DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

Motion to Dismiss Granted; Plaintiff Lacked Capacity to Prosecute Action

In an action to recover damages for medical malpractice based on alleged departures from good and accepted practice, lack of informed consent, common-law negligence, negligent hiring, training, supervision, and retention of healthcare employees, and wrongful death, the defendants moved pursuant to CPLR 3211(a)(3) to dismiss the complaint based on the plaintiff's lack of capacity to prosecute the action. The plaintiff opposed the motion. The motion was granted. The court held the defendants established that the plaintiff lacked capacity to commence the action on the date that she filed the summons and complaint, by noting that she had not been appointed as administrator or executor of the decedent's estate as of that date.

Justice John J. Kelley
Supreme Court

Radlein v. Saland, 805054/2025 (September 25)

NEW YORK | INSURANCE LITIGATION

Default Judgment Granted in Medical Insurance Case

In an action, plaintiff sought a declaratory judgment that it was not obligated to pay no-fault benefits for the medical treatment of Kaniqua Crawley for injuries that she allegedly sustained in a motor vehicle accident on March 4, 2024, based upon her failure to cooperate with post Examination Under Oath ("EUO") demands. Plaintiff moved for default judgment against non-answering defendants. The motion was granted. The court held plaintiffs demonstrated that they had no duty to pay defendants' claims in connection with the alleged accident based upon a claimant's failure to comply with a condition precedent to coverage under the applicable policy by cooperating with plaintiffs' investigation.

Justice Judy H. Kim
Supreme Court

Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. Crawley, 659451/2024 (September 30)

NEW YORK | CREDITORS' AND DEBTORS' RIGHTS

Causes of Action Dismissed in Case Involving Loan Repayment

Plaintiff Alicia Vergara commenced this action seeking damages from defendants Bibhu, LLC, Bibhu Mohapatra and Robert Roane Beard for the failure to repay a loan in accordance with the terms of a May 15, 2014, Promissory Note. Vergara asserted six claims against the three defendants for fraud, breach of contract, account stated, unjust enrichment, conversion, and negligent infliction of emotional distress. Defendants moved to dismiss certain causes of action. The motion was granted. The court held plaintiff's fourth, fifth, and sixth causes of action for unjust enrichment, conversion, and negligent infliction of emotional distress needed to be dismissed.

Justice Sabrina Kraus
Supreme Court

Vergara v. Bibhu, LLC, 655395/2016 (September 25)

NEW YORK | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Court Refuses to Quash Subpoena; Respondent Had Permission from California Court

Petitioner, Davidson Kempner Capital Management LP, sought to quash a subpoena served on it by respondent, WOW Media Inc. The subpoenas requested records and a deposition pertaining to a civil case pending in California. In the California Action, WOW, a digital outdoor advertising company, asserted three causes of action against unknown entities, for Intentional Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage; Negligent Interference with Prospective Economic Advantage; and Violation of Business & Professions Code §§ 17200, et seq. The petition was denied. The court held since, WOW had already been granted leave to serve third-party discovery demands on Davidson, the subpoena would not be quashed on procedural grounds.

Justice Paul A. Goetz
Supreme Court

Davidson Kempner Capital Management LP v. WOW Media, Inc., 159235/2024 (August 29)

NEW YORK | DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Motion to Renew for Stay in Arbitration Denied By Court

Petitioners commenced a special proceeding, by notice of petition, seeking to stay arbitration. The court dismissed the petition for lack of proper service. Petitioners moved for leave to renew and reargue its previous motion. The motion was denied. The court held the arbitration demand submitted by petitioner in support of its motion to renew, which pre-dates petitioner's original application, was reasonably available to petitioner at the time it filed its original application, and no reasonable justification was offered for petitioner's failure to submit the arbitration demand in the first instance.

Justice Emily Morales-Minerva
Supreme Court

Sedgwick CMS v. Bratton, 659096/2024 (September 24)

NEW YORK | CRIMINAL LAW

Criminal Case Dismissed; Prosecution Had Unreasonable and Unexplained Delay

The defendant was arraigned in this case on June 12, 2024. Bail was set, and the case was adjourned to June 17, 2024, for conversion. Defendant moved court to find the Manhattan District Attorney's Office's certificate of compliance invalid and to dismiss his case. The People opposed, arguing that the defendant's motion was untimely and that their overall efforts to satisfy their discovery obligations were diligent. The motion was granted. The court held the People also must be charged time with their unreasonable and unexplained delay in responding to the defendant's motion; which means they did not meet the readiness requirements, prompting dismissal.

Judge Ilona B. Coleman
Criminal Court

People v. Brian B., CR-016964-24NY (October 6)

U.S. - SDNY | EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

OIG Recommendations Do Not Create Personal Liability for Separate Agency Discipline

Plaintiff sued his former employer the NYC Transit Authority (NYCTA), the NYCTA president, the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA), and related individuals, alleging he experienced adverse employment actions and disparate treatment. Among other things, plaintiff asserted New York State Human Rights Law and New York City Human Rights Law discrimination and retaliation claims, as well as §1981 and §1983 discrimination and retaliation claims against the individual defendant, the then-Inspector General of the Office of the MTA Inspector General (OIG). The court granted defendant's motion to dismiss plaintiff's claims as against her, with prejudice, finding defendant's statutory role limited to investigating and making recommendations and that she had no disciplinary authority over plaintiff, as all employment decisions rested with the NYCTA. The court noted plaintiff's alleged adverse actions (investigation consequences, suspension, payroll decisions) were imposed by his employer, NYCTA, not by the individual defendant or the OIG, so non-binding OIG recommendations cannot ground personal liability for discipline imposed by a separate entity.

U.S. - SDNY | PRIVACY

Former University Professor Not Entitled To Redacted Students' Identifying Information

Plaintiff, an Assistant Adjunct English Professor at Pace Univ. who taught an Intro. to Critical Race and Ethnicity Studies class in 2021, alleged students in the class engaged in a campaign of race-based bullying. After some students raised complaints regarding plaintiff to the university, her class was observed at different times by supervisors. Plaintiff was subsequently removed from teaching the class and paid the balance of her salary for the semester. Plaintiff later brought claims of retaliation against Pace. A magistrate judge issued an order denying plaintiff's requests to disclose student names and identifying information that had been redacted from discovery productions pursuant to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act. At a hearing, plaintiff had stated that she only sought the identifying information in order to confirm whether defendants were telling the truth about how many different students had complained about the class. The instant court overruled plaintiff's objections to the order, agreeing with the magistrate judge that plaintiff's distrust of defendants' representations, without more, was not sufficient to overcome student privacy interests.

Harte v. Pace Univ., 22-CV-03820 (October 1)

U.S. - SDNY | ATTORNEY RATES AND ARRANGEMENTS

Counsel Changes, Improper Block Billing Lead to Reduction of Attorneys' Fees Request

Plaintiff is a designer and manufacturer of children's toys. One of its products is sold under the trademarked name "Brain Flakes." Plaintiff alleged defendants, plaintiff's competitors, violated its trademark by selling a similar toy using plaintiff's trademark or confusingly similar marks. During discovery, the court granted plaintiff's motion to compel defendants to produce several categories of documents. Ahead of trial, plaintiff filed a motion in limine for sanctions as a result of defendants' failure to comply with the order compelling production of discovery. The court granted the motion and sanctioned defendants for their unexplained failure to make the required productions for nearly two years. The court ordered defendants to pay plaintiff's attorneys' fees attributable to plaintiff's briefing of the relevant motion in limine and its initial efforts to compel the production of those materials. Accordingly, plaintiff's counsel submitted a request for $24,730.88 in fees. However, as plaintiff's multiple changes of counsel and use of improper block billing made the request excessive, the court reduced plaintiff's request by 10% and awarded $22,257.79 in fees.

U.S. - EDNY | DAMAGES

Gov't Fails to Provide Enough Info to Determine Restitution in Wire/Bank Fraud Case

A grand jury returned an indictment against three individual defendants, charging them with two counts of conspiracy to commit wire and bank fraud and multiple substantive counts of wire fraud related to specific transactions. The indictment alleged defendants engaged in conspiracies to defraud lenders and certain borrowers "by providing them with false, misleading and incomplete information to induce them to execute short sales at fraudulently depressed prices, thereby causing losses to the lenders and, at times, the borrowers." A jury found one defendant guilty on all counts; prior to trial, a second defendant pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit wire and bank fraud; and the third defendant pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit bank fraud. The government sought restitution in the amount of $10,577,653 for the first two defendants, and $10,034,986 for the third defendant. All three defendants opposed the government's proposed methodology and its application to several transactions. The court found that the government failed to provide sufficient information for the court to determine restitution and ordered the government to supplement its restitution submission.

U.S. - NDNY | REAL ESTATE

Property Dispute Plaintiffs Had Chance to Litigate Most Federal Claims in Art. 78 Hearing

An action arose out of a dispute over property rights for land in Catskill, NY. Plaintiffs' complaint asserted claims against the Town of Catskill defendants for substantive and procedural due process violations; takings clause violations; abuse of power and arbitrary governmental conduct; Equal Protection Clause violations; NYS Constitution violations; breach of contract; tortious interference with contractual relations; unjust enrichment; and NY General Municipal Law §51 violations. Plaintiffs also brought claims against the individual defendants for intentional interference with contract; and aiding and abetting violations of 42 U.S.C. §1983. The court granted defendants' motions to dismiss the complaint, as plaintiffs already had the opportunity to litigate the majority of their federal claims in an Art. 78 proceeding brought against the Town defendants. The court added that plaintiffs' remaining federal claim, styled as "aiding and abetting violations of 42 U.S.C. §1983" asserted against the individual defendants must be dismissed for failure to plausibly allege they were acting under the color of law, or otherwise allege the existence of state action.

civil pro se docket. The Office of Pro Se Litigation assists the Court in carrying out its statutory obligations under 28 U.S.C. §1915(e)(2) and §1915A to screen civil complaints filed by incarcerated people and those with in forma pauperis status. These cases are predominantly civil rights actions, including employment discrimination actions, and petitions for writs of habeas corpus. The Chief Counsel works closely with the leadership team of the Clerk's Office to establish and maintain systems that are both efficient and appropriately solicitous to pro se litigants. This includes the preparation of manuals, guides, and other memoranda for the benefit of pro se litigants and chambers. The Chief Counsel co-runs the Pro Bono Program, which connects pro se litigants in need of counsel with volunteers from the SDNY bar.

The Chief Counsel reports to the Chief Judge on legal matters in pro se cases on the Chief Judge's docket and internal management of the Office, and also to the District Executive's Office on operational matters, and collaborates with the Pro Se Committee, a team of judges, on other internal initiatives. In addition, the Chief Counsel maintains external relationships that support the SDNY's pro se docket: the Chief Counsel serves as a primary liaison to the Pro Se Clinic, currently managed by the City Bar Justice Center, which provides legal advice to pro se litigants, and communicates with counterparts around the country and the governing body at the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts to stay abreast of budgetary developments and, where appropriate, to present the position of the Office.

Court initiatives may require collaboration with local stakeholders, including the offices of the United States Attorney, the New York State Attorney General, and the New York City Corporation Counsel, as well as with the prisons and jails within the district. In connection with the Pro Bono Program, the Chief Counsel coordinates programs and events with the private bar and participates in bar activities and committees.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Chief Counsel, under the direction of the Chief Judge, is responsible for hiring, training, supervision, and general management of the staff attorneys, which includes performance evaluation. The Chief Counsel is responsible for ensuring that the Office's handling of its screening duties remains responsive to developments in the law, appropriately solicitous to pro se litigants, and operationally manageable. Day-to-day duties and responsibilities of this position include reviewing the staff attorneys' written work and legal analysis, coordinating with Clerk's Office staff on operational matters relevant to the pro se docket, and managing and promoting the Court's Pro Bono Program. Management of the Court's Pro Bono Program involves providing advice to chambers on cases in need of counsel, frequent communica-

SURROGATE'S COURT Surrogate Matthew Titone 18 Richmond Terrace Staten Island, N.Y. 10301

Nassau County SUPREME COURT Med Mal Settlement Part Justice R. Bruce Cozzens 100 Supreme Court Drive 3rd Floor Calendar Control Part 1 Justice R. Bruce Cozzens 516-493-3172 CCP Part Rules Cases appearing on the DCM and CCP Calendars in the Trial Assignment Part are ready for trial. Pursuant to 22 NYCRR §202.27, failure by counsel for a party plaintiff or a self-represented party plaintiff to appear will subject that case to dismissal. Failure by counsel for a party defendant or self-represented party defendant to appear will subject the case to an immediate injunction. All cases appearing on the DCM Trial Calendar will be disposed pursuant to the time limits set forth in 22 NYCRR §202.19. Attorney service may answer the Calendar and request an adjournment, within the 22 NYCRR §202.19 time frame, only on consent of all parties. In all cases in which a party intends to present a motion in limine, that party shall so advise the Court prior to jury selection. All stipulations of settlement recorded by the court on the report of settlement and entered into the clerk's computer record system are valid and enforceable pursuant to CPLR 2104. The following calendars are subject to changes — including adjournments — which may occur prior to the court date. Please call the Court Clerk to verify. Med Mal Settlement Part Justice R. Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Court Notices

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the “clerk of the court” is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the court-houses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of com-mencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improp-erly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improp-erly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a “filing” which tolls the run-ning of the applicable statue of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk’s certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required pres-ent practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practi-cable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinu-ance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
