Court Awards Plaintiff $3,000,000 Concerning Sale of Business to Defendant

Plaintiff brought an action concerning the sale of a business to the defendant. The clerk entered judgment in the amount of $3,000,000. The court held it rejected the defendant’s arguments that the parties’ Asset Purchase Agreement was either ambiguous or a “scrivener’s error.” The court noted parties hedged the transaction with some complicated provisions and because it reflected that the court changed its mind about certain key issues during the trial. The court believed that a mathematical example included in section 2.6(f) rendered that section ambiguous. After trial, however, and having analyzed the contract more closely, the court agreed with plaintiff that the provision was not ambiguous.

RICHMOND | FAMILY LAW

Court Finds Defendant in Contempt of Child Support Order

A rising from a pending matrimonial action for divorce, plaintiff moved for an adjudication of civil contempt against defendant, for his failure to comply with a child support order and the issuance of a coercive contempt remedy with a purge condition; pendente lite maintenance; interim counsel fees; and reallocation of expert costs. Defendant cross-moved seeking reargument and downward modification of the child support order and sanctions against plaintiff’s counsel. Defendant was adjudicated in civil contempt as to their obligation. Imputation of income was found to be appropriate, and plaintiff was awarded pendente lite maintenance in the amount of $2,000 per month and $15,000 in interim counsel fees. The court held plaintiff’s submissions detailed — with documentary specificity — defendant’s systematic efforts to conceal income, evade disclosure obligations, and obstruct court proceedings, while claiming minimal or no income in his Statement of Net Worth and 2023 tax return.

SECOND CIRCUIT | CRIMINAL LAW

Court Individually Assessed Need for Special Conditions on Supervised Release

After pleading guilty to being a felon in possession of a firearm and ammunition Thompson was sentenced to 37 months’ imprisonment followed by two years’ supervised release specially conditioned on submission to reasonable searches; compliance with sexual offender registration requirements; and, a mental health evaluation and treatment if needed. Rejecting Thompson’s challenges, the Second Circuit affirmed the district court’s judgment. The record showed Thompson consented to mental health treatment. Thus he waived his challenge to that condition’s imposition. Also, the court’s reasoning for the special conditions was amply supported by the record. Further, the district court ensured that Thompson’s guilty plea was knowing and voluntary, thus negating his claim of ineffective assistance of counsel. Contrary to Thompson’s argument otherwise, the district court individually assessed the need for the three special conditions imposed on his supervised release. It was presented with, and considered, an ample basis for imposing the mental health treatment condition as well as the search condition.

U.S. - NDNY | CONTRACTUAL DISPUTES

Law-Of-The-Case Doctrine Applies to Suit Against University Over COVID-19 Instruction

Plaintiff’s putative class suit against Syracuse University (SU), alleging breach of contract and unjust enrichment, stemmed from its transition to remote online instruction in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. SU has defended at last three similar actions—brought by the same attorney—since 2020. On Sept. 13, 2024, SU sought dismissal of plaintiff’s lawsuit under the law-of-the-case doctrine and for failure to state a claim. Granting SU’s motion, district court dismissed plaintiff’s lawsuit. His putative class suit attempted to raise the same claims previously dismissed by the court. Applying the law-of-the-case doctrine serves the court’s interests in fairness to the parties, judicial economy, and finality. Each time a named plaintiff received an adverse outcome a new named plaintiff would be substituted or the case would be strategically dismissed, only for the same pleading to reappear on another docket under the name of another named plaintiff, resulting in a never-ending battle for SU.

NEW YORK | CRIMINAL LAW

Motion to Compel DNA samples Denied In Criminal Action

The Manhattan District Attorney’s Office moved for an order directing the defendant to provide samples of his saliva for DNA analysis. The defendant opposed, arguing that the People had shown neither probable cause to believe the defendant has committed the crime nor a clear indication that relevant material evidence will be found. The defendant also cross-moved for a protective order limiting the use of any compelled DNA sample or any other DNA sample collected from the defendant while he was in police custody. Both motions were denied. The court held the People had not demonstrated probable cause to believe that the defendant was guilty of the charged offenses, the court didn’t need to consider any of the other statutory or constitutional factors.

Court Orders Supervised Parenting For Father to Heal Relationship With Child

In a matrimonial proceeding, the Mother filed a petition alleging a violation of the prior order of custody and parenting time regarding the Father’s failure to provide medical documentation regarding ongoing compliance with mental health treatment, and a second petition seeking modification of the order of custody and parenting time. The Father filed a cross-petition also seeking modification of the prior order of custody and parenting time. After trial, the court found that amid inconsistent and questionable actions by the father, supervised parenting time was appropriate until such time that the Father is able to stabilize and heal his relationship with the 13 year-old subject child via therapeutic parenting time.

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Reconsideration Denied; Arguments Raised Were Previously Dismissed

On Sept. 24, 2024, the court granted Orange County and its codefendants dismissal from plaintiff Marvin’s pro se lawsuit. The court dismissed Marvin’s claims for lack of subject matter jurisdiction as barred by the Tax Injunction Act (TIA). His RICO claim merely reframed alleged tax exemption denials, and allegations about unrecieved tax bills failed to state a claim. Rather than filing a Second Amended Complaint (SAC) Marvin filed a “motion to arrest order of dismissal” and also sought attorney fees and costs, which the court construed as the instant Motion for Reconsideration, which it denied. Marvin raised the same arguments that were previously dismissed, and failed to assert any intervening change in controlling law, new evidence, or clear error that would warrant reconsideration. The alleged evidence that the “Court needs to re-read” plainly refers to a local tax matter inappropriate for the court to rule on under the TIA. Further, Arizona v. Youngblood, cited to as alleging the court’s effort to mis-read the case, is inapposite as it concerns the preservation of evidence and due process and has no bearing on suit..

U.S. - WDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Interpleader Party Cannot Extend Deadlines For Fact, Expert Witness Discovery

Interpleader defendants Provenzi, Ikonick Collection LTD and Alsalousi (collectively Ikonick) each claimed ownership of a 1996 Ferrari F50 automobile seized by the government. Ikonick moved to extend the deadlines in the court’s Third Amended Case Management Order and to compel Provenzi to produce the keys to the Ferrari for inspection. Instantly, the magistrate judge denied both non-dispositive motions. Ikonick could not continue fact discovery beyond May 9, 2025, nor offer any expert testimony that was due by June 25, 2025. Ikonick did not show good cause for an extension under FRCP 16(b)(4). Among other things, Provenzi provided Ikonick with a photograph of the keys seven weeks before the deadline for completion of fact discovery. Despite Provenzi’s testimony two weeks prior to the deadline for fact discovery that the keys were in his possession in Italy, Ikonick did not follow up on its request for the until two days before the deadline. Even had Provenzi consented to an extension of the deadline, absent good cause such consent is irrelevant.

Pro se Motion Papers Deficient; Not Compliant With CPLR 2214(a)

Plaintiff Kevin Rios purchased a double burial plot when his girlfriend Joanne Montanez passed away. Plaintiff and pro se defendant Kathy Rivera dispute who would be buried in the empty plot adjacent to Ms. Montanez. Defendant Rivera filed a motion, describing the relief sought as granting defendant Kathy Rivera to keep her mother’s deed in accordance to state laws in being the rightful owner. In her affidavit in support, she requested an order for motion for leave untimely matter due to the difficulty of obtaining legal services. The motion was denied. The court found defendant’s motion too ambiguous and not compliant with CPLR 2214(a), which required that the relief demanded and the grounds therefor be set forth.

Court Finds New York Has Jurisdiction Over Matrimonial Action

Petitioner J.K.R filed an upward modification petition pursuant to the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act. She lives in Colorado and respondent M.W.B. had been staying in New York due to military orders. M.W.B. filed a motion to dismiss based upon lack of New York state jurisdiction, improper Nassau County venue, and failure to state a cause of action. The court found that New York had jurisdiction to proceed because the parties’ controlling order was entered in Nassau County and M.W.B. had a significant connection to New York having lived here for a period of time during the year. The court also found that pursuant to Family Court Act Section 171, Nassau County is the proper venue even though M.W.B. has been living in New York County. The court further found that pursuant to Family Court Act Section 451, J.K.R. properly alleged a cause of action such that the case may proceed.

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

FRCP 11 Sanctions Denied; ‘Colorable Basis’ Exists for Claims Asserted

A limited issue bench trial was held on whether plaintiff Schwartz was ever employed by the defendants for purposes of determining whether, if he was so employed, he was owed wages under the Fair Labor Standards Act. Decision therein is sub judice. Instantly, defendants sought sanction against plaintiff and counsel, contending that action was frivolous and done with the improper intent of harassing the defendants. Plaintiff countered that the action was not frivolous, as evidenced by the parties’ discovery, wherein plaintiff provided 800 pages of discovery material. Informed by the 2022 decision in Kim v. Kini LLC Corp. the district court denied defendants’ motion for sanctions under FRCP 11. Their “merely conclusory” claim of harassment was unsupported. Also, at trial, plaintiff produced ample testimony and exhibits to support his claim. There was, at least, a “colorable basis” for the claims asserted, whether plaintiff prevails or not, such that Rule 11 sanctions were inappropriate.

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the “clerk of the court” is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the court-houses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a “filing” which tolls the running of the applicable statue of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk’s certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJL.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
