a source of redress and relief. Often, the obligor is unable or unaware of the need to file for a modification or termination, or the parties abandon the action. In those circumstances, the courts are charged with managing dockets with no viable outcomes. Both the rules and the federal guidelines for child support under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act provide for circumstances under which a support order shall not be entered or under which a child support case may be closed. Subdivision (f) expands the authority of the courts to respond to case management issues brought about by changes in circumstances of the parties of which the courts become aware through the expansion of automated interfaces and data exchanges.

(c) Income Statements and Expense Statements. The Income Statements and Expense Statements to be attached to the order in subdivision (b) shall be substantially in the following form:

(2) Expense Statements. An Expense Statement is not required in cases that can be determined pursuant to the guidelines unless a party avers unusual needs and expenses that may warrant a deviation from the guideline amount of support pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-5 or seeks an apportionment of expenses pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6. See [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11(c)(1). Child support is calculated under the guidelines based upon the monthly net incomes of the parties, with additional amounts ordered as necessary to provide for child care expenses, health insurance premiums, unreimbursed medical expenses, mortgage payments, and other needs, contingent upon the obligor's ability to pay. The Expense Statement in [subparagraph (A)] subdivision (c)(2)(A) shall be utilized if a party is claiming that he or she has unusual needs and unusual fixed expenses that may warrant deviation or adjustment in a case determined under the guidelines. In child support, spousal support, and alimony pendente lite cases calculated pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3.1 and in divorce cases involving claims for alimony, counsel fees, or costs and expenses pursuant to [Pa.R.C.P. No.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1920.31(a), the parties shall complete the Expense Statement in [subparagraph (B)] subdivision (c)(2)(B).

[Note: See Pa.R.C.P. No. 1930.1(b). To the extent this rule applies to actions not governed by other legal authority regarding confidentiality of information and documents in support actions or that attorneys or unrepresented parties file support-related confidential information and documents in non-support actions (e.g., divorce, custody), the Case Records Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania shall apply.]

(A) Guidelines Expense Statement. If the combined monthly net income of the parties is $30,000 or less, it is not necessary to complete this form unless a party is claiming unusual needs and expenses that may warrant a deviation from the guideline amount of support pursuant to [Rule] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-5 or seeks [an apportionment] allocation of expenses pursuant to [Rule] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6. At the conference, each party [must] shall provide receipts or other verification of expenses claimed on this statement. The Guidelines Expense Statement shall be substantially in the following form.

(B) Expense Statement for Cases Pursuant to [Rule] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3.1 and [Rule] Pa.R.Civ.P. 1920.31. No later than five business days prior to the conference, the parties shall exchange

[this form] the Expense Statement substantially in the following form, along with receipts or other verification of the expenses set forth on [this] the form. Failure to comply with this [provision] requirement may result in an appropriate order for sanctions [and/or the entry of an interim order based upon the information provided]

***

Comment: See Pa.R.Civ.P. 1930.1(b). To the extent this rule applies to actions not governed by other legal authority regarding confidentiality of information and documents in support actions or that attorneys or unrepresented parties file support-related confidential information and documents in non-support actions, e.g., divorce, custody, the Case Records Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania shall apply.

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment—1994

The support complaint and Income and Expense Statements contain a verification which states that the documents are subject to the penalties of the Crimes Code relating to unsworn falsification to authorities. A notary public is not needed.

Explanatory Comment—2006

Rule 1910.27(c) is amended to separate income and expense information and to elicit the expense information relevant in cases that fall within the guidelines, as well as those that do not. In cases which can be determined under the guidelines, no expense information need be provided unless a party is claiming unusual needs and expenses that may warrant a deviation pursuant to Rule 1910.16-5 or an apportionment of expenses pursuant to Rule 1910.16-6. If a party is claiming such expenses, the form at subsection (c)(2)(A) should be submitted. A separate expense form for cases in which the parties' combined monthly net income exceeds $20,000 is set forth at subsection (c)(2)(B).

Rule 1910.11(c) was amended, effective in March 1995, to provide that only income and extraordinary expenses need be shown on the Income and Expense Statement in cases which can be determined pursuant to the guidelines. The Explanatory Comment—1994 explained the rationale for the amendment.

Nevertheless, because space for both income and expense information was provided on the same form Income and Expense Statement, parties often needlessly expended time and effort to provide expense information that was not relevant at the conference. The amendments are intended to clarify and simplify the submission of expense information.

Explanatory Comment—2010

When the combined net monthly income of the parties exceeds $30,000, the case will be decided pursuant to Rule 1910.16-3.1 and the Income Statement and the Expense Statement at Rule 1910.27(c)(2)(B) must be submitted.

Explanatory Comment—2012

The form complaint for support in subdivision (a) has been amended to accommodate cases initiated pursuant to Rule 1910.3(a)(6). Because a support order may be entered against either party without regard to which party initiated the support action pursuant to Rule 1910.3(b), a party who believes that he or she may owe a duty of support may use the complaint form to initiate the action even if he or she ultimately is determined to be the obligor. In active charging support cases in which there is an overpayment in an amount in excess of two months of the monthly support obligation and the domestic relations section fails to reduce the charging order automatically to recoup the overpayment pursuant to Rule 1910.19(g)(1), the obligor may file a petition for recovery as set forth in subdivision (h) above. A separate form petition has been added in subdivision (i) by which a former support obligor may seek recovery of an overpayment in any amount in terminated cases pursuant to Rule 1910.19(g)(2).

Rule 1910.29. Evidence in Support Matters.

Record Hearing. Except as provided in this rule, the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence shall be followed in all record hearings conducted in an action for support. A verified petition, affidavit or document, and any document incorporated by reference therein which would not be excluded under the hearsay rule if given in person shall be admitted into evidence if (1) at least 20 days' written notice of the intention to offer them into evidence was given to the adverse party accompanied by a copy of each document to be offered; (2) the other party does not object to their admission into evidence; and (3) the evidence is offered under oath by the party or witness. An objection must be in writing and served on the proponent of the document within 10 days of the date of service of the notice of intention to offer the evidence. When an objection is properly made, the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence shall apply to determine the admissibility of the document into evidence.

Medical Evidence.

(1) Non-Record Proceeding. In a non-record hearing, if a physician has determined that a medical condition affects a party's ability to earn income and that party obtains a Physician Verification Form from the domestic relations section, has it completed by the party's physician and submits it at the conference, it may be considered by the conference officer. If a party is receiving Social Security disability or workers' compensation benefits, the party shall submit copies of the disability or workers' compensation determination in lieu of the Physician Verification Form.

(2) Record Proceeding. If the matter proceeds to a record hearing and the party wishes to introduce the completed Physician Verification Form into evidence, he or she must serve the form on the other party not later than 20 days after the conference. The other party may file and serve an objection to the introduction of the form within 10 days of the date of service. If an objection is made and the physician testifies, the trier of fact shall have the discretion to allocate the costs of the physician's testimony between the parties. If there is no objection, the form may be admitted into evidence without the testimony of the physician. In the event that the record hearing is held sooner than 30 days after the conference, the trier of fact may provide appropriate relief, such as granting a continuance to the objecting party.

(3) The Physician Verification Form shall be substantially in the following form:

(a) Record Hearing. Except as provided in this rule, the court shall follow the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence in a record hearing conducted in an action for support.

(b) Documentary Evidence.

(1) The court shall admit into evidence statements contained in a verified petition, affidavit, document, or a document incorporated by reference that would not be excluded under the hearsay rule if the declarant testified in person, when:

(i) the proponent has provided the other party written notice at least 20 days prior to the hearing of the intention to offer the document into evidence, together with the document to be offered;

(ii) the other party does not object to the document's admission into evidence; and

(iii) the proponent offers the evidence under oath.

(2) A party objecting pursuant to subdivision (b)(1)(ii) shall serve the proponent with the written objection within 10 days of the date of service of the notice of intention to offer the evidence.

(3) If a party properly objects, the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence shall apply to determine the document's admissibility.

(c) Medical Evidence.

(1) Definition. For the purpose of this rule, an "advanced practice provider" shall mean a licensed physician, physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, psychiatrist, or psychologist.

If a party is receiving Social Security disability or Workers' Compensation benefits, the party shall submit the disability or Workers' Compensation determination in lieu of the Advanced Practice Provider's Form.

(3) Record Hearing.

(i) Prior to the record hearing, if a party intends to offer a completed Advanced Practice Provider's Statement Form into evidence, the party shall serve the completed form on the other party no later than 20 days after the conference. The other party may file and serve a written objection to the completed form's introduction within 10 days of the date of service.

(ii) If a party properly objects, the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence shall apply to determine the document's admissibility. If the advanced practice provider is required to testify, the trier-of-fact shall have the discretion to allocate the cost of the advanced practice provider's testimony between the parties.

(iii) If there is no objection, the trier-of-fact may admit the completed form into evidence without the advanced practice provider's testimony.

(iv) If the record hearing is held sooner than 30 days after the conference, the trier-of-fact may provide appropriate relief, including granting a continuance to the objecting party.

Comment: This rule is based on 23 Pa.C.S. § 4342(f). The rule is not intended to affect 23 Pa.C.S. § 4342(g) - (h), relating to the admissibility of payment records, billing statements, and bills for genetic testing and prenatal and postnatal health care of the mother and child. Those documents are admissible into evidence without advance notice for the limited purposes set forth in the statute.

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment—2000

23 Pa.C.S. § 4342(f) creates a hearsay exception in support actions to permit a verified petition, affidavit or document and a document incorporated by reference in any of them to be admitted into evidence if it would not otherwise be excluded as hearsay if given in person and it is admitted under oath by a party or witness to the support action. Rule 1910.29 requires that notice of the documents to be admitted be given to the other party prior to the hearing. It also sets forth the procedures for raising an objection to the admission of those documents.

If the requisite 20-day notice is given and there is no objection, the document must be admitted into evidence under this rule and 23 Pa.C.S. § 4342(f). In the event an objection is timely made, the rules of evidence apply to determine the document's ultimate admissibility.

Rule 1910.29 is not intended to affect 23 Pa.C.S. § 4342(g) and (h) relating to admissibility of payment records, billing statements and bills for genetic testing and prenatal and postnatal health care of the mother and child. Those documents are admissible into evidence without advance notice for the limited purposes which are expressly set forth in those statutory provisions.

SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA DOMESTIC RELATIONS PROCEDURAL RULES COMMITTEE

ADOPTION REPORT

Amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.1, 1910.11, 1910.12, 1910.16-1, 1910.16-2, 1910.16-3, 1910.16-3.1, 1910.16-4, 1910.16-5, 1910.16-6, 1910.16-7, 1910.19, 1910.21, 1910.27, and 1910.29

On August 11, 2025, the Supreme Court amended Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1910.1, 1910.11, 1910.12, 1910.16-1, 1910.16-2, 1910.16-3, 1910.16-3.1, 1910.16-4, 1910.16-5, 1910.16-6, 1910.16-7, 1910.19, 1910.21, 1910.27, and 1910.29 as part of the quadrennial support guidelines review. The Domestic Relations Procedural Rules Committee has prepared this Adoption Report describing the rulemaking process. An Adoption Report should not be confused with Comments to the rules. See Pa.R.J.A. 103, cmt. The statements contained herein are those of the Committee, not the Court.

Pennsylvania's support guidelines are subject to review every four years. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 4322(a); 45 C.F.R. § 302.56(e). The Committee is tasked with conducting that review. See Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16.1(e). As with previous reviews, the Committee was assisted in its review by Jane Venohr, Ph.D., an economist with the Center for Policy Research. Dr. Venohr's services were contracted through the Pennsylvania Bureau of Child Support Enforcement.

As has been the practice in prior reviews, the Committee incorporated other proposed amendments to the support procedures into the guidelines proposal. This approach was intended to avoid piecemeal amendments to the support rules. The Committee published the proposal for comment. See 54 Pa.B. 8395 (December 28, 2024).<sup>1</sup>

Through this Adoption Report, the Committee intends to explain any substantive revisions between the amendments proposed for comment and the amendments adopted by the Court. If there has not been a substantive revision to an aspect of the proposal, readers are referred to the Publication Report accompanying the proposal for a discussion of the rationale.

Dr. Venohr authored a report, which can be found on the Committee's website: <https://www.pacourts.us/courts/supreme-court/committees/rules-committees/domestic-relations-procedural-rules-committee>. The report concluded that Pennsylvania meets the federal requirements of state guidelines. Report, at p. 5. The guidelines' schedule is being updated based on more current data on price levels and the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

As an anticipated compliance matter, the Committee proposed amending Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2 to add "incarceration" to subdivision (d)(2)(i) (Involuntary Income Reduction) and to rescind subdivision (d)(2)(ii) containing the "exception[s]." To provide rationale for this amendment within the rule, the Comment has been revised post-publication to add: "Concerning subdivision (d)(2)(i) and the inclusion of 'incarceration,' see 45 C.F.R. § 302.56(c)(3) ('[I]ncarceration may not be treated as voluntary unemployment in establishing or modifying support orders.')."

The Committee proposed amending Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11(c) and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(b) to add a requirement that the parties exchange copies of their documents prior to or at the conference. While some commenters were supportive of the proposal, the Committee was made aware of the potential risk involved with domestic violence victims, anticipated noncompliance, and operational issues involved with the document exchange requirement. Weighing the comments, the Committee discontinued its recommendation of the proposal. Instead, if the parties wished to obtain the source documents, they may seek a separate listing and discovery pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11(j) (2) and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.12(c)(3).

The Committee also sought input on whether Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(d)(2)(i), concerning involuntary income reduction, should specifically address whether terminating employment for a "necessitous and compelling reason" should be treated as an involuntary income reduction. See, e.g., Beachem v. UCBR, 760 A.2d 68 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2000) (child needing the emotional and psychological support of a parent may be a "necessitous and compelling reason" to voluntarily terminate employment). If a parent terminates employment for a "necessitous and compelling reason," the parent may be entitled to receive unemployment compensation under the Unemployment Compensation Law, see 43 P.S. § 802(b), assuming the parent meets all other qualifications, see id. § 801. If the parent receives unemployment compensation, it is income for support purposes. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 4302 (defining "income"). There may also be a scenario when a parent is not qualified to receive unemployment compensation but would otherwise have a "necessitous and compelling reason" for not being employed.

There was support for the concept of this proposal, but additional refinements were deemed necessary so that it stands on its own lest it becomes unintentionally subjugated by unemployment compensation jurisprudence. Accordingly, this aspect will be further considered through separate rulemaking.

In 2022, Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(d)(4) and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6(a) were amended to permit the consideration and allocation of hypothetical child care expenses when an earning capacity is determined. See 51 Pa.B. 5539 (September 4, 2021). In 2024, the rules were amended to provide additional clarification. See 54 Pa.B. 7348 (November 9, 2024). Through the current guidelines proposal, the Committee proposed amendments seeking to further clarify the rules and their application.

The Committee received several comments objecting to the discretionary allocation of hypothetical child care expenses. However, these comments did not offer an alternative method to account for such expenses when an earning capacity is determined.

The substance of the proposed amendments of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(d), Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-5, and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-6(a) have been adopted. The Committee intends to continue to study hypothetical child care expenses, as well as the factors in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-2(d)(ii) and their application.

The Committee proposed to remove the requirement in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.16-3.1(b)(2)(iii) that the trier-of-fact consider the parties' expense statements required by Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11(c)(2) and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(c)(2)(B). The Committee also proposed a corollary amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.27(c)(2)(A)-(c)(2)(B) concerning the use and forms of expense statements in support proceedings, and Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.11(c)(2). Based upon the irreconcilable opinions of commenters, the Committee discontinued this proposal. The adjudicatory process, rather than the rulemaking process, appeared to be the better forum for resolution.

As part of the guidelines proposal, the Committee republished a proposed amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.29, including a new version of the "Advanced Practice Provider's Statement" form. An aspect of the amendment would require the exchange of the completed form at the support conference.

A commenter objected to the exchange requirement on the same grounds as the proposed requirement to exchange financial source documents at conference. That requirement has been removed from Pa.R.Civ.P. 1910.29.

These amendments become effective on January 1, 2026.

APPELLATE COURT PROCEDURAL RULES COMMITTEE ADOPTION REPORT

Amendment of Pa.R.A.P. 511 and 1113

On July 15, 2025, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania amended Pennsylvania Rules of Appellate Procedure 511 and 1113. The Appellate Court Procedural Rules Committee has prepared this Adoption Report describing the rulemaking process. An Adoption Report should not be confused with Comments to the rules. See Pa.R.J.A. 103, cmt. The statements contained herein are those of the Committee, not the Court.

In Kramer v. Nationwide Property and Casualty Insurance Co., 313 A.3d 1031 (Pa. 2024), the Supreme Court noted that guidance related to the timing of filing a protective cross-petition for allowance of appeal was set forth in the commentary to Pa.R.A.P. 511 governing cross-appeals, but similar guidance was not provided in the commentary to Pa.R.A.P. 1113 governing cross-petitions for allowance of appeal, and referred the matter to the Committee. Id. 1044 n.17. The commentary to Pa.R.A.P. 511 relevant to the Court's referral provided:

If, however, an intermediate appellate court awards different relief than the trial court or other government unit, a party may wish to file a cross-petition for allowance of appeal under Pa.R.A.P. 1112. See, e.g., Meyer, Darragh, Buckler, Bebenek & Eck, P.L.L.C. v. Law Firm of Malone Middleman, P.C., 179 A.3d 1093, 1098 & n.5 (Pa. 2018); Meyer, Darragh, Buckler, Bebenek & Eck, P.L.L.C. v. Law Firm of Malone Middleman, P.C., 137 A.3d 1247 (Pa. 2016).

Pa.R.A.P. 511, cmt.

Following review, this commentary has been removed from Pa.R.A.P. 511 and a reference to the comment to Pa.R.A.P. 1113 has been added. Commentary has also been added to Pa.R.A.P. 1113 to describe the circumstances when a protective cross-petition for allowance of appeal should be filed as discussed in Kramer. Stylistic revisions have also been made to both rules.

The amendments were not published for comment because they are technical in nature and do not affect practice or procedure. The amendments become effective on October 1, 2025.

Rule 511. Cross-Appeals.

The timely filing of an appeal shall extend the time for any other party to cross-appeal as set forth in Pa.R.A.P. 903(b) (cross-appeals), 1113(b) (cross-petitions for allowance of appeal), and 1512(a)(2) (cross-petitions for review). The discontinuance of an appeal by a party shall not affect the right of appeal or cross-appeal of any other party regardless of whether the parties are adverse. [Note] Comment: See also Pa.R.A.P. 2113, 2136, and 2185 regarding briefs in cross-appeals and Pa.R.A.P. 2322 regarding oral argument in multiple appeals.

An appellee should not be required to file a cross-appeal because the court below ruled against it on an issue, as long as the judgment granted appellee the relief it sought. See Lebanon Valley Farmers Bank v. Commonwealth, 83 A.3d 107, 112 (Pa. 2013); Basile v. H & R Block, Inc., 973 A.2d 417, 421 (Pa. 2009). For discussion of cross-petitions for allowance of appeal, see Pa.R.A.P. 1113, cmt.

[If, however, an intermediate appellate court awards different relief than the trial court or other government unit, a party may wish to file a cross-petition for allowance of appeal under Pa.R.A.P. 1112. See, e.g., Meyer, Darragh, Buckler, Bebenek & Eck, P.L.L.C. v. Law Firm of Malone Middleman, P.C., 179 A.3d 1093, 1098 & n.5 (Pa. 2018); Meyer, Darragh, Buckler, Bebenek & Eck, P.L.L.C. v. Law Firm of Malone Middleman, P.C., 137 A.3d 1247 (Pa. 2016).]

In deciding whether to cross-appeal, parties may also consider that appellate courts have discretion, but are not required, to affirm for any reason appearing in the record. See Commonwealth v. Fant, 146 A.3d 1254, 1265 n.13 (Pa. 2016); Pa. Dept. of Banking v. NCAS of Del., LLC, 948 A.2d 752, 762 (Pa. 2008); Am. Future Sys., Inc. v. Better Bus. Bureau of E. Pa., 923 A.2d 389, 401 (Pa. 2007).

SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA ORPHANS' COURT PROCEDURAL RULES COMMITTEE

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULEMAKING

Proposed Amendment of Rules 4.5, 4.6, 15.4, 15.7, 15.8, 15.9, 15.10, and 15.13 and Adoption of Form A-13 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Orphans' Court Procedure

The Orphans' Court Procedural Rules Committee is considering proposing to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania the amendment of Rules 4.5, 4.6, 15.4, 15.7, 15.8, 15.9, 15.10, and 15.13 and the Adoption of Form A-13 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Orphans' Court Procedure for the reasons set forth in the accompanying Publication Report. Pursuant to Pa.R.J.A. 103(a)(1), the proposal is being published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin for comments, suggestions, or objections prior to submission to the Supreme Court.

Any report accompanying this proposal was prepared by the Committee to indicate the rationale for the proposed rulemaking. It will neither constitute a part of the rules nor be officially adopted by the Supreme Court.

Additions to the text of the proposal are bolded and underlined; deletions to the text are bolded and bracketed.

The Committee invites all interested persons to submit comments, suggestions, or objections in writing to:

Rule 4.5. Service of Legal Paper by Court and Clerk.

(a) [The] Except as provided in subdivision (c), the clerk and the court may serve all notices, opinions, and orders via electronic means [where any one of the following has occurred] if:

- (1) the parties have agreed to receipt of legal paper by electronic transmission;
- (2) the underlying legal paper related to the notice, opinion or order was electronically filed; or
- (3) an email address appears on an entry of appearance or other legal paper previously filed with the clerk in the action.

(b) [The] Except as provided in subdivision (c), the clerk and the court may serve all notices, opinions, and orders by facsimile in accordance with [Rule 4.3(c)] Pa.R.O.C.P. 4.3(c).

(c) This rule does not apply to the service of hearing notices and scheduling orders that have been waived pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1), (b)(2), or (b)(3)(iii).

[Note: Rule 4.5] Comment: Pa.R.O.C.P. 4.5 is based upon former [Rule 3.7(i)] Pa.R.O.C.P. 3.7(i); it has been reformatted and relocated to this Chapter IV. The rule differs from its counterpart in former Rule 3.7(i) in several respects. First, this rule permits the clerk and the court to serve not only notices, but also opinions and orders, via electronic means as well as by facsimile. Second, it provides that the clerk and court are permitted to send notices, opinions, and orders via electronic means if the underlying legal paper was filed electronically. Service from the court and clerk can occur even if the local judicial district has not implemented electronic filing.

Subdivision (c) pertains to the service of a notice of a hearing to terminate parental rights pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1), (b)(2), or (b)(3)(iii). In some judicial districts, a hearing notice may be known as a "scheduling order." Any person entitled to notice of the hearing may waive in writing such notice, except for: (1) a petitioning birth parent in a voluntary termination of parental rights proceeding pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7 or 15.8; or (2) a person who is the subject of an involuntary termination of parental rights proceeding and whose parental rights are sought to be terminated pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.10.

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment: This Rule 4.5 differs from its counterpart in former Rule 3.7(i) in several respects: first, this Rule permits the clerk and court to serve not only notices, but also opinions and orders, via electronic means as well as by facsimile; and second, it provides that the clerk and court are able to send notices, opinions, and orders via electronic means if the underlying legal paper was filed electronically. Service from the court and clerk as provided in Rule 4.5 can occur even if the local judicial district has not implemented electronic filing.

Rule 4.6. Notice of the Date of Entry of an Adjudication or Court Order on the Docket.

(a) [The] Except as provided in subdivision (c), the clerk shall immediately give written notice of the entry of an adjudication or court order in a particular matter to each interested party's counsel of record or, if unrepresented, to each interested party. The notice shall include a copy of the adjudication or court order.

(b) The clerk shall note in the docket the date when notice was given to the interested party or to his or her counsel under [subparagraph (a) of this Rule] subdivision (a).

(c) This rule does not apply to the service of hearing notices and scheduling orders that have been waived pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1), (b)(2), or (b)(3)(iii).

[Note: Rule 4.6] Comment: This rule has no counterpart in the former Orphans' Court [Rule] Rules, but is derived from [Pa.R.C.P. No. 236.] Pa.R.Civ.P. 236.

Subdivision (c) pertains to the service of a notice of a hearing to terminate parental rights pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1), (b)(2), or (b)(3)(iii). In some judicial districts, a hearing notice may be known as a "scheduling order." Any person entitled to notice of the hearing to terminate parental rights may waive in writing such notice, except for: (1) a petitioning birth parent in a voluntary termination of parental rights proceeding pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7 or 15.8; or (2) a person who is the subject of an involuntary termination of parental rights proceeding and whose parental rights are sought to be terminated pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.10.

Rule 15.4. Notice of Hearing to Terminate Parental Rights; Method and Time.

(a) [Contents of Notice; Service of Notice and Copies to Others.] Form and Service of Notice.

(1) For a petition filed under [Rule 15.7] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7, [() relating to Voluntary Relinquishment to Agency], or [Rule 15.8] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.8, [() relating to Voluntary Relinquishment to Adult Intending to Adopt Child], notice shall be in the form and served upon the individuals as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(b), except for a petitioning birth parent who is self-represented.

(2) For a petition filed under [Rule 15.9] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.9 (relating to Alternative Procedure for Relinquishment by Confirmation of Consent to Adoption), notice shall be in the form and served upon the individuals as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. § 2513(b) and served upon the individuals as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. § 2504(b).

(3) For a petition filed under [Rule 15.10] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.10 (relating to Involuntary Termination of Parental Rights), notice shall be in the form and served upon the individuals as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. § 2513(b).

(b) Method of [Notice] Service.

(1) Voluntary Relinquishment.

(i) Generally. For a proceeding under [Rule 15.7] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7 (relating to Voluntary Relinquishment to Agency) or [Rule 15.8] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.8, [() relating to Voluntary Relinquishment to Adult Intending to Adopt Child], every person whose parental rights are sought to be terminated in the proceeding and any other person entitled to notice under 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(b) shall be provided served by the petitioner with notice of the hearing by one of the following means:

(A) personal service;

(B) registered or certified mail with delivery restricted to the addressee only and a return receipt requested, or first-class United States mail postage prepaid, mailed to the person's residence, location where he or she is known to be staying, or business where he or she is known to be currently employed;

(C) electronic transmission provided such person has signed a writing consenting that notice be sent by electronic transmission, providing an electronic mail address or social media account to which such notice shall be sent, and verifying that he or she regularly accesses and reviews such electronic mail address or social media account; or

(D) such other means including electronic transmission as the court may require under the facts of the individual case.

(ii) [Any] Waiver. Except for a petitioning birth parent, any person entitled to notice of the hearing may waive in writing such notice by filing the form provided in the Appendix to these rules and serving it on the petitioner and any other person entitled to the notice.

(2) Alternative Procedure for Relinquishment.

(i) Generally. For a proceeding under [Rule 15.9] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.9, [() relating to confirming consent as an Alternative Procedure for Relinquishment], every person whose parental rights are sought to be terminated in the proceeding and any other person entitled to notice under 23 Pa.C.S. § 2504(b) shall be provided served by the petitioner with notice of the hearing by one of the following means:

(A) personal service;

(B) registered or certified mail with delivery restricted to the addressee only and a return receipt requested mailed to the person's residence, location where he or she is known to be staying, or business where he or she is known to be currently employed;

(C) electronic transmission provided such person has signed a writing consenting that notice be sent by electronic transmission, providing an electronic mail address or social media account to which such notice shall be sent, and verifying that he or she regularly accesses and reviews such electronic mail address or social media account; or

(D) such other means including electronic transmission as the court may require under the facts of the individual case.

(ii) Waiver. Any person entitled to notice of the hearing may waive in writing such notice by filing the form provided in the Appendix to these rules and serving it on the petitioner and any other person entitled to the notice.

(3) Involuntary Termination of Parental Rights.

(A)(i) Generally. For a proceeding under [Rule 15.10] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.10, [() relating to Involuntary Termination of Parental Rights], every person entitled to notice as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. § 2513(b) shall be provided served by the petitioner with notice of the hearing by one of the following means:

(A) personal service;

(B) registered or certified mail with delivery restricted to the addressee only and a return receipt requested mailed to the person's residence, location where he or she is known to be staying, or business where he or she is known to be currently employed; or

(C) such other means including electronic transmission as the court may require under the facts of the individual case.

(B)(ii)Petition. If the identity and location of the person whose parental rights are sought to be involuntarily terminated are known or can be determined after reasonable investigation, a copy of the petition for involuntary termination of parental rights shall be attached to the notice required by 23 Pa.C.S. § 2513(b).

(C)(iii)Waiver. A person who is not the subject of the proceeding and whose parental rights are not sought to be terminated in the proceeding but who is entitled to receive notice of the hearing under 23 Pa.C.S. § 2513(b) may waive in writing such notice by filing the form provided in the Appendix to these rules and serving it on the petitioner and any other person entitled to the notice.

(4)(c)Service by Publication. If service cannot be obtained upon the person whose parental rights are sought to be terminated either because service is refused or unsuccessful and no alternative service is directed by the court or because the person's identity or whereabouts are unknown after reasonable investigation, then [notice] service by publication shall be [given] made by the petitioner as directed by the court, after a motion in accordance with [Pa.R.C.P. No. 430(a)] Pa.R.Civ.P. 430(a) and upon a finding by the court that a reasonable investigation was made.

(A)(1) In addition to any other requirements that may be imposed by the court, the publication notice shall include the last name of the birth mother, the date of the child's birth, the place of the child's birth and the child's gender. The publication notice shall include the contents of the notice required by 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(b) or 23 Pa.C.S. § 2513(b), as applicable, but shall not include notice of the opportunity for a birth relative of the child to enter into a Contact Agreement.

(B)(2) The publication notice shall direct the person whose parental rights are sought to be terminated to contact the petitioner or counsel for the petitioner as set forth in the notice to obtain a copy of the petition prior to the hearing.

(C)(3) Publication shall occur once in a newspaper of general circulation for the county where the birth parent whose rights are sought to be terminated resides, or if not known, the place where the child was conceived.

(5)(d)Other Persons Entitled to Notice. If service cannot be obtained upon a person who is not the subject of the proceeding and whose parental rights are not sought to be terminated in the proceeding but who is entitled to receive notice of the hearing under 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(b), § 2504(b), or § 2513(b), and service could not be obtained either because service is refused or unsuccessful or because the person's identity or whereabouts are unknown after reasonable investigation, no further service of the notice shall be required.

(6)(e)Service of Other Legal Papers. Once service has been obtained in a manner as provided upon the person whose parental rights are sought to be terminated, all persons entitled to receive any subsequent legal paper or notice may be served by hand delivery, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the person's last known residence, location where he or she is known to be staying or business where he or she is known to be currently employed, by electronic transmission provided such person has signed a writing consenting that notice be sent by electronic transmission, providing an electronic mail address or social media account to which such notice shall be sent, and verifying that he or she regularly accesses and reviews such electronic mail address or social media account, or to the person's counsel of record, if represented.

(c)(f)Timing of Notice. Notice of the hearing shall be provided served at least [10] ten days prior to the date of the hearing.

(g) Revocation of Waiver.

(1) Any person who waives service of the hearing notice pursuant to subdivision (b) (1), (b)(2), or (b)(3)(iii) may subsequently revoke the waiver by filing a written revocation of the waiver and serving it on the petitioner and any other person entitled to the notice.

(2) Revocation of a waiver of service of the hearing notice does not affect the validity of a consent given pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 2504.

Comment: A petitioning birth parent who is self-represented in a proceeding under Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7 (Voluntary Relinquishment to Agency) or Pa.R.O.C.P 15.8 (Voluntary Relinquishment to Adult Intending to Adopt Child) is not required to serve notice of the hearing upon himself or herself. All other circumstances require service of notice of the hearing on a petitioning birth parent, including by an agency, a third party, or counsel for the petitioning birth parent.

A petitioning birth parent in a voluntary relinquishment proceeding may not waive service of the hearing notice because the petitioning birth parent is required to be at the hearing and be available to be examined under oath. See Pa.R.O.C.P. Rules 15.7(c)(3), 15.8(c)(3). Similarly, a person who is the subject of an involuntary termination of parental rights proceeding and whose parental rights are sought to be terminated pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.10 may not waive service of the hearing notice.

A waiver of service of the hearing notice does not apply to any other legal papers or orders issued in the proceeding, including, but not limited to, a termination order, a notice of the right to file medical, personal or social history information with the court or Department, or a Contact Agreement.

As used in this rule, personal service means service by handing a copy to the person entitled to notice.

the person or agency in the judicial district from whom information as to the availability of legal assistance may be obtained. The court shall appoint counsel for a parent whose rights are subject to termination in an involuntary termination proceeding, if upon petition of the parent, the court determines that the parent is unable to pay for counsel or that payment would result in substantial financial hardship. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2313(a.1); Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.10(d)(2). See also Pa.R.O.C.P. 1.40 (pertaining to petitions to proceed in forma pauperis).

See Pa.R.Civ.P. 430(a) regarding the averments necessary in a motion for alternative service if service cannot otherwise be accomplished. If the motion under Pa.R.Civ.P. 430(a) avers sufficient facts and includes sufficient supporting exhibits to establish that a reasonable investigation was made to ascertain the identity or whereabouts of the subject birth parent, the court need not conduct a hearing on the motion, but shall issue an order directing alternative service, including service by electronic transmission or publication.

The PACFile electronic filing system, developed and administered by the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts, does not provide notice of the hearing that is compliant with the requirements of subdivisions (b)(1)(iii) and (b)(2)(iii), unless a person consents in writing to notices being sent by electronic transmission. In the alternative, a court may, per subdivisions (b)(1)(iv), (b)(2)(iv), and (b)(3)(i)(C), and dependent upon the facts of an individual case, permit notification of the hearing by PACFile without requiring consent in writing that the notice be sent by electronic transmission.

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment: The notice required by subparagraph (a)(3) advises a parent whose rights are subject to termination in an involuntary termination proceeding that he or she has the right to be represented at the hearing by a lawyer. The notice includes the contact information for the person or agency in the judicial district from whom information as to the availability of legal help may be obtained. The court shall appoint counsel for a parent whose rights are subject to termination in an involuntary termination proceeding, if upon petition of the parent, the court determines that the parent is unable to pay for counsel or that payment would result in substantial financial hardship. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2313(a.1); Rule 15.10(d)(2).

Personal service in the context of this Rule means service by handing a copy to the person entitled to notice.

See Pa.R.C.P. No. 76 that certified mail is the equivalent of registered mail.

See also Pa.R.C.P. No. 430(a) regarding the averments necessary in a motion for alternative service if service cannot otherwise be accomplished. If the motion under Pa.R.C.P. No. 430(a) avers sufficient facts and includes sufficient supporting exhibits to establish that a reasonable investigation was made to ascertain the identity or whereabouts of the subject birth parent, the court need not conduct a hearing on the motion, but shall issue an order directing alternative service, including service by electronic transmission or publication.

The PACFile electronic filing system, developed and administered by the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts, does not provide notice of the hearing that is compliant with the requirements of (b)(1)(C) and (b)(2)(C), unless a person consents in writing to notices being sent by electronic transmission. In the alternative, a court may, per subparagraphs (b)(1)(D), (b)(2)(D), and (b)(3)(A)(iii) and dependent upon the facts of an individual case, permit notification of the hearing by PACFile without requiring consent in writing that the notice be sent by electronic transmission.

Rule 15.7. Voluntary Relinquishment to Agency.

(a) Petition. A petition under 23 Pa.C.S. § 2501 to relinquish parental rights and duties with respect to a child who has been in the care of an agency shall contain the following averments:

- (1) the name, address, age, and racial background of each petitioner;
- (2) the information required in [subparagraph (1)] subdivision (a)(1) as to any parent who is not a petitioner, including the birth father, presumptive father, and putative father, or the reasons why the court should find such information is not necessary;
- (3) the marital status of the mother as of the time of the child's birth and during one year prior thereto, and her maiden name;
- (4) the name, age, date of birth, place of birth, racial background, and gender of the child;
- (5) the name and address of the agency having care of the child;
- (6) the date when the child was placed with the agency;
- (7) the reasons for seeking relinquishment;
- (8) whether each petitioner has been informed of counseling services concerning the termination of parental rights and the alternatives thereto and provided with a list of qualified counselors and counseling services;
- (9) whether each petitioner has received any counseling concerning the termination of parental rights and the alternatives thereto and, if so, the name of the organization or qualified counselor providing such counseling services;
- (10) whether each petitioner has been informed of the opportunity for a birth relative of the child, including the petitioner, to enter into a Contact Agreement with the Prospective Adoptive Parents, once identified;

(11) whether the agency's consent to accept custody of the child until such time as the child is adopted is attached to the petition; and

(12) that each petitioner understands the petition, has considered the alternatives, and has executed the petition voluntarily.

(b) Exhibits. The following exhibits shall be attached to the petition:

(1) Documentation signed by each petitioner as required by 23 Pa.C.S. § 2501(a).

(2) A verified statement from a representative of the agency, counsel for the agency, or counsel representing any other party that written notice was provided to the [petitioner] petitioning birth parent regarding the opportunity [of] for a birth relative to enter into a Contact Agreement, that such notice was provided [by hand delivery, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address, or by electronic transmission in accordance with Rule 15.4(b)(1)(C)] pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(e), and the [date(s)] date that such notice was given. A copy of the notice shall accompany this verified statement.

(3) If, as part of the hearing on the petition, the parental rights of a putative father could be terminated pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(d), and if written notice of the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement has been provided to the putative father in advance of the petition's filing, a verified statement from a representative of the agency, counsel for the agency, or counsel representing any other party that written notice was provided to the putative father regarding the opportunity of a birth relative to enter into a Contact Agreement, that such notice was provided [by hand delivery, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address, or by electronic transmission in accordance with Rule 15.4(b)(1)(C)] pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(e), and the [date(s)] date that such notice was given[,] or the [reasons] reason why such notice cannot be given, including efforts made to identify or locate the subject person. If notice was given, a copy of the notice shall accompany this verified statement.

(4) The joinder or consent of the agency having care of the child, including its consent to accept custody of the child until such time as the child is adopted.

(c) Hearing and Decree.

(1) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be provided in accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(b), and in accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(d) if the rights of a putative father are to be terminated as part of the same proceeding, and shall be served in accordance with [Rule 15.4(b)(1)] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1).

(2) On or before the hearing, the court shall be presented with a certificate of service stating that notice of the hearing on the petition was [given to] served on the petitioner and all others entitled to a copy of the notice in accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503 and [Rule 15.4(b)(1)] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1).

(3) The [petitioner] petitioning birth parent voluntarily relinquishing his or her parental rights shall be present at the hearing and available to be examined under oath.

(4) If as part of hearing on the petition, the parental rights of a putative father could be terminated pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(d), and if notice of the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement was not provided to the subject putative father prior to the petition's filing, then on or before the hearing, the court shall be presented with a verified statement from a representative of the agency, counsel for the agency, or counsel representing any other party that written notice was provided to the subject putative father regarding the opportunity of a birth relative to enter into a Contact Agreement, that such notice was provided by hand delivery, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address, or by electronic transmission in accordance with Rule 15.4(b)(1)(C)] pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(e), and the [date(s)] date that such notice was given or the [reasons] reason why such notice cannot be given, including efforts made to identify or locate the subject person. If notice was given, a copy of the notice shall accompany this verified statement.

Comment: The agency, the intermediary, or an attorney for a party shall provide notice of the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement to the Prospective Adoptive Parents, a birth parent, and, in some instances, a child. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2733(c). Notice to a birth relative who is not a birth parent is not statutorily required, although a birth relative may enter and become a party to a Contact Agreement.

An original birth certificate or certification of registration of the child's birth must be filed with the clerk by the time of filing the initial petition to terminate parental rights. See Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.3(b).

A petitioning birth parent who is self-represented in a proceeding under this rule is not required to serve notice of the hearing upon himself or herself. See Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1). All other circumstances require service of notice of the hearing on a petitioning birth parent, including by counsel of the petitioning birth parent.

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment: Section 2733(c) of the Adoption Act requires the agency, the intermediary or an attorney for a party to provide notice of the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement to the Prospective Adoptive Parents, a birth parent, and, in some instances, a child.

Rule 15.8. Voluntary Relinquishment to Adult Intending to Adopt Child.

(a) Petition. A petition under 23 Pa.C.S. § 2502 to relinquish parental rights with respect to a child who has been in the exclusive care of Prospective Adoptive Parents shall contain the following averments:

- (1) the name, address, age, and racial background of each petitioner;
- (2) the information required in [subparagraph (1)] subdivision (a)(1) as to any parent who is not a petitioner, including the birth father, presumptive father, and putative father, or the reasons why the court should find such information is not necessary;
- (3) the marital status of the mother as of the time of the child's birth and during one year prior thereto, and her maiden name;
- (4) the name, age, date of birth, place of birth, racial background, and gender of the child;
- (5) the date when the child was placed with the Prospective Adoptive Parents;
- (6) the date when the Report of Intention to Adopt was filed;
- (7) the reasons for seeking relinquishment;
- (8) whether each petitioner has been informed of counseling services concerning the termination of parental rights and the alternatives thereto and provided with a list of qualified counselors and counseling services;
- (9) whether each petitioner has received any counseling concerning the termination of parental rights and the alternatives thereto and, if so, the name of the organization or qualified counselor providing such counseling services;
- (10) whether each petitioner has been informed of the opportunity for a birth relative of the child, including the petitioner, to enter into a Contact Agreement with the Prospective Adoptive Parents;
- (11) whether a Report of Intention to Adopt under 23 Pa.C.S. § 2531 or an adoption petition under [Rule 15.13] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.13 has been filed;
- (12) whether the Prospective Adoptive Parents' consent to accept custody of the child until such time as the child is adopted is attached to the petition; and
- (13) that each petitioner understands the petition, has considered the alternatives, and has executed the petition voluntarily.

(b) Exhibits. The following exhibits shall be attached to the petition:

- (1) A verified statement from a representative of the agency or intermediary, counsel for the agency or intermediary, or counsel representing any other party that written notice was provided to the [petitioner] petitioning birth parent regarding the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement, that such notice was provided [by hand delivery, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address, or by electronic transmission in accordance with Rule 15.4(b)(1)(C)] pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(e), and the [date(s)] date that such notice was given. A copy of the notice shall accompany this verified statement.
- (2) If, as part of the hearing on the petition, the parental rights of a putative father could be terminated pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(d), and if written notice of the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement has been provided to the putative father in advance of the petition's filing, a verified statement from a representative of the agency or intermediary, counsel for the agency or intermediary, or counsel representing any other party that written notice was provided to the putative father regarding the opportunity of a birth relative to enter into a Contact Agreement, that such notice was provided [by hand delivery, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address, or by electronic transmission in accordance with Rule 15.4(b)(1)(C)] pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(e), and the [date(s)] date that such notice was given[,] or the [reason(s)] reason why such notice cannot be given, including efforts made to identify or locate the subject person. If notice was given, a copy of the notice shall accompany this verified statement.
- (3) The signed consents of the Prospective Adoptive Parents to accept custody of the child until such time as the adoption is completed.

(c) Hearing and Decree.

(1) Notice of the hearing on the petition shall be provided in accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(b), and in accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(d) if the rights of a putative father are to be terminated as part of the same proceeding, and shall be served in accordance with [Rule 15.4(b)(1)] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1).

(2) On or before the hearing, the court shall be presented with a certificate of service stating that notice of the hearing on the petition was [given to] served on the petitioner and all others entitled to a copy of the notice in accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503 and [Rule 15.4(b)(1)] Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1).

(3) The [petitioner] petitioning birth parent voluntarily relinquishing his or her parental rights shall be present at the hearing and available to be examined under oath.

(4) If as part of hearing on the petition, the parental rights of a putative father could be terminated pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(d), and if notice of the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement was not provided to the subject putative father prior to the petition's filing, then on or before the hearing, the court shall be presented with a verified statement from a representative of the agency or intermediary, counsel for the agency or intermediary, or counsel representing any other party that written notice was provided to the subject putative father regarding the opportunity of a birth relative to enter into a Contact Agreement, that such notice was provided [by hand delivery, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address, or by electronic transmission in accordance with Rule 15.4(b)(1)(C)] pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(e), and the [date(s)] date that such notice was given or the [reason(s)] reason why such notice cannot be given, including efforts made to identify or locate the subject person. If notice was given, a copy of the notice shall accompany this verified statement.

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment: An original birth certificate or certification of registration of the child's birth must be filed with the clerk by the time of filing the initial petition to terminate parental rights. See Rule 15.3(b).

If the petitioner is an agency, Prospective Adoptive Parents need not have been identified prior to the agency's filing of a petition to involuntarily terminate parental rights. Also, an averment of a present intent to adopt the child is not required if the petitioner is an agency. Where petitioner is an individual, see Rule 15.6. Neither the averments nor evidence set forth in subdivisions (a) (13) and (b)(2) are required when the petition has been filed by a parent seeking to involuntarily terminate the parental rights of the other parent pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 2511(a)(7) (relating to a child conceived as a result of a rape or incest). See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2514. Section 2733(c) of the Adoption Act requires the agency or intermediary, counsel representing the agency or intermediary, or counsel representing any other party to provide notice to the Prospective Adoptive Parents, birth parents, and, in some instances, a child of the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement. The statute does not require notice to birth relatives who are not the birth parents, although birth relatives may enter into and become parties to a Contact Agreement.

(b) Exhibits. Unless the petition contains averments explaining why an exhibit is not attached, the following exhibits shall be attached to the petition:

(1) Unless previously filed with the clerk where the adoption petition is being filed, a birth certificate or certification of registration of the child's birth.

(2) The consents required by 23 Pa.C.S. § 2711, as applicable.

(3) Unless previously filed, the Report of the Intermediary with the exhibits required under 23 Pa.C.S. § 2534.

(4) The criminal history records information and child abuse clearance certificate for each Prospective Adoptive Parent prepared in accordance with 23 Pa.C.S. § 6344(b).

(5) Copies of any court orders referenced in [subparagraph (a)(11)] subdivision (a)(11).

(6) Written approval by the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children if 62 P.S. §§ 761 et seq. applies to this placement.

(7) A verified statement from a representative of the agency or intermediary, counsel representing the agency or intermediary, or counsel representing any other party that written notice was provided to the Prospective Adoptive Parents and to the minor adoptee, if required by 23 Pa.C.S. § 2733(c), regarding the opportunity to enter into a Contact Agreement, that such notice was provided [by hand delivery, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the last known address, or by electronic transmission in accordance with Rule 15.4(b)(1)(C)] pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(e), and the [date(s)] date that such notice was provided. A copy of the notice shall accompany this verified statement.

Comment: The court, in its discretion, can dispense with any statutory requirement of the Adoption Act for cause shown. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2901. As a result, if the petitioner is unable to satisfy all the prerequisites or attach all the exhibits required by the Adoption Act, the adoption petition should not be summarily dismissed. Rather, the petitioner should be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate why a statutory requirement has not or cannot be met and why the proposed adoptee's best interests nevertheless are served by granting the adoption petition. See In re Adoption of R.B.F. and R.C.F., 803 A.2d 1195 (Pa. 2002). If, upon reviewing the petition's averments as to why a statutory requirement should be waived, the court determines that cause has been demonstrated, the court can grant the relief requested and dispense with the statutory requirement without conducting a hearing. However, if the court is not inclined to waive the statutory requirement, the petitioner is entitled to a hearing and an opportunity to present evidence in support of the averments in the petition. Id.

Subdivision (c)(1) applies if a parent's parental rights are being terminated as part of the hearing on the adoption petition. In such cases, the birth parent, putative father, or presumptive father whose rights are being terminated must receive notice of the adoption hearing in accordance with Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4. ### Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment: The court, in its discretion, can dispense with any statutory requirement of the Adoption Act for cause shown. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2901. As a result, if petitioner is unable to satisfy all the prerequisites or attach all the exhibits required by the Adoption Act, the adoption petition should not be dismissed summarily. Rather, the petitioner should be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate why a statutory requirement has not or cannot be met and why the proposed adoptee's best interests nevertheless are served by granting the adoption petition. In re Adoption of R.B.F. and R.C.F., 803 A.2d 1195 (Pa. 2002). If, upon reviewing the petition's averments as to why a statutory requirement should be waived, the court determines that cause has been demonstrated, the court can grant the relief requested and dispense with the relevant statutory requirement without conducting a hearing. However, if the court is not inclined to waive the pertinent statutory requirement, the petitioner is entitled to a hearing and an opportunity to present evidence in support of the averments in the petition. See In re Adoption of R.B.F. and R.C.F.

Subparagraph (c)(1) of this Rule applies if a parent's parental rights are being terminated as part of the hearing on the adoption petition. In such cases, the birth parent, putative father, or presumptive father whose rights are being terminated must receive notice of the adoption hearing in accordance with Rule 15.4. On the other hand, such persons do not need to be notified of the adoption hearing if (i) he or she previously consented to the adoption and his or her consent was confirmed by the court as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. § 2504 and Rule 15.9; (ii) he or she previously relinquished his or her parental rights as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 2501, 2502 and Rule 15.7 or Rule 15.8 as applicable; or (iii) his or her parental rights were involuntarily terminated by the court as provided in 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 2511 et seq. and Rule 15.10.

WAIVER OF SERVICE OF NOTICE OF HEARING TO TERMINATE PARENTAL RIGHTS

I, _____, am a person entitled to service of the notice of the hearing to terminate parental rights in the above-captioned matter. Pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1), (b)(2), or (b)(3)(iii), I waive my right to have the notice of hearing to terminate parental rights served on me and understand that it means I will not receive notice of the date, time, or location of the termination hearing.

This waiver does not apply to other legal papers that I may be entitled or required by statute or court rule to receive, such as a final termination decree, a notice of the right to file statement of medical, personal, or social history information with the court or the Department of Human Services, or a notice of the right to enter a post-adoption contact agreement pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 2731 et seq. Such legal papers will be served on me pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 4.5, 4.6, and 15.4(e) unless I provide an alternative service address to the clerk and the court or am represented by counsel.

I may subsequently revoke this waiver by filing a written revocation of the waiver and serving it on the petitioner and any other person entitled to the notice. Revocation of a waiver of service of the hearing notice does not affect the validity of a consent given pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 2504.

ORPHANS' COURT PROCEDURAL RULES COMMITTEE PUBLICATION REPORT

Proposed Amendment of Rules 4.5, 4.6, 15.4, 15.7, 15.8, 15.9, 15.10, and 15.13 and Adoption of Form A-13 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Orphans' Court Procedure

The Orphans' Court Procedural Rules Committee is considering proposing to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania the amendment of Rules 4.5, 4.6, 15.4, 15.7, 15.8, 15.9, 15.10, and 15.13 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Orphans' Court Procedure and the adoption of Form A-13. This proposal would clarify requirements for hearing notices in termination of parental rights proceedings.

In 2021, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania adopted a comprehensive rewrite of the Pennsylvania

Rules of Orphans' Court Procedure related to adoption proceedings pursuant to the Adoption Act, 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 2101 – 2938. See 51 Pa.B. 4267 (August 7, 2021). Among other things, the rules established requisite notice procedures for hearings to terminate parental rights, as well as procedures for waiving such notices. See Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4. In the time since the rules took effect, the Committee has received comments relating to the notice and waiver procedures that have initiated this proposed rulemaking.

Hearing Notices to Self-Represented Birth Parents

Parental rights can be terminated in one of three ways: (1) voluntarily with the birth parent petitioning to relinquish parental rights; (2) voluntarily with a third party, such as an intermediary or prospective adoptive parents, seeking court confirmation of a previously executed consent to adoption; or (3) involuntarily by establishing one of several grounds set forth in § 2511 of the Adoption Act. Section 2503 addresses notice of the hearing in voluntary relinquishments; § 2504 addresses notice of the hearing in a confirmation of consent proceeding; and § 2513 sets forth notice requirements in proceedings to involuntarily terminate parental rights. Pursuant to these three statutory sections, the parties are entitled to notice of when and where the hearing to terminate parental rights will be conducted.

The Committee received an inquiry from a jurist relating to voluntary petitions to relinquish parental rights. The judge observed that Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1) and (b)(2) require service of the notice of hearing on "every person whose parental rights are sought to be terminated in the proceeding." It was suggested that the plain language of the rule suggests that a petitioning birth parent must serve the hearing notice upon himself or herself, which is a puzzling requirement to some.

Preliminarily, the Committee observes that § 2503(b)(1) does not make an exception for petitioning birth parents. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(b)(1) ("notice of the hearing shall be given to the petitioner"). The Committee believes that the current notice provisions reflect an agency, intermediary, or prospective adoptive parents or their counsel serving the hearing notice. See also Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7(c)(2) ("[o]n or before the hearing, the court shall be presented with a certificate of service stating that notice of the hearing on the petition was given to the petitioner and all others entitled to a copy."). When a petitioning birth parent makes the filing on his or her own behalf, i.e., without the assistance of counsel, it would seem evident that the petitioner has notice of the hearing if he or she provides notice to others as reflected in the certificate of service and appears at the hearing. The Committee ultimately agreed that Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1) would benefit from clarifying language.

The Committee proposes revising the commentary to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1) as follows:

A petitioning birth parent who is self-represented in a proceeding under Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7 (Voluntary Relinquishment to Agency) or Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.8 (Voluntary Relinquishment to Adult Intending to Adopt Child) is not required to serve notice of the hearing upon himself or herself. All other circumstances require service of notice of the hearing on the petitioning birth parent, including by an agency, a third party, or counsel of the petitioning birth parent.

See proposed Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4, cmt. This commentary cross-references the voluntary relinquishment provisions, i.e., Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7 and Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.8, and reflects that a self-represented petitioning birth parent is not required to serve himself or herself. The Committee further proposes revising the commentary to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4 to explicitly note that service of the hearing notice on a petitioning birth parent is required in all other circumstances, including by counsel of the petitioning birth parent. The Committee also proposes revising the commentary to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.7 and 15.8 in the same manner as Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4 to reflect that it is incumbent upon counsel representing a petitioning birth parent to serve notice of the hearing upon the client.

The Committee acknowledges the tension between the statutory language requiring service of the hearing notice on the petitioner and other named individuals, without exception, and proposed Rule 15.1(b)(1), excusing a self-represented birth parent from serving themselves and documenting it on a certificate of service. However, in much the same way a waiver of service of the hearing notice, see, e.g., Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1), is an exception to the general rule requiring service of the hearing notice, the Committee believes that excusing a petitioning birth parent from serving himself or herself provides a common sense enhancement to the rule without jeopardizing the purpose of the rule – ensuring that all participants know when and where the hearing will be held.

The Committee also recognizes the peculiarity of the need for the petitioning birth parent's counsel to provide a certificate of service regarding service of the hearing notice on his or her own client. Attorneys provide details regarding the time and location of judicial proceedings in all manner of cases without being required to provide a certificate of service for their clients. However, the Committee believed that requiring service of the notice on a petitioning birth parent by their counsel conforms more closely to the statutory language. The Committee specifically invites comments on this aspect of the proposal.

Waiver of Hearing Notices

The Committee also received suggestions relating to a birth parent's right to waive the hearing notice for a termination of parental rights proceeding. It was suggested that, in some instances, a birth parent has waived service of the hearing notice for a voluntary termination proceeding yet still received copies of the hearing notice from the court by mail. A practitioner who contacted the Committee was concerned that legal papers served on a birth parent who has waived notice of the termination hearing are violative of privacy rights and may present a safety risk, e.g., the birth parent may reside with a third party who is not aware of the termination proceeding or may be exposed to violence by an abusive partner.

Currently, Rule 15.4(b)(1) (Voluntary Relinquishment to Agency) and 15.4(b)(2) (Voluntary Relinquishment to Adult Intending to Adopt Child) provide that "[a]ny person entitled to notice of the hearing may waive in writing such notice." See Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1)–(b)(2). However, upon further review, the Committee observed that the petitioning birth parent is required to appear and testify in voluntary relinquishment proceedings. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2503(a); see also Pa.R.O.C.P.

15.7(c)(3), 15.8(c)(3). As a result, the petitioning birth parent should not be permitted to waive notice of the hearing's scheduling; only the other birth parent, putative father, and parents or guardian of a minor petitioning birth parent can waive the right to receive a copy of the notice regarding the hearing on the petitioner's voluntary relinquishment petition.

In contrast, the birth parent is not the petitioner in confirmation and consent proceedings. There is no requirement in the statute or rules pertaining to such proceedings that the birth parent appear and testify. Therefore, in proceedings brought pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. § 2304 and Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.9, any person, including the birth parents, any presumptive birth father, and any putative father, can waive the right to be served with notice of the hearing to confirm consent. The Committee does not believe that such waiver jeopardizes due process rights because, by statute, a birth parent's consent to adoption is irrevocable after 30 days. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2711(c). Further, the waiver cannot be challenged due to fraud or duress after the later of: (1) 60 days after the birth of the child; or (2) the execution of the consent. Id. The Committee was previously advised that confirmation of consent hearings are typically held 60 to 120 days after the execution of the consent.

Finally, in involuntary termination of parental rights proceedings, a person who is not the subject of the proceeding and whose parental rights are not sought to be terminated may waive notice of the termination hearing. See Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(iii). An individual whose rights are to be involuntarily terminated cannot waive the right to receive notice of the hearing and, presumably, would not want to waive such right. Conversely, others who by statute are entitled to receive a copy of the notice about the hearing, namely, a putative father and the parents of a minor parent whose rights are the subject of the termination petition, can waive the right to receive a copy of the hearing notice.

The Committee proposes rule changes to clarify procedures relating to waiver of hearing notices. First, the Committee proposes changes to the rules governing service of legal papers and court orders, Pa.R.O.C.P. 4.5 and 4.6. The Committee was advised that, in some judicial districts, the court also sends hearing notices to the parties. Sometimes, these hearing notices are titled "scheduling orders." For the clerk and the court to honor a request to waive service of a hearing notice, they must first be aware of it. Therefore, a new subdivision (c) was added to Rules 4.5 and 4.6 to provide that: "This rule does not apply to the service of hearing notices and scheduling orders that have been waived pursuant to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1), (b)(2), or (b)(3)." See proposed Pa.R.O.C.P. 4.5(c) and 4.6(c). The commentary to Rules 4.5 and 4.6 provides cross-references to Rules 15.4(b)(1), (b)(2), and (b)(3). The Committee acknowledges that these proposed changes are in tension with the proposed changes to Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4 (b)(1), (b)(2), and (b)(3), which provide that the petitioner shall serve the hearing notice. However, it appears to the Committee that, in some instances, the court is providing the designated parties with a copy of the hearing notice. In an effort to allow the waiver provision to take full effect, the Committee proposes adding provisions relating to the waiver to Rules 4.5 and 4.6.

Second, the Committee proposes amending Rule 15.4 to specify that the petitioning birth parent in a voluntary termination proceeding and the parent who is the subject of an involuntary termination proceeding may not waive service of the hearing notice. See proposed Pa.R.O.C.P. 15.4(b)(1) and (b)(3). Commentary was added to Rule 15.4 to explain that a petitioning birth parent in a voluntary termination proceeding may not waive service of the hearing notice because he or she is required to appear and testify at the hearing. Similarly, commentary was added to explain that a person who is the subject of an involuntary termination proceedings and whose parental rights are sought to be terminated may not waive service of the hearing notice.

The Committee further proposes adding commentary to Rule 15.4 to clarify that a waiver of the hearing notice does not apply to any other legal paper or order issued in the proceeding. While certain individuals may waive notice of the termination hearing, he or she will still be served other papers in the proceeding to which they are entitled, such as a termination order, a notice of the right to file medical, personal, or social history with the Court or Department of Human Services, or a post-adoption contact agreement pursuant to 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 2731 et seq.

New Rule 15.4(g) addresses revocation of the waiver of the hearing notice. Given the high stakes in a termination of parental rights proceeding, the Committee believes that a revocation of the waiver should be permitted. Moreover, the Committee considered that parental consent to relinquishment and adoption is revocable subject to certain time limits. See 23 Pa.C.S. § 2711(b). If a parent can revoke the consent to relinquishment of parental rights and adoption, then they should also be able to revoke a waiver to receive a hearing notice for the termination proceedings. The proposed commentary also reflects that a revocation of the waiver of the notice of the hearing to terminate parental rights does not affect the validity of a consent given pursuant to § 2504.

Finally, the Committee is proposing a new waiver form intended to notify any person who seeks to waive service of the notice of the termination hearing of: (1) the consequences of the waiver; (2) that it does not apply to other legal papers; and (3) that other legal papers will be served in compliance with Pa.R.O.C.P. 4.5, 4.6, and 15.4(e) unless an alternative service address is provided or the person is represented by counsel. By including this information on a waiver form, the Committee intends to ensure that interested persons understand the scope and limitations of the waiver. In addition to substantive revisions, the Committee also proposes stylistic revisions throughout the rules. Corollary amendments to Rules 15.9, 15.10, and 15.13 are proposed to incorporate citation changes made in Rule 15.4.

Proposed Amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1, 1023.2, 1023.3, and 1023.4

The Civil Procedural Rules Committee is considering proposing to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania the amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1, 1023.2, 1023.3, and 1023.4 for the reasons set forth in the accompanying publication report. Pursuant to Pa.R.J.A. 103(a)(1), the proposal is being published in the Pennsylvania Bulletin for comments, suggestions, or objections prior to submission to the Supreme Court.

Any report accompanying this proposal was prepared by the Committee to indicate the rationale for the proposed rulemaking. It will neither constitute a part of the rules nor be adopted by the Supreme Court.

Additions to the text of the proposal are bolded and underlined; deletions to the text are bolded and bracketed.

Historical Commentary

The following commentary is historical in nature and represents statements of the Committee at the time of rulemaking:

Explanatory Comment—2003

I. Obligations under the rule

New Rule 1023.1 requires that a pleading, written motion or other paper directed to the court be signed. The signing, or the filing, submitting or later advocating, a document is a certification as described in the rule. A court may impose sanctions for violation of the certification. Thus the rule imposes the duty on the attorney or, if unrepresented, the party signing the document to satisfy himself or herself that there is a basis in fact and in law for the claim or defense set forth in the document.

Rule 1023.1, therefore, requires some prefilings inquiry into both the facts and the law to satisfy the affirmative duty imposed by the rule. However, this rule is not intended to chill an attorney's enthusiasm or creativity in pursuing factual or legal theories. The standard is one of reasonableness under the circumstances.

A court should avoid using the wisdom of hindsight and should test the signer's conduct by inquiring what was reasonable to believe at the time the pleading, motion, or other paper was submitted. What constitutes a reasonable inquiry depends on factors which may include

- how much time for investigation was available to the signer;
- whether the signer had to rely on a client for information as to the facts underlying the pleading, motion, or other paper;
- whether the pleading, motion, or other paper was based on a plausible view of the law; or
- whether the signer depended on forwarding counsel or another member of the bar.

This rule recognizes that sometimes a litigant may have good reason to believe that a claim or defense is valid but may need discovery, formal or informal, to gather and confirm the evidentiary basis for the claim or defense. If evidentiary support is not obtained after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery, the party has a duty under the rule not to persist with that contention. Rule 1023.1(c) does not require a formal amendment to pleadings for which evidentiary support is not obtained, but rather calls upon a litigant not thereafter to advocate such claims or defenses.

II. Practice under the rule

The rule leaves for resolution on a case-by-case basis, considering the particular circumstances involved, the question as to when Rule 1023.1 should be invoked. Ordinarily the written notice and demand for withdrawal or correction of the paper should be served promptly after the inappropriate paper is filed, and, if delayed too long, may be viewed as untimely. In other circumstances, it should not be served until the other party has had a reasonable opportunity for discovery. Given the "safe harbor" provisions discussed below, a party cannot delay invoking Rule 1023.1 until conclusion of the case (or judicial rejection of the offending contention).

Rule 1023.1 motions should not be made or threatened for minor, inconsequential violations of the standards prescribed by subdivision (c). They should not be employed as a discovery device or to test the legal sufficiency or efficacy of allegations in the pleadings; other motions are available for those purposes. Nor should Rule 1023.1 motions be prepared to emphasize the merits of a party's position, to exact an unjust settlement, to intimidate an adversary into withdrawing contentions that are fairly debatable, to increase the costs of litigation, to create a conflict of interest between attorney and client, or to seek disclosure of matters otherwise protected by the attorney-client privilege or the work-product doctrine. The court may defer its ruling (or its decision as to the identity of the persons to be sanctioned) until final resolution of the case in order to avoid immediate conflicts of interest and to reduce the disruption created if a disclosure of attorney-client communications is needed to determine whether a violation occurred or to identify the person responsible for the violation.

The rule provides that requests for sanctions must be made as a separate motion, i.e., not simply included as an additional prayer for relief contained in another motion. The motion for sanctions cannot be filed until at least 28 days after service of a written notice and demand, upon the party whose conduct is claimed to violate the rule, that the offending document or portion of the document be withdrawn or appropriately corrected. If, during this period, the alleged violation is corrected, as by withdrawing (whether formally or informally) some allegation or contention, the motion may not be filed with the court. These provisions are intended to provide a type of "safe harbor" against motions under Rule 1023.1 in that a party will not be subject to sanctions under Rule 1023.1 on the basis of another party's motion unless, after having been served with the written notice and demand, it refuses to withdraw that allegation or contention or to acknowledge that it does not currently have evidence to support it. The timely withdrawal of an allegation or contention will protect a party against a motion for sanctions.

To stress the seriousness of a motion for sanctions and to define precisely the conduct claimed to violate the rule, the "safe harbor" period begins to run only upon service of the written notice and demand. In most cases, however, counsel should give informal notice to the other party, whether in person or by a telephone call or letter, of a potential violation before proceeding to prepare and serve the written notice and demand.

III. Sanctions

The rule does not attempt to enumerate the factors a court should consider in deciding whether to impose a sanction or what sanctions would be appropriate in the circumstances. The factors that a court may consider include the following:

- whether the improper conduct was willful or negligent;
- whether it was part of a pattern of activity or an isolated event;
- whether it infected the entire pleading or only one particular count or defense;
- whether the person has engaged in similar conduct in related litigation;
- whether it was intended to injure;
- what effect it had on the litigation process in time or expense;
- whether the responsible person is trained in the law;
- what amount is needed to deter that person from repetition in the same case; and
- what amount is needed to deter similar activity by other litigants.

The court has significant discretion in determining what sanctions, if any, should be imposed for a violation, subject to the principle that the sanctions should not be more severe than reasonably necessary to deter repetition of the conduct by the offending person or comparable conduct by similarly situated persons.

There are two provisions for the award of attorney's fees and expenses. The first provision, Rule 1023.2(b), authorizes the court, if requested in a motion and if so warranted, to award to the prevailing party "the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in presenting or opposing the motion."

The second provision, Rule 1023.4(a)(2)(iii), however, authorizes the court, "if imposed on motion and warranted for effective deterrence", to order payment to the movant of "some or all of the reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses incurred as a direct result of the violation." Any such award to the movant, however, should not exceed the expenses and attorney's fees for the services directly and unavoidably caused by the violation of the certification requirement. If, for example, a wholly unsupportable count is included in a multi-count complaint or counterclaim for the purpose of needlessly increasing the cost of litigation, any award of expenses should be limited to those directly caused by inclusion of the improper count, and not those resulting from the filing of the complaint or answer itself. The award should not provide compensation for services that could have been avoided by an earlier disclosure of evidence or an earlier challenge to the groundless claims or defenses. Moreover, partial reimbursement of fees may constitute a sufficient deterrent.

The sanction should be imposed on the persons--whether attorneys, law firms, or parties--who have violated the rule or who may be determined to be responsible for violation. The person signing, filing, submitting, or advocating a document has a nondelegable responsibility to the court and, in most situations, is the person to be sanctioned for a violation. Absent exceptional circumstances, a law firm is to be held also responsible when one of its partners, associates, or employees is determined to have violated the rule. Since such a motion may be filed only if the offending paper is not withdrawn or corrected within 28 days after service of the written notice and demand, it is appropriate that the law firm ordinarily be viewed as jointly responsible under established principles of agency.

Explicit provision is made for litigants to be provided notice of the alleged violation and an opportunity to respond before sanctions are imposed. Whether the matter should be decided solely on the basis of written submissions or should be scheduled for oral argument (or for evidentiary presentation) will depend on the circumstances. If the court imposes a sanction, it must, unless waived, indicate its reasons in a written order or on the record; a court is not required to explain its denial of a motion for sanctions.

Rule 1023.2. Motion for Sanctions.

(a) An application for sanctions under this rule shall be made by motion, shall be made separately from other applications and shall describe the specific conduct alleged to violate Rule 1023.1(c).

(b) No such motion shall be filed unless it includes a certification that the applicant served written notice and demand to the attorney or pro se party who signed or filed the challenged pleading, motion or other paper. The certification shall have annexed a copy of that notice and demand, which shall identify with specificity each portion of the document which is believed to violate the provisions of this rule, set forth the basis for that belief with specificity, include a demand that the document or portion of the document, be withdrawn or appropriately corrected. An application for sanctions may be filed if the challenged paper, claim, defense, contention, allegation, or denial is not withdrawn or appropriately corrected within twenty-eight days after service of the written demand. If warranted, the court may award to the party prevailing on the motion the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in presenting or opposing the motion.

(a) General Rule. A motion for sanctions shall be made separately from any other motion.

(b) Written Notice and Demand.

(1) Before filing the motion for sanctions, the moving party shall serve a written notice and demand.

(2) The written notice and demand shall:

(i) identify with specificity each portion of the pleading, motion, or other paper that is believed to violate Rule 1023.1(c);

(ii) set forth the basis for that belief with specificity; and

(iii) include a demand that the pleading, motion, or other paper, or a portion thereof, be withdrawn or appropriately corrected.

(c) Content. A motion for sanctions shall:

(1) describe the specific conduct that allegedly violates Rule 1023.1(c);

(2) include a certification that the moving party served a written notice and demand required by subdivision (b) to the attorney or the party, if unrepresented, who signed or filed the challenged pleading, motion, or other paper; and

(3) include a copy of the written notice and demand.

(d) Motion.

(1) A motion for sanctions may be filed if the challenged pleading, motion, or other paper is not withdrawn or appropriately corrected within 28 days after service of the written notice and demand required by subdivision (b)(1). If warranted, the court may award the party prevailing on the motion the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in presenting or opposing the motion.

(2) A motion for sanctions shall be filed in the trial court before the entry of final judgment.

(e) Service.

(1) The written notice and demand and the motion for sanctions shall be served on:

(i) the attorney who signed or filed the challenged pleading, motion, or other paper, the party represented by the attorney, and the attorney's law firm; or

(ii) the party, if unrepresented.

(2) If the law firm under subdivision (e)(1)(i) is organized as a partnership, the managing partner, officer, or registered agent of the partnership shall be served.

(3) If the law firm under subdivision (e)(1)(i) is organized as a corporation or similar entity, the executive officer, partner, or trustee of the corporation or similar entity shall be served.

Comment: Subdivision (d) is intended to carry out the objective of expeditious disposition and to eliminate piecemeal appeals. If appropriate, such motions should be filed as soon as practicable after discovery of the violation.

(b) (b)(1) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded against a represented party for violation of Rule 1023.1(c)(2).

(2) Monetary sanctions may not be awarded on the court's initiative unless the court issues its order to show cause before a voluntary dismissal or settlement of the claims made by or against the party which is, or whose attorneys are, to be sanctioned.]

(b) Limitations on Sanctions. The court shall not impose a sanction:

(1) against a represented party for violation of Rule 1023.1(c)(2); or

(2) on its own, unless it issues an order to show cause before a voluntary dismissal or settlement of the claims made by or against the party that is, or whose attorneys are, to be sanctioned.

(c) Requirements for Order. [When imposing sanctions, the court shall describe the conduct determined to be a violation of Rule 1023.1 and explain the basis for the sanction imposed.] An order imposing a sanction shall describe the sanctioned conduct and explain the basis for the sanction.

Comment: The factors that a court may consider in deciding whether to impose a sanction or what sanctions would be appropriate in the circumstances include the following:

- whether the improper conduct was willful or negligent;
- whether it was part of a pattern of activity or an isolated event;
- whether it infected the entire pleading or only one particular count or defense;
- whether the person has engaged in similar conduct in related litigation;
- whether it was intended to injure;
- what effect it had on the litigation process in time or expense;
- whether the responsible person is trained in the law;
- what amount is needed to deter that person from repetition in the same case; and
- what amount is needed to deter similar activity by other litigants.

SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA CIVIL PROCEDURAL RULES COMMITTEE

PUBLICATION REPORT

Proposed Amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1, 1023.2, 1023.3, and 1023.4

The Civil Procedural Rules Committee is considering recommending the amendment of Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure 1023.1, 1023.2, 1023.3, and 1023.4 relating to sanctions for violating the certification of pleadings, written motions, or other papers subject to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1.

The Committee previously published a proposal to amend Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1 and 1023.4 to require the imposition of attorneys' fees for the violation of Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1(c). See 53 Pa.B. 8211 (December 30, 2023). In light of the comments received objecting to the proposal, the Committee discontinued rulemaking insofar as making the imposition of sanctions mandatory. Instead, the Committee is proposing clarification of the current rules.

The Committee observed that the current Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1-1023.4 are based on and, with certain exceptions, largely follow the provisions of Fed.R.Civ.P. 11. Fed.R.Civ.P. 11 was restyled and amended in 2007 for easier readability. As an initial step, the Committee proposes amending Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1-1023.4 to comport with the style of Fed.R.Civ.P. 11 where practicable.

The proposed amendment in Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.4(a)(2)(i) departs from the restyling of Fed.R.Civ.P. 11 describing the types of non-monetary directives that may be included in a sanction. The gist of the language "the striking of the offensive litigation document or portion of the litigation document," would be retained; Fed.R.Civ.P. 11(c)(4), on the other hand, simply states that a sanction may include "non-monetary directives." The Committee proposes retaining the substance of the current provision because it believes this language is more descriptive of what a non-monetary directive is and would aid the bench and bar.

After further review, the Committee proposes some substantive amendments of these rules. The Committee identified a concern with Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.4(a)(3) resulting in proposed amendments that would depart from the Fed.R.Civ.P. 11. Pa.R.Civ.P.1023.4(a)(3) provides that a law firm will be held jointly responsible for violations committed by its partners, associates, and employees unless there are exceptional circumstances. The Committee observed that Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.2 requires service of the written notice and demand and any subsequent motion for sanctions on the attorney, or self-represented party, who signed the legal paper; it does not provide any notice to the law firm of a possible violation of the rules that may subject that law firm to sanctions or an opportunity to intervene even though the rule potentially imposes joint responsibility on the law firm for those sanctions. To provide notice, the Committee proposes amending Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.2 to specify the persons upon whom the written notice and demand and the motion for sanctions should be served: the attorney who filed the challenged legal paper, the party represented by the attorney, and the attorney's law firm. Self-represented parties will also be served. Additional provisions direct the person or officer to be served on behalf of law firms organized as partnerships and corporations or similar entities.

As a result of proposed amendment to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.2, the Committee proposes amending Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.3(a)(1) to require the court to issue an order for a rule to show cause directing the attorney, law firm, or party to show cause why the conduct specifically described in the order has not violated Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1(c). The Committee proposes removing the discretionary aspect for the issuance of the rule to show cause because there should be a determination on the allegations set forth in the motion. The Committee invites comment on this aspect of the proposal. New Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.3(a)(2) would require the rule to show cause to be served on the attorney, the party represented by the attorney, and the attorney's law firm. This again will provide an opportunity for the law firm to be apprised of the possibility of the imposition of sanctions. Subdivision (b) would permit the court to issue an order imposing sanctions after the issuance of the rule to show cause and any hearing.

Next, the Committee proposes amending Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.4(b), which currently provides for a limitation on monetary sanctions. The Committee proposes amending this provision to eliminate this limitation so that it would apply to all types of sanctions.

The Committee also proposes adding a Comment to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.4 to provide guidance on the factors that may be considered when imposing sanctions under these rules. These factors are currently found in the 2003 Explanatory Comment to Pa.R.Civ.P. 1023.1 and have been imported into the new Comment.

The Committee invites all comments, objections, concerns, and suggestions regarding this proposed rulemaking.

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 31st day of July, 2025, upon the recommendation of the Minor Court Rules Committee; the proposal having been published for public comment at 53 Pa.B. 3822 (July 22, 2023):

It is Ordered pursuant to Article V, Section 10 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania that Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure Governing Actions and Proceedings Before Magisterial District Judges 209 is amended and Rule 504.1 is adopted in the attached form.

This Order shall be processed in accordance with Pa.R.J.A. 103(b), and shall be effective October 1, 2025.

Additions to the rule are shown in bold and are underlined. Deletions from the rule are shown in bold and brackets.

Rule 209. Continuances and Stays.

A. Continuances may be granted for cause or by agreement.

B. Continuances shall be to a specific time and date. The magisterial district judge shall note continuances on the docket and shall promptly give or mail to the parties written notice of continuances.

C. Except for good cause shown, or agreement of the parties:

(1) not more than one continuance shall be granted to each party, and

(2) the aggregate of all continuances shall not extend the date of the hearing:

a. beyond 90 days from the date of filing the plaintiff's complaint in proceedings commenced pursuant to Rule 303, Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 303; or [b. beyond 30 days from the date of filing the landlord's complaint in proceedings commenced pursuant to [Rule 502, Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 502.

D. In all proceedings governed by these rules, the following shall constitute cause for granting a continuance:

(1) the scheduling of a party's attorney of record to appear at any proceeding under the Pennsylvania Rules of Disciplinary Enforcement, whether:

a. as counsel for a respondent-attorney before a hearing committee, special master, the Disciplinary Board, or the Supreme Court;

b. as a special master or member of a hearing committee; or

c. as a member of the Disciplinary Board. the scheduling of a party's attorney of record to appear at any proceeding involving the discipline of a justice, judge, or magisterial district judge under Section 18 of Article V of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, whether

a. as counsel for a justice, judge, or magisterial district judge before the special tribunal provided for in 42 Pa.C.S. § 727, the Court of Judicial Discipline, the Judicial Conduct Board, or any hearing committee or other arm of the Judicial Conduct Board; or

b. as a member of the Court of Judicial Discipline, the Judicial Conduct Board, or any hearing committee or other arm of the Judicial Conduct Board.

E. Continuances and stays shall be granted in compliance with federal or state law, such as the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.

[Official Note] Comment: This rule was amended in 2005 to consolidate the provisions of former [Rules 320] Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 320, [J]relating to continuances in civil actions], and [511] Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 511, [J]relating to continuances in possessory actions], into one general rule governing continuances. The limitations set forth in subdivision C.* are intended to ensure that these cases proceed expeditiously. The grounds set forth in [subdivisions D and E, of course, subdivision (d) and (e)] are not intended to be the only grounds on which a continuance will be granted.

Participation in a landlord-tenant mediation program authorized by local rule will not entitle a party to a continuance beyond 30 days from the date the plaintiff filed the complaint unless there has been good cause shown or agreement by the parties. See Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 504.1 pertaining to landlord-tenant mediation programs authorized by local rule.

– The following text is entirely new –

Rule 504.1

Mediation.

- (a) The court of common pleas may promulgate a local rule of procedure pursuant to Pa.R.J.A. 103(d) permitting mediation of residential landlord-tenant actions in proceedings commenced pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 502.
- (b) A local rule promulgated pursuant to this rule shall not require mediation as a precondition to filing a complaint.
- (c) The president judge shall approve entities and individuals authorized to conduct mediation in the judicial district.

Comment: As used in this rule, mediation means a process, however labeled, by which a neutral third party assists the parties in attempting to reach a mutually acceptable agreement on issues arising out of a residential landlord-tenant action.

The requirements for the promulgation and amendment of local procedural rules are set forth in Pa.R.J.A. 103(d).

A local rule may address aspects of a mediation program, such as whether mediation is mandatory or voluntary, or the types of landlord-tenant actions subject to mediation, i.e., nonpayment of rent, end-of-lease terms, or breach of conditions of the lease. See also Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(c)(2)(ii) pertaining to continuances.

This rule does not require a judicial district to create, fund, or staff a mediation program.

SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA MINOR COURT RULES COMMITTEE

Amendment of Rule 209 and Adoption of Rule 504.1 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure Governing Actions and Proceedings Before Magisterial District Judges

On July 31, 2025, the Supreme Court amended Rule 209 and adopted Rule 504.1 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure Governing Actions and Proceedings Before Magisterial District Judges to add provisions relating to mediation in landlord-tenant proceedings. The Minor Court Rules Committee has prepared this Adoption Report describing the rulemaking process. An Adoption Report should not be confused with Comments to the rules. See Pa.R.J.A. 103, cmt. The statements contained herein are those of the Committee, not the Court.

Background

The Committee was first asked to consider developing rules to facilitate eviction diversion programs, e.g., mediation, in 2021. Housing advocates suggested rules that would support local eviction diversion programs and encourage informal settlement of landlord-tenant disputes by requiring or encouraging landlords to seek mediation prior to filing an eviction complaint.

The Committee was informed that programs across the Commonwealth were encouraging landlords and tenants to resolve their differences prior to the entry of a judgment for possession. The rationale for developing informal resolution procedures for landlord-tenant disputes is that it could remove the disgrace on tenants of an eviction judgment when seeking new housing, serve the interest of judicial economy by diverting cases to mediation programs, and address a then-anticipated increase in landlord-tenant cases following expiration of COVID-related eviction moratoria. Housing advocates favored local rulemaking, observing that it would enable local communities to maximize the impact of resources created to support tenants with rental assistance, aid landlords in recouping missed rental income, and ease strain on already overburdened emergency resources.

Discussion

Preliminarily, the concept of informal resolution is not foreign in magisterial district courts. The courtroom may be the first opportunity for the parties to calmly meet and discuss the dispute after a complaint has been filed. One difference between a settlement conference and mediation is the facilitator. The use of a mediator permits ex parte communications with the mediator, unlike communications with a magisterial district judge. Further, successful mediation often will produce agreements that conditionally postpone eviction proceedings provided that the terms are met. Indeed, the “pay and stay” concept is not new to landlord-tenant actions. See Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 518 (Satisfaction of Order by Payment of Rent and Costs).

The Committee was mindful that a mediation program cannot be imposed on judicial districts as an unfunded mandate. It is anticipated that mediation programs will be funded in whole or in part by non-judicial entities and not the courts. Related to the cost of mediation programs, an additional factor is the availability of third-party resources to offset rent arrears when nonpayment is the basis for eviction. This factor can be significant to obtain landlord participation and commitment to the mediation process.

Accordingly, the Committee recommended amendments to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209 (Continuances) and a new Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 504.1 (Mediation) to authorize the promulgation of local rules governing mediation in residential landlord-tenant actions. While discussing landlordtenant mediation programs, the Committee determined that authorization of local mediation programs could create the potential for conflict with Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209, pertaining to continuances. Currently, Rule 209(c) provides that, except for good cause shown, the aggregate of all continuances in landlord-tenant matters shall not extend beyond 30 days from the date of filing the landlord-tenant complaint. The Committee agreed it would be prudent to reflect explicitly that continuances may extend beyond current limits when agreed to by the parties. Therefore, Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(c) limits continuances beyond 30 days except by agreement of the parties. See Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(c)(2)(ii). Therefore, mediation by local rule will not impermissibly postpone the hearing unless agreed to by the parties.

Regarding Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 504.1, subdivision (a) delegates procedural responsibility to individual judicial districts via local rulemaking. This approach is intended to provide maximum flexibility so mediation programs can be designed and implemented based upon local resources and need. Additionally, the non-specific statewide rule would have minimal impact on existing programs in operation.

Subdivision (b) requires the filing of a complaint prior to mediation. This action was considered necessary to subject the parties to the court's jurisdiction and any requirement for mediation. Moreover, a pre-filing mediation requirement would operate as a barrier for an aggrieved party to access the courts. Any pre-filing requirement appears to be a matter of public policy reserved for a legislative body rather than one of procedure by the judiciary.

The commentary accompanying Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. Rule 504.1 emphasizes that mediation should involve a neutral third party. This language is intended to address concerns that mediation programs may be tilted in favor of either the tenant or landlord.

The Committee published the proposal for public comment. See 53 Pa.B. 3822 (July 22, 2023). The Committee received comments both supporting and opposing the proposal. As drafted, the proposal was silent on the qualifications of mediators or the approval of entities to conduct mediation. In response to public comment, the Committee proposed a new subdivision (c) to authorize the president judge to approve entities and individuals authorized to conduct mediation in the judicial district. See Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 504.1(c).

Other commenters suggested increasing the maximum allowable time for continuances in landlord-tenant proceedings, absent good cause or consent of the parties, from 30 days to 60 days citing logistics of scheduling and resolving mediations in high volume courts. The Committee did not endorse this change because the current 30-day continuance allowance would permit the parties to explore mediation and mutually agree to further continuances, if so inclined.

Finally, as published, the commentary to Rule 504.1 reflected that a local rule may address whether “initial participation in mediation is voluntary or mandatory.” However, the reference to “initial participation” was found to be confusing and suggested that mediation could be required before filing of the complaint. Therefore, that phrase was removed from the commentary. See also Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 504.1(b).

The amendment and adoption become effective on October 1, 2025.

IN RE: PETITION FOR APPROVAL OF : No. 641 Judicial Administration Docket
 THE THIRD JUDICIAL DISTRICT'S EXPANSION OF PRE-EXISTING CENTRAL COURT PURSUANT TO
 PA.R.CRIM.P. NO. 131 (B)

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 29th day of July, 2025, upon consideration of the Motion for Reconsideration and Request for Argument Pursuant to Pa.R.A.P. 2543 from this Court's per curiam order dated June 20, 2025, it is ORDERED that the Motion is DENIED.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN RE: NO. 643
 INTERIM POLICY ON THE USE OF GENERATIVE ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE BY JUDICIAL OFFICERS AND COURT PERSONNEL JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION DOCKET

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 9th day of September, 2025, upon the recommendation of the Artificial Intelligence Advisory Committee, it is ORDERED that the Interim Policy on the Use of Generative Artificial Intelligence by Judicial Officers and Court Personnel is approved in the attached form.

This Order shall be processed in accordance with Pa.R.J.A. 103(b), and the Policy shall be effective December 8, 2025.

INTERIM POLICY ON THE USE OF GENERATIVE ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE BY JUDICIAL OFFICERS AND COURT PERSONNEL

Section 1: Definitions

- A. “Administrative Records” includes notes, memoranda, correspondence, drafts, worksheets, and work product of Personnel of the Unified Judicial System, whether maintained in paper or electronic formats.
- B. “Artificial Intelligence” (“AI”) means the capability of computer systems or algorithms to imitate intelligent human behavior.<sup>1</sup>
- C. “Case Records” are documents for any case filed with, accepted, and maintained by a court or custodian or any dockets, indices, and documents (such as orders, opinions, judgments, decrees, transcripts, and case exhibits) for any case created and maintained by a court or custodian. This definition applies equally to case records maintained in paper and electronic formats.
- D. “Leadership” means the Chief Justice of Pennsylvania, the President Judge of each appellate court and judicial district, and the Court Administrator of Pennsylvania, or their designees.
- E. “Personnel of the Unified Judicial System” (“Personnel”) includes (1) all state-level court employees including contractors of the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts (“AOPC”), (2) all judicial officers of the Unified Judicial System as defined in 42 Pa.C.S. Section 102, including those granted senior status, and their staff, (3) all employees of boards, committees, and court-related panels established by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and (4) all county-level court employees who are under the supervision and authority of the President Judge of a judicial district of Pennsylvania.
- F. “Generative Artificial Intelligence” (“GenAI”) means algorithms and/or computer processes that use artificial intelligence to generate text, audio, or images based on user prompts. These systems may be (and, presently, mostly are) trained on sets of data from the Internet or proprietary sources.
- G. “Non-Public Information” includes any and all information that is restricted by federal law, state law, policy, and other relevant legal authority. For examples, see Sections 9.0 and 10.0 of the Case Records Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania, and Section 3.00 of the Electronic Case Record Public Access Policy of the Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania. For further information on restrictions to public access of Unified Judicial System case records, please refer to the Limits on Public Access to Unified Judicial System Case Records posted at the Unified Judicial System Webpage.
- H. “Non-Secured AI System” means an AI system that does not protect and guarantee the confidentiality of data or documents entered into the system by users. This includes a system that retains user documents or data, and a system that may use user documents and data to train an AI system or may release user documents and data to third parties.
- I. “Secured AI System” means an AI system that protects the confidentiality and privilege of all data and documents entered in the system by users. Secured AI Systems do not retain any such data or documents entered into the system, do not transfer or sell such data or documents to third parties, and do not expose such data or documents to the public domain. A “Secured AI System” may include a vendor's use of a subcontractor if all data and documents entered into the system remain subject to the requirements and limitations specified in this paragraph.

K. "UJS Technology Resources" means any and all computer equipment, mobile devices, software, network systems, telecommunications equipment and systems, email and messaging systems, data storage, hardware, peripherals, and other electronic systems and devices owned, leased, provided, and/or used by the Unified Judicial System ("UJS"). For purposes of this Policy, this term includes a personal device used by Personnel for work related purposes.

Section 2: Statement of General Policy

A. This Policy applies to Personnel using GenAI on UJS Technology Resources. The purpose of this Policy is to promote and ensure the safe and appropriate use of GenAI by Personnel.

B. Leadership is responsible for ensuring Personnel of the Unified Judicial System who fall under their supervision and authority comply with this Policy.

Section 3: Authorization and Use of GenAI Tools

A. Personnel are authorized to use GenAI for work only as set forth in this Policy.

B. Personnel may only use or install GenAI tools approved by Leadership on UJS Technology Resources.

C. Although use of a GenAI tool may be approved by Leadership, Personnel may be required to seek supervisory approval for the use of a GenAI tool or at a minimum disclose use of a GenAI tool in their work product.

D. Personnel are permitted to use their work email or word-processing accounts to use approved GenAI tools.

E. Personnel may only use GenAI as permitted by this Policy if the use does not violate other policies, rules, regulations or statutes. Permitted uses of GenAI by Personnel include, but are not limited to, the following:

- i. to summarize documents;
- ii. to conduct preliminary legal research, provided the GenAI tool used was trained on a comprehensive, up-to-date collection of reputable legal authorities;
- iii. to draft initial versions of documents, such as communications, and memoranda;
- iv. to edit and assess the readability of public documents; and
- v. to provide interactive chatbots or similar services to the public and self-represented litigants.

Section 4: Responsibilities of Personnel

A. When using GenAI, Personnel shall comply with all ethical and professional conduct rules and UJS policies, including but not limited to: the Code of Judicial Conduct, the Rules Governing Standards of Conduct of Magisterial District Judges, the Code of Conduct for the Employees of the Unified Judicial System, and the Rules of Professional Conduct.

B. When using GenAI, Personnel shall comply with all applicable laws (e.g., Personnel must ensure that copyrighted material is fairly used and properly attributed).

C. Personnel must become proficient in the technical capabilities and limitations of GenAI tools before using them and must maintain competence to continue to use them.

D. Personnel are responsible for the accuracy of their work and for compliance with this Policy.

COMMENTARY

Regarding Subsection A, Personnel shall observe high standards of conduct when they use GenAI so as to safeguard the judiciary's integrity and independence.

When using GenAI, Personnel must be cognizant that the systems may not consider nuances humans take into consideration. In addition, GenAI systems may be trained on biased material and generate biased content or harmful material. Furthermore, GenAI tools merely predict a probable outcome. Some of those predictions may be inaccurate because they have little or no basis in fact or reality (commonly referred to as "hallucinations").

Personnel must understand the limitations of GenAI tools and review GenAI output for accuracy, completeness, and potentially biased or inaccurate content. To repeat: humans must review GenAI output and Personnel are responsible for the accuracy of any

Section 5: Permitted Use of GenAI

A. Personnel may share with a secured AI system any case records, administrative records, or information provided that the shared information will be treated in a confidential and privileged manner. This means the secured AI system provider and its vendors will not use the records or information to train an AI system, share the records or information with unauthorized third parties, or expose the records or information to the public domain.

B. Personnel shall not share any non-public information with non-secured AI systems.

COMMENTARY

Personnel are responsible for identifying non-public information. Personnel shall assume that case records, administrative records, and information will not be treated as confidential and privileged once entered into a non-secured AI system.

Any questions by Personnel regarding the use of GenAI should be raised through appropriate supervisory channels.

Section 6: Policy Implementation and Enforcement

Leadership in each court shall use due diligence to ensure compliance with this Policy, including thoroughly reviewing any contract with a vendor, as well as any end user licensing agreement during the procurement process.

COMMENTARY

For those contracts and end user licensing agreements entered into prior to the effective date of this Policy, Leadership shall review them to determine if Personnel are able to continue to use the services and products. In some judicial districts where non-judicial county personnel are responsible for technology contracts, Leadership must ensure that all GenAI tools comply with this Policy before authorizing their use. Areas for consideration should include whether the AI system vendor and any subcontractors retain any data, whether the AI system is a secured or non-secured system, the security of the system transmission pathways, whether the contract permits the vendor and any downstream subcontractors to view or use the content, and whether the content is exposed to the public domain.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN RE: NO. 768
ORDER AMENDING RULE 4003.6 CIVIL PROCEDURAL RULES DOCKET
OF THE PENNSYLVANIA RULES

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 27th day of August, 2025, upon the recommendation of the Civil Procedural Rules Committee; the proposal having been submitted without publication pursuant to Pa.R.J.A. 103(a)(3):

It is Ordered pursuant to Article V, Section 10 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania that Rule 4003.6 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure is amended in the attached form.

This Order shall be processed in accordance with Pa.R.J.A. 103(b), and shall be effective immediately.

Additions to the rule are shown in bold and are underlined.

Deletions from the rule are shown in bold and brackets.

Rule 4003.6. Discovery of Treating Physician.

(a) General Rule. Information may be obtained from the treating physician of a party only upon written consent of that party or through a method of discovery authorized by this chapter.

(b) Exception. This rule shall not prevent an attorney from obtaining information from:

- (1) the attorney's client[.];
- (2) an employee of the attorney's client[.]; or
- (3) an ostensible employee of the attorney's client.

Comment: Practitioners should be aware of the overlap between the requirements of this rule and the Rules of Professional Conduct regarding the procedural and ethical ramifications when a firm represents a treating physician or has preexisting attorney-client relationships with multiple physicians, at least one of whom it represents in connection with a medical professional liability action. See Mertis v. Oh, 317 A.3d 529 (Pa. 2024) (holding that (1) information may be considered to have been obtained, for purposes of the rule, by imputation from one attorney at a law firm to another attorney at the same firm, and (2) an attorney cannot avail himself or herself of the "attorney's client exception" pursuant to subdivision (b) by initiating an attorney-client relationship with a treating physician if the attorney would be otherwise subject to the restrictions of the rule as to that treating physician).

CIVIL PROCEDURAL RULES COMMITTEE ADOPTION REPORT Amendment of Pa.R.Civ.P. 4003.6

On August 27, 2025, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania amended Pennsylvania Rule of Civil Procedure 4003.6 relating to discovery of a treating physician. The Civil Procedural Rules Committee has prepared this Adoption Report describing the rulemaking process. An Adoption Report should not be confused with Comments to the rules. See Pa.R.J.A. 103, cmt. The statements contained herein are those of the Committee, not the Court.

Pa.R.Civ.P. 4003.6 generally prohibits obtaining information from the treating physician of a party unless the party has provided written consent or through another method of discovery authorized by Pa.R.Civ.P. 4001 et seq. The rule also sets forth exceptions to that general rule and allows an attorney to obtain information from “the attorney’s client, an employee of the attorney’s client, or an ostensible employee of the attorney’s client.” Pa.R.Civ.P. 4003.6(1)-(3).

In Mertis v. Oh, 317 A.3d 529 (Pa. 2024), the Supreme Court was asked to determine whether the rule expressly permitted defense counsel in a medical malpractice case to communicate directly with the plaintiff’s treating physicians, who are represented by attorneys in the same firm as defense counsel. Mertis, 317 A.3d at 531. The Court concluded that obtaining information under these circumstances was not permitted under the rule because, under the Rules of Professional Conduct, information known by one attorney is imputed to all other members of the same law firm. Id. at 544. Further, the Court found that the rule also prevented the attorney for the treating physician from initiating that attorney-client relationship. Id. at 545.

In light of this opinion, Pa.R.Civ.P. 4003.6 has been amended to add commentary acknowledging the holding in Mertis and advising readers of the overlap between Pa.R.Civ.P. 4003.6 and the Rules of Professional Conduct and the procedural and ethical ramifications involved when a firm represents a treating physician or has preexisting attorney-client relationships with multiple physicians at least one of whom it represents in a medical malpractice action. Minor restyling amendments have also been made to the rule text.

The proposal was not published for comment because the amendments are technical in nature and do not affect current practice or procedure. The amendments become effective immediately.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA IN RE: NO. 1018 ORDER AMENDING RULE 803.1 SUPREME COURT RULES DOCKET OF THE PENNSYLVANIA RULES OF EVIDENCE

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 22nd day of July, 2025, upon the recommendation of the Committee on Rules of Evidence; the proposal having been submitted without publication pursuant to Pa.R.J.A. 103(a)(3):

It is Ordered pursuant to Article V, Section 10 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania that Rule 803.1 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence is amended in the attached form.

This Order shall be processed in accordance with Pa.R.J.A. 103(b), and shall be effective October 1, 2025.

Additions to the rule are shown in bold and are underlined.

SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA COMMITTEE ON RULES OF EVIDENCE ADOPTION REPORT Amendment of Pa.R.E. 803.1

On July 22, 2025, the Supreme Court amended the Comment to Pa.R.E. 803.1 concerning the comparison with F.R.E. 803(5). The Committee on Rules of Evidence has prepared this Adoption Report describing the rulemaking process. An Adoption Report should not be confused with Comments to the rules. See Pa.R.J.A. 103, cmt. The statements contained herein are those of the Committee, not the Court.

Statements in the Comment summarizing the requirements of F.R.E. 803(5) have been deleted and replaced with quoted language from both the federal rule and its corresponding Advisory Committee Note. This manner of quotation avoids interpreting the federal rule. Additionally, quoting from F.R.E. 803(5), a new sentence has been added to the Comment to make clear that Pa.R.E. 803.1(3) and F.R.E. 803(5) differ with respect to admitting recorded recollections as an exhibit.

Additionally, the following commentary has been removed:

Official Note: Adopted May 8, 1998, effective October 1, 1998; amended March 10, 2000, effective July 1, 2000; rescinded and replaced January 17, 2013, effective March 18, 2013; amended March 1, 2017, effective April 1, 2017.

Committee Explanatory Reports:

Final Report explaining the amendment to paragraph (1) and the updates to the Comment to paragraph (1) published with the Court’s Order at 30 Pa.B. 1646 (March 25, 2000). Final Report explaining the January 17, 2013 rescission and replacement published with the Court’s Order at 43 Pa.B. 651 (February 2, 2013). Final Report explaining the March 1, 2107 revision of the Comment and addition of paragraph (4) published with the Court’s Order at 47 Pa.B. 1627 (March 18, 2017).

Comment and addition of paragraph (4) published with the Court’s Order at 47 Pa.B. 1627 (March 18, 2017).

The amendment was not published for comment because it is technical in nature and does not affect practice or procedure. This amendment becomes effective on October 1, 2025.

Rule 803.1. Exceptions to the Rule Against Hearsay-Testimony of Declarant

Necessary.

The following statements are not excluded by the rule against hearsay if the declarant testifies and is subject to cross-examination about the prior statement:

* * *

(3) Recorded Recollection of Declarant-Witness. A memorandum or record made or adopted by a declarant-witness that:

- (A) is on a matter the declarant-witness once knew about but now cannot recall well enough to testify fully and accurately;
- (B) was made or adopted by the declarant-witness when the matter was fresh in his or her memory; and
- (C) the declarant-witness testifies accurately reflects his or her knowledge at the time when made.

If admitted, the memorandum or record may be read into evidence and received as an exhibit[,] but may be shown to the jury only in exceptional circumstances or when offered by an adverse party.

Comment: Pa.R.E. 803.1(3) is similar to F.R.E. 803(5)[,] but differs in the following ways:

1. Pennsylvania treats a statement meeting the requirements of Pa.R.E. 803.1(3) as an exception to the hearsay rule in which the testimony of the declarant is necessary. [F.R.E. 803(5) treats this as an exception regardless of the availability of the declarant. This differing organization is consistent with Pennsylvania law.] The Federal Rule differs in that recorded recollections “are not excluded by the rule against hearsay, regardless of whether the declarant is available as a witness.” F.R.E. 803(5).
2. Pa.R.E. 803.1(3)(C) makes clear that, to qualify a recorded recollection as an exception to the hearsay rule, the witness must testify that the memorandum or record correctly reflects the knowledge that the witness once had. In other words, the witness must vouch for the reliability of the record. The Federal Rule [is ambiguous on this point and the applicable federal cases are conflicting] does not “spell out the method of establishing the initial knowledge or the contemporaneity and accuracy of the record, leaving them to be dealt with as the circumstances of the particular case might indicate.” F.R.E. 803, Note of Advisory Committee.
3. Pa.R.E. 803.1(3) allows the memorandum or record to be received as an exhibit[,] and grants the trial judge discretion to show it to the jury in exceptional circumstances, even when not offered by an adverse party. In federal court, “[i]f admitted, the record may be read into evidence but may be received as an exhibit only if offered by an adverse party.” F.R.E. 803(5).

Pa.R.E. 803.1(3) is consistent with Pennsylvania law. See Commonwealth v. Cargo, 444 A.2d 639 (Pa. 1982).

Official Note: Adopted May 8, 1998, effective October 1, 1998; amended March 10, 2000, effective July 1, 2000; rescinded and replaced January 17, 2013, effective March 18, 2013; amended March 1, 2017, effective April 1, 2017.

Committee Explanatory Reports:

Final Report explaining the amendment to paragraph (1) and the updates to the Comment to paragraph (1) published with the Court’s Order at 30 Pa.B. 1646 (March 25, 2000). Final Report explaining the January 17, 2013 rescission and replacement published with the Court’s Order at 43 Pa.B. 651 (February 2, 2013). Final Report explaining the March 1, 2107 revision of the Comment and addition of paragraph (4) published with the Court’s Order at 47 Pa.B. 1627 (March 18, 2017).
