DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | REAL ESTATE

Summary Judgment Denied in Ejectment Action

Plaintiff brought an ejectment action in which 38 East 64th Street LLC was seeking to recover possession of the apartment rented to Nile, Inc., a company owned by Terese Carpenter. Plaintiff moved for summary judgment. The motion was denied. The court held the lease in question clearly identified defendant by name in the tenant definition. Likewise, because there were issues of material fact going to whether Carpenter would be entitled to a renewal lease because the unit in question was improperly exempted from the rent regulations, summary judgment would be improper. The court also considered the plaintiff's other arguments and found them unavailing.

Justice Lyle E. Frank
Supreme Court

38 East 64th Street, LLC v. Nile, Inc., 650912/2024 (May 16)

KINGS | REAL ESTATE

Tenants Denied Preliminary Injunction Compelling Restoration of Access to Terrace

Pro se plaintiffs were tenants in a building which had permitted them to use a terrace unconnected to their apartment. Their terrace license agreement was terminated due to nonpayment of the monthly terrace fee. By order to show cause, plaintiffs sought various relief. The court denied restoration of access to the terrace. The court held there was no legal basis for plaintiffs' argument that they were entitled to use the terrace in perpetuity. The rent stabilized lease did not include the terrace. Since use of the terrace was not a building-wide service provided in connection with the leasing of apartments, denial of use of the terrace was not considered a diminution of services. Therefore, plaintiffs did not demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits.

Justice Aaron D. Maslow

Kelly v. Muss Development, 371/2025 (May 15)

SECOND CIRCUIT | IMMIGRATION LAW

Denial of Status Adjustment Application Is 'Judgment' Under 8 USC §1252(a)(2)(B)(i)

After living in the United States unlawfully for 30 years Chinese citizen Xia applied to adjust status to become a lawful permanent resident. She challenged USCIS's denial. District court ruled that 8 USC §1252(a)(2)(B)(i), which bars judicial review of "any judgment" regarding any action under 8 USC §1255 applied, and thus dismissed Xia's complaint for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Second Circuit affirmed, agreeing with district court that a denial of an application for adjustment of status under §1255 is a "judgment" for purposes of §1252(a)(2)(B)(i) regardless if it is entered by an immigration judge or USCIS. Through its plain text §1252(a)(2)(B)(i) encompassed decisions by USCIS to deny or grant relief under §1255. USCIS is the only entity that can enter authoritative decisions on adjustment applications outside of the removal context, and thus the sole entity whose decisions thereon could fall within the scope of the "regardless" clause of §1252(a)(2)(B)(i).

U.S. - EDNY | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Doctor Disqualified Self From ESOP Participation Through 1042 Election Payment

Physician Snyder, and his medical practice, sued defendants NSPLI and NSP Management Services of Long Island Inc. (NSP) to recover payment and benefits to which Snyder was entitled in relation to an Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) which he was allegedly deprived of by wrongful termination. In addition to such claims under §§502 and 510 of ERISA, Snyder asserted claims for breach of contract. The court granted defendants' motion to dismiss. Despite adequately pleading his ERISA claims, Snyder disqualified himself from being an ESOP plan participant by a $3.4 million payout that he elected to make the 1042 election. Neither federal question jurisdiction nor diversity jurisdiction predicates prevail over Snyder's state law claims. Nor did any state claim substantially predominate over the federal claims for purposes of supplemental jurisdiction under 28 USC §1367(a).

Magistrate Judge James M. Wicks
Eastern District

Snyder v. Neurological Surgery Practice of Long Island PLLC, 24-CV-06911 (May 19)

BRONX | CREDITORS' AND DEBTORS' RIGHTS

Summary Judgment Denied, The Consumer Credit Fairness Act's Requirements Not Fulfilled

Plaintiff brought a motion for a default judgment in a consumer credit transaction. The motion was denied. The court held plaintiff failed to set forth a prima facie case as against pro se defendant because there was no evidence that the directives of CPLR 3212-j were satisfied before the submission of the motion. Not only was there no proof that plaintiff submitted to the clerk the required stamped, unsealed envelope addressed to defendant with the 3212-j notice, there was no notation in the record that the clerk ever mailed such an envelope. The motion was denied due to the failure to prove satisfaction of the Consumer Credit Fairness Act's requirements under CPLR 3212(j).

Justice Veronica G. Hummel

Security Credit Services, LLC v. Boku, 812270/2023e (May 19)

QUEENS | CRIMINAL LAW

Indictment Dismissed as Prosecution Failed To Resubmit Counts

Defendant was charged with driving while intoxicated as an unclassified misdemeanor. Following a suppression hearing, the Queens District Attorney's Office moved for an adjournment in order to present the case to a grand jury. The grand jury returned a true bill only as to aggravated driving while intoxicated, but the prosecutor did not file the indictment. Instead, several days later, the prosecutor returned to the grand jury and reopened the case. The court found that while the District Attorney shared with the court the responsibility of being the legal advisor to the grand jury, once a charge has been presented for consideration and rejected by a grand jury, it may not again be re-presented to any grand jury without authorization from the court. The prosecutor's failure to seek authorization from the court to resubmit both counts was a jurisdictional defect and required dismissal of the indictment.

Justice Gary F. Miret

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Reconsideration Motion Fails as Untimely, On Merits; 'Moseley' Ruling Not Misapplied

Espat sought reconsideration of the court's March 28 order dismissing various of his causes of action. Alternatively, he sought the order's certification for interlocutory appeal as it pertained to his Sixth cause of action for "unlawful non-compete restrictions." The motion was denied. The reconsideration motion was untimely under Local Civil Rule 6.3, and FRCP 59 was inapplicable to extend the 14-day deadline to move for reconsideration. Moreover, even if timely, the motion would fail on the merits. Contrary to Espat's argument otherwise, the court did consider Second Circuit's 2020 decision in U.S. v. Moseley in concluding that it was required to honor the parties' contractual agreement that New York law applied to this dispute. Thus Espat's argument amounted to no more than a claim that the court "misapplied" Moseley, which is a ground for appeal not for reconsideration. Nor was a misapplication charge warranted. Contrary to BDO USA PC v. Rojas, on which Espat relied, here plaintiff TCA was based in New York and Espat did at least some portion of his work for that company from New York.

U.S. - WDNY | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

Office Depot Denied Reconsideration of Partial Summary Judgment in Job Bias Lawsuit

The court's March 23, 2025, order, partly adopting a magistrate judge's report, partly granted summary judgment to Office Depot. The court agreed that summary judgment should be denied as to plaintiff Kozak's hostile work environment claim but granted as to her age and disability discrimination claims. However, the court disagreed with the magistrate's conclusion as to Kozak's claims of sex discrimination and retaliation and denied summary judgment thereon. The court denied Office Depot reconsideration of the denial of summary judgment on Kozak's claims of "gender discrimination and retaliation." It concluded that Kozak's statements about what happened between her and supervisor McGovern—whose conduct toward Kozak changed abruptly after she failed to reciprocate after he told Kozak he "liked" her—and the "sham" investigation that followed were sufficient to defeat summary judgment. Although Kozak may have been fired for lying about a March 2015 incident with McGovern, a reasonable jury could find that McGovern set Kozak up and that his own supervisors were in on his plan.

District Judge Lawrence J. Vilardo
Western District

Court Dismisses Two Related Foreclosure Actions as Untimely

Plaintiff brought a foreclosure action related to a residential property located at 1475 East 94th Street in Brooklyn. Defendant was the owner of the property by recorded deed. The foreclosure arose from a mortgage loan issued by Accredited Home Loans, Inc. to defendant in the amount of $140,000. Plaintiff commenced an action for foreclosure alleging defendant's default on paying the mortgage, and the amount due and owing at the time of the filing was $429,32.85. Plaintiff moved for summary judgment. The motion was denied and defendant's motion to dismiss was granted. The court held that both a 2011 action that was stayed and a 2023 action that was filed without leave of court were both outside the statute of limitations. The court accordingly dismissed both actions. By interpreting the statutory construction of RPAPL 1301(3), the court deemed the 2011 action discontinued upon the filing of the 2023 action.

Court Orders Stay of Sale of Motorcycle, Conference Between Parties

Plaintiff commenced an action to recover $21,000 from the defendant. Plaintiff stated she was the co-borrower for the loan of a motorcycle. Plaintiff claimed that defendant has not been tendering the monthly payments for the financing of the motorcycle. Plaintiff brought an order to show cause to stay any sale or destruction of the motorcycle. Defendant denied any agreement. The court held neither party produced documentation regarding the ownership, registration, or proof of a loan regarding the motorcycle. The court issued an order staying the defendant from the sale, transfer, or destruction of the motorcycle, and ordered a conference with the parties.

U.S. - EDNY | CONTRACTUAL DISPUTES

Firm's Entitlement to $3 Million in Damages For Contract, Indemnification Breach Explained

The parties entered into a loan purchase agreement, which American Ken Inc. breached. Thus, The Money Source Inc. (TMS) sued American Ken for breach of contract and failure to indemnify pursuant to the terms of their agreement. TMS claimed damages totaling $889,076.45 and to have incurred $122,472.80 in fees and costs. District court granted TMS's unopposed motion seeking summary judgment. It found TMS entitled to summary judgment on its breach of contract claim and its claim for contractual indemnification. Finding TMS entitled to damages on its first claim for breach of contract and its third claim for indemnification, the court awarded TMS $3,034,066.70 in damages. However, the court denied TMS's request for attorney's fees and costs, without prejudice. Although the court found TMS entitled to attorney's fees and costs, its failure to attach billing records or receipts to its motion warranted denial of fees and costs.

U.S. DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DISTRICT

Pro Se Electronic Filing of Documents

Parties who are not represented by an attorney (known as self-represented or pro se individuals) are not permitted to electronically file documents in CM/ECF without a court order. The preferred methods of delivery of court filings are United States Mail and hand delivery to the Clerk's Office of either courthouse.

The Eastern District of New York does provide a method of electronic delivery for self-represented parties who cannot mail or hand deliver documents to the courthouse via this link: <https://prose.nyed.uscourts.gov/>. This delivery method replaces any earlier versions and cannot be used to file initial complaints in a new case. All pro se parties who use the electronic delivery method must provide a valid email address and must follow all document filing guidelines which are available on the court's web site: www.nyed.uscourts.gov.

Pro se parties may contact the Clerk's Office at either courthouse for assistance:

The clerks at the court-houses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of com-mencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improv-erly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improv-erly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a “filing” which tolls the run-ning of the applicable statue of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk’s certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required pres-ent practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practi-cable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinu-ance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
