Hospital Fails to Establish Pandemic Immunity Where Patient Chose Reduction Procedure

Justice Joseph E. Capella
Supreme Court

Plaintiffs alleged medical malpractice arising from treatment of William White's traumatic mandibular fracture following a July 2020 assault. They claimed defendant negligently managed the fracture and failed to monitor and treat a resulting infection, leading to abscess formation, malunion additional surgeries, and prolonged suffering. Defendant moved to dismiss under CPLR 3211(a)(7), asserting immunity under the Emergency Disaster Treatment Protection Act (EDTPA). The court denied the motion. The court held that defendant failed to conclusively establish EDTPA immunity as a matter of law because it did not demonstrate a sufficient nexus between the alleged malpractice and COVID-19-related decisions or activities. Although the treatment occurred during the statute's effective period, evidence showed plaintiff was offered both surgical options, chose a closed reduction, received timely follow-up care and was not a COVID-19 patient. The court reasoned EDTPA immunity must be strictly construed and does not apply merely because care occurred during the pandemic. Accordingly, the malpractice claims were permitted to proceed.

Transfer of Ownership Does Not Bar Civil Penalties for Housing Code Violations

Judge Jordan M. Dressler
Civil Court

The New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) commenced an HP proceeding seeking an order directing respondents to correct heat and hot water violations at a Bronx property and to impose civil penalties. Respondents moved to dismiss, arguing the proceeding was moot because ownership of the property transferred to a new entity after commencement, and the individual respondents no longer held their respective roles. The court denied the motion. The court held that a post-commencement transfer of ownership does not extinguish liability for Housing Maintenance Code violations incurred while respondents owned or controlled the premises. The court reasoned that civil penalties under the Administrative Code accrue from the correction date until violations are cured and are intended to enforce compliance with housing standards. Allowing owners to avoid liability through transfer would undermine that enforcement scheme and incentivize neglect. Accordingly, the court concluded respondents failed to establish grounds for dismissal and permitted the proceeding, including claims for civil penalties, to continue toward trial.

Stage IV Cancer Diagnosis Renders Defendant Unavailable, Court Permits Deposition

Justice Aaron D. Maslow
Supreme Court

The court addressed a motion in limine by a transportation network company (TNC) seeking to compel an individual defendant driver to testify live at trial in a personal injury action arising from a motor vehicle collision. Plaintiff, a passenger injured when her husband's vehicle was struck by the driver, obtained summary judgment against the driver, and trial proceeded solely on the TNC's vicarious liability. The TNC argued live testimony was necessary for cross-examination and credibility determinations. The driver opposed, submitting a doctor's note showing he was undergoing treatment for Stage IV cancer with debilitating side effects, rendering him unable to testify in person and, therefore, was only available to testify on Zoom. The court held the driver was unavailable as a matter of law and denied the motion. Relying on precedent and CPLR 3117, the court reasoned it needed not to defer to the jury on witness availability and that compelling testimony would be unduly burdensome. The court concluded deposition testimony may be read in lieu of appearance.

KINGS | CIVIL PROCEDURE

No-Fault Insurer's EUO Defense Rejected For Lack of Admissible Proof of Nonappearance

Judge Sandra Elena Roper
Civil Court

Plaintiff provider sought reimbursement for medical services rendered to its assignor, while defendant insurer asserted an Examination Under Oath (EUO) no-show defense. A prior October 16, 2025 order granted partial summary judgment, finding both parties established timely mailing of the bill and denial, and left for trial issues concerning EUO requests. At trial, plaintiff rested on its prima facie case, and defendant presented employee testimony regarding mailing of EUO letters and receipt of a statement on the record. The court held that while defendant proved timely mailing of the EUO requests, it failed to establish, in admissible form and based on personal knowledge, that the assignor failed to appear for the EUOs. The court rejected defendant's reliance on a memorandum of record exception and limited admissibility of the statement on the record to its existence. Because defendant failed to prove two nonappearances, it did not meet its burden. Judgment was entered for plaintiff for $670, plus statutory interest, fees, costs and disbursements.

Show-Up Identifications Deemed Proper; Evidence Admissible in Forcible Touching Case

Judge Joseph Capobianco
City Court

Defendant Rafael Bustollo Mojica was charged with forcible touching and menacing arising from three incidents at a Glen Cove gym in which he allegedly touched one complainant, threatened another and acted aggressively towards a third. Following Huntley, Wade and Dunaway hearings, defendant moved to suppress statements, identifications, and evidence from his arrest. The court denied the motion. The court held that defendant's statements were admissible because they were made during noncustodial, investigative questioning not requiring Miranda warnings. It further held that the arrest was supported by probable cause based on consistent witness descriptions, gym records identifying defendant and his admission he had been present. The court also held that the show-up identifications were not unduly suggestive, as they occurred shortly after the incidents, near the scene and without police prompting. Finally, the court found any defect in CPL 710.30 notice was excused because defendant received a full suppression hearing. Accordingly, all suppression relief was denied and the evidence deemed admissible.

People v. Mojica, CR-02986-25 (June 2)

No Triable Issue Where Middle Vehicle Was Propelled Forward After Rear Impact

Justice John P. Collins Jr.
Supreme Court

Plaintiff commenced a negligence action arising from a three-vehicle collision at a red light on Route 304, alleging that defendants caused her injuries when her stopped vehicle was struck and propelled forward. The Sheldrick defendants moved for summary judgment, asserting they bore no fault because their vehicle was stopped and was struck from behind by a vehicle driven by defendant Layden. The court granted the motion. The court held that the Sheldrick defendants established prima facie entitlement to judgment as a matter of law by demonstrating their vehicle was fully stopped when it was rear-ended and pushed into plaintiff's vehicle. The court reasoned that rear-end collisions create a presumption of negligence against the rear driver, and that Layden failed to provide a nonnegligent explanation. Allegations that the Sheldrick vehicle had merged lanes did not raise a triable issue because all testimony confirmed it was stopped before impact. The court concluded no material issues of fact existed and dismissed the complaint and cross-claims against the Sheldrick defendants in their entirety.

Government Appeal Kept Alive Despite Challenge to Interim U.S. Attorney's Authority

Circuit Judge Dennis Jacobs
U.S. Court of Appeals

The panel denied defendant's motion to dismiss the government's interlocutory appeal from an order that suppressed cellphone evidence in a child pornography prosecution, holding that subsequent certifications cured any defect stemming from questions about the interim U.S. attorney's authority to act. Defendant argued the certification required under 18 U.S.C. §3731 was invalid as it was signed by an interim U.S. attorney whose appointment allegedly violated statutory limits on temporary appointments. Assuming the appointment was defective, the panel held the certification requirement is not jurisdictional and a late-filed certification does not automatically bar appellate review. The court found the interim U.S. attorney's later ratification of his prior actions after being appointed by the district court, as well as a supplemental certification submitted by the attorney general, independently satisfied §3731. The panel further found the government had carefully reviewed the appeal before filing it, noting senior prosecutors had assessed the case and the suppression ruling raised significant questions about the scope of border searches of electronic devices.

German Stem Cell Registry Escapes NY Suit Over Fatal Bone Marrow Mix-Up

District Judge Katherine Polk Failla
Southern District

A German stem cell donor foundation won dismissal of negligence and wrongful death claims arising from a fatal bone marrow transplant error after the court determined it lacked personal jurisdiction over the nonprofit. The suit alleged a labeling mistake caused a New York leukemia patient to receive stem cells from an incompatible donor, leading to severe graft-versus-host disease and her death a year later. The court dismissed the complaint without prejudice, holding that the foundation's limited role in confirming donor compatibility and responding to requests routed through international registries did not constitute purposeful business activity in New York under the state's long-arm statute. It further concluded that the alleged mislabeling occurred in Germany, foreclosing jurisdiction based on an in-state tort, and that plaintiff failed to show the organization derived substantial revenue from interstate or international commerce. The court also held exercising jurisdiction would violate due process as the foundation's contacts with New York were incidental and responsive rather than the result of deliberate efforts to serve the state's market.

LifeMD Keeps Contract, Unjust Enrichment Claims in Dispute Over Weight-Loss Drug Suit

District Judge Lorna G. Schofield
Southern District

An employer affiliated with telehealth platform LifeMD preserved key counterclaims against two former executives who sued over alleged overprescription of weight-loss medications, while the court dismissed related claims. The former COO and a former patient care director had challenged the enforceability of their separation agreements after filing malpractice claims, prompting LifeMD and an affiliated medical practice to contend the suit violated release provisions and non-disparagement clauses. The court allowed breach of contract claims based on release provisions to proceed but dismissed claims tied to alleged disparaging statements in the complaint and subsequent media coverage, finding statements made in judicial proceedings and fair reports of those proceedings are protected. The court dismissed declaratory judgment claims as duplicative, along with fraud and conversion claims tied to allegations plaintiffs improperly used company funds for personal expenses. However, unjust enrichment claims seeking recovery of allegedly misappropriated funds survived as the pleadings sufficiently alleged the executives retained benefits at the company's expense.

Barclays Defeats Pro Se Trust Suit Based On Sovereign Citizen Theories

District Judge Jeannette A. Vargas
Southern District

A pro se trustee's suit accusing Barclays Capital, Inc. of breaching fiduciary duties under the Trust Indenture Act in connection with an alleged mortgage securitization default was dismissed after the court found the claims rested on legally frivolous sovereign citizen theories and failed to satisfy basic pleading requirements. Plaintiff alleged Barclays ignored notices of default and facilitated foreclosure proceedings despite assertions that the underlying debt had been "forensically balanced" and discharged via administrative processes. The court determined the filings, which referenced concepts such as "administrative dishonor," "straw-man" identities and certificates of dishonor, reflected sovereign citizen arguments that federal courts have consistently rejected. The court also found the complaint incomprehensible under Rule 8 as it failed to state a plausible claim for relief and noted plaintiff failed to properly serve Barclays. In addition, the court explained that a nonlawyer trustee may not represent a trust pro se in federal court because federal law permits self-representation only for individuals appearing on their own behalf.

Kelly v. Barclays Capital Inc., 26-CV-04105 (June 16)

U.S. - EDNY | LABOR LAW

Delivery Company Defeats Driver Counterclaims Seeking Fees in Wage Suit

District Judge Ann M. Donnelly
Eastern District

A delivery company defeated counterclaims brought by defendants in a wage and hour class action after the court ruled independent contractor agreements cannot be used to shift litigation costs to workers pursuing claims under the Fair Labor Standards Act and New York Labor Law. Defendants argued plaintiffs, who alleged they were misclassified and denied wages and expense reimbursements, had agreed to indemnify the company for liabilities and attorneys' fees under independent contractor agreements. The court held enforcing such provisions would undermine the statutes' purpose of encouraging employees to bring wage claims and would improperly allow employers to contract around their legal obligations. The court also dismissed, for a second time, counterclaims alleging the workers filed the suit in bad faith to extort money and caused emotional distress and legal expenses, finding the allegations conclusory and insufficient to state an abuse of process claim. As the challenged counterclaims repeated defects identified in an earlier dismissal order, the court dismissed the counterclaims with prejudice and denied leave to amend.

CCP Part Rules

Cases appearing on the DCM and CCP Calendars in the Trial Assignment Part are ready for trial. Pursuant to 22 NYCRR §202.27, failure by counsel for a party plaintiff or a self-represented party plaintiff to appear will subject that case to dismissal. Failure by counsel for a party defendant or self-represented party defendant to appear will subject the case to an immediate inquest.

All cases appearing on the DCM Trial Calendar will be disposed pursuant to the time limits set forth in 22 NYCRR §202.19.

Attorney service may answer the Calendar and request an adjournment, within the 22 NYCRR §202.19 time frame, only on consent of all parties.

In all cases in which a party intends to present a motion in limine, that party shall so advise the Court prior to jury selection.

All stipulations of settlement recorded by the court on the report of settlement and entered into the clerk's computer record system are valid and enforceable pursuant to CPLR 2104.

The following calendars are subject to changes — including adjournments — which may occur prior to the court date. Please call the Court Clerk to verify.

Suffolk County

SUPREME COURT

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Law Sec.525 subd. 1).

The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant.

Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statue of limitations.

Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue.

The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJI.

The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
