DECISIONS OF INTEREST

NEW YORK | CIVIL RIGHTS

Notice to Admit Denied; Defendant Had Timely Answered

Claimant filed a claim against defendant, State of New York, seeking damages of more than $100,000,000 for injuries he alleged resulted from his unjust conviction and imprisonment. Claimant claimed he wrongfully convicted of murder in the second degree and criminal possession of a weapon for the August 4, 1994 shooting death of Kei Sunada, who was killed in an attempted robbery. Claimant moved for a notice to admit. The motion was denied. The court held the State timely responded and objected to the notice.

Judge Javier E. Vargas

McCloud v. State of New York, 140898 (July 15)

NEW YORK | LABOR LAW

Summary Judgment on Liability Claim In Labor Law Action Granted

The plaintiff alleged that he was injured by a railing that fell on him as he was painting a staircase. The principal dispute in the parties' competing summary judgment motion was whether the railing was, as plaintiff alleged, inadequately secured to the other railing upon which it was being stored. The court granted partial summary judgment on liability in favor of plaintiff on his Labor Law Section 240 (1) and 241(6) claims, finding that the railing required defendants adequately provide a safety device—wire ties—to ensure it did not fall, the very fact that it fell was sufficient to establish liability, and the railing falling was a elevation-related risk that is covered by the Labor Law.

Justice Dakota D. Ramseur
Supreme Court

Seiden v. BOP SE LLC, 160062/2022 (July 29)

NEW YORK | TRUSTS AND ESTATES

Summary Judgment Denied In Trusts Action

In a proceeding by Lynne Boyarsky (petitioner), as Trustee of the Lydia Sandler Grantor Trust, sought a determination that the purported revocation of the Trust by Lydia Sandler (grantor) was invalid and that petitioner, as trustee, held the valid stock certificate and proprietary lease appurtenant to a cooperative apartment located at 17 Chittenden Avenue in Manhattan. Petitioner moved for summary judgment. The motion was denied. The court held that petitioner did not demonstrate on the record before the court that, by the language in Article XI, grantor intended to condition the validity of the revocation on delivery of the Revocation Instrument to the trustee.

Judge Rita Mella
Surrogate's Court

Estate of Lydia Sandler, 2019-2734/F (July 24)

QUEENS | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Eviction Stayed Against Movant for Lack Of Personal Jurisdiction

In a commercial landlord tenant summary proceeding, unnamed undertenant moved to vacate the warrant of eviction and judgment of possession. The motion was granted. The court held that no jurisdiction was obtained over Hudson and that Hudson could not be evicted. Since petitioner had not yet effectuated service of any notice of petition and petition upon movant, movant had not yet filed an answer, and the issue had not yet been joined. The court found good cause to stay the execution of the warrant of eviction, solely as to movant, while this proceeding was pending. However, the judgment and warrant of eviction stands against the other named respondents.

Judge Evelyn Gong
Civil Court

Flushing Corner Associates, Inc. v. Kang Uncle Inc, 514544/2021 (July 7)

RICHMOND | FAMILY LAW

Motion to Modify Parenting Time Denied; Sanctions Ordered Against Plaintiff

In a post-judgment matrimonial matter, plaintiff sought to modify the parenting time provisions set forth in the parties' Judgment of Divorce to obtain unsupervised access to the parties' two minor children, a summer parenting schedule, and other related relief. Defendant cross moved opposing the motion in its entirety and sought dismissal of Plaintiff's application without a hearing, imposition of sanctions for frivolous conduct, an order restricting future filings absent leave of court and other ancillary relief. The plaintiff's motion was denied. The court held plaintiff failed to demonstrate a material change in circumstances since the entry of the prior Order. The court further found that the plaintiff engaged in frivolous conduct within the meaning of 22 NYCRR §130-1.1 and sanctioned plaintiff in the amount of $5,000.

Justice Ronald Castorina, Jr.
Supreme Court

GH v. MH, (redacted) (July 9)

NASSAU | FAMILY LAW

Modification of Custody Granted After Mother's Constant Violation of Orders

In a Family Court proceeding, petitioner sought modification of an order of custody and parenting time. The court found a change of circumstances based upon mother's constant violations of the existing order and her inability to co-parent. On that basis, the court awarded the parties joint legal custody subject to spheres of influence, and joint residential custody with a majority of the parenting time awarded to the Father.

Judge Darlene D. Harris
Family Court

T.J.M. v. C.N., 604260 (July 30)

SECOND CIRCUIT | COPYRIGHTS

Copyright Interests in Amateur Stage Adaptations Of 'To Kill A Mockingbird' Not Infringed

In 1969 author Lee granted Dramatic Publishing the right to develop an amateur stage adaptation of To Kill A Mockingbird. Decades later Lee terminated that grant and authorized development of another stage adaptation of Mockingbird by Atticus LLC. In the parties' subsequent copyright infringement action, district court entered declaratory judgment for Atticus, holding that performances of the second stage adaptation did not infringe on Dramatic's copyright interests in Mockingbird under the 1969 grant by Lee. The court later awarded Atticus over $200,000 in attorney fees. Dramatic appealed judgment on the merits, and both parties appealed the court's award of attorney fees. Second Circuit upheld declaratory relief for Atticus but vacated, and remanded, the fee award for further consideration. Lee's termination of the 1969 grant to Dramatic caused all of Lee's rights covered by the Copyright Act that were covered by the grant to revert to her. Thus, Lee regained her right to authorize new non-first-class productions of adaptations of To Kill A Mockingbird.

Reduced Statutory Damages Awarded Over Counterfeit Goods Infringing Trademarks

Otter Products sued 4PX Express for damages and injunctive relief under the Lanham Act and the Tariff Act. Action's dismissal was denied on Jan. 31, 2025. 4PX's counsel later moved to withdraw. That motion was granted on Feb. 26, 2025, and action was stayed for 30 days so 4PX could obtain substitute counsel. In light of 4PX's failure to appear through substitute counsel, a certificate of default issued on March 14. To date, 4PX has neither appeared nor responded to the court's May 27 Order to Show Cause why default judgment should not issue. Granting Otter Products default judgment, the court awarded Otter $875,000 in statutory damages—reduced from the $14 million sought—and enjoined 4PX from infringing on its trademarks. 4PX abandoned its defense. Among other things, Otter provided no objective evidence from which the court could determine the value of its trademarks. The court further noted that 4PX was a willful infringer. The court found an award of $125,000 per counterfeit mark—for Otter's seven registered trademarks—consistent with awards in analogous cases in the district.

U.S. - SDNY | INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Partial Dismissal of Claims Over AI's Use Of Voices Explained; Breach Claim Stated

Plaintiffs' putative class suit alleged that Lovo Inc. used artificial intelligence (AI) to synthesize and sell unauthorized "clones" of their voices. Plaintiffs' claims included fraud, unjust enrichment and violation of the Lanham and Copyright Acts. While noting that the case involved multiple issues of first impression, district court ultimately concluded that plaintiffs failed to state cognizable claims under federal trademark and copyright law. However, the court only partly granted Lovo's motion to dismiss plaintiffs' claims. Lovo's dismissal motion was denied as to plaintiff Sage's copyright claims based on the use of her original voice recording but granted as to plaintiffs' copyright claims based on use of their voice recordings to train the Genny AI model. However, the court found plaintiffs not without remedies. Their claim for misappropriation of voice may be properly asserted under §§50 and 51 of New York's Civil Rights Law. Plaintiffs also stated claims for breach of contract and under state consumer protection law.

District Judge J. Paul Oetken

Lehrman v. Lovo Inc., 24-CV-3770 (July 10)

U.S. - EDNY | REAL ESTATE

Quiet Title Action Dismissed; Documents Assigning Mortgage Met Statutory Requirements

On Feb. 27, 2007, Kelly took out a mortgage on certain Brooklyn property with First United Mortgage Banking Corp., which promptly assigned it interests in the mortgage to MERS. The assignment was registered on April 12, 2017. On April 13, MERS assigned its interests to defendant Texas corporation Real Time Resolutions (RTS). On Dec. 5, 2023, the Campbells transferred title to the Brooklyn property to plaintiff Carbone. Carbone's Dec. 24, 2024, state court action sought to expunge the mortgage and quiet title to the property. RTS timely removed action to district court based on diversity before seeking dismissal on Jan. 24, 2025, for failure to state a claim. Instantly, the court granted RTS's motion to amend its motion to dismiss. The court granted RTS's dismissal motion. The document assigning the mortgage to RTS satisfied relevant statutory requirements. The assignment from MERS to RTS included a certificate of acknowledgement whose language was almost identical to that in New York Real Property Law §309-b(1). Also, the applicable six-year statute of limitations in CPLR 213(4) has not expired. Its accrual date ran until March 1, 2018.

U.S. - EDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rights Violation Claims Untimely, Barred By Sovereign, Judicial Immunity

Plaintiff Brown's action under 42 USC §1983 alleged violations of his constitutional rights in past civil and criminal cases. He named as defendants various Nassau County and federal judges as well as the Nassau County First District Court Clerk's Office. District court, sua sponte, dismissed Brown's claims on timeliness and immunity grounds. Brown's claims, other than those related to a May 2021 dismissal order, pertain to events that allegedly took place more than three years before his instant lawsuit was filed on Aug. 23, 2023. Thus, such claims were facially untimely. Nor could Brown's claims against the Clerk's Office survive basic Eleventh Amendment principles. New York has not waived its sovereign immunity to suit in federal court, and it is undisputed that the Clerk's Office is an instrumentality of New York State. Also, Brown's claims against the federal and state judges failed under the doctrine of judicial immunity. Brown's claims all arose from decisions made in prior court proceedings. No facts suggested that those actions were non-judicial in nature, or that they were taken in the absence of all jurisdiction.

District Judge Eric Komitee
Eastern District

Calendar Control Part 1

Justice R. Bruce Cozzens
516-493-3172

CCP Part Rules

Cases appearing on the DCM and CCP Calendars in the Trial Assignment Part are ready for trial. Pursuant to 22 NYCRR §202.27, failure by counsel for a party plaintiff or a self-represented party defendant to appear will subject the case to an immediate injunction.

All cases appearing on the DCM Trial Calendar will be disposed pursuant to the time limits set forth in 22 NYCRR §202.19.

Attorney service may answer the Calendar and request an adjournment, within the 22 NYCRR §202.19 time frame, only on consent of all parties.

In all cases in which a party intends to present a motion in limine, that party shall so advise the Court prior to jury selection.

All stipulations of settlement recorded by the court on the report of settlement and entered into the clerk's computer record system are valid and enforceable pursuant to CPLR 2104.

The following calendars are subject to changes — including adjournments — which may occur prior to the court date. Please call the Court Clerk to verify.
