Summary Judgments Denied in Child Victims Act Case

Justice Sabrina Kraus
Supreme Court

Plaintiff commenced a Childs Victim Act action and alleged that from 1981 through 1983, he was sexually abused by Father Michael O'Hara, a basketball coach and seventh and eighth grade teacher, at St. Matthew School. The complaint asserted a cause of action for negligence as to each of the defendants. Defendants moved for summary judgment. Both motions were denied. The court held that defendants failed to make a prima facie showing that they were entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Defendants failed to establish that they lacked actual or constructive notice, or that they properly supervised O'Hara and plaintiff during the school day. Likewise, the Archdiocese failed to establish conclusively that they lacked actual or constructive notice, and therefore they could be responsible for the foreseeable acts of O'Hara as its agent or employee, and there was sufficient evidence in the record from which a jury could determine that O'Hara was an agent and employee of the Archdiocese.

Default Judgment Denied; Plaintiff Failed To Give Excuse for Delay

Justice Nicholas W. Moyne
Supreme Court

Plaintiff, Kapitus Servicing, Inc. as servicing provider New York Business Banc commenced an action against defendants, Temple Builders, LLC and Richard Andrew Smith to recover amounts allegedly owed pursuant to a Merchant Cash Advance Agreement for the purchase and sale of future receivables and asserting claims for breach of contract, account stated, breach of guaranty, and attorneys' fees. Plaintiff moved for an order directing entry of a default judgment against defendants in the amount of $45,354. The motion was denied. The court held the plaintiff's allegations did not establish a reasonable excuse for the four-year delay in seeking entry of judgment as they failed to identify any specifics of the supposed law office failure and failed to sufficiently address the extensive period of inactivity.

Court Allows Probate of Codicil; Instrument Properly Executed

Judge Rita Mella
Surrogate's Court

An uncontested proceeding to probate a photocopy of an instrument, a codicil dated August 6, 2013, was brought before the court. This was in addition to the request to probate original instruments as the last will and first codicil of decedent Barbara Schafer. Decedent died at age 79. Keith Feuer, proponent and nominated successor executor under the second codicil, submitted a copy of which he seeks to probate, has provided evidence that the executed originals of the will, first codicil, and second codicil were kept by nominated executor, Jerome Feuer. The instrument was admitted into probate. The court held the attestation clauses and affidavits of the attesting witnesses confirmed due execution of all the instruments offered; decedent had the mental capacity to make a will and was not under any restraint.

Will of Barbara K. Schafer, 2022-3493/A (May 14)

Court Allows Prosecution to Use Grand Jury Minutes at Trial

Justice E. Niki Warin
Supreme Court

Defendant was charged with strangulation in the second degree, two counts of assault in the third degree, and two counts of criminal obstruction of breathing or blood circulation. After an indictment, the Manhattan District Attorney's Office advised the court that the complainant was no longer willing to cooperate with the prosecution and requested a Sirois hearing to show proof that the defendant's misconduct had secured her unavailability at trial. The court then moved to use complaining witness' Grand Jury testimony at trial. The motion was granted. The court held the People showed the defendant contacted the complainant thirty times while incarcerated and over 1,000 times after his release. Despite lack of explicit threats, the volume of calls made in violation of the order of protection and complainant's report to prosecutor that the defendant's calls made her fear for her life, showed the defendant's misconduct caused her unavailability.

People v. McKenzie, 74249-21 (April 30)

NEW YORK | CONTRACTS

Plaintiff's Motions Denied; Contract Agreement Was A Usurious Loan

Justice Christopher T. McGrath
Supreme Court

Plaintiff moved to dismiss defendants' counterclaims and moves separately for summary judgment against Defendants. The action concerned what plaintiff advanced as a "Merchant Cash Agreement." However, upon a thorough review of the agreement at issue and of the entire record, the court found that the agreement was actually a predatory lending scheme; a usurious loan. The agreement included a $16,099 default fee, 40% attorneys' fees, 35% liquidated damages, a 24% post-judgment interest rate, and various other fees that defendants would be responsible for. The court found that the exceedingly high interest rate, coupled with numerous high-cost fees, rendered the agreement at issue a Predatory Lending Scheme in violation of New York usury law. This court denied plaintiff's motion to dismiss and summary judgment. Additionally, the Court granted summary judgment to defendants.

APP. DIV. | REAL ESTATE

Unexpired Pendency Notice Lacks Effect on Title Taken by Foreclosure Sale's Value Buyer

Justice Presiding Valerie Brathwaite Nelson
Second Department

Yesmin's four-family home in Queens was foreclosed upon, and sold by the referee in May 2017 for $815,000. The winning bid was assigned to defendant Aliobaba LLC, which took title to the property by a referee's deed dated Nov. 16, 2017. Judgment of foreclosure and sale was reversed on Sept. 30, 2020. Second Department reversed the Sept. 30, 2020, order. Supreme court should have granted Aliobaba summary judgment dismissing Yesmin's complaint and denied Yesmin summary judgment on the cause of action to cancel and discharge of record the referee's deed to Aliobaba. In doing so, Second Department concluded that a notice of pendency that was unexpired at the time of the foreclosure sale has no effect on the title acquired by a good faith purchaser for value from a sale conducted pursuant to the judgment of foreclosure and sale.

Yesmin v. Aliobaba LLC, 2022-02724 (May 14)

KINGS | PERSONAL INJURY

Defendant's Summary Judgment Denied; Uncertainty of Conditions During Accident

Justice Lisa Lewis
Supreme Court

Plaintiff commenced an action for personal injuries when he slipped and fell on the stairs at the Winthrop Street Station number "2" subway station operated by defendant. Defendant moved for summary judgment. The motion was denied. The court held defendant failed to establish a prima facie entitlement to summary judgment. The court held while defendant demonstrated there was a storm in progress when plaintiff fell, plaintiff's testimony about the condition of the stairs at the time of his fall raised a triable issue of fact. Plaintiff established that there was evidence that snow and ice had accumulated on the stairs. Also, the Certified Weather Report showed there was rain, mist and haze. Therefore, an issue of fact existed as to whether plaintiffs fall was caused by a pre-existing ice condition and whether defendant had a reasonable time to clear it before the accident.

U.S. - SDNY | PRODUCTS LIABILITY

Suit Over Undergarment Offers Unsupported Legal Conclusions, Is Dismissed

District Judge Nelson S. Román
Southern District

Plaintiff used Kimberley-Clark's Depend adult undergarment on May 31, 2021. A defect in the undergarment caused her to slip, fall, and suffer "serious permanent personal injuries." On April 22, 2024, she sued defendant Kimberley-Clark (K-C) for breaches of contract and express warranty, breaches of the implied warranties of fitness and merchantability, and for failure to warn. Plaintiff claimed K-C "negligently caused" her injury by putting a defective device into the marketplace, ad also that K-C was "negligent in failing to properly manufacture" the undergarments. District court dismissed suit, without prejudice, pursuant to FRCP 12(b)(6). Beyond stating that she suffered an injury, plaintiff's complaint, as currently written, offers no factual averments as to the basis of her claims. Rather, the overwhelming majority of her complaint, even when liberally construed, offers legal conclusions—absent supporting factual allegations—insufficient to survive a dismissal motion.

Guarracino v. Kimberly-Clark Corp., 24-CV-3074 (May 14)

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Defaults' Vacatur Denied; Meritorious Defense Lacking; Service Validity Not Challenged

District Judge Brian M. Cogan
Eastern District

Defendant-mortgagors' defaults in the instant Aug. 12, 2024, diversity mortgage foreclosure action were entered under FRCP 55(a). Defendants did not seriously challenge the validity of service made upon them, nor challenged the validity or veracity of plaintiff's affidavits of service. Rather, they argued that the defaults should be vacated because the considerations under Rule 55(c) constitute good cause. Finding defendants wrong, district court denied their defaults' vacatur. To deny plaintiff default judgment and return from "square one" would lead the court back to where it currently is. Defendants almost completely neglected the instant action until default judgment's entry. The court rejected defendants' various assertions that default was not willful. It further determined that defendants did not present a meritorious defense under FRCP 8. Rather, their conclusory assertions appeared pulled "from a form book."

NDF1 LLC v. Verwayne, 24-Cv-5884 (May 14)

U.S. - EDNY | LABOR LAW

Fact Issue Exists as to Employer Status For FLSA, NYLL Purposes

Magistrate Judge Joseph A. Marutollo
Eastern District

Plaintiffs were employed by defendant masonry and bricklaying firm MIRI General Contracting. Codefendant Eduard Demiri worked alongside son Admir, who owned and was president of MIRI. Plaintiffs' action alleged denial of wages and overtime compensation in violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act and New York Labor Law. Instantly, district court denied defendants partial summary judgment on behalf of Eduard. The parties disputed whether Eduard functionally employed plaintiffs under the FLSA and NYLL, and whether Eduard was liable to pay plaintiffs' allegedly wrongfully withheld wages. Defendants also did not comply with Local Civil Rule 56.1. Nor did the admissible evidence demonstrate the absence of a genuine issue of fact. Plaintiffs pointed to testimonial and documentary evidence that Eduard exercised significant control over the terms and conditions of their employment, revealing that there were genuine issues of material fact as to Eduard's status as an employer under the FSLA and NYLL.

Rosas v. MIRI General Contracting Inc., 24-CV-4243 (May 14)

TILA, EFTA Claims Time-Barred; Supplemental Jurisdiction's Exercise Declined

District Judge Lawrence E. Kahn
Northern District

Plaintiff maintained Checking Account #0197 in good standing. in December 2016 she opened new Checking Account #2531 and a new Checking Plus line of credit. When closing Account #0197 there was an associated $9,101.69 outstanding balance on the Checking Plus line of credit. On Jan. 23, 2017 plaintiff used her ATM card to transfer $9,137.28 from her Checking Plus account to Account #2531. Using a bank teller she later withdrew $9,137.38 and paid off the balance linked to Account #0197. Plaintiff did not notify defendant of any dispute or discrepancy with her accounts until she filed her April 17, 2023,action alleging fraud civil RICO violation, and claims under the Truth in Lending Act and Electronic Funds Transfer Act. the court granted defendant summary judgment dismissing suit. Plaintiff's TILA and EFTA claims were time-barred, by relevant statutes of limitation, as was her civil RICO claim. The court declined to exercise supplemental jurisdiction over her fraud and other state law claims.

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statue of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
