NEW YORK | DAMAGES

Court Awards $10,000 for Injuries Plaintiff Suffered After Fight

Plaintiff brought an action to recover damages for personal injuries arising from a fight that occurred outside of a nightclub on or about March 20, 2014. Plaintiffs alleged after attending an event at defendant’s venue, where alcohol was served, plaintiffs were attacked by another group of attendees on the sidewalk nearby. The court entered into a judgment in favor of plaintiffs in the amount of $10,000. The court determined plaintiff was injured and spent time in the hospital immediately after the incident at defendant business, but as no evidence in admissible form was proffered in support of plaintiff’s medical expenses, lost earnings the court declines to grant any damage awards for these categories.

Justice Phaedra F. Perry-Bond

Defendants Requested Materials Not Deemed ‘Core Discovery’

Defendant was charged by information with two counts of aggravated harassment in the second degree, and one count of harassment in the second degree. Defendant moved to challenge the validity of the certificate of compliance. The motion was denied. The court found that the items in CPL section 245.20(1)(a)-(v) were properly understood as what the court termed “core discovery”: the materials and information that are fundamental to a defendant’s investigation and assessment of a case and to a defendant’s preparation for trial. The court analyzed defendant’s extensive list of purportedly outstanding of discovery and held that defendant failed to demonstrate that these items related to the subject matter of the case in any tangible or meaningful way and were not core discovery under CPL section 245.20(1)(a)-(v).

People v. Stringer, CR-015703-258X (January 7)

U.S. - SDNY | GOVERNMENT

FTCA Suit Against USPS Dismissed as Time-Barred Despite Substitution of U.S. as Defendant

Plaintiff sued the USPS for an alleged violation of the Federal Tort Claims Act (FTCA) relating to injuries he claimed he suffered when he was hit by a USPS truck. The government argued USPS was not a proper party, the court lacked subject matter jurisdiction, and the case was time-barred. Plaintiff responded that he should be permitted to file an amended complaint naming the U.S. as defendant, which would cure the subject matter jurisdiction issue. Alternatively, plaintiff requested that the court substitute the U.S. as defendant. Although the court exercised its discretion to substitute the U.S. as the proper defendant, thereby curing the jurisdictional defect created by plaintiff’s improper naming of USPS, the court found the action to be time-barred and dismissed the complaint with prejudice. The court noted plaintiff filed the well beyond the FTCA’s six-month statute of limitations. The court rejected plaintiff’s claim that the complaint could relate back to an earlier timely action dismissed without prejudice for failure to prosecute, which was later denied reopening, and found no grounds for equitable tolling due to counsel’s neglect.

Banks v. U.S. Postal Serv., 25-CV-925 (December 30)

U.S. - EDNY | CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

New York’s ‘Rifle Bill’ Is Constitutional, Consistent with U.S. Firearm Regulation

Plaintiffs brought an action against state and local officials, raising challenges to NY Senate Bill 9458, (the Rifle Bill), which requires an individual to obtain a semiautomatic rifle license or receive an endorsement on an existing pistol license to purchase a semiautomatic rifle; mandates that semiautomatic rifle owners register their rifle on their license before taking possession; and allows licensing officers to consider an applicant’s “character, temperament and judgment” in determining whether to grant a license. Plaintiffs sought monetary and injunctive relief, contending that the Rifle Bill facially violates the Second Amendment, and that the Suffolk County defendants violated the Second Amendment in implementing the Rifle Bill. The court granted summary judgment to defendants, finding that the Rifle Bill is consistent with the historical tradition of firearm regulation in the U.S. and therefore does not violate the Second Amendment. The court also held that certain plaintiffs’ claims for damages were barred by subject matter jurisdiction as alleged violations of the state statute must be pursued under NY’s Article 78 proceedings in state court.

McGregor v. Suffolk County, 23-1130 (December 22)

BRONX | MOTOR VEHICLE TORTS

Court Follows First Department Decision Regarding Discovery of Alleged Fraud

Plaintiff brought an action based on a hit in the rear of a motor vehicle accident. There was an allegation of fraud on the part of the plaintiff as 2 witnesses testified that the plaintiff was not in the vehicle at the time of the accident. Defendant Uber moved for the production of any litigation financing information from plaintiff. The motion was granted. The court held the First. Dept. issued the Lituma decision finding that, where fraud is alleged, the discovery is material and relevant to a defense. It in effect demonstrated a financial motive for committing the fraud. Absence other precedent, the court followed the First. Dept.

Cruz v. Muaadh, 33149/2018E (January 7)

Uber Not Found Vicariously Liable For Accident Caused By Driver

Plaintiff, in an automobile accident case, argued that an Uber driver was an “employee” of Uber and therefore Uber can be vicariously responsible for the negligence of its drivers. The court disagreed finding that Uber drivers were only independent contractors. The court noted that there were two distinct methods of deciding whether a worker is an employee and New York utilizes the control test. Under that test there were no questions of fact the Uber driver in the case was an independent contractor. The mere fact Uber required certain licensing requirements to be met by its drivers did not mean the drivers were therefore employees of Uber.

U.S. - SDNY | TRADE SECRETS

Preliminary Injunction Granted Over Former Employee’s Alleged Breach of Confidentiality

Plaintiff company sought to enjoin defendants Mark Rudolph and Derrick Wolfe Trucking LLC from using or disclosing any of its or its customers’ confidential, proprietary, or trade-secret information; compel the immediate return and deletion of all such information and any derivative materials; and enforce Rudolph’s non-compete, non-solicitation, and confidentiality obligations for their full contractual periods. Plaintiff contended that it was likely to succeed on the merits of its claims against former employee Rudolph for breach of contract and under the Defend Trade Secrets Act and NY common law for misappropriation of trade secrets, and against both defendants under NY common law for tortious interference. The court held preliminary relief was warranted as to Rudolph’s alleged breach of the confidentiality provision in the parties’ employment agreement. However, the court determined that plaintiff failed to demonstrate a likelihood of success on its other claims since, among other things, it did not show that the non-compete as enforced against Rudolph would protect its legitimate interest in trade secrets.

Sweeteners Plus LLC v. Rudolph, 25-CV-6845 (December 23)

U.S. - EDNY | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Court Dismisses State Eviction Action, Citing Anti-Injunction Act, Lack of Jurisdiction

Plaintiff sought to stay a state court order of eviction, asserting he has succession rights in a Section 8 subsidized apartment that is owned by defendant. Plaintiff contended the NYC Housing Authority issued a “Succession Letter confirming his status as the legal successor to the tenancy.” He alleged that defendant’s “use of the State’s judicial machinery to seize a federal subsidy without a pre-termination hearing violates the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.” Plaintiff asked the court to intervene in a landlord-tenant proceeding in state court where it appears an order of eviction has already been entered, and an appellate judge has declined to intervene. The instant court denied plaintiff’s request for a TRO, explaining that the Anti-Injunction Act prohibits federal courts from interfering in ongoing state court proceedings. The court also held it lacked subject matter jurisdiction, as federal courts do not have jurisdiction over state landlord-tenant disputes even when constitutional claims are alleged. The court dismissed the complaint under 28 U.S.C. §1915(e)(2)(B) and FRCP 12(h)(3), noting that any appeal would not be taken in good faith.

BRONX | LANDLORD TENANT LAW

Apartment Found to Be Rent Stabilized, Stipulation Vacated

Petitioner commenced a summary holdover proceeding seeking to recover possession of an apartment based on his claim that the rental agreement between the parties expired and that respondent Ena May Haliman remained in occupancy as a month-to-month tenant. In addition, the petition alleged that the premises are not subject to rent control or the Rent Stabilization Law because they are located in a building containing less than six (6) dwelling units and respondent took occupancy after that point. Respondent moved to vacate and stipulation and a summary judgment that her apartment was rent-stabilized. The motion was granted. The court took judicial notice of open, twenty-year-old Department of Buildings violation records to conclusively establish the rent-stabilized status of the apartment and rebut petitioner’s alternative explanation as to the presence of six mailboxes at the building.

SUFFOLK | ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Testimony from Minors Allegedly Abused Denied Being Admitted into Evidence

Defendant was accused of grooming and molesting at least 40 children throughout the tenure of his career. While publicly accused of the abuse of so many minors, defendant Bernagozzi only faced felony charges under the present indictments as a result of his alleged abuse of three minors—the only matters that fell within the statute of limitations to bring a criminal action. That said, the prosecution filed a written motion for permission to introduce evidence of the uncharged crimes from the 37 other minors whose cases fell outside the statute of limitations for purpose of establishing. The Manhattan District Attorney’s Office also sought to introduce prior bad acts and uncharged crimes through the testimony of the complainants in the indictments. The court granted additional testimony from the subject-matter complainants but denying any and all testimony from the remaining minors whose allegations were not contained in the indictments.

U.S. - SDNY | CIVIL PROCEDURE

Defendant in IP Action Fails to Show That Court Order Qualifies for Interlocutory Appeal

Plaintiff Morgan Art Foundation Limited brought an action over the legal rights to the intellectual property and artistic legacy of the artist Robert Indiana. Specifically, plaintiff asserted claims against defendant for copyright and trademark infringement, tortious interference with contract, violation of the Visual Artists Rights Act of 1990, unfair competition, and defamation. Defendant repeatedly failed to produce key evidence, misrepresented the existence of documents, and ignored court warnings. The court ordered sanctions including striking defendant’s counterclaims, entering default judgment on plaintiff’s tortious interference claim, precluding defendant from using withheld evidence, and awarding plaintiff fees. Defendant sought certification of the court’s sanctions order for interlocutory appeal. The court now denied defendant’s motion, determining that defendant failed to demonstrate that the order qualified for interlocutory appeal under either the collateral order doctrine or 28 U.S.C. §1292(b). The court noted that allowing an interlocutory appeal would invite piecemeal litigation and further delay a case that has already been pending for years.

Suffolk County SUPREME COURT

Please take notice that papers commencing an action or special proceedings in the Supreme or County Courts pursuant to the newly amended provisions of CPLR 304 and 306-b are to be filed with the County Clerk and not the clerks at the courthouse. In Suffolk County, the "clerk of the court" is the Suffolk County Clerk for the purposes of CPLR 304 and 306-b (see, County Sec.525 subd. 1). The clerks at the courthouses cannot accept papers filed for the purposes of commencing an action or special proceeding. Papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouses will not be transferred to the County Clerk for filing and will, instead, be returned to the litigant. Be advised, papers improperly filed with the clerks at the courthouse may not be deemed a "filing" which tolls the running of the applicable statute of limitations. Please take notice that no Request for Judicial Intervention or its copies will be accepted by this court unless stamped on its face is the County Clerk's certification that the fee for its filing has been paid. This office will not transmit fees for Requests for Judicial Intervention or Index Numbers to the County Clerk. In instances where a fee for a Note of Issue is required present practices will continue. The County Clerk requests that where practicable the Request for Judicial Intervention and fee not be accompanied by papers for submission to the court. Please include a stamped self-addressed envelope in order to expedite the return of your receipted RJL. The Bar is requested to file stipulations of discontinuance in cases which have been assigned under the Individual Assignment System with this office in the first instance. After processing, this office will file the discontinuance with the County Clerk.
