DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | CREDITORS' AND DEBTORS' RIGHTS

Case Dismissed; Plaintiff Lacked Standing To Assert Claims

Plaintiff commenced an against defendant Navy Federal Credit Union for $6,733.25 with interest from an ACA Deposit from Architecture in Formation PC (Chase Bank Account). Defendant's answer was filed on Feb. 16, 2024. Defendant moved for summary judgment. The motion was granted. The court held plaintiff lacked standing to commence the action and defendant had no duty to plaintiff, as she was not a customer of defendant. plaintiff's complaint failed to allege any facts or identify any duty owed to the plaintiff by defendant.

Judge Betty Lugo-Martinez
Civil Court

Kondoff v. Navy Federal Credit Union, CV-000010-24/NY (April 10)

KINGS | DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Arbitration Agreement Signed By Plaintiff Enforceable and Not Unconscionable

Plaintiff alleged in his complaint that during his admission to defendant's residential health and nursing care facility he was infected with SARS-CoV-2 and COVID-19 as a result of the negligence and gross negligence of defendant. He sued for personal injuries and punitive damages. Defendant moved to enforce an arbitration agreement plaintiff signed. Plaintiff argued that it was unconscionable. The motion was granted. The court held that an employee's affirmation established that plaintiff voluntarily signed the agreement and that the terms were explained to him. The agreement itself contained bolded language: " THIS AGREEMENT GOVERNS IMPORTANT LEGAL RIGHTS. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING." The agreement also stated that it was voluntary and it explained the arbitration process.

Justice Aaron D. Maslow

Taylor v. Harlem Center For Nursing and Rehabilitation, LLC, 513425/2022 (April 11)

SECOND CIRCUIT | EDUCATION LAW

Question Certified Regarding Students Covered By More Than One Class Size Regulation

Under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, plaintiff rejected the education plan that defendant NYC Department of Education (DOE) created for her son, O.F., and filed suit to seek reimbursement of his private school tuition. Plaintiff contended that defendant's decision to place O.F. in a 12-student classroom violated New York Codes, Rules, and Regulations Title 8, §200.6(h)(4) (ii)(a), which requires that "students whose highly intensive management needs are determined to be highly intensive" be placed in classes of six or fewer students. Defendant conceded that the regulation applies but argued that it had the discretion to place O.F. in the 12-student classroom because a different regulation, mandating a maximum class size of 12 students for students with "severe multiple disabilities," also applied to him. The Second Circuit certified the following question to the New York Court of Appeals: When a student is covered by more than one class size regulation under §200.6(h)(4), whether the varying restrictions serve as distinct requirements that must be independently fulfilled or as a list of class size options from which the DOE may pick.

Cruz v. Banks, 24-1147 (April 15)

U.S. - EDNY | CLASS ACTIONS

Class Certification Granted for Ukrainian Parolees Who Paid $410 Filing Fee

Plaintiff fled to the U.S. after her home country of Ukraine was invaded by Russia. She was paroled into this country on April 24, 2022, and applied for a work permit on May 16, 2022, paying the $410 fee required by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) at the time. Less than a week after she paid the fee, President Biden signed the Additional Ukraine Supplemental Appropriations Act (AUSAA), which gives Ukrainians paroled into the U.S. between Feb. 24, 2022, and Sept. 30, 2023, automatic authorization to work in the U.S. Refugees must still obtain an Employment Authorization Document, but USCIS has a policy of not charging them a fee for the application process. On Nov. 21, 2022, USCIS announced it would apply that policy to Ukrainian parolees in accordance with the AUSAA. Plaintiff sued to recover the $410 she paid prior to the AUSAA's enactment, and she sought to represent a class of other Ukrainian parolees. USCIS later launched a refund program under which qualifying Ukrainian parolees who paid the $410 fee can apply online for a refund. Accordingly, the court granted plaintiff's motion for class certification.

NEW YORK | TRUSTS AND ESTATES

Court Seals Documents Related to Nonparty's Personal Financial Information

Charitable corporation Radio Drama Network, Inc. (RDN) sought to invalidate certain provisions of instruments amending or restating the Himan Brown Revocable Trust established by grantor Himan Brown in 2002. Three motions by nonparty Pryor Cashman LLP were made for orders sealing certain unredacted documents produced to RDN or drafted by RDN that were subsequently filed with the court. The motions were granted in part. The court held that good cause existed to seal records revealing the names of the private trust and/or the trust beneficiary. To do otherwise would have been to expose the personal financial information of nonparties.

Surrogate's Court

Himan Brown Revocable Trust, 2010-2056/A (April 11)

NASSAU | FAMILY LAW

Court Orders Sale of Marital Residence To Pay Off Mortgage

Plaintiff commenced a matrimonial action in which he ceased paying the mortgage on the marital residence. The bank then commenced a foreclosure action. The defendant then made an application to sell the marital residence. The application was granted. The court held plaintiff's indifference to the obligation to maintain the economic status quo and refusal to maintain the marital residence pendente lite warranted the judgment. The court explained the fact that from the date of the acquisition of the marital residence until the commencement of the action, there was no evidence that the marital residence was not maintained; it was only after the plaintiff himself commenced this action did he unilaterally decide to cease mortgage payments.

Justice Edmund M. Dane
Supreme Court

FR v. AR, (redacted) (April 15)

U.S. - SDNY | INSURANCE LITIGATION

Insured Fails to State an Insurance Claim Against His Insurer's Parents and Affiliates

Plaintiff is a participant/subscriber under an employee welfare benefits plan that provided healthcare benefits issued by defendant Oxford Health Insurance (OHI) to plaintiff's employer. Plaintiff underwent medically necessary rhinoplasty performed by Dr. Samieh Rizk, while Dr. Robert Scolnick performed the anesthesia. After OHI denied plaintiff's claims, plaintiff sued OHI and entities that are parents and affiliates of OHI. Plaintiff claimed defendants breached their fiduciary duty to him by failing to follow the terms of the plan to set for specific reasons for denials; that denying reimbursement of fees for his doctor is arbitrary and capricious; and that OHI's continuing failure to accept that Dr. Scolnick's fee is for anesthesia services and not a "facilities" fee constituted mismanagement and neglect. The court granted defendants' motion to dismiss, in part. Among other things, the court agreed with defendants that plaintiff failed to state a claim against any defendant other than OHI since the other defendants are not alleged to be administrators or trustees of the plan, nor are they alleged to be claims administrators who exercise total control over benefits.

District Judge Lewis J. Liman
Southern District

Doe v. Oxford Health Plans (NY) Inc., 24-cv-5922 (April 14)

U.S. - EDNY | CONTRACTUAL DISPUTES

Plaintiff Sufficiently Alleges Defendant Entered Into Loan Modification Agreement

Plaintiff sued Community Loan Servicing (CLS), FCI Lender Svcs., and Nationstar Mortgage for violations of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) and breach of contract arising out of their alleged failure to honor a loan assumption and modification agreement between plaintiff and CLS. Plaintiff contended her approved loss mitigation application resulted in a loan modification agreement between her and CLS. However, CLS and FCI asserted no contract was formed that would provide the basis for plaintiff's RESPA claims. The court held plaintiff sufficiently alleged CLS entered into the agreement, and FCI and Nationstar as successor loan servicers are bound by it. Further, the court found that since plaintiff had otherwise sufficiently pleaded the existence of a valid modification agreement, the alleged errors were covered. Thus, plaintiff sufficiently alleged defendants engaged in covered errors pursuant to RESPA and Regulation X. However, plaintiff failed to state an alleged RESPA or Regulation X violation against FCI since plaintiff's allegations do not support a reasonable inference that FCI failed to reasonably investigate the existence of the agreement.

District Judge Natasha C. Merle
Eastern District

Urquizo v. Cmty. Loan Servicing LLC, 24-cv-00909 (April 11)

BRONX | CRIMINAL LAW

Court Denies in Part Defendant's Motion To Suppress Evidence

Defendant was arraigned on charges of VTL §§ 1192(2), 1192(3), and 1192(1) based on his alleged driving of a car in the Bronx while he had a blood alcohol content exceeding .08 per cent. The court granted defendant's motion for a suppression hearing. The court suppressed Defendant's on-scene unmirandized statement made after police told defendant he must wait for NYPD's tow truck, ruling that a reasonable person innocent of any wrongdoing would not feel free to leave under those circumstances. However, the court denied suppression of defendant's Mirandized statement at NYPD IDTU because it was sufficiently attenuated from the one made on-scene. Additionally, court denied defense motion to preclude the IDTU statement despite an error in the People's CPL 710.30(1)(a) notice.

Judge Daniel M. Lewis

People v. Nieves, CR-014831-24BX (March 24)

GREENE | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Summary Judgment Denied and Granted In Part in Discrimination Action

Plaintiffs brought an action pursuant to the NYS Human Rights Law alleging that Ski Windham Operating Corps. and the other defendants violated plaintiffs' rights by imposing a vaccine mandate and then denying plaintiffs' request for a medical exemption and plaintiff Duncan's request for a religious exemption, resulting in their termination from employment. Defendants moved for summary judgment. The motion was denied and granted in part. The court held that insufficient submissions and issues of fact warranted the denial of the motion for some of the plaintiffs' causes of action for some defendants, while other defendants had the action dismissed against them.

Justice Richard Mott
Supreme Court

Johnson v. Ski Windham Operating Corps., EF2023-180 (March 31)

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Case Dismissed After Plaintiff Fails to Comply With FTCA's Presentment Requirement

Plaintiff's claims arose after a U.S. Postal Service (USPS) employee negligently drove a USPS truck into plaintiff's vehicle at an intersection. Plaintiff filed her administrative claim with the USPS, using Standard Form 95 (SF-95). The court dismissed the action for lack of subject matter jurisdiction, concluding that plaintiff did not comply with the Federal Tort Claims Act's (FTCA) presentment requirement by providing sufficient information about her claim to USPS prior to filing suit. A claimant may not sue for damages under the FTCA "unless the claimant shall have first presented the claim to the appropriate Federal agency and his claim shall have been finally denied by the agency in writing and sent by certified or registered mail." Therefore, the presentment requirement is "jurisdictional and thus cannot be waived," and must be satisfied prior to filing suit. The court held that since plaintiff did not satisfy her burden to demonstrate that defendant received her medical records prior to the lawsuit, the presentment of her claim is limited to the original SF-95, where the descriptions on that form alone are insufficient to meet the presentment requirement.

District Judge Joan M. Azrack
