DECISIONS OF INTEREST

APP. DIV. | PERSONAL INJURY

Sidewalk Injury Lawsuit Is Reinstated; Issues Of Fact Exist on ‘Special Use’ Liability

Defendant is the owner of a four-story residential building in Brooklyn. Since 2015, nonparty members of defendant have resided at the premises, occupying three floors while renting out the ground-floor garden apartment. The premises include an adjacent, unattached three-car garage. Plaintiff was injured when she tripped and fell on the sidewalk used by the nonparties, the garden apartment tenant, and a neighbor as a driveway to access the premises’ garage, which defendant used and rented out to two others. The Appellate Division reversed dismissal of the action. While the panel agreed defendant was exempt from statutory liability under New York City’s Sidewalk Law as an owner-occupied residential property, it found that the lower court improperly ignored plaintiff’s common-law claims under the “special use” exception, which requires an owner to maintain a sidewalk used for its own benefit in a reasonably safe condition. Because defendant failed to conclusively show that the sidewalk defect was unrelated to its special use and conflicting expert testimony existed, summary judgment was inappropriate, and the complaint was reinstated for further proceedings.

Justice Sallie Manzanet-Daniels
First Department

Prete v. JJ Hoyt LLC, 161724/19 (January 22)

NEW YORK | LABOR LAW

Motion to Vacate Default Judgment in Labor Law Action Denied

Plaintiffs’ brought an action concerning work for defendants and their claims that defendants violated the New York Labor Law by failing to pay proper wages and failing to pay for overtime work. The judge previously assigned to the matter referred the issue of damages to a special referee, after defendants’ attorney had withdrawn as counsel and defendants defaulted, and the referee awarded damages to plaintiffs in a decision from September 2021. Eventually, plaintiffs obtained a default judgment against defendants. Individual defendant moved to reargue to vacate the default. The motion was denied. The court held the prior judge required the undertaking on the ground that individual defendant did not keep his former counsel apprised of his whereabouts and the court declined to modify that decision.

Justice Arlene P. Bluth
Supreme Court

House v. Slow Food, LLC, 159450/2018 (January 12)

NEW YORK | LEGAL MALPRACTICE

Motion to Dismiss Legal Malpractice Claim Granted by Court

Plaintiffs, two medical services entities and a physician, commenced an action against multiple law firms, individual attorneys, and collection and billing entities asserting claims for legal malpractice, breach of contract, and breach of fiduciary duty. Plaintiffs alleged that the defendants departed from either reasonable legal practice or the terms of their collection agreements in failing to timely commence legal proceedings, adequately manage or otherwise expedite collections procedures, and collaborate with each other to avoid lost revenue for plaintiffs. Notably, plaintiffs claim, with no factual support, that the law firm defendants and the billing services defendants were alter egos of each other. In moving to dismiss plaintiffs’ amended complaint, the attorney and law firm defendants argued that the allegations are bereft of an instance of legal malpractice which could conceivably serve as the basis of such claims. The motion was granted. The court found that merely asserting the existence of an agreement for collections, absent factual allegations pertaining to its breach and causation of damages, is insufficient to support a breach of contract claim.

Justice Dakota D. Ramsey

Metro Pain Specialist P.C. v. The Russell Friedman Law Group LLP, 155532/2023 (January 29)

NEW YORK | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Motion for Discovery Granted, Court Narrows Applicable Timeframe

In a consolidated action for pre-trial motions related to five no-grounds holdovers, where all five of the respondent-tenants were sub-lessees who lived in a building that was legally a cooperative but where it was undisputed that petitioner Edelstein LLC has owned shares that correspond to 84 of the 85 units in the building since at least the year 2000, respondent-tenants raised defenses and counterclaims alleging that because Edelstein LLC controls virtually all the shares of the co-op, the co-op itself was a sham and their apartments should not be exempt from rent regulation. Respondent-tenants moved for discovery seeking information related to the co-op and whether or not it was functioning in a bona fide manner. Petitioner-landlord moved to strike various defenses and counterclaims raised in respondent-tenants’ answers, including those related to unlawful deregulation and overcharge. The court granted respondent-tenants’ motion for discovery, though narrowed the applicable timeframe.

NEW YORK | TRUSTS AND ESTATES

Court Grant Respondent’s Motion For Examination by Petitioner

Decedent died on June 22, 2024, and was survived by his spouse, Monica Kathleen Drill (Kathy) and his children. Under the propounded instrument, decedent’s entire estate poured over into the Craig A. Drill Revocable Trust. Kathy, as the nominated executor, filed a proceeding seeking to admit the purported will to probate, and preliminary letters issued to her on December 3, 2024. Respondents Clifford and Austin appeared and demanded SPA 1404 examinations. Respondents moved for leave to take the pre-objection examination of petitioner. The motion was granted. The court held petitioner had not demonstrated that she would be prejudiced in any way by the requested examination or a brief extension of the deadlines, particularly given the numerous discovery disputes and adjournments in the case.

KINGS | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Harassment Found Against Landlord After Not Restoring Tenants to Apartments

Petitioners filed a HP proceeding for an Order to Correct violations and a finding of harassment, with a restraining order, for damages, costs and fees. The subject premises was described as 80 Clarkson Avenue in Brooklyn. The building has 83 Class A Units. Due to a fire in the building, the New York City Department of Buildings (DOB) issued a vacate order as to thirteen apartments in the building. The petitioners were restored to their building. The court held that a landlord delaying the restoration of tenants to their units after they were vacated by a fire is grounds for harassment. The court also concluded in its reasoning that the units were downsized and not fully restored to code following the renovations.

Nicholson v. 80 Clarkson Partners, LT-305368-25/KI (January 23)

WESTCHESTER | FAMILY LAW

Court Refuses to Give Respondent Ninth Court Appointed Attorney

Respondent-father, T.J., in an abuse and neglect matter forfeited his right to the assignment of an eighth attorney following the breakdown of his relationship with seven prior competent and experienced assigned attorneys and the attorney for the child. T.J. repeatedly demonstrated through his own belligerent, threatening and otherwise egregious behavior toward attorneys, court staff and others involved in the proceedings, that it would have been imprudent for the court to assign another attorney to him. The court noted having gone through an extensive list of available court-appointed attorneys, even if the court were to decide to assign T.J. another attorney, the court found itself without an available attorney to assign.

Judge Maritza Fugaro

SECOND CIRCUIT | CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Foster Children Can Challenge Denial of Relative Certification on Due Process Grounds

Plaintiffs were 14 children who were removed from their biological parents by NYC officials. Other relatives sought certifications to foster or adopt the children but were denied because of a criminal history or a report of child abuse or mistreatment. Plaintiffs alleged NY’s certification scheme violates their due process rights to family integrity and to be free from harm. They also alleged NY violated their right to procedural due process by not affording them notice or an opportunity to challenge the denial of a relative’s application. The district court dismissed the complaint for lack of standing and alternatively because plaintiffs asserted only the rights of third-party relatives. The panel reversed in part and remanded, holding plaintiffs have standing, as they have suffered a real-world harm, traceable to defendants. The panel held plaintiffs are asserting their own rights rather than those of their relatives. However, the panel noted that some claims are moot, as two plaintiffs are now in the care of a relative foster parent and another has aged out of the foster system, while only one plaintiff has standing to challenge NY’s certification scheme for adoption.

U.S. - SDNY | DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Arbitration Award Confirmed for Breach Of Consulting Agreements, Conflict of Interest

Transperfect Translations, a software development company, petitioned to confirm an arbitration award against respondents under the Federal Arbitration Act and the United Nations Convention on Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards. The arbitration arose from breaches of consulting agreements and conflicts of interest, with the individual respondent, a software engineer who was an employee of Transperfect from 2005 to 2015, failing to disclose continued ownership of respondent Emisia GmbH while managing its work for Transperfect. The arbitration panel found both respondents liable, awarding over $13 million in damages. As respondents did not oppose the petition, the instant court confirmed the arbitration award and granted pre- and post-judgment interest. The court held that petitioner presented undisputed evidence that arbitration was appropriate here, there was no dispute that the arbitration panel acted within the scope of its authority, and petitioner submitted evidence demonstrating respondents participated in the arbitration proceeding and were given a full and fair opportunity to present arguments and defenses.

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Court Dismisses Antitrust-Related Claims For Lack of Jurisdiction, Failure to State Claim

Plaintiff, who served as Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Taro Pharmaceuticals U.S.A., Inc. from 2013 until 2018, brought an action against Teva Pharmaceuticals USA, Inc., Sandoz Inc., and several former employees, asserting claims for malicious prosecution, abuse of process, defamation, and violations of 42 U.S.C. §1983. Prior to joining Taro, plaintiff worked at another generic pharmaceutical manufacturer, Actavis, from 2010 to 2013. In 2016, Teva acquired Actavis and assumed certain Actavis-related liabilities. Plaintiff contended defendants provided false information to federal investigators that led to his 2020 indictment in an antitrust investigation. The court dismissed all claims, holding that it lacked personal jurisdiction over out-of-state defendants, and that the allegations against the corporate defendants failed to plausibly show initiation of prosecution, lack of probable cause, or malice necessary for malicious prosecution. Additionally, the court held that the abuse-of-process claims were time-barred, and the defamation-related claims could not support jurisdiction under New York’s long-arm statute.

Court Denies Goldman Sachs’ Bid to Force Arbitration in Account Freeze Dispute

Goldman Sachs locked plaintiff out of his savings account. For months, he did not have access to funds he needed to pay his daily expenses. After plaintiff sued, Goldman restored his access to his account. Though he had access to his funds, plaintiff continued to hold Goldman accountable for its decision to temporarily freeze his account. Goldman moved to compel plaintiff to arbitrate pursuant to an arbitration provision of a Deposit Account Agreement (DAA) to which it argued plaintiff agreed. Goldman contended plaintiff manifested assent to the DAA, relying on screenshots of webpages it asserted he “would have seen” during his sign-up process and internal records it argued reflect he did accept the DAA. Plaintiff denied agreeing to the DAA when he opened his account. The court denied Goldman’s motion to compel arbitration and its request to stay the case pending arbitration, holding that its evidence did not overcome plaintiff’s affirmations that he never agreed to the DAA in the manner Goldman argued he did. As a result, the court found the existence of a genuine dispute of material fact as to whether the parties entered an arbitral agreement.

Suffolk County SUPREME COURT Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the filer.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statute of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJL.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
