DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | PERSONAL INJURY

Motion to Set Aside Verdict Denied; Plaintiff's Injuries Proven and Apparent

Plaintiff brought an action arising from an incident that occurred at 271 Madison Avenue in Manhattan. Plaintiff suffered head trauma and a traumatic brain injury when a large glass entrance door of the building shattered with large pieces of glass striking her on the head. Following a trial, the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff totaling $35,179,208. Defendant moved to set aside the verdict. The motion was denied. The court held a reasonable jury could choose to favor the opinions of plaintiff's well-credentialed treating, and seldom-testifying, physicians instead of witnesses that did not treat her. Likewise, the plaintiff suffered from debilitation mental and physical problems from her injuries such as limited speech.

Justice James E. d'Auguste
Supreme Court

Brown v. 271 Madison Co., 152267/2015 (May 12)

BRONX | REAL ESTATE

Petition Granted; Respondent's Disqualification Of Petitioners Were Contrary to By-Laws

The court granted an Article 78 petition directing that four shareholders of a Co-Op—the Petitioners—be placed on the ballot for the Board of Directors election, finding that each met the only two candidacy requirements expressly set forth in the by-laws: shareholder status and residency. The respondent Board had disqualified them based on alleged affiliations with the Edgewater Athletic Association (EAA), a once-community-oriented group now accused of operating a clandestine bar, violating lease terms, and causing financial harm to the Cooperative. Framing the petitioners as threats to governance, the Board cited conflicts of interest and unwritten standards of good standing. The court rejected the approach, holding that such discretionary exclusions—particularly amid an ongoing feud—were ultra vires, arbitrary, and contrary to the by-laws.

Concurrent Sentence Doctrine Bars Counsel Ineffectiveness Claim

McLarty was arrested and indicted in June 2021 while already serving two concurrent terms of supervised release. Pleading guilty to conspiracy to commit Hobbs Act robbery he was sentenced to 115 months in prison. He then admitted to violating each term of his supervised release, leading to two concurrent 18-month sentences. District court denied defendant 28 USC §2255 sentence relief, rejecting his claim that former attorney Fasulo was ineffective for failing to argue that the two 18-month sentences should also run concurrently with the 115-month sentence. Defendant's motion was denied under the concurrent sentence doctrine and for failure to establish a reasonable probability of prejudice from any of Fasulo's supposed deficient performance. The Vargas factors revealed no meaningful possibility that declining review of the revocation of supervised release and subsequent sentence would subject defendant to a substantial risk of adverse collateral consequences.

District Judge John P. Cronan

U.S. - EDNY | CRIMINAL LAW

Compassionate Release Denied; 18 USC §3553(a) Factors Do Not Favor Reduction

Defendant Gomez's two prior motions for reduction in sentence were denied in May 2023 and May 2024. His Feb.26,2025, third motion essentially repeated his prior claims but also raised two previously unidentified medical conditions; asserted that the Prison Bureau's inability to control the flow of illicit drugs into prisons contributes to harsh conditions; and, asserted that he was subject to a disparity in sentencing because codefendant Diaz has not been sentenced and is free on bond. District court denied Gomez's motion for compassionate release. He failed to show that the 18 USC §3553(a) factors favored reduction. Even if Gomez's newly raised arguments amounted to extraordinary, compelling circumstances, they did not overcome the §3553(a) factors as applied to his case.

District Judge Nicholas G. Garaufis
Eastern District

U.S. v. Gomez, 18-CR-214 (May 13)

NEW YORK | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Due to Lack of Payment, Defendant Materially Breached Arbitration Agreement

Plaintiff sought an order to lift the stay of an action and allow the plaintiffs to pursue their claims in court against defendant. Defendant cross-moved seeking an order to enforce the court's prior order which compelled plaintiff to pursue their claims in arbitration pursuant to the parties' arbitration agreement. Plaintiff's motion was granted. The court held the defendant materially breached the arbitration agreement by failing to remit payment. The court found that since defendant had not complied with payment requirements, the arbitrator closed the case pursuant to the letter of the law.

Justice Lisa S. Headley
Supreme Court

Hannant v. Abt, 157521/2022 (May 13)

BRONX | CRIMINAL LAW

Motion to Dismiss Denied, Prosecution Demonstrated Due Diligence for Discovery

Defendant, who was charged with violating multiple sections of the Vehicle and Traffic Law, alleged that the Bronx District Attorney's Office's Certificate of Compliance should be deemed facially invalid insofar as the People had listed certain items which are routinely disclosed as being unavailable. Defendant moved to dismiss or for evidentiary hearings. The motion to dismiss was denied. The court rejected the premise that the reasonableness of the People's actions was of no importance when they fail to disclose known discovery before certifying compliance. The court found that the breadth of the People's disclosures demonstrated due diligence, and that to hold otherwise was tantamount to invoking a strict liability standard where the Legislature had created none.

U.S. - SDNY | CRIMINAL LAW

Conditional Release Denial Not Reconsidered; 18 USC §3142(g) Factors Outweigh History

Singh was charged with conspiracy and substantive counts of Hobbs Act robbery, and carrying and using a firearm in connection with his alleged involvement in an armed home invasion robbery in 2024. After a Jan. 16, 2025, bail hearing the court denied Singh conditional release and ordered that he be detained. Instead of appealing the court's detention ruling, Singh sought reconsideration of his application for conditional release, on grounds that his family could now post a greater bond. The government opposed Singh's motion as improper under the Bail Reform Act. The court denied Singh's request, concluding that no new or material information justified reopening his detention hearing. Singh's history and characteristics were ultimately outweighed by the court's consideration of the other factors outlined in 18 USC §3142(g), all of which heavily favored detention. nor was Singh's argument that no one was injured new or material to the court's detention decision. Also, the court previously determined that all reasonable, less restrictive alternatives such as those currently raised by Singh were insufficient.

Magistrate Judge Victoria Reznik

U.S. v. Singh, 25-MJ-135 (May 13)

U.S. - NDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Foreclosure Action's Unopposed Remand To State Court Granted, Explained

Northern Credit Union's action to foreclose on a mortgage owned by Whitmore claimed that the federal government and New York State's tax agency held relevant tax liens against Whitmore. On the basis of the purported federal tax lien the instant foreclosure action was federally removed from state supreme court in Oswego County in 2024. removal was not challenged as improper or untimely. District court granted Whitmore's unopposed motion to remand action back to Oswego County Supreme Court. Among other things, the claims forming the basis for federal removal were resolved by a June 2024 order as to the issue of lien priority, and by the stipulated dismissal of the government's counter-claims seeking enforcement of its federal tax liens. Due to intervening stipulations and agreements between the parties, the federal interests that formed the basis for removal are no longer at issue. Also, due to stipulations, pro se plaintiff Williams would not be prejudiced by remand.

NEW YORK | ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Supreme Court Upholds Administrative Court's Decision to Deny Adjournment

An administrative court denied respondent's request to adjourn a proceeding brought by the Mayor's Office of Media and Entertainment (MOME) seeking to suspend his press card following his arrest for criminal mischief. The court rejected respondent's claim that proceeding with the trial during the pendency of his criminal case violated his Fifth Amendment rights and noted that MOME's rules required that petitioner prove that continued use of the press credential would involve an unreasonable risk to property or the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public. Respondent filed an Article 78 petition challenging the denial of the adjournment. The Supreme Court denied the Article 78 petition, finding that the denial of the adjournment was not arbitrary and capricious and that respondent retained the opportunity to present evidence to show that petitioner had not met its burden to prove that suspension of his press card was necessary to protect the public.

KINGS | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Court Gives Possession of Premises to Tenant Who Was Illegally Locked Out

Petitioner commenced a proceeding against respondents seeking possession of the subject premises on an allegation that respondents' locked petitioner out. The court awarded petitioner a final judgment of possession after trial, holding that he articulated a claim for illegal lockout under RPAPL section 713(10) as a licensee with a colorable claim of succession to tenancy in the subject premises who credibly demonstrated both his possession of premises and that respondents forcibly removed him from there. The court noted that the merits of petitioner's succession claim need not be determined in the instant lockout proceeding in order for petitioner to prevail in his action under RPAPL section 713(10).

U.S. - EDNY | BANKRUPTCY

Bankruptcy Court Order Affirmed; Lost Economic Interest if Mortgage Voided Not Shown

Bankruptcy court granted debtor-plaintiff Tamisi summary judgment in a mortgage lien avoidance adversary proceeding against mortgage lien holder defendant. Appellant trustee Wilmington Savings Fund Society (WSFS) could not properly document the mortgage even though its predecessor-in-interest had obtained a a final, valid foreclosure judgment on it in state court. Finding no error, district court affirmed the bankruptcy court's order. The bankruptcy court's oral ruling and written order specifically stated that the lien was void and unenforceable by WSFS and its successors and assigns. Nor did WSFS explain how, on the facts, there could be anyone other than itself or its successors who have the right to claim under the mortgage foreclosure judgment. WSFS did not point to any economic interest that it or anyone else would lose even if the bankruptcy court had voided the mortgage entirely. which it did not. WSFS, or its successors or assigns, were the sole parties legally entitled to assert the state court foreclosure judgment in bankruptcy court.

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouses. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statute of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required prent practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
