DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Dismissal Denied, Discrimination of Plaintiff Because of Weight Plausible

Justice Hasa A. Kingo
Supreme Court

Plaintiff Angela Harris alleged discriminations against the City of New York on the basis of her weight for a probation officer position. Defendant moved to dismiss. The motion was denied. The court held that plaintiff adequately stated a cause of action for unlawful weight discrimination by pleading she is a person of a certain weight, passed civil service exam number 3037 and was invited to appear for a medical evaluation, was told to leave and only return after losing 95 LBS and was not sworn in as a probation officer among those that passed civil service exam number 3037. The allegations that plaintiff was instructed to leave and only return after losing 95 LBS and that she was given a form recording her current weight with the directive to be reweighed after shedding a specific number of pounds, were sufficient to establish an inference of discrimination.

Harris v. City of New York, 156195/2024 (March 19)

NEW YORK | ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Department of Transportation's Negative Declaration Upheld

Justice Leslie A. Stroth
Supreme Court

Petitioners brought an article 78 proceeding challenging a negative declaration issued by respondent City of New York related to the City's Dining Out NYC program. Petitioners, all New York City residents, commenced a proceeding on Oct. 31, 2023, alleging that the City had ignored hundreds of complaints about the temporary open restaurants program (TOR) on noise, vermin, garbage accumulation, and crowded sidewalks. The court found that DOT's decision to issue the negative declaration was not arbitrary or capricious, an abuse of discretion, or affected by an error of law. DOT identified eight potential impact categories, which included the specific environmental concerns raised by petitioners, that required further review, took the requisite hard look at them and made a detailed, reasoned elaboration for its determination.

Petitioner's Expulsion For Use of 'Certified PA' Signature Upheld By Court

Justice Veronica G. Hummel
Supreme Court

Petitioner was expelled from the College of Mount Saint Vincent Physician Assistant's program for writing a recommendation letter which she signed as PA-C, which traditionally means certified PA. While conceding that the signature was an ethical violation, petitioner argued that it was a mistake and the College's decision to expel her was draconian and was based on anti-Muslim bias. The College argued that the committees and appeals offices' rationally reached their decisions on the purely disciplinary issue and the sanction must be upheld. Respondents moved to dismiss. The motion was granted. The court analyzed the Article 78 claims and found that the College's actions were within its rights. The court was without authority to replace its penalty for the one imposed by the College. Furthermore the remaining discrimination, contract, and prima facie tort claims were dismissed as subsumed in the Article 78 or for insufficient pleading.

Mirza v. College of Mount Saint Vincent, 805075/2024E (March 18)

KINGS | MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

Motion to Dismiss Denied in Medical Malpractice Suit

Justice Consuelo Mallafre Melendez
Supreme Court

Plaintiff-administrator brought claims for medical malpractice, negligence, and wrongful death, in connection to medical treatment and care of decedent. A prior medical malpractice action had been marked administratively disposed, for failure to appear at a compliance conference, after the administrator's letters had been revoked and before a new administrator was substituted. Plaintiff commenced a new action within six months. Defendants moved to dismiss the action as time-barred, arguing that CPLR 205 (a) was not applicable. The motion was denied. The court held that CPLR 205 (a) applied in the case. First, the new administrator of the estate was a successor in interest to the original administrator. Second, the first action was timely commenced despite the original administrator's alleged lack of capacity. Finally, the termination of the prior action was without prejudice and did not constitute a neglect to prosecute dismissal.

Samuel v. Brookdale Hospital Medical Center, 527690/2024 (March 14)

NEW YORK | FAMILY LAW

Application Granted to 3rd Party Intervenor In Divorce Action

Justice Jeffrey S. Sunshine
Supreme Court

The court granted a 3rd party intervenor's application in a divorce action and found after an evidentiary hearing that the intervenor was a one-half owner of the two family residence owned by the plaintiff-husband and the intervenor, and found that there was no credible testimony or documentary evidence in support of the defendant-wife's contention that the intervenor had no ownership interest in the residence and had only been a tenant paying rent. Credible testimony by the intervenor, the plaintiff-husband and numerous witnesses including the real estate attorney who represented the plaintiff-husband and the intervenor's husband established that the plaintiff-husband and the intervenor's husband, who were both immigrants from Egypt, agreed to pool their financial resources to purchase a residence where both their families could live. The record established that intervenor's husband subsequently transferred his ownership interest in the residence to his wife who was the intervenor. The court found that the numerous witnesses called by the intervenor testified credibly. The court found that the defendant-wife's testimony lacked credibility.

Khalil v. Mahmoud, 550104/2020 (March 12)

NASSAU | CRIMINAL LAW

Images From Criminal Defendant Found Identifiable; Dismissal Denied

Judge Tricia M. Ferrell
District Court

Defendant was charged with unlawful dissemination of an intimate image. Defendant moved to dismiss arguing the images were not identifiable as required by statute rendering the charge facially insufficient and that the charge failed to allege sufficient facts to establish the element of intent. The motion was denied. The court found that the images were identifiable from the image itself or information displayed in connection with the image. Further, the court reasoned that intent need not be explicit but can be inferred from conduct and reasonable inferences of the facts. The court held that while the accusatory instrument was legally sufficient as the Nassau District Attorney's Office met their prima facie requirement, whether the prosecution can meet their burden of proof was not for the court to determine immediately.

People v. Christopher H., CR-013293-24NA (February 25)

SECOND CIRCUIT | CRIMINAL LAW

Second-Degree Attempted Assault Violating NYPL§120.05(7) Is 'Crime of Violence'

Per Curiam
U.S. Court of Appeals

Cooper was convicted, after pleading guilty, to possessing ammunition as a convicted felon. He was sentenced to 57 months' in prison, three years' supervision, and a special assessment. On appeal he argued that district court erred when it concluded that his prior conviction for second-degree attempted assault under New York Penal Law §120.05(7) was a crime of violence pursuant to U.S. Sentencing Guideline §2K2.1(a). Second Circuit affirmed judgment, agreeing with district court that second-degree attempted assault in violation of §120.05(7) is a crime of violence. Cooper waived any argument that his conviction for second-degree attempted assault was not made under §120.05(7). He expressly acknowledged that he had been convicted under §120.05(7). The Circuit held that a conviction for second-degree assault under §120.05(7) is categorically a crime of violence for purposes of USSG §2K2.1(a). The "physical force" required for an offense to be a crime of violence under the Guidelines is "force capable of causing physical pain or injury to another person."

U.S. v. Cooper, 23-6911 (March 14)

'Gaza Protest' Graduate Student Denied Habeas Relief; Action Is Transferred to New Jersey

District Judge Jesse M. Furman
Southern District

Columbia University graduate student Khalil holds a "green card" and is married to a U.S. citizen. He was recently arrested by immigration authorities based on a determination by the Secretary of State that his presence or activities would have potentially serious adverse foreign policy consequences for the United States. Khalil sought 28 USC §2241 habeas corpus relief, arguing that his arrest, detention, and potential removal in retaliation for participating in protests of Israel's military campaign against Gaza violated his First Amendment right to free speech and his Fifth Amendment right to due process, as well as the Administrative Procedure Act. The court denied the government's motion to dismiss Khalil's petition for habeas relief, but transferred action to the District of New Jersey. When the habeas petition was filed on his behalf Khalil was detained in New Jersey. Thus, the district-of-confinement and immediate-custodian rules required that Khalil's petition for habeas relief should have been filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey.

Khalil v. Joyce, 25-CV-1935 (March 19)

U.S. - SDNY | BANKRUPTCY

Appeal of Adversary Proceeding's Dismissal Is Dismissed; Standing Lacking, Claims Barred

District Judge Kenneth M. Karas
Southern District

Proceeding pro se the Joneses appealed a bankruptcy court's dismissal of their adversary proceeding against PennyMac Loan Services LLC. District court granted appellee PennyMac's motion to dismiss the appeal. The Joneses did not file their appeal brief within the 30-day deadline outlined by Rule 8018, and to date, have not filed their brief. Nor did they seek an extension of time to do so until after PennyMac sought the court's permission to move to dismiss the appeal on timeliness grounds. The Joneses ignorance of deadlines, even taking into account their pro se status, did not excuse their neglect. Over a year has passed since the Joneses filed their notice of appeal, and they have no excuse for not filing their brief at any point during that time frame, particularly as they were put on notice of the deficiency in March 2024. Also, the Joneses lacked standing to pursue claims not previously disclosed in their Debtors' Schedule. Those same claims were also barred by the Rooker-Feldman doctrine.

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Foreclosure Challenge's Remand to State Court Is Explained; Diversity Is Lacking

District Judge Eric Komitee
Eastern District

Invoking federal question and diversity jurisdiction Polanco, proceeding pro se, sought federal removal of U.S. Bank Trust's state court foreclosure action. Polanco referred to himself as "a private American National of the union of the state of New York," and alleged that U.S. Bank Trust was a citizen of Delaware and Texas and that co-plaintiff DLJ Mortgage Capital Inc. was a citizen of Delaware and New York. Identifying no procedural or substantive loss, Polanco sought "equitable relief" including full title to realty in his name, mortgage satisfaction, and void of any security interest in the subject property by banks, servicers, or financial institutions. District court remanded action to state supreme court in Queens. Even if Polanco alleged his New York citizenship, there would be no diversity, as one of the defendants is also a New York citizen. Nor did Polanco satisfy 28 USC §1446's statutory requirements for removal. The notice of removal was not filed within 30 days of the initial pleading. Nor did the other served defendants join in Polanco's notice of removal.

U.S. Bank Trust N.A. v. Polanco, 25-CV-938 (March 18)

U.S. - WDNY | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Complaint Does Not Allege Discrimination Based on Race, Protected Characteristic

District Judge Lawrence J. Vilardo
Western District

Invoking Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), and the New York State Human Rights Law, Nance alleged racial discrimination and retaliation stemming from his employment with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). He named as defendants then VA Secretary McDonough and Rigg, a senior official at the VA hospital in Buffalo. Nance filed an amended complaint on March 15, 2024. The court granted McDonough dismissal, and also dismissed Nance's WPA and Federal Tort Claims Act claims against Rigg without prejudice. Nance's amended complaint did not refer to racial discrimination nor attached his administrative complaint or referred to that complaint's raising the issue of discrimination. Nance did not allege any facts suggesting that he was discriminated against based on race or any other protected characteristic. His amended complaint alleged retaliation because he complained about his work assignments and other work procedures.

Calendar Control Part 1

Justice R. Bruce Cozzens
516-493-3172

CCP Part Rules

Cases appearing on the DCM and CCP Calendars in the Trial Assignment Part are ready for trial. Pursuant to 22 NYCRR §202.27, failure by counsel for a party plaintiff or a self-represented party plaintiff to appear will subject that case to dismissal. Failure by counsel for a party defendant or self-represented party defendant to appear will subject the case to an immediate inquest.

All cases appearing on the DCM Trial Calendar will be disposed pursuant to the time limits set forth in 22 NYCRR §202.19.

Attorney service may answer the Calendar and request an adjournment, within the 22 NYCRR §202.19 time frame, only on consent of all parties.

In all cases in which a party intends to present a motion in limine, that party shall so advise the Court prior to jury selection.

All stipulations of settlement recorded by the court on the report of settlement and entered into the clerk's computer record system are valid and enforceable pursuant to CPLR 2104.

The following calendars are subject to changes — including adjournments — which may occur prior to the court date. Please call the Court Clerk to verify.

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statue of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
