Claims Against Airbnb Dismissed; Local Law 18 Should Not Be Used for Privacy Reasons

Plaintiff-landlord sued Airbnb to enjoin it from listing short-term residential apartment rentals on its online platform. Plaintiff also sought indemnification of $250,000 from Airbnb for New York City Buildings and Fire Department fines imposed on it for short-term bookings. The court held that landlords have no implied private right of action to enforce Local Law 18 to regulate short-term rentals by suing booking services. The court ruled that Local Law 18 was not intended to protect landlords but to ensure affordable housing by preventing apartments from being used for short-term rentals. The court disagreed with the outcome of courts that considered Local Law 18 suits brought by landlords against booking services. The court therefore dismissed plaintiff's claims against Airbnb.

Justice Gerald Lebovits

NEW YORK | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Claim Dismissed as Guarantor Did Not Sign Lease Extension

A trial for a small claims action was held. Claimant, Stamford Realty Mgmt LLC, appeared by its agent/owner Luis Galpern and Eva Galpern. Defendant, Natasha Yeremenko, appeared self-represented. Luis Galpern testified that it leased an apartment to defendant's son, "Guatenko" and required defendant Yeremenko to sign a guaranty. Claimant sued for rent due for the period November 2024 and February 2025 through June 2025. The tenant returned the keys to the apartment in September 2025. Defendant Yeremenko testified she signed a guaranty for a residential lease for her adopted son, Guatenko. However she denied she guaranteed any renewal or extension lease. Yeremenko never received any notice of the alleged renewal lease. Claimant produced a copy of a Rent Stabilization lease from 2024-2025. The claim was dismissed. The court held claimant, who alleged it was the landlord, but according to ACRIS was not the owner, sued for rent due subsequent to the initial lease. The lease purportedly signed after the initial lease expiration of February 2024 was not contemplated. There was no proof that the guarantor was notified of the subsequent lease.

KINGS | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Court Upholds DHCR Decision Finding Landlord Overcharged Tenant

The court denied an Article 78 petition by plaintiff, upholding a DHCR determination that petitioner overcharged a rent-stabilized tenant. The tenant was considered a month-to-month tenant from December 20, 2012, onwards. The court affirmed the DHCR's decision to disregard an unsigned 2013 and 2014 lease renewals and maintain a rent freeze, finding the landlord's late registration could not retroactively validate unlawful rent increases. Likewise, the two documents of rental history provided by the landlord were fraudulent as determined by DHCR. As the landlord failed to establish the overcharge was not willful, due in part to the submission of fraudulent lease documents, the court sustained the award of treble damages and interest to the tenant.

602 44 Realty LLC v. New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal, 525388/2025 (January 28)

KINGS | INSURANCE LITIGATION

Disputes Over Compensation for Attending No-Fault EUOs Are Arbitrable

Petitioner, a health service provider assignee of no-fault benefits, was denied compensation by the insurer for lost earnings resulting from attending an examination under oath (EUO). After filing for arbitration with the American Arbitration Association (AAA), the arbitrator and master arbitrator denied compensation, ruling that this type of claim was not a first party benefit subject to no-fault arbitration. The court reviewed the history of the No-Fault Law's provision for arbitration, going back to its enactment in 1973. Case law emphasized a policy of relieving the courts from having to resolve no-fault disputes and vesting broad subject matter jurisdiction within the arbitration forum. Even though lost earnings from attending an EUO were not first party benefits, EUO attendance is a component of providing additional verification of a no-fault claim. Although the court declined to vacate the arbitration awards since they were neither irrational, arbitrary, nor capricious in their interpretation of the law, the court did order the AAA to modify its prescribed arbitration request form.

Justice Aaron D. Maslow

ENS Medical v. Nationwide, 504169/2024 (February 13)

KINGS | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Court Declines to Evict Tenant at Sufferance; Strictly Construed Statutes

Petitioner, Gerard Gomez brought a holdover proceeding which was commenced against family members, Joseph Alfred Gomez, Beverley Bailey, Isaiah Gomez predicated upon a 30-day notice of termination of respondents' tenancy at sufferance served pursuant to Real Property Law ("RPL") § 228. Respondents filed a motion, seeking summary judgment. The proceeding was transferred to trial part. The motion was granted. The court held based on an analysis of common law principles and statutory construction rules regarding the interpretation of statutes enacted in common law, the court had no jurisdiction to hear proceedings to oust a tenant at sufferance. Because no court, appellate or otherwise, had specifically been asked by motion to determine the subject matter jurisdiction of housing court to hear these proceedings, the was no basis for the application of the doctrine of stare decisis, fundamental to common law causes of action. However, statutes enacted in derogation of common law were strictly construed by the court.

Perspective Easement Defeated by Prior Restrictive Covenant, Court Holds

Plaintiffs Peacock Point Property Owners Association, Inc. and others brought an action pursuant to Articles 5 and 15 of the New York Real Property and Proceedings Law (RPAPL) and Article 30 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules (CPLR) asserting plaintiffs have a prescriptive easement over defendants' properties. The alleged prescriptive easement was for the use and access over both defendants' properties for plaintiffs to be able to use the common recreation areas of Peacock Point and the Waterfront Areas. Plaintiffs asserted that they or their respective predecessors-in-interest regularly and continuously used, accessed and enjoyed traversing over 91 and 91A Peacock Lane. Plaintiffs further sought to permanently enjoin defendants from interfering with their easement rights to use and access the common recreation areas of Peacock Point and the Waterfront Areas. The court dismissed the action to enforce a prescriptive easement. Upon review of documentary evidence, the court found the claim for prescriptive easement was defeated by a prior restrictive covenant, and the area plaintiffs sought to access by the easement was accessible through other means.

Justice Carolyn Mazzu Genovesi
Supreme Court

Peacock Point Property Owners Association, Inc. v. 91 Peacock Lane LLC, 616599/2025 (February 4)

SECOND CIRCUIT | CRIMINAL APPEALS

Panel Tosses Drug Conviction, Cites Excluded Evidence Affecting Intent Defense

Defendant appealed from a district court judgment, entered after a jury trial, convicting him of conspiracy to import cocaine into the U.S. While defendant, a patrol-level police officer in Colombia, did not dispute that he participated in communications about a proposed cocaine export scheme, he asserted he lacked criminal intent since he believed he was helping the Colombian National Police (CNP) arrange a seizure of the cocaine. On appeal, defendant challenged the district court's exclusion of undisputed evidence that the fellow CNP officer who recruited him into the scheme actually did have relevant experience assisting the CNP in successful drug seizures. The Second Circuit vacated and remanded, finding the court erred in excluding the challenged evidence, which tended to corroborate defendant's testimony about key conversations with his colleague that were directly relevant to his state of mind. Further, the panel found the evidence was not barred by Federal Rule of Evidence 404(b). Finally, because defendant's defense turned on whether he had criminal intent and because a jury could credit his evidence on this point, the panel held that the error was not harmless.

U.S. - SDNY | SECURITIES LITIGATION

Securities Claims Survive Against Defendant For Alleged Role in Sham Acquisition Scheme

Plaintiffs in a putative securities class action asserted defendants engaged in a scheme to illicitly transfer hundreds of millions of dollars from cash reserves of Global Cord Blood Corp. to the founder of its former parent company and businesses under his control. To conceal this alleged misappropriation of company funds, defendants publicly announced what plaintiffs contended to be sham acquisition of a small medical-research startup in a deal that was to include $664 million in cash consideration for an allegedly worthless product technology. That transaction was never consummated. Plaintiffs sued Global Cord and several executives. They also sued Golden Meditech Holdings, which allegedly received the undisclosed cash transfers and stood to benefit from the failed transaction. Meditech argued the complaint did not allege its involvement in the transaction with sufficient particularity, as the complaint relied on the roles of Meditech's non-party subsidiaries. Based on the allegations as well as the text of a Framework Agreement, the court held plaintiffs sufficiently alleged Meditech's participation in a device, scheme or artifice to defraud through its subsidiary.

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL RIGHTS

Court Dismisses Former NYPD Comm'r Suit Alleging Misconduct by City, Police Officials

Plaintiff, who served briefly as Interim Commissioner of the NY Police Department (NYPD) in 2024, sued the City of New York, former Mayor Adams and NYPD officials, alleging racketeering, retaliation and other legal violations. Plaintiff claimed that during his tenure, senior NYPD officials undermined his authority, blocked investigations, misused his signature stamp to promote unqualified officers, subverted transfers and orchestrated the retaliatory arrest of his wife. He also alleged broader mismanagement and interference in NYPD programs, including social media oversight, the Drone Program and evidence warehouse inspections. The court dismissed the complaint in full, finding that the RICO claims failed because the complaint did not plausibly allege an "association-in-fact" enterprise with a common unlawful purpose, and the conspiracy claims were derivative of this failure. Plaintiff's §1983 claims also failed, including his First Amendment retaliation claim, as he was in a policymaking role, making him subject to political loyalty considerations, and he did not sufficiently allege violations of federal law.

U.S. - SDNY | PERSONAL INJURY

Court Throws Out Suit Over Spicy Salsa; No Duty for Restaurant to Warn of Heat Level

Plaintiff alleged he suffered severe physical and emotional injuries as a result of unknowingly consuming excessively spicy salsa at Los Tacos No. 1's Times Square location. The court granted summary judgment to Los Tacos, concluding that plaintiff's claims failed as a matter of law. First, the court found that plaintiff failed to state a claim that Los Tacos negligently served excessively spicy salsa at the Times Square location, agreeing with the restaurant's argument that Mexican food, and more specifically, salsa, is often spicy. Further, the court held that where there is evidence that the Los Tacos salsa bar was abnormally spicy as compared to other salsas or Mexican food, there is no duty to warn a consumer of the spice-associated risks that come with consuming salsa. The court noted that the only evidence plaintiff put forward was his personal testimony regarding injuries suffered from consuming the salsa without providing any evidence of anyone else having suffered an injury form or complained about consuming Los Tacos' salsa. As a result, no jury could conclude that Los Tacos had a duty to warn plaintiff of the inherent spice present in their salsa.

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Court Dismisses ATA Claims Over Alleged ISIS Payments, Finds No Direct Nexus to Attacks

The court reviewed two cases concerning atrocities committed by ISIS. In one case, plaintiffs asserted claims arising out of the terrorist group's 2016 bombing in Istanbul. In the other, plaintiffs asserted claims arising out of ISIS's 2015 attack in Paris and its 2016 attack in Brussels. Plaintiffs sought compensation from defendants, alleging liability under the Anti-Terrorism Act (ATA). Plaintiffs argued defendants made payments to ISIS that "enabled the terrorist attacks" in Istanbul, Paris and Brussels. The court dismissed the primary-liability claims, with prejudice, as they failed to allege the payments to ISIS were "directed at a specifically identifiable violent or dangerous act." The court also held plaintiffs failed to allege terroristic intent, as plaintiffs admitted defendants acted for the "specific purpose of protecting [their] employees, assets, and future economic opportunities in Syria." Therefore, it was immaterial if defendants knew their payments to ISIS would inevitably support terrorist operations. Finally, plaintiffs failed to establish proximate causation since they failed to allege defendants' payments to ISIS "led directly" to the attacks.

UNIFIED COURT SYSTEM

Advisory Committee on AI and the Courts Issues Inaugural Annual Report

An advisory group appointed by Chief Administrative Judge Joseph A. Zayas to study the intricate issues surrounding the use of artificial intelligence in the courts has released its inaugural annual report, a landmark document outlining policies, recommendations, and ethical frameworks for the responsible use of AI in the state's court system.

Drawing on the diverse expertise of its 40-plus members, the Advisory Committee on Artificial Intelligence and the Courts thoroughly explored the opportunities AI presents to improve efficiency, enhance legal services, and expand access to the courts, while also confronting the serious risks it poses, such as bias, misinformation, and threats to confidentiality and due process.

Based on extensive research, stakeholder engagement, and collaborative deliberation, the 154-page report includes findings, recommendations, and policy proposals from each of the Advisory Committee's six specialized subcommittees: Access to the Courts; Bias and Equity; Court Administration and Management; Evidence, Authenticity, and Reliability; Generative AI in Lawyering and Dispute Resolution; and Knowledge, Proficiency, and Professional Responsibility.

Among the highlights contained in the report are:

- An interim policy on AI use, adopted by the court system in October 2025, that establishes guardrails for judges and court staff, requiring AI training and restricting AI use to approved platforms such as Microsoft Copilot Chat, with the Advisory Committee now monitoring feedback from the 200-plus judges and non-judicial employees who recently completed the court system's Microsoft Copilot Chat pilot program.

- A document produced in connection with the AI use policy that sets forth ethical considerations for judges and their staff in using AI, with an emphasis on confidentiality, judicial independence, and responsible AI use.

- A proposed model rule addressing the use of generative AI by attorneys or litigants in preparing court papers and firmly establishing that any such use of AI must be undertaken in a conscientious manner.

- Recommendations for the use of AI tools that, prioritizing data security, transparency, and accountability and guarding against bias, will serve to assist unrepresented litigants and improve language accessibility.

- Findings related to the assessment and admissibility of AI-generated evidence and ways for courts to avoid the risk of unreliable evidence being admitted at trial and prevent unnecessary delays in proceedings, among other evidentiary issues.

- Recommendations for the use of AI to enhance court operations and administration, such as for court research, case inventory management, computer programming, and data security, among other tasks.

- Strategies for mitigating bias, with the Advisory Committee calling for safeguards to ensure that AI tools are developed and implemented in a manner that promotes equity, prevents unfair bias, and supports the courts' ability to safeguard the rights of all individuals, particularly those from historically marginalized communities. The report contains detailed findings from the Bias and Equity subcommittee that address the risks, as well as the legal and ethical challenges, presented by AI in the justice system. These findings underscore the need for guardrails to prevent algorithmic bias, along with crossvalidation protocols and strict limits on AI, particularly in the high-risk context of assisting with crucial decisions such as bail and sentencing.

- Proposals for the creation of educational materials to promote AI literacy for all court users.

- Recommendations for expanded judicial training and CLE programs, with the Advisory Committee on AI in the Courts collaborating with the courts' Advisory Committee on Judicial Ethics in presenting several judicial training programs designed to address some of the legal, practical, and ethical dimensions of AI.

"The use of AI in and by our courts must be thoughtful, careful, and principled," said Chief Judge Rowan D. Wilson. "This report provides a roadmap for harnessing technology to improve efficiency and access to justice while safeguarding fairness and fostering public trust in our courts and justice system."
