DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | CONTRACTS

Default Judgment Granted in Breach Of Contract Action

Plaintiff commenced an action asserting claims for breach of contract, unjust enrichment, quantum meruit and accounts stated, based on defendant's alleged failure to make payments for legal services rendered by plaintiff. Plaintiff alleged that defendant Kevin Glodek retained plaintiff for its legal services and failed to pay invoices throughout his legal representation starting from November 2022 through July 2023 and that Glodek owes $71,839.47. Plaintiff moved for default judgment. The motion was granted. The court held plaintiff established the facts constituting its breach of contract and accounts stated claims by submitting a copy of the retainer agreement with Glodek, invoices showing the outstanding balances between November 2022 to July 2023, and the affidavit of another attorney.

Justice Judy H. Kim
Supreme Court

Leo Kayser, III, P.C. v. Glodek, 653578/2024 (October 23)

NEW YORK | CONTRACTS

Claims in Action Found Duplicative, Dismissal Granted

Plaintiff operated an ice cream shop known as Morgenstem's Finest Ice Cream. Plaintiff contracted defendant to manage its digital marketing. Allegedly, defendant was failing to meet its obligations, and plaintiff expressed dissatisfaction. Plaintiff tried to terminate the contract, but defendant allegedly refused. Defendant allegedly effectively terminated the contract by ceasing all support and services to plaintiff. Plaintiff sued defendant alleging breach of contract, negligent hiring and supervision, unjust enrichment, and bad faith. Defendant moved to dismiss all the claims except breach of contract. The motion was granted. The court held the claims were duplicative which warranted dismissal.

Justice Mary V. Rosado
Supreme Court

Low Overrun LLC v. Remesch Media, LLC, 651411/2025 (October 27)

KINGS | MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

Court Overlooked Conflicting Expert Testimony, Reargument Granted and Motion Overturned

Plaintiff gave birth to her third daughter at Maimonides Medical Center. The delivery, performed by defendant Matthew Silverman, M.D., was vaginal with vacuum assistance and without episiotomy. The infant sustained a brachial plexus injury, Horner's syndrome, and a right humerus fracture. Plaintiffs alleged that Dr. Silverman committed medical malpractice by failing to perform a timely cesarean section, improperly using vacuum assistance, and failing to obtain informed consent. The court, previously, granted defendant's summary judgment in part. Plaintiff moved to reargue. The motion was granted and the summary judgment motion was denied. The court held plaintiffs demonstrated that the court overlooked the presence of conflicting testimony from expert witnesses, thereby creating a credibility battle that is properly left to a jury for its resolution.

Judge Patria Frias-Colón
Supreme Court

A.A. v. Maimonides Med. Ctr., 514143/2015 (October 16)

KINGS | CRIMINAL LAW

Court Grants Clayton Motion for Defendant In Criminal Case

Defendant was indicted and charged with two violations of Vehicle and Traffic Law § 600(2)(a), which penalizes leaving the scene of an accident involving personal injury. A pre-pleading memorandum was made and the court accepted it as a Clayton motion. The Brooklyn District Attorney's Office opposed the relief sought. The motion was granted. The court found that defendant, who had successfully completed a year of interim probation supervision, accepted responsibility and otherwise led an exemplary life, deserved the granting of the motion, the vacatur of the felony conviction and its replacement by a conviction of the class A misdemeanor set forth in the same section of the law.

Justice John T. Hecht
Supreme Court

People v. Mohammed A., 72550-21 (July 11)

KINGS | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Pre-Action Discovery Denied as No Affidavit Submitted By Petitioner

The petition in a special proceeding, brought on by order to show cause, alleged that petitioner was injured in an accident on June 22, 2025, whereby the gate or door to the freight elevator fell on him at 640 Columbia Street, in Brooklyn. Petitioner sought pre-action discovery. A preliminary injunction preventing removal or destruction of evidence was also sought. The court noted that there were insufficient details and no affidavit from petitioner himself. Without the information, the court could not determine whether there was a cause of action, such that pre-action discovery was warranted. Additionally, a preliminary injunction may not be granted in the absence of a pending action. The petition was denied, and the special proceeding was dismissed.

Justice Aaron D. Maslow
Supreme Court

Holland v. 640 Columbia Owner LLC, 525205/2025 (October 26)

KINGS | MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

Plaintiff Allowed to Add Additional Defendants in Dental Malpractice Action

In a dental malpractice case, plaintiff moved for leave to amend the complaint to add individual dentists employed by the defendant dental practice as new party defendants. Two of the proposed defendants filed opposition based on the statute of limitations. Plaintiff argued that the claims were timely pursuant to relation-back or continuous treatment. The court held that the relation-back doctrine applied as to one of the defendants. Additionally, the court found the continuous treatment of subsequent providers at the practice may be imputed to both defendants, rendering the claims against them timely. The court therefore granted Plaintiff's motion.

Justice Consuelo Mallafre Melendez

Black v. Aspen Dental Management, Inc., 506286/2025 (November 12)

U.S. - SDNY | CONTRACTUAL DISPUTES

Claim Over Hiring Employees in Violation Of Non-Solicitation Agreement May Proceed

In 2012, plaintiff Seatig Inc. and defendant BizLog LLC entered into a short-term agreement under which Seatig provided BizLog with three of its employees to create and develop a mileage tracking technology called TripLog. The agreement did not include a non-solicitation clause. In 2015, the parties entered into a long-term Outsourcing Services Master Agreement, under which Seatig continued to employ and manage its employees for the purpose of developing the TripLog technology. That Agreement included a "Non-Solicitation Agreement." Seatig later brought a breach of contract claim against BizLog, alleging the parties formed a contract when they signed the Agreement; Seatig performed its obligations under the Agreement; BizLog breached the contract by soliciting and hiring Seatig employees; and Seatig incurred damages as a result. BizLog argued the Agreement's Non-Solicitation Provision is an unenforceable restrictive covenant. The court denied BizLog's motion to dismiss the breach of contract claim, noting that as the contract Seatig seeks to enforce is not per se unenforceable, it would be inappropriate to dismiss the action at this stage.

District Judge J. Paul Oetken
Southern District

Seatig v. BizLog LLC, 24-CV-7946 (November 6)

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Court Allows Alternative Service for Defaulting China Defendants in Counterfeiting Case

Plaintiffs, who brought a civil action for trademark infringement and trademark counterfeiting, own the intellectual property assets for Little Baby Bum, a streaming media show and YouTube channel featuring 3D animation videos of nursery rhymes and children's songs. In addition to streaming content, plaintiffs also developed consumer products like plush toys and games. Defendants are individuals and/or businesses located in China. Without plaintiffs' authorization, defendants manufactured, imported, exported, advertised, marketed promoted, distributed, displayed, offered for sale, and/or sold counterfeit Little Baby Bum products to consumers located in the U.S. via online merchant storefronts on the Alibaba and/or AliExpress platform. The instant court subsequently held that service under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(f) was not proper, and therefore it lacks personal jurisdiction with respect to the known address defendants. However, as to the defaulting defendants, alternative service pursuant to Rule 4(f) was appropriate since plaintiffs exercised reasonable diligence in attempting to obtain physical addresses for them but have been unsuccessful in their efforts.

District Judge Jeannette A. Vargas

Moonbug Ent. Ltd. v. Babytee Store, 22-CV-02032 (October 27)

U.S. - EDNY | CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Court Invalidates Village's Places of Worship Law as Unconstitutional in Chabad Case

Plaintiffs, a Lubavitch religious organization and its rabbi, sought to build a Chabad on land in the Village of Old Westbury. They alleged the Village thwarted that effort chiefly via adoption of a land use statute aimed at places of worship. In a case approaching its second decade of pendency, plaintiffs sought partial summary judgment. The instant court found that plaintiffs' motion for partial summary judgment as to its facial challenge to the Village's Places of Worship (POW) Law as a deprivation of their right to the Free Exercise of religion was the only meritorious motion now before it. In 2024, the court held that, compared to the religious uses specified in the POW Law, "the Village imposes less onerous requisites on landowners who opt to develop land for residential purposes" and "provides far more generous provisions for many types of non-residential, commercial and public development. The record now available demonstrates many more ways in which the POW Law treats religious development less favorably than comparable secular land uses. Thus, the court granted plaintiffs' motion and declared the POW Law facially invalid under the U.S. Constitution.

District Judge Gary R. Brown

Lubavitch of Old Westbury Inc. v. Inc. Vill. of Old Westbury, NY, 08-CV-5081 (Oct 30)

U.S. - EDNY | DISCOVERY

Discovery Requests Stricken, Sanctions Imposed Over Interrogatories Posed in Bad Faith

Plaintiff sued for discrimination and retaliation under §1981 and the NYS Human Rights Law; whistleblower retaliation under NY Labor Law; and "stigma plus" under §1983. Plaintiff contended that during his urology residency at Stony Brook University Hospital, he was subjected to discriminatory remarks based on his race and national origin, and that he was retaliated against for his complaints regarding his discriminatory treatment and for his whistleblowing regarding incidents of malpractice. Discovery is ongoing. Defendants sought a protective order relieving them of their obligations to respond to plaintiff's requests for admission and interrogatories. The requirement that a party respond with specific objections to each request cannot apply when so many of the requests for admission (RFAs) and interrogatories are promulgated in such obvious bad faith, and neither defendants nor this court needed to parse through the entire set to see which, if any, are legitimate. The court held that plaintiff's RFAs and interrogatories to all defendants are stricken in their entirety, and sanctioned plaintiff $500 for abusing the discovery process and burdening all involved.

District Judge Brian M. Cogan
Eastern District

El-Ghazaly v. Kim, 25-cv-3939 (November 8)

U.S. - NDNY | CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

First Amendment Claim Proceeds Against County Sheriff in SUNY Protest Case

SUNY New Paltz students and members of the community sued County Sheriff Juan P. Figueroa in his individual capacity, among others, on behalf of a putative class of individuals. Plaintiffs contended defendants violated their constitutional rights via actions taken in response to a protest at SUNY New Paltz. Plaintiffs asserted they were peacefully protesting "atrocities committed by the Israeli government with the active military support of the United States" at SUNY New Paltz. Plaintiffs further alleged defendants responded to the demonstration by using hostile, violent, and aggressive tactics with the intent of suppressing plaintiffs' speech, thereby violating plaintiffs' constitutional rights. Among other things, the court denied defendants' motion to dismiss plaintiffs' First Amendment claim against Figueroa, as plaintiffs sufficiently pleaded he was personally involved in First Amendment retaliation. The court noted that plaintiffs asserted he personally ordered officers to disperse and arrest lawful demonstrators and did so to "stifle" their rights to free speech and assembly, resulting in the end of the demonstration and physical injuries to some demonstrators.

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 sub. 1).

The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the filer.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statute of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required, present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJL.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
